Notice of Data <<Variable Data 2>>

Dear <<Full Name>>:

Compex Legal Services Inc. (“Compex” or “We”) writes to inform you of an incident that may affect some of your information. This letter provides details of the incident, our response, and resources available to help protect your information should you feel it is appropriate to do so.

Who is Compex and Why Did They Have My Information? Compex provides medical record retrieval services for law firms and insurance carriers. Compex was in possession of your information in connection with a past or present insurance claim or litigation.

What Happened. On April 17, 2024, Compex discovered suspicious activity on its network and promptly launched an investigation, with the assistance of third-party cybersecurity specialists, to determine the nature and scope of this activity. The investigation determined that our network was subject to unauthorized access beginning on April 9, 2024, and that certain files were acquired by an unknown actor while on the network. In response, we undertook a comprehensive review of the data determined to be at risk to assess the type of information at issue and to whom that information relates. On August 15, 2024, Compex completed this review and determined information related to you could be affected.

What Information Was Involved. The information that could have been impacted by this event includes your: <<Breached Elements>><<Variable Data 1>>.

What We Are Doing. We take the security of information in our care very seriously. Upon learning of the incident, we moved quickly to investigate, and notify our business partners and potentially affected individuals. We also reported the event to law enforcement and implemented additional safeguards related to data privacy and security.

In an abundance of caution, we are offering you access to credit monitoring and identity restoration services <<CM Duration>> months through CyEx Identity Defense at no cost to you. The deadline to enroll in these services is <<Enrollment Deadline>>. A description of services and instructions on how to enroll can be found within the enclosed Steps You Can Take to Help Protect Your Information. Monitor Your Accounts

Under U.S. law, a consumer is entitled to one free credit report annually from each of the three major credit reporting bureaus, Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion. To order your free credit report, visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call, toll-free, 1-877-322-8228. You may also directly contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below to request a free copy of your credit report.

Consumers have the right to place an initial or extended “fraud alert” on a credit file at no cost. An initial fraud alert is a one-year alert that is placed on a consumer’s credit file. Upon seeing a fraud alert display on a consumer’s credit file, a business is required to take steps to verify the consumer’s identity before extending new credit. If you are a victim of identity theft, you are entitled to an extended fraud alert, which is a fraud alert lasting seven years. Should you wish to place a fraud alert, please contact any one of the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below.

As an alternative to a fraud alert, consumers have the right to place a “credit freeze” on a credit report, which will prohibit a credit bureau from releasing information in the credit report without the consumer’s express authorization. The credit freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in your name without your consent. However, you should be aware that using a credit freeze to take control over who gets access to the personal and financial information in your credit report may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application you make regarding a new loan, credit, mortgage, or any other account involving the extension of credit. Pursuant to federal law, you cannot be charged to place or lift a credit freeze on your credit report. To request a credit freeze, you will need to provide the following information:

1. Full name (including middle initial, as well as Jr., Sr., II, III, etc.);
2. Social Security number;
3. Date of birth;
4. Addresses for the prior two to five years;
5. Proof of current address, such as a current utility bill or telephone bill;
6. A legible photocopy of a government-issued identification card (state driver’s license or ID card, etc.); and
7. A copy of either the police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency concerning identity theft if you are a victim of identity theft.

Should you wish to place a fraud alert or a credit freeze, please contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below:

Additional Information

You may further educate yourself regarding identity theft, fraud alerts, credit freezes, and the steps you can take to protect your personal information by contacting the consumer reporting bureaus, the Federal Trade Commission, or your state Attorney General. The Federal Trade Commission may be reached at: 600 Pennsylvania Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20580; www.identitytheft.gov; 1-877-ID-THEFT (1-877-438-4338); and TTY: 1-866-653-4261. The Federal Trade Commission also encourages those who discover that their information has been misused to file a complaint with them. You can obtain further information on how to file such a complaint by way of the contact information listed above. You have the right to file a police report if you ever experience identity theft or fraud. Please note that in order to file a report with law enforcement for identity theft, you will likely need to provide some proof that you have been a victim. Instances of known or suspected identity theft should also be reported to law enforcement and your state Attorney General. This notice has not been delayed by law enforcement.
