Notice of Data Breach

Dear Sample A. Sample:

The West Series of Lockton Companies, LLC (“Lockton”) takes the privacy of your personal information seriously. Lockton is an insurance brokerage firm that provides employee benefit services to Dexcom, Inc. (“Dexcom”). We are writing to inform you about an event involving your personal information. In this letter, we explain what happened, what information was involved, the steps we have taken to address the event, and the steps you may consider taking to help protect your information. We have included our contact details below should you need any further information.

What Happened?

On April 29, 2026, on behalf of Dexcom, Lockton solicited responses from three participants for a request for proposal (“RFP”) to provide family forming benefits to U.S. Dexcom employees. To inform their proposals, Lockton sent the RFP participants an Excel file. That file inadvertently included additional employee personal information not intended for the RFP participants. The RFP participants’ access to the file was limited and was promptly revoked. All three of the RFP participants either never accessed the Excel file before access was revoked or confirmed deletion of the Excel file. To date, there is no indication, and it is unlikely, that the limited disclosure to the RFP participants during the short period of time resulted in any misuse of your information. But, out of an abundance of caution, we are informing you of what happened.

What Information Was Involved?

The Excel file inadvertently contained Dexcom employee Social Security numbers, first names, last names, and dates of birth, and may have included limited employee benefits election information.

What We Are Doing

We take your privacy seriously, and we work diligently to protect your personal information. We continue to review, audit, and strengthen our controls and processes. As soon as we learned of this inadvertent disclosure, Lockton immediately took additional steps to further safeguard all Dexcom data and help prevent future events. Additionally, the RFP participants attested to either not accessing the Excel file at all or promptly destroying it.

If you identify any unauthorized charges on your financial account statements, you should immediately report such charges to your financial institution. You may obtain a copy of your credit report, free of charge, once every 12 months from each of the three nationwide credit reporting companies. To order your annual free credit report, please visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call toll-free at 1-877-322-8228. For Colorado, Georgia, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, New Jersey, and Vermont residents: You may obtain one or more (depending on the state) additional copies of your credit report, free of charge. You must contact each of the credit reporting agencies directly to obtain such additional report(s).

Security Freeze. Security freezes, also known as credit freezes, restrict access to your credit file, making it harder for identity thieves to open new accounts in your name. You can freeze and unfreeze your credit file for free. You also can get a free freeze for your children who are under 16. And if you are someone’s guardian, conservator or have a valid power of attorney, you can get a free freeze for that person, too.

How will these freezes work? Contact all three of the nationwide credit reporting agencies—Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion. If you request a freeze online or by phone, the agency must place the freeze within one business day. If you request a lift of the freeze, the agency must lift it within one hour. If you make your request by mail, the agency must place or lift the freeze within three business days after it gets your request. You also can lift the freeze temporarily without a fee.

The following information must be included when requesting a security freeze (note that if you are requesting a credit report for your spouse, this information must be provided for him/her as well): (1) full name, with middle initial and any suffixes; (2) Social Security number; (3) date of birth; (4) current address and any previous addresses for the past five years; and (5) any applicable incident report or complaint with a law enforcement agency or the Registry of Motor Vehicles.

The request must also include a copy of a government-issued identification card and a copy of a recent utility bill or bank or insurance statement.

It is essential that each copy be legible, display your name and current mailing address, and the date of issue.

For New Mexico residents: You may obtain a security freeze on your credit report to protect your privacy and ensure that credit is not granted in your name without your knowledge. You may submit a declaration of removal to remove information placed in your credit report as a result of being a victim of identity theft. You have a right to place a security freeze on your credit report or submit a declaration of removal pursuant to the Fair Credit Reporting and Identity Security Act. For more information, including information about additional rights, go to www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore or write to: Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, 1700 G Street N.W., Washington, DC 20552.

Fraud Alerts. A fraud alert tells businesses that check your credit that they should check with you before opening a new account. An initial fraud alert stays on your credit report for one year. You may have an extended alert placed on your credit report if you have already been a victim of identity theft with the appropriate documentary proof. An extended fraud alert stays on your credit report for seven years. To place a fraud alert on your credit reports, contact one of the nationwide credit bureaus. A fraud alert is free. The credit bureau you contact must tell the other two, and all three will place an alert on their versions of your report.

Federal Trade Commission and State Attorneys General Offices. If you believe you are the victim of identity theft or have reason to believe your personal information has been misused, you should immediately contact the Federal Trade Commission and/or the Attorney General's office in your home state. You may also contact these agencies for information on how to prevent or avoid identity theft.
