Re: Notice of Data Breach

[redacted]

Baker & McKenzie LLP ("Baker McKenzie") is a global law firm which obtained information about you in connection with legal services it provided to its clients[redacted] We are writing to inform you of a recent cybersecurity incident. Please read this notice carefully, as it provides you with information on what happened and what we are doing, as well as information on how you can obtain complimentary credit monitoring and identity protection services.

What happened:

On August 14 and 17, 2026, a threat actor socially engineered two of our users and obtained a limited number of files. As soon as we discovered this issue, we immediately activated our incident response protocols, engaged a leading cybersecurity forensics firm to investigate, notified law enforcement, and took measures to contain and remediate the unauthorized access. Our cybersecurity forensics firm has confirmed that our remediation efforts were successful, and that the incident has been contained. We have no evidence that the unauthorized actor compromised any user credentials or additional user accounts, and there was no independent malicious access to our systems.

What Personal Information was involved:

Baker McKenzie has been conducting a thorough and extensive analysis of the impacted files to determine what personal information they contained and to whom that information belongs. We recently determined that your personal information was contained in one of the files impacted in the incident. Specifically, your [redacted] in an impacted file.

What we are doing:

We are offering you at no cost a 24-month membership to TransUnion's credit monitoring. To activate your membership and start monitoring your personal information, visit https://bfs.cyberscout.com/activate and provide the activation code contained in Attachment A.

You must enroll by January 27, 2027 to receive these services.

Please see Attachment A for additional details regarding these services.

Baker McKenzie has also taken additional steps to reinforce our security practices and is actively reviewing our systems and policies to assess what enhanced security monitoring and controls may be necessary to mitigate the risk of similar incidents in the future.

What you can do:

In addition to enrolling in the credit monitoring service being offered to you at no charge, we encourage you to take the following precautions:

- Remain cautious about any unsolicited communications (such as emails, text messages, social posts or phone calls), asking you to provide your personal information. Please avoid clicking on suspicious web links or downloading attachments without confirming they are from a legitimate source.
- Remain vigilant against threats of identity theft or fraud and regularly review and monitor your account statements and credit history for any signs of unauthorized transactions or activity.
- If you suspect that you are the victim of identity theft or fraud, you can contact your local police department. Additional information about how to protect your identity is contained in Attachment B.

For more information:

We have established a dedicated call center to answer questions about the cybersecurity incident as well as the TransUnion services that we are offering to you. If you have any questions, please call +1-855-711-3692, from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. ET Monday through Friday, excluding major U.S. holidays.

Sincerely,

Baker & McKenzie, LLP

Attachment B – INFORMATION FOR U.S. CUSTOMERS

MORE INFORMATION ABOUT IDENTITY PROTECTION

INFORMATION ON OBTAINING A FREE CREDIT REPORT

U.S. customers are entitled under U.S. law to one free credit report annually from each of the three major credit bureaus. To order your free credit reports, visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call toll-free +1 (877) 322-8228. You may also contact the three major credit bureaus directly to request a free copy of your credit report.

INFORMATION ON IMPLEMENTING A FRAUD ALERT OR A SECURITY FREEZE

You can contact the three major credit bureaus at the addresses below to place a fraud alert on your credit report. A fraud alert indicates to anyone requesting your credit file that you suspect you are a possible victim of fraud. A fraud alert does not affect your ability to get a loan or credit. Instead, it alerts a business that your personal information might have been compromised and requires that business to verify your identity before issuing you credit. Although this may cause some short delay if you are the one applying for the credit, it might protect against someone else obtaining credit in your name.

You may also place a security freeze on your credit report. A security freeze prohibits a credit reporting agency from releasing any information from a consumer's credit report without written authorization. However, please be aware that placing a security freeze on your credit report may delay, interfere with, or prevent the timely approval of any requests you make for new loans, credit, mortgages, employment, housing, or other services. A credit reporting agency may not charge you to place, temporarily lift, or permanently remove a security freeze.

To place a security freeze on your credit report, you must contact the three credit bureaus below. To place a fraud alert on your credit report, you must contact one of the three credit bureaus below:

Equifax	Experian	TransUnion
Consumer Fraud Division	Credit Fraud Center	TransUnion LLC
P.O. Box 740256	P.O. Box 9554	P.O. Box 2000
Atlanta, GA 30374	Allen, TX 75013	Chester, PA 19016-2000
+1 (888) 378-4329	+1 (888) 397-3742	+1 (800) 680-7289
www.equifax.com	www.experian.com	www.transunion.com

To request a security freeze, you will need to provide some or all of the following information, depending on whether you do so online, by phone, or by mail:

1. Your full name (including middle initial as well as Jr., Sr., II, III, etc.);
2. Social Security number;
3. Date of birth;
4. If you have moved in the past five (5) years, the addresses where you have lived over those prior five (5) years;
5. Proof of current address such as a current utility bill or a telephone bill; and
6. A legible photocopy of a government-issued identification card (state driver's license or ID card, military identification, etc.).
7. Social Security Card, pay stub, or W-2
8. If you are a victim of identity theft, include a copy of either the police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency concerning identity theft.

You may also contact the U.S. Federal Trade Commission (FTC) for further information on fraud alerts, security freezes, and how to protect yourself from identity theft. The FTC can be contacted at 600 Pennsylvania Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20580; telephone +1 (877) 438-4338 or www.identitytheft.gov.
