

Notification for all current staff and caregivers

Notification for affected staff and caregivers

Notification for all current staff and caregivers

Instructure, the publisher of the Canvas LMS, notified LLESD on May 5 that a criminal threat actor had gained access to LLESD information on the Canvas platform. They state that they “have found no indication that passwords, dates of birth, government identifiers, or financial information were involved.”

LLESD IT reviewed the personal information in Canvas, and confirmed that it contained the following:

- First and last names
- Email addresses
- Class enrollments

Only the following groups were affected:

- Students in 6th, 7th, and 8th grade during the 2023-2024 school year
- Caregivers of those students
- Staff

Staff and caregivers who were affected will be contacted directly.

Please contact IT Director Aidan Gould at agould@llesd.org for more information. You may also review the full notification from Instructure.

Notification for affected staff and caregivers

Instructure, the publisher of Canvas, notified LLESD on May 5 that a criminal threat actor had gained access to LLESD information on Canvas. LLESD piloted Canvas as the middle school learning management system in the Spring of 2024, but did not adopt it fully. Instructure states that they “have found no indication that passwords, dates of birth, government identifiers, or financial information were involved.”

Unfortunately, the breach included your information and information about any student of yours who was in Middle School at La Entrada during the 2023-2024 school year.

LLESD IT reviewed the personal information in Canvas, and confirmed that it contained the following:

- First and last names

- Email addresses
- Class enrollments

Only the following groups were affected:

- Students in 6th, 7th, and 8th grade during the 2023-2024 school year
- Caregivers of those students
- Staff

We recommend that you review the full notification from Instructure. We anticipate that Instructure will provide more information soon, including information about steps such as identity protection. We will forward that to you as soon as it is available.

Please contact IT Director Aidan Gould at agould@llesd.org for more information.