WHAT YOU CAN DO

Here are a few ways you can proactively protect your account:

- Review your monthly account statements. We suggest checking your statements regularly and vigilantly over the next 24 months.
- If you haven't done so already, consider setting up online access at go.amex/savingsenroll to review your account activity between statement delivery cycles.
- Once you have online access, log in to your account online at americanexpress.com and set up an email alert for any balance change activity under the Account Services tab.
- Make sure your personal information is updated on your account with your current email address and phone number so we can contact you as needed.
- Visit our Security Center at americanexpress.com/us/security-center for more information on how we work to protect your account and what you can do to safeguard your personal information.
- Take action to protect yourself against identity theft and safeguard your electronic devices from viruses and other malicious software.

Learn more about how you can protect yourself from identity theft or file a report by visiting consumer.gov/idtheft or calling 1-877-IDTHEFT (438-4338). You can also contact the FTC by mail at: Identity Theft Clearinghouse, Federal Trade Commission, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W., Washington DC 20580.

Learn how to avoid, detect, and remove viruses and other malicious software from your electronic devices by visiting consumer.ftc.gov/articles/0011-malware.

- Contact the three major credit bureaus (Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion) for information about protecting your credit, preventing identity theft, setting up fraud alerts, and activating security freezes. We encourage you to periodically obtain and review your credit report from each major credit bureau. If you identify information relating to fraudulent transactions on your credit report, immediately contact the relevant credit bureau to have the information deleted. Contact information for the credit bureaus is available in the Additional Helpful Tips sheet included with this letter.
- We recommend that you regularly review and monitor your American Express HYSA and other bank account(s) for suspicious activity. If you detect or suspect fraudulent activity on your American Express HYSA, contact us as soon as possible to report any suspicious activity or suspected identity theft. If you suspect fraudulent activity on your other bank account(s), contact your bank as soon as possible. We also recommend that you file a police report if you notice suspicious activity.

FOR MORE INFORMATION

We're here for you. Feel free to give us a call at any time at 800-446-6307. Our Customer Care Professionals are ready to assist you 24/7.

We're committed to protecting the security of your account, and we're sorry for any inconvenience this incident may have caused. Thanks, as always, for your trust and continued membership with us.

Sincerely,

American Express National Bank

Additional Helpful Tips

Here are a few additional tips to protect your American Express HYSA and personal information:

- For more information about protecting your credit, you can contact the three major credit bureaus (Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion) for information about protecting your credit, preventing identity theft, setting up fraud alerts<sup>1</sup>, and activating security freezes<sup>2</sup>. We encourage you to periodically obtain and review your credit report from each major credit bureau. If you identify information relating to fraudulent transactions on your credit report, immediately contact the relevant credit bureau to have the information deleted.

<sup>1</sup>A fraud alert indicates to any business requesting your credit file that you suspect you are a victim of fraud and requires the business to verify your identity before issuing you credit. A fraud alert does not affect your ability to get a loan or credit, but it may cause some delay if you are applying for credit.

<sup>2</sup>You have the right to place a security freeze on your credit file free of charge. A security freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in your name without your consent. However, using a security freeze may delay your ability to obtain credit. To place a security freeze, you must contact each of the three credit bureaus listed above and provide the following information: (1) your full name; (2) Social Security Number; (3) date of birth; (4) the addresses where you have lived over the past 2 years; (5) proof of current address, such as a utility bill or telephone bill; (6) a copy of a government issued identification card; and (7) if you are the victim of identity theft, include the police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency. If the request to place a security freeze is made by toll-free telephone or secure electronic means, the credit bureaus have one business day after receiving your request to place the security freeze on your credit report. If the request is made by mail, the credit bureaus have three business days to place the security freeze on your credit report after receiving your request. The credit bureaus must send confirmation to you within five business days and provide you with information concerning the process by which you may remove or lift the security freeze. There is no fee to place or lift a security freeze.

- Request or file a police report: You have the right to request any police report filed regarding this incident. If you are the victim of fraud or identity theft, you also have the right to file a police report.
- Keep a record of your contacts: It is helpful to maintain a file with copies of your credit reports, any existing police reports, relevant correspondence, and copies of disputed bills. It is also useful to maintain a log of your conversations with creditors, law enforcement officials, and any other relevant parties.
- For Colorado, Georgia, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, New Jersey, Puerto Rico, and Vermont residents: You may obtain one or more (depending on the state) additional copies of your credit report, free of charge. You must contact each of the credit bureaus directly to obtain such additional report(s).
- Maryland, North Carolina and Rhode Island residents may also contact the following agencies for information on how to prevent or avoid identity theft:

For Maryland residents: Office of the Maryland Attorney General, 200 St. Paul Place, Baltimore, MD 21202, marylandattorneygeneral.gov/, 1-888-743-0023.

For North Carolina residents: The North Carolina Office of the Attorney General, Mail Service Center 9001, Raleigh, NC 27699-9001, ncdoj.gov/, 1-877-566-7226.

For Rhode Island residents: The Rhode Island Office of the Attorney General, 150 South Main Street, Providence, RI 02903, riag.ri.gov/, 401-274-4400.

- For Iowa residents: You are advised to report any suspected identity theft to law enforcement or to the Iowa Attorney General.
- For Massachusetts residents: You have the right to obtain a police report regarding this incident. If you are the victim of identity theft, you also have the right to file a police report and obtain a copy of it.
- For Oregon residents: You are advised to report any suspected identity theft to law enforcement, including the Federal Trade Commission and the Oregon Attorney General.
- For Rhode Island residents: You have the right to file or obtain a police report regarding this incident.
