

CRIME in 2002

January through December

This report compares preliminary crime counts for January through December 2002 with final counts for the same period in 2001 for California law enforcement jurisdictions serving populations of 100,000 or more. The 78 jurisdictions which met this criterion in 2001 and 2002 account for approximately 65 percent of all crimes reported in the state.

Law enforcement jurisdictions are grouped into three categories:

- Police departments (provide law enforcement services to cities).
- Sheriff's departments (provide law enforcement services to unincorporated areas<sup>1</sup> within counties).
- Contract cities (cities that contract for law enforcement services, usually with a sheriff's department, rather than maintain their own police force).

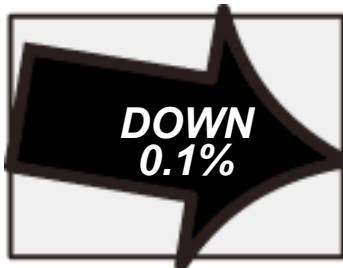

The 2002 crime data used in this report are preliminary and are subject to change. It should also be noted that crime rates are not used in this report but are included in the annual Crime in California publication.

Facts at a Glance

CALIFORNIA CRIME INDEX (CCI) offenses include homicide, forcible rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, and motor vehicle theft.

From 2001 to 2002, the number of reported CCI offenses increased 3.8 percent.

The VIOLENT CRIME category includes the offenses of homicide, forcible rape, robbery, and aggravated assault.

From 2001 to 2002, the number of violent crimes decreased 0.1 percent. The decrease in this category can be attributed to a decrease in reported aggravated assaults from 2001 to 2002.

The PROPERTY CRIME category includes the offenses of burglary and motor vehicle theft.

From 2001 to 2002, the number of property crimes increased 6.0 percent, mostly influenced by an increase in the number of reported motor vehicle thefts from 2001 to 2002.

Notes: A dash indicates one or more of the following: 1) data are not available or 2) percent changes are not calculated because of incomplete data or because a base number is less than 50.

This report includes data submitted to the Criminal Justice Statistics Center by the cutoff date of February 18, 2003.

Crime counts reflect the number of actual offenses reported (unfounded crime counts are not included).

Sheriff department crime counts do not include contract cities that report under their own National Crime Information Center (NCIC) number.

The California Highway Patrol reports motor vehicle theft for some sheriff's departments; therefore, sheriff department counts for this category may not reflect all reported motor vehicle thefts in their jurisdiction.

<sup>2</sup> The San Francisco Police Department did not report data for September through December 2001 due to staffing problems. (However, they were able to provide complete 2001 homicide data.) Because these 2001 data are incomplete they should not be compared to 2002 data.

<sup>3</sup> The Orange County Sheriff's Department has identified an underreporting problem for the years 2000-2002; therefore, caution should be exercised when using these data.
