California Licensed Firearms Dealer Requirements

Thank you for your interest in becoming a California licensed firearms dealer. The purpose of this notice is to provide you with important information about the statutory requirements for becoming a California licensed firearms dealer, and certain requirements for doing business in California as a licensed firearms dealer.

All California licensed firearms dealers are required to have all of the following:

- A valid federal firearms license.
- Any regulatory or business license, or licenses, required by local government.
- A valid Seller's Permit issued by the State Board of Equalization.
- A Certificate of Eligibility (COE) issued by the Department of Justice (DOJ).
- A license granted by the duly constituted licensing authority of any city, county or city and county.
- A valid listing on the DOJ Centralized List of Firearms Dealers.

In addition to the licensing requirements listed above, the following requirements regarding the sale and transfer of firearms also apply to all California licensed firearms dealers:

Personal Computer and Internet Access Requirements

The Dealer Record of Sale (DROS) information that is submitted by licensed firearms dealers to DOJ to approve or deny the sale or transfer of firearms, must be submitted electronically via the Internet from the dealer's personal computer directly to DOJ. Therefore, all licensed firearms dealers must have a computer with Internet access. A printer, and magnetic card swipe reader are also required to complete the DROS transaction process. You may obtain MagTek brand Magnetic Card Swipe readers [part number 21080201 (wedge) or 20140107 (USB)] by calling the manufacturer directly at 1-310-667-6410 or toll free at 1-800-421-5208. You must inform the manufacturer that you intend to use the device with the California DOJ DROS Entry System. MagTek Magnetic Card Swipe readers are also available from retail outlets. To contact a retail dealer call Gemini Computers at 1-888-943-6464. You must inform the dealer that you intend to use the device with the California DOJ DROS Entry System and need to purchase one of the MagTek Magnetic Card Swipe readers as noted above.

DOJ Certified Instructor Requirements

DOJ Certified Instructors have an important role in the sales and delivery of handguns in California. Their primary roles and responsibilities are described below under the Handgun Safety Certificate and Safe Handling Demonstration requirements. In order to become a DOJ Certified Instructor, applicants must submit a completed Certified Instructor Application (BOF 037), a $14.00 non-refundable fee for a firearms eligibility background check (valid COE holders are exempt from the fee) and certification to provide firearms safety training from one of the following organizations:

1. Department of Consumer Affairs, State of California - Firearm Training Instructor.
2. Director of Civilian Marksmanship, Instructor or Rangemaster.
3. Federal Government, Certified Rangemaster or Firearm Instructor.
4. Federal Law Enforcement Training Center, Firearm Instructor Training Program or Rangemaster.
5. United States Military, Military Occupational Specialty (MOS) as Marksmanship or Firearms Instructor.
Assignments as Range Officer or Safety Officer are not sufficient.
6. National Rifle Association - Certified Instructor, Law Enforcement Instructor, Rangemaster or Training Counselor.
7. Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training (POST), State of California - Firearm Instructor or Rangemaster.
8. Authorization from a State of California accredited school to teach a firearms training course.
9. Any entity determined by the DOJ to provide comparable instruction firearms safety to those organizations listed above. Please see <http://oag.ca.gov/firearms> for a current listing of comparable entities.

Handgun Safety Certificate Requirements

Unless exempted, in order to purchase a handgun in California, the recipient must present to the firearms dealer a valid Handgun Safety Certificate (HSC). To obtain an HSC, an individual must pass a written test on handgun safety, which is given by DOJ Certified Instructors, generally located at firearms dealerships. If, as the licensee of a licensed firearms dealership, you also become a DOJ Certified Instructor, you may delegate the responsibility of proctoring the written test to any of your employees. If you elect not to become a DOJ Certified Instructor, only a DOJ Certified Instructor (either an employee or independent contractor) may proctor the written test.

Safe Handling Demonstration Requirements

With limited exceptions, prior to taking delivery of a handgun, the recipient must perform a safe handling demonstration on the handgun, or the same make and model of handgun, as the handgun being transferred. This required demonstration must be performed in the presence of a DOJ Certified Instructor, and the firearms dealer must prepare and sign an affidavit certifying the demonstration was completed. There is no delegation of authority for overseeing the safe handling demonstration. Only a DOJ Certified Instructor is authorized to oversee the safe handling demonstration. Therefore, in order to conduct handgun transactions, firearms dealers must either: 1) become a DOJ Certified Instructor; 2) employ a DOJ Certified Instructor in your dealership; or 3) contract with an independent contractor DOJ Certified Instructor whom you can use as needed to complete the handgun transfer requirements.

Please be advised California licensed firearms dealers are required to adhere to the laws regarding the control of deadly weapons, commencing with Penal Code section 16000 and the California Code of Regulations, commencing with title 11, section 4001.

This information is provided to inform prospective firearms dealers of some of the important requirements and responsibilities of California licensed firearms dealers.
