Protect yourself against identity theft

As you are already aware, your account was recently part of a data breach involving possible unauthorized access to your personal and financial information by an attacker from a foreign country using passwords acquired outside of Aspiration. Though the issue has since been solved and your account is now safe to use, we understand how stressful it can be knowing that your personal information could be out there.

Because of this, we are offering you one year of credit monitoring and identity theft services at no cost to you through Sontiq.

Here's what you need to know:

- Your unique code is . This code may only be redeemed once and is intended only for you, the recipient of this email.
- Once you redeem your unique code, your year of complementary service begins.
- The deadline for signing up for this free credit monitoring service is August 30, 2022.
- Once the one-year complementary portion of the services is set to expire, you may choose to keep your account with Sontiq by providing a personal method of payment. If you choose not to, your account will be canceled automatically.
