INFORMATION: The Pasadena Police Department and Los Angeles Sheriff's Department are requesting assistance in identifying a suspect who has sexually assaulted three adult females during the period June - September 2002.

MODUS OPERANDI SUMMARY: The suspect uses the women's bathroom in business office complexes to target lone women for rape.

In each of the three assaults, the suspect has hid in the women's bathroom at the businesses where the victims have worked. After the victims have used the bathroom, the suspect uses surprise, a knife, and physical force to gain compliance from the victims. During the attacks, the suspect and the victims were the only occupants of the bathroom. The suspect has attempted to force the victims into a handicap stall. In the last two cases, the victims fought off the suspect by causing trauma to the suspect's groin. The suspect has become progressively more violent with each attack.
