NOTICE OF DATA BREACH

We are writing to inform you of a recent data security incident involving an online life insurance quoting platform of American Family Life Insurance Company (AFLIC). You may have been affected by an unauthorized attempt to obtain your personal data through this quoting platform.

This letter will provide you with information about the incident and a no-cost service that AFLIC is making available to you to help monitor potential misuse of your personal data.

What Happened

We believe unauthorized parties may have used an automated bot process to enter certain personal information (such as your name and address) from unknown sources into the AFLIC online quoting platform. By doing so, they may have accessed your driver's license number as part of the platform's pre-fill function.

We are notifying you because you may have been affected by this incident. If you did not request an online insurance quote using the AFLIC quoting platform between December 5, 2021 and December 11, 2021, the unauthorized parties may have requested a quote in your name and may have obtained your driver's license number. If, however, you did request an online quote from the American Family Life Insurance quoting platform between December 5, 2021 and December 11, 2021, you are not impacted by this incident.

What Information Was Involved

To the extent you were affected by this incident, unauthorized parties may have obtained your driver's license number.

We have reason to believe this data could be used to fraudulently apply for unemployment benefits in your name. Please carefully review any written communications you receive from your state's unemployment agency, especially if you have not applied for unemployment benefits. If you suspect that your data has been used to fraudulently apply for unemployment benefits, you should contact the relevant state unemployment agency immediately.

What We Are Doing

We identified the unauthorized activity and immediately took action to address it. We blocked the activity and worked to notify potentially affected consumers. If you did not previously have a relationship with AFLIC, we will delete your information once our investigation is complete and we have met our legal and regulatory obligations.

We take our responsibility to safeguard personal information seriously and we have enhanced our security controls to help prevent this type of incident from reoccurring.

- You have the right to dispute inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information;
- You have the right to have outdated negative information removed from your credit file;
- You have the right to limit access to your credit file;
- You have the right to limit "prescreened" offers of credit and insurance you get based on information in your credit report;
- You have the right to seek damages from violators; and
- You have the right to place a "security freeze" on your credit report.

Credit Freezes:

You have a right to place a freeze on your credit report, which will prohibit a consumer reporting agency from releasing information in your credit report without your express authorization. There is no fee for a credit freeze. The freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in your name without your consent. However, you should be aware that using a credit freeze to control who gets access to the personal and financial information in your credit report may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application you make regarding a new loan, credit, mortgage, or any other account involving the extension of credit.

A credit freeze does not apply to a person or entity, or its affiliates, or collection agencies acting on behalf of the person or entity, with which you have an existing account that requests information in your credit report for the purposes of reviewing or collecting the account. Reviewing the account includes activities related to account maintenance, monitoring, credit line increases, and account upgrades and enhancements.

You must separately place a credit freeze on your credit file at each credit reporting agency. Please contact the three major credit reporting companies as specified below to find out more information about placing a freeze on your credit report. If you request a credit freeze online or by phone, the credit reporting agencies have one (1) business day after receiving your request to place the freeze on your credit file report. If you request a lift of the credit freeze online or by phone, then the credit reporting agency must lift the freeze within one (1) hour. If you request a credit freeze or lift of a credit freeze by mail, then the credit agency must place or lift the credit freeze no later than three (3) business days after receiving your request.

To request a credit freeze, you will need to provide the following information:

1. Your full name (including middle initial, as well as Jr., Sr., II, III, etc.)
2. Social Security Number
3. Date of birth
4. If you have moved in the past five years, provide the addresses where you have lived over the prior five years
5. Proof of current address such as currently utility bill or telephone bill
6. Other personal information as required by the applicable credit reporting agency

Fraud Alerts:

As an alternative to a credit freeze, you have the right to place an initial or extended fraud alert on your credit file at no cost. An initial fraud alert is a one (1) year alert that is placed on a consumer's credit file. Upon seeing a fraud alert display on a consumer's credit file, a business is required to take steps to verify the consumer's identity before extending new credit. If you are a victim of identity theft, you are entitled to an extended fraud alert, which is a fraud alert lasting seven (7) years. You can place a fraud alert on your credit report by contacting any of the three national credit reporting agencies at the addresses or toll-free numbers listed at the bottom of this page.
