Please print or type the required information. Illegible or incomplete information, or the lack of required documentation, may delay the processing of this application and may result in denial of your application. Mail this completed application, together with all necessary supporting documentation to:

California Department of Justice
ATTN: California Sex Offender Registry
P.O. Box 903387
Sacramento, CA 94203-3870

FULL NAME	Last	First	Middle	Suffix
DATE OF BIRTH	DRIVER'S LICENSE/I.D. NUMBER		SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBER
ADDRESS Number and Street (P.O. Boxes will not be accepted)
CITY	STATE	ZIP CODE	PHONE NUMBER (Include Area Code)

IMPORTANT: If you were adjudicated a sexually violent predator pursuant to Welfare and Institutions Code § 6600, et seq., you cannot apply for exclusion from the Megan's Law Internet site. If your most recent Static – 99R score is higher than 3, you are not eligible for exclusion.

Basis for exclusion (Please check one that applies):

- Felony conviction of PC § 243.4(a) (no documents required).
- Misdemeanor conviction of PC § 647.6 – formerly PC § 647a (no documents required).
- Conviction of a registrable offense (PC § 290–290.006) with proof of successful completion of probation or that you are currently on probation. Submit to the Department of Justice (DOJ) a certified copy of a probation report, pre-sentence report, report prepared pursuant to PC § 288.1, or court documentation that demonstrates both the following: 1) You were the victim's parent, stepparent, sibling, or grandparent; and 2) The crime did not involve either oral copulation or any type of penetration.
- Felony conviction of PC § 311.1, 311.2 subd. (b), (c), or (d), or 311.3, 311.4, 311.10, or 311.11. Submit a certified copy of a probation report filed in court that clearly states that all victims involved in the commission of the offense were at least 16 years of age or older at the time of the commission of the offense.

NOTE: Pursuant to PC § 290.46(e)(3), if the department determines that a person who was granted exclusion under a former version of PC § 290.46(e) would not qualify for exclusion under an updated version of this subdivision, the department is mandated by law to rescind the exclusion, make a reasonable effort to provide notification to the person that the exclusion has been rescinded, and no sooner than 30 days after notification is attempted, make information about the offender available to the public on the Internet Web site.

Based upon a review of your criminal history record and submitted supporting documentation, the DOJ will determine whether you meet the requirements for exclusion from disclosure on the Megan's Law Internet site. Please ensure that only copies of your documentation are sent and not the originals. Documentation submitted to the DOJ will not be returned to the applicant.

Pursuant to PC § 290.46(e), I hereby apply to be excluded from disclosure on the Megan's Law Internet site. I certify under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct. I understand that I am still required to register, which is a lifetime requirement, and comply with all of the provisions set forth in PC §§ 290–290.024, as well as all other applicable laws.

REGISTERED SEX OFFENDER ELIGIBILITY FOR EXCLUSION FROM INTERNET SITE

You may apply for exclusion from the Megan's Law Internet site if the following conditions apply:

1. You were convicted of one or more of the following offenses:
 - A felony conviction of PC § 243.4, subdivision (a) – Sexual Battery.
(No documents required)
 - A misdemeanor conviction of PC § 647.6 (formerly section 647a) – Annoy or molest a child.
(No documents required)
 - Conviction of a registrable offense (PC §§ 290–290.006) with proof of successful completion of probation or that you are currently on probation. Submit to the DOJ a certified copy of a probation report, pre-sentencing report, report prepared pursuant to PC § 288.1, or court documentation that demonstrates both the following:
 - 1) You were the victim's parent, stepparent, sibling, or grandparent; and
 - 2) The crime did not involve either oral copulation or penetration of the vagina or rectum of either the victim or the offender by the penis of the other or by any foreign object.
 - A felony conviction of PC § 311.1, 311.2 subd. (b), (c), or (d), or 311.3, 311.4, 311.10, or 311.11. Submit a certified copy of a probation report filed in court that clearly states that all victims involved in the commission of the offense were at least 16 years of age or older at the time of the commission of the offense.
2. During the period of probation, you did not receive additional incarceration time for a violation or probation, nor were you convicted of another offense resulting in a sentence to county jail or state prison.

If, subsequent to your application, you commit a violation of probation resulting in incarceration in county jail or state prison, you will be reposted on the public Megan's Law Internet site.

ACCEPTABLE DOCUMENTATION

In certain cases, in order for the DOJ to evaluate your application, you must also submit supporting documentation.

IMPORTANT: Please ensure that only copies of your documentation are sent and not the originals. Documentation submitted to the DOJ will not be returned to the applicant.

Sources where this information can be obtained and the types of documents that the DOJ will accept include:

- Probation Department – Probation officer report, pre-sentencing report, or letter from your supervising probation department.
- Court – Court report prepared pursuant to PC § 288.1 or other official court documentation.

If you are obtaining a letter from one of the above sources, it must be written on departmental letterhead and signed by an appropriate official.
