

NOTICE OF DATA BREACH

Dear [REDACTED],

We are writing to notify you of an issue that involves certain of your personal information.

What Happened?

In January 2025, we learned that, between December 2024 and January 2025, a third-party call center representative improperly accessed data relating to a limited number of IRAs that we custody. We recently identified a small number of additional IRAs that may have been improperly accessed.

What Information Was Involved?

The personal information involved in this issue may have included your name, Social Security number, date of birth, mailing address, previous employer/retirement plan sponsor, and Inspira account number, type and balance.

What We Are Doing

Promptly after learning of the issue, we took steps to determine its nature and scope. Inspira terminated its relationship with the call center vendor at issue, and we have reported the matter to law enforcement authorities. We also have flagged your account for enhanced security review before any transactions can take place as an additional measure of security until you verify your identity with us and direct Inspira to remove the flag.

We take our obligation to safeguard personal information very seriously and are alerting you about this issue so you can take steps to help protect your information. We have arranged to offer you identity protection and credit monitoring services for two years at no cost to you. Please contact us directly at 1-877-682-4727 or via email at rollover@inspirafinancial.com for instructions on how you can enroll online.

What You Can Do

As always, we encourage you to remain vigilant for incidents of fraud and identity theft by reviewing your account statements and monitoring your free credit reports. If you would like to check your credit report, you are entitled under U.S. law to one free credit report annually from each of the three nationwide consumer reporting agencies. To order your free credit report, visit AnnualCreditReport.com or call toll free at 1-877-322-8228. The attached Reference Guide provides additional information, including recommendations by the U.S. Federal Trade Commission on the protection of personal information.

For More Information

We hope this information is useful to you. If you have any questions regarding this issue, please contact us at 1-877-682-4727 or via email at rollover@inspirafinancial.com, Monday through Friday, 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. CT.

Sincerely,

Inspira Financial Trust, LLC

Reference Guide

We encourage you to take the following steps:

Register for Identity Protection and Credit Monitoring Services. We have arranged with Experian to help you protect your identity and your credit information for two years at no cost to you. Please contact us directly at 1-877-682-4727 or via email at rollover@inspirafinancial.com for instructions on how you can enroll online. Please contact us by September 30, 2025 if you wish to enroll in the identity protection and credit monitoring services.

Order Your Free Credit Report. To order your free credit report, visit www.annualcreditreport.com, call toll-free at 1-877-322-8228 or complete the Annual Credit Report Request Form on the U.S. Federal Trade Commission's ("FTC's") website at www.consumer.ftc.gov and mail it to Annual Credit Report Request Service, P.O. Box 105281, Atlanta, GA 30348-5281. The three nationwide consumer reporting agencies provide free annual credit reports only through the website, toll-free number or request form.

When you receive your credit report, review it carefully. Look for accounts you did not open. Look in the "inquiries" section for names of creditors from whom you haven't requested credit. Some companies bill under names other than their store or commercial names. The consumer reporting agency will be able to tell you when that is the case. Look in the "personal information" section for any inaccuracies in your information (such as home address and Social Security number). If you see anything you do not understand, call the consumer reporting agency at the telephone number on the report. Errors in this information may be a warning sign of possible identity theft. You should notify the consumer reporting agencies of any inaccuracies in your report, whether due to error or fraud, as soon as possible so the information can be investigated and, if found to be in error, corrected. If there are accounts or charges you did not authorize, immediately notify the appropriate consumer reporting agency by telephone and in writing. Consumer reporting agency staff will review your report with you. If the information cannot be explained, then you will need to call the creditors involved. Information that cannot be explained also should be reported to your local police or sheriff's office because it may signal criminal activity.

Report Incidents. If you detect any unauthorized transactions in a financial account, promptly notify your payment card company or financial institution. If you are in the U.S. and detect any incident of identity theft or fraud, promptly report the incident to law enforcement, the FTC and your state Attorney General. If you believe your identity has been stolen, the FTC recommends that you take these steps:

- Close the accounts that you have confirmed or believe have been tampered with or opened fraudulently. For more information, please visit <https://www.identitytheft.gov/>.
- File a local police report. Obtain a copy of the police report and submit it to your creditors and any others that may require proof of the identity theft crime.

You can contact the FTC to learn more about how to protect yourself from becoming a victim of identity theft and how to repair identity theft:

Consider Placing a Fraud Alert on Your Credit File. To protect yourself from possible identity theft, consider placing a fraud alert on your credit file. A fraud alert helps protect you against the possibility of an identity thief opening new credit accounts in your name. When a merchant checks the credit history of someone applying for credit, the merchant gets a notice that the applicant may be the victim of identity theft. The alert notifies the merchant to take steps to verify the identity of the applicant. You can place a fraud alert on your credit report by calling any one of the toll-free numbers provided below. You will reach an automated telephone system that allows you to flag your file with a fraud alert at all three consumer reporting agencies. For more information on fraud alerts, you also may contact the FTC as described above.

Consider Placing a Security Freeze on Your Credit File. You may wish to place a “security freeze” (also known as a “credit freeze”) on your credit file. A security freeze is designed to prevent potential creditors from accessing your credit file at the consumer reporting agencies without your consent. Unlike a fraud alert, you must place a security freeze on your credit file at each consumer reporting agency individually. There is no charge to place or lift a security freeze. For more information on security freezes, you may contact the three nationwide consumer reporting agencies or the FTC as described above. As the instructions for establishing a security freeze differ from state to state, please contact the three nationwide consumer reporting agencies to find out more information.

The consumer reporting agencies may require proper identification prior to honoring your request. For example, you may be asked to provide:

- Your full name with middle initial and generation (such as Jr., Sr., II, III)
- Your Social Security number
- Your date of birth
- Addresses where you have lived over the past five years
- A legible copy of a government-issued identification card (such as a state driver’s license or military ID card)
- Proof of your current residential address (such as a current utility bill or account statement)
