Meeting Agenda and Materials

The meeting agenda is available on the California Department of Justice's \(DOJ\) website. Supplemental meeting materials are available for public viewing and can be requested in an alternate format through the DRAC Liaison listed below. All times indicated and the order of business are approximate and subject to change. DRAC's meeting will be conducted in accordance with the Bagley-Keene Open Meeting Act, as specified in California Government Code sections 11120-11132. ASL interpreting and closed captioning will be provided. DOJ is not responsible for unforeseen technical difficulties and not obligated to postpone the meeting. Contact the DRAC Liaison listed below should additional accommodation be needed to participate in this meeting.

* Public Comment

Public comment on topics not on the agenda will be taken at the beginning of the meeting. DRAC will take public comment relating to a specific agenda topic and/or project at the end of the applicable item. Each member of the public is allotted up to three minutes to make their comment and may not transfer their time to another speaker. Non-English speakers using translators will have a maximum of five minutes for their comment, unless they use simultaneous translation equipment, in which case, the three-minute limit applies. Written comment may also be emailed to the DRAC Liaison listed below.
