Article 2. Definitions of Terms Used to Identify Assault Weapons

978.20 Definitions

The following definitions apply to terms used in the identification of assault weapons pursuant to Penal Code section 12276.1:

- (a) “detachable magazine” means any magazine that can be readily removed without the use of tools.
- (b) “flash suppressor” means any device that reduces or conceals the visible light or flash created when a firearm is fired. This definition includes flash hiders, but does not include compensators and muzzle brakes (devices attached to or integral with the muzzle barrel to utilize propelling gasses for counter-recoil).
- (c) “forward pistol grip” means any protrusion in front of the trigger that is designed or intended to grasp and control the firearm.
- (d) “permanently altered” means any irreversible change or modification.
- (e) “pistol grip that protrudes conspicuously beneath the action of the weapon” means any component that allows for the grasp, control, and fire of the firearm where the portion grasped is located beneath an imaginary line drawn parallel to the barrel that runs through the top of the exposed trigger.
- (f) “thumbhole stock” means any stock with any opening that enables the firearm to be grasped, controlled, and fired with one hand.

978.32 Processing Times

- (a) The time standards for processing assault weapon registration applications are as follows:
  - (1) Within 30 days after the date of receipt of an application, the Department shall either inform the applicant, in writing, that the application is complete and accepted for processing, or return the application as deficient and specify what information is required.
  - (2) Within 75 days after the date of receipt of a completed application, the Department shall complete the processing of the application.

- (b) If the Department fails to meet its time standards for processing an assault weapon registration application, the applicant, within 30 days from the date of the notice of the final decision granting or denying the registration, may apply in writing for a full reimbursement of any and all registration fees. The Department shall respond within 10 days of receipt of a request for reimbursement. If the reimbursement request is denied, the applicant may appeal the denial, in writing, directly to the Attorney General. The appeal must be filed within 30 days of the date the applicant was notified of the reimbursement denial and shall set forth a concise statement of facts and chronology of events regarding the application. Following any investigation of the matter which the Attorney General deems appropriate, and within 30 days from the date of receipt of the appeal, a decision shall be issued. The appeal shall be decided in the applicant's favor if the Department exceeds the maximum time period for the processing of the application and the Department has failed to establish good cause for exceeding this time period. Information regarding this appeal process shall be included with all assault weapon registration application forms.

978.42 Term Length of Large Capacity Magazine Permits

- (a) The term of a large capacity magazine permit shall be from January 1 through December 31. It is the responsibility of the permittee to submit a completed renewal application prior to December 31 of each year in order to maintain uninterrupted status as a large capacity magazine permittee. Renewal applications shall be submitted on the form (FD 050) prescribed in section 978.40 (b) of these regulations.
- (b) If at any time a permittee is not among the licensed firearms dealers on the Department of Justice Centralized List of Firearms Dealers, the large capacity magazine permit is no longer valid and shall be canceled.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 12079, Penal Code, Reference: Sections 12020 and 12079, Penal Code.

978.43 Large Capacity Magazine Permit Record Keeping

Permittees shall maintain acquisition and disposition transaction records of the importation and exportation of large capacity magazines. Records shall include transaction date, transaction volume; and the name, address, and Federal Firearms License number (if any) of the out of state transferee or transferor. Records must be maintained at the dealership for three years and be made available to representatives of the Department of Justice or any other law enforcement agency upon request.

NOTE: Authority cited: 12079, Penal Code. Reference: Section 12079, Penal Code.

978.44 Large Capacity Magazine Permit Revocations

(a) Large capacity magazine permits shall be subject to revocation for failure to comply with record keeping requirements specified in section 978.43 of these regulations or for failure to comply with The Dangerous Weapons' Control Law commencing with Penal Code section 12000 relative to large capacity magazines.

(b) All procedures and hearings related to the revocation of a large capacity magazine permit shall be conducted in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.
