Subject: Important Notice – Data Security Breach Notification

Hello,

We are writing to inform you of a data security incident that may have involved your personal information. At Mission Bell, we take the privacy and security of our employees' information seriously, and we want to provide you with details about what happened, what information may have been affected, and the steps we are taking to address the situation.

What Happened?

On February 1st, we discovered a security breach that occurred on January 31st. After conducting a lengthy investigation, we determined that unauthorized access to certain personal information may have taken place.

What Information Was Involved?

The affected data may include personal information such as Social Security numbers, driver's license number. At this time, we have no evidence of misuse of your information, but we want to inform you as a precautionary measure.

What We Are Doing

Upon discovering the breach, we took immediate steps to secure our systems and launched an investigation. We are working with cybersecurity experts and law enforcement authorities to determine the extent of the breach and prevent future occurrences. Additionally, we have implemented new security measures such as enhanced monitoring and updated security protocols.

What You Can Do

To help protect your personal information, we recommend the following steps:

- Monitor Your Accounts: Review your bank and credit card statements for any unauthorized transactions.
- Place a Fraud Alert: Consider placing a fraud alert on your credit file with the major credit bureaus (Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion).
- Obtain a Free Credit Report: You are entitled to a free credit report at www.annualcreditreport.com.
