SECTION 4. NATIVE AMERICAN SOVEREIGNTY: Native America tribes shall have sovereignty on tribal lands based of the principal of encompassed sovereignty.

- 4.1 The phrase, "One persons freedom ends where another persons freedom begins" shall be the basis of the principal of encompassed sovereignty. Native America tribes shall have complete sovereignty on tribal lands except in cases in which an exercise of their sovereignty or freedoms endangers the lives or property of other citizens of the state of California and the United States of America or encroaches upon the freedoms of other Americans.
  - 4.1.1 All elements of compacts that require Native Americans to pay a percent of their earnings to the state of California shall be null and void because they violate the principle of encompassed sovereignty as well as the spirit of the federal law authorizing the state to make compacts with the tribes which clearly state that it does not provide for authorizing states to tax Indian gaming.
  - 4.1.2 All weddings and divorce proceedings that involve tribal assets and material tribal assets on tribal lands shall only be adjudicated by tribal authorities.
  - 4.1.3 Tribal sovereignty shall not extend to the airspace above tribal lands.
  - 4.1.4 Tribal sovereignty shall not extend greater than one hundred feet below tribal lands.

4.1.5 Tribal sovereignty over earth below tribal lands at depths less than one hundred feet may be limited if it can be shown to be in public interest of the tribe or the citizens of the state of California.
