Dear <<First Name>><<Last Name>>:

CP Franchising is committed to providing excellent travel experiences, and we are committed to the privacy and security of franchisees and agents. As part of this commitment, we are providing you this notice regarding potential unauthorized access to your information. You may have previously received an email notification from us indicating that your information may have been compromised. We are now sending this notification with more detailed information for your consideration.

Brief Facts as to What Happened. CP Franchising received information on February 2, 2015, indicating that some information may have been compromised, and we confirmed on February 4, 2015, a potential computer hacker intrusion. Through the investigation that followed, CP Franchising has determined that an unauthorized person gained access to its servers on or about January 30, 2015, and by inserting and running a malicious piece of computer code, may have obtained information stored by CP Franchising in an encrypted fashion.

Nature of the Data Accessed. We are continuing our investigation regarding the extent of information that may have been obtained. We have confirmed that information potentially at risk included information provided by you to CP Franchising, possibly including your name, address, phone number, credit card information, Social Security number, taxpayer identification number, and bank account number.

Steps You Can Take to Protect Yourself from Harm. Although we do not have any evidence that your information was accessed or misused as a result of this computer security incident, your information may be at risk. To help protect you, we have engaged Experian, the largest credit bureau in the United States, to offer you complimentary Fraud Resolution and identity protection for one year.

If you are a victim of fraud, simply call Experian at 866-578-5412 by February 11, 2016 and a dedicated Identity Theft Resolution agent will help you restore your identity. Please provide your engagement number as proof of eligibility: PC92075.

While Fraud Resolution assistance is immediately available to you, we also encourage you to activate the fraud detection tools available through Experian's ProtectMyID Elite before the enrollment period ends on May 31, 2015. This product provides you with superior identity protection and resolution of identity theft. To start monitoring your personal information, please follow the steps below:
