NOTICE OF DATA BREACH

Dear :

Batta Fulkerson Law Group is writing to inform you about a data-security event potentially involving some of your personal information and other details we collected in connection with representing our clients. This event did not impact our ability to continue advocating for our clients. We are providing this notice to explain what happened, what we are doing in response, and how you can enroll in our offer of free identity-theft-protection services.

WHAT HAPPENED

On August 10, 2025, we detected suspicious activity in a portion of our computer network. We promptly began working with third-party cybersecurity experts to investigate and remediate that activity. Later that month, the investigation found that an unauthorized third party (1) accessed a portion of our computer network from August 8, 2025, to August 10, 2025, and (2) accessed or acquired some of the files on our network. After identifying the impacted files, we worked diligently to determine which individuals potentially had personal information in those files. We completed that process on September 21, 2025, and have been working since then to ensure we have current contact information for those individuals.

WHAT INFORMATION WAS INVOLVED

We determined that the impacted files potentially contained some of your personal information, which may include your name, birthdate, contact information, government identification number (e.g., a Social Security number), and limited medical information (e.g., treatment records and health-insurance numbers). The files may also contain other information we collected or used in connection with advocating on behalf of our clients.

WHAT WE ARE DOING

We worked with third-party experts to address this event, performed an investigation into the unauthorized activity, and further secured our systems to protect your information. We also notified law enforcement, which did not delay this notice.

WHAT YOU CAN DO

We encourage you to remain vigilant for any signs of unauthorized financial activity and review the Additional Steps You Can Take guidance on the next page. Additionally, to help protect you from fraud or identity theft, we are offering you a complimentary 1-year membership to Experian's IdentityWorks. To register, please:

- Ensure that you enroll by: 01/31/2026 (Your code will not work after this date.)
- Visit the Experian IdentityWorks website to enroll: <https://www.experianidworks.com/3bcredit>
- Provide your activation code: [REDACTED]

If you have questions or want an alternative to online enrollment for Experian IdentityWorks, please contact Experian at (877) 288-8057 by 01/31/2026, and provide them engagement number [REDACTED].

FOR MORE INFORMATION

Should you have any questions, you can contact us at [REDACTED], and one of our representatives will be happy to assist you. Thank you for your understanding and patience.

Sincerely,

Paul Batta
Co-Founder & Managing Partner

ADDITIONAL STEPS YOU CAN TAKE

Remain vigilant – We encourage you to remain vigilant for fraud or identity theft by reviewing your account statements and free credit reports. Contact your financial institution if you see errors or activity you don't recognize on your account statements. Get your free credit report by visiting www.annualcreditreport.com or calling (877) 322-8228. If you see errors on that report, contact the relevant consumer reporting agency:

- Equifax. PO Box 740241, Atlanta, GA 30374 | (800) 685-1111 | www.equifax.com
- Experian. PO Box 9701, Allen, TX 75013 | (888) 397-3742 | www.experian.com
- TransUnion. PO Box 2000, Chester, PA 19016 | (888) 909-8872 | www.transunion.com

You can find additional suggestions at www.IdentityTheft.gov. Consider also contacting the Federal Trade Commission for more details on protecting yourself from fraud or identity theft as well as fraud alerts and security freezes (both of which are discussed below). You can send a letter to the Federal Trade Commission at 600 Pennsylvania Ave NW, Washington, DC 20580; call them at (877) 438-4338; or visit their website, www.ftc.gov.

Consider placing a fraud alert or security freeze on your credit file – Consumer reporting agencies have tools you can use to protect your credit, including fraud alerts and security freezes.

- A fraud alert is a cautionary flag you can place on your credit file to notify companies extending you credit that they should take special precautions to verify your identity. You can contact any of the three consumer reporting agencies to place fraud alerts with each agency. The alert lasts for one year, but you can renew it.
- A security freeze is a more dramatic step that will prevent others from accessing your credit report, which makes it harder for someone to open an account in your name. You must contact each consumer reporting agency separately to order a security freeze, and they may require you to provide them with your full name, Social Security number, date of birth, and current and prior addresses. There is no charge for requesting a security freeze.

Report suspicious activity – If you believe you are the victim of fraud or identity theft, consider notifying your attorney general or the Federal Trade Commission. You also have the right to file a police report and request a copy of that report.

Review the Fair Credit Reporting Act – You also have certain rights under the Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA), including the right to know what is in your file, to dispute incomplete or inaccurate information, and to have consumer reporting agencies correct or delete inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information. For more information about the FCRA, and your rights pursuant to the FCRA, please visit: www.consumer.ftc.gov/articles/pdf-0096-fair-credit-reporting-act.pdf.

Consider additional helpful resources – Your state attorney general may have more information on fraud alerts, security freezes, and steps to protect yourself from fraud or identity theft.
