Dear <<Name 1>>:

Marten Transport, Ltd. (“Marten”) writes to notify you about a recent event that may involve some of your information. This notice provides you with information about the event, our response, and additional steps you may take to protect your information, should you determine it is appropriate to do so.

What Happened? On or around October 3, 2021, we identified unusual activity on certain company computer systems. We quickly disconnected these systems and commenced an extensive investigation to determine the nature and scope of the activity. We also promptly reported this event to federal law enforcement. Through the investigation, we determined that an unknown actor gained access to certain systems between September 30, 2021 and October 4, 2021 and viewed or downloaded certain information from those systems.

We then worked with data specialists to conduct a comprehensive review of information stored on the impacted systems to determine what information, if any, was affected and to whom the information related. Once complete, we then conducted a time-intensive manual review of our records to determine the identities and contact information for potentially impacted individuals. On or around March 8, 2022, we completed our review.

What Information Was Involved? Our review determined that the following types of information were present in the affected systems and could have been impacted by the unknown actor: your name, <<Breached Elements>>.

What We Are Doing. We take this event and the security of information entrusted to us very seriously. Upon learning of the event, we took immediate steps to secure our environment and investigate the activity. We are also enhancing our information security posture through additional administrative and technical measures. As an added precaution, we are offering you complimentary access to <<CM Length>> months of credit monitoring and identity restoration services, through Equifax. If you wish to avail yourself of these services, you will need to enroll using the instructions enclosed with this letter, as we are unable to activate them on your behalf.

What You Can Do. Marten encourages you to remain vigilant against incidents of identity theft and fraud and to review your account statements and monitor your free credit reports for suspicious activity and to detect errors. We also encourage you to review the enclosed Steps You Can Take to Protect Personal Information, which contains information on what you can do to safeguard against possible misuse of your information. <sup>3</sup> Locking your Equifax credit report will prevent access to it by certain third parties. ## Monitor Your Accounts

Under U.S. law, a consumer is entitled to one free credit report annually from each of the three major credit reporting bureaus, Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion. To order your free credit report, visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call, toll-free, 1-877-322-8228. You may also directly contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below to request a free copy of your credit report.

Consumers have the right to place an initial or extended “fraud alert” on a credit file at no cost. An initial fraud alert is a one-year alert that is placed on a consumer’s credit file. Upon seeing a fraud alert display on a consumer’s credit file, a business is required to take steps to verify the consumer’s identity before extending new credit. If you are a victim of identity theft, you are entitled to an extended fraud alert, which is a fraud alert lasting seven years. Should you wish to place a fraud alert, please contact any one of the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below.

As an alternative to a fraud alert, consumers have the right to place a “credit freeze” on a credit report, which will prohibit a credit bureau from releasing information in the credit report without the consumer’s express authorization. The credit freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in your name without your consent. However, you should be aware that using a credit freeze to take control over who gets access to the personal and financial information in your credit report may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application you make regarding a new loan, credit, mortgage, or any other account involving the extension of credit. Pursuant to federal law, you cannot be charged to place or lift a credit freeze on your credit report. To request a security freeze, you will need to provide the following information:

1. Full name (including middle initial as well as Jr., Sr., II, III, etc.);
2. Social Security number;
3. Date of birth;
4. Addresses for the prior two to five years;
5. Proof of current address, such as a current utility bill or telephone bill;
6. A legible photocopy of a government-issued identification card (state driver’s license or ID card, etc.); and
7. A copy of either the police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency concerning identity theft if you are a victim of identity theft.

Should you wish to place a credit freeze, please contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below:
