

Crime in 2006

JANUARY THROUGH DECEMBER

This report compares preliminary crime counts for January through December 2006 with final counts for the same period in 2005 for California law enforcement jurisdictions serving populations of 100,000 or more. The 82 jurisdictions that met this criterion in 2005 and 2006 account for approximately 65 percent of the crimes reported in the state annually.

Law enforcement jurisdictions are grouped into three categories:

- Police departments – provide law enforcement services to cities.
- Sheriff's departments – provide law enforcement services to unincorporated areas¹ within counties.
- Contract cities – cities that contract for law enforcement services, usually with a sheriff's department, rather than maintain their own police force.

The 2006 crime data used in this report are preliminary and are subject to change. Crime rates are not used in this report, but are included in the annual Crime in California publication.

Violent Crimes

UP 1.4%

The VIOLENT CRIME category includes the offenses of homicide, forcible rape, robbery, and aggravated assault.

- From January through December 2006, the number of reported violent crimes increased 1.4 percent when compared to the same period in 2005. The increase in this category can be attributed to an increase in robbery offenses. Homicide, forcible rape, and aggravated assault offenses decreased during this period.

Property Crimes

DOWN 2.8%

The PROPERTY CRIME category includes the offenses of burglary, motor vehicle theft, and larceny-theft over $400.

- From January through December 2006, the number of reported property crimes decreased 2.8 percent when compared to the same period in 2005. All three property crime offenses decreased during this period (burglary, motor vehicle theft, and larceny-theft over $400).

Notes: A dash indicates one or more of the following: 1) data are not available; 2) percent change was not calculated because of incomplete data; 3) percent change was not calculated because base number is less than 50.

This report includes data submitted to the Criminal Justice Statistics Center as of February 23, 2007.

Crime counts reflect the number of offenses reported (unfounded crime counts are not included).

Sheriff's department crime counts do not include contract cities that report under their own agency identification number.

The California Highway Patrol reports motor vehicle theft for some sheriff's departments; therefore, sheriff's department counts for this category may not reflect all reported motor vehicle thefts in their jurisdiction.

¹In response to Government Code 11093, crime statistics for the San Fernando Valley area falling under the jurisdiction of the Los Angeles Police Department are available upon request.

²The Vallejo Police Department was unable to provide crime data for the full twelve-month reporting period in 2005 due to problems with their records management system. Therefore, to maintain comparability of the 2005 data with the 2006 data, available counts for this agency are shown, but not included in the subtotals or total jurisdictional counts.
