INSTRUCTIONS TO GAME/GAMING ACTIVITY APPLICANTS

AUTHORITY

The Gambling Control Act (ACT), Business and Professions Code section 19826, subdivision (g), authorizes the Bureau of Gambling Control to approve the play of any controlled game, including placing restrictions and limitations on how a controlled game may be played.

PURPOSE

To protect the public safety by ensuring that gambling is conducted honestly, competitively, and free from corruptive and criminal elements.

WHO SHOULD APPLY

Anyone offering a new game or gaming activity in a gambling establishment or introducing a new game or gaming activity to California.

COMPLETION OF FORM

All questions on the attached application must be answered. If a question is not applicable, please indicate with "N/A." If additional space is needed, use a separate sheet of paper and note the corresponding number of the question being answered.

APPLICATION FEE AND DEPOSIT

A non-refundable application fee of $500 and a deposit of $550 must accompany the Application for Game Review or the Application for Gaming Activity Review. Please make your check payable to Bureau of Gambling Control and send the entire package to the following address:
