

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

IT IS IMPORTANT THAT YOU READ ALL INSTRUCTIONS TO AVOID DELAYS!

A. GENERAL INFORMATION

1. You must submit this Registration and your $50 registration fee to:

California Attorney General's Office
Consumer Law Section
Attn: Telemarketing Unit
300 S. Spring St., Suite 1702
Los Angeles, CA 90013
2. Code section references in these instructions and the Registration Form are to the California Business and Professions Code.
3. Registration Forms are good for one year from the date of registration. If, however, prior to expiration of your annual registration there is a material change in the information you have supplied, you shall, within 10 days, file an addendum updating the information with the Consumer Law Section of the California Attorney General's Office. This addendum can be in letter form and must detail all material changes. However, changes in salespersons soliciting on your behalf shall be updated by addenda filed in quarterly intervals computed from the effective date of registration. The quarterly updates should include information for all salespeople whether or not they were employees or were independent contractors for your company during the period since your last report. Include all salespeople whether or not they are still employed at the time of filing. (§ 17511.3(c).) Individual salespeople do not have to file a Registration Form; the form you file covers all of your salespeople.
4. You must submit a complete and accurate Registration Form, which complies with California law not less than ten (10) days prior to doing business in California. (§ 17511.3(a).)
5. After receiving your Registration Form and filing fee, the Attorney General's Office will within 20 days either register you, request additional information or deny your registration. If you have not received anything from the Attorney General's Office within 20 days, it is your responsibility to check with our office to see why you have not received it. If your registration is accepted and you have more than one business location, the certificate of registration will be sent to the mailing address identified in your filing in sufficient number so that you have one for each business location.

WITHIN 10 DAYS OF RECEIPT, YOU MUST POST IN A CONSPICUOUS PLACE AT EACH OF YOUR BUSINESS LOCATIONS THE CERTIFICATE OF FILING.

You must keep a copy of your entire registration form which you filed with our office at each location from which you do business. The seller shall also post in close proximity to the certificate of filing the name of the individual(s) in charge of each location from which you do business in this state. (§ 17511.3 (d).)

6. You cannot make or authorize the making of any references to your compliance with this law to any prospective or actual purchaser. (§ 17511.7.)

7. Your failure to file the Registration Form and filing fee more than 10 days prior to beginning business, or otherwise violating any provision of the Telephonic Seller Law, or if you directly or indirectly employ any device, scheme, or artifice to deceive in connection with the offer or sale by you, or if you willfully, directly, or indirectly, engage in any act, practice, or course of business which operates or would operate as a fraud or deceit upon any person in connection with a sale made by you, can, upon conviction, be punished as follows:
- (a) By a fine not exceeding ten thousand dollars ($10,000) for each unlawful transaction.
 - (b) By imprisonment in the state prison, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year.
 - (c) By both the fine and imprisonment specified in subdivisions (a) and (b). (§ 17511.9.)
8. Some coin dealers may be exempt from filing some of the information required in this registration form. If you qualify under Business and Professions Code section 17511.1(d)(19), you can request the Coin Dealers Exemption Form from the Attorney General's Office.

Anytime reference is made to the sale of metals, it includes the sale of coins. (§ 17511.1(a)(6).)

B. DIRECTIONS

"I" "my" "we" "us" or "our" in the Registration Form means "you, the telephonic seller," and where appropriate, includes your salespeople and representatives. This applies to you regardless of whether you are a corporation, partnership, sole proprietorship or operating under a fictitious name.

When one or more boxes ("[]") appear in a question, mark ("x") all the boxes which apply to your situation.

If you need more space to answer a question than is provided on the form, attach another sheet of paper and title it with the question number which is being answered. Use a different sheet of paper to complete each question.
