Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Company and its subsidiaries (“MassMutual”) understand the importance of protecting the privacy and security of information about our customers, and take seriously our obligations to protect this information. This letter is to inform you that on July 13, 2012 MassMutual inadvertently sent via secure email a report containing your personal information to the Plan Sponsor of another retirement plan administered by MassMutual. We have conducted an investigation into the incident to determine the extent and its impact on our customers and have determined that the information involved in this incident included your name, Social Security number, and your 401(k) balance information.

The individual at the plan who received the information immediately notified MassMutual of the error and represented to MassMutual in writing that he immediately deleted the information and did not copy, retain, download or otherwise disclose the information. Based on these circumstances, we have no reason to believe that your information has been or will be subject to misuse or to further disclosure. However, when we are informed of such situations, we investigate the matter and take appropriate corrective action. Therefore, we would like to bring to your attention various steps you may want to consider taking to protect yourself against the possibility of identity theft.

You may request a credit report at any time by calling any one of the three credit reporting agencies:

Equifax
P.O. Box 740241
Atlanta, GA 30374
800-525-6285

Experian
P.O. Box 2104
Allen, TX 75013-2104
888-397-3742

TransUnion
P.O. Box 1000
Chester, PA 19022
800-680-7289

You are entitled to one free copy of your credit report per year from each of the three credit reporting agencies. When you receive your credit reports, you should review them carefully, looking for accounts that you did not open and for inquiries from creditors that you did not initiate. You may also want to verify the accuracy of personal information, such as home address and social security number. If you see anything that you do not understand, you can call the credit reporting agency at the telephone number on the report.

If you find suspicious activity on your credit report, you should contact your local police or sheriff's office and file a police report for identity theft. In these circumstances, you may need copies of the police report to provide to creditors to clear up your records. Even if you do not find signs of fraud on your reports, you may want to check your credit report every three months for the next year. You should closely examine your credit card, debit card, and bank statements immediately after you receive them to determine whether there are any unauthorized transactions and promptly notify any suspicious activity or suspected identity theft to law enforcement, or your state's Attorney General, and/or the Federal Trade Commission.

If at any time you are concerned about identify theft, you can place a fraud alert on your credit file at no cost to you. A fraud alert requires that creditors contact you before opening new accounts. By calling any one of the above credit reporting agencies, you can automatically place a fraud alert with all three reporting agencies for 90 days or seven years by providing them with certain required documentation and order your credit report from all three.

In an effort to provide you with additional protection for your personal and credit information, MassMutual is offering you a free two year subscription for Equifax Credit Watch™ Gold with 3-in-1 Monitoring and Credit Report Control. A description of this product and enrollment instructions are enclosed.

For more information on identity theft, you can contact the Federal Trade Commission at www.ftc.gov, at 1-877-438-4338, or at Consumer Response Center, F.T.C., 600 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20580. We also suggest that you visit the web site of the California Office of Privacy Protection at www.privacy.ca.gov.

If you have questions regarding this matter, please feel free to contact the MassMutual Participant Information Center at 1-800-743-5274.

Sincerely,
