Dear [First Name] [Last Name]:

This letter is to inform you about a matter that may involve some of your personal information. We apologize and understand this will cause concern. We want to assure you that we have policies and procedures in place to protect the personal information that you entrust to us as our customer.

What Happened?

We have learned that the checkout page on a prior version of our website was the subject of a cyberattack, which was designed to scrape payment and personal information of customers at checkout while making purchases. You are receiving this letter because you entered information to check out on shop.cricut.com between the dates of May 27 and July 12, 2017.

Our cybersecurity investigators determined that our online checkout page was infected with malicious code, or “malware,” which was designed to allow unauthorized parties to steal customer payment and contact information. Once we were aware of the attack, we took immediate action to understand the attack and protect customer information. Upon discovering this attack, we launched an internal investigation, and following our analysis, we engaged outside cybersecurity experts and notified law enforcement authorities.

It is important to note that we do not have direct evidence that anyone’s credit was harmed or that any fraud occurred as a result of this malware attack; however, we know that an attack happened. Now that our forensic analysis has concluded, we are communicating with our customers in an abundance of caution so that any customers who may have been affected can take the appropriate measures to protect themselves.

We are vigilant about ensuring our website is a safe, secure environment for conducting commerce. We conducted a full analysis with the assistance of third-party forensic experts, and the malware involved in this unlawful computer intrusion has been removed from all of our systems. We relaunched new shopping pages with enhanced security features.

What Information Was Involved?

The payment card number, security code and expiration date as well as names, addresses and contact information.

What We Are Doing.

Since this incident occurred, we have implemented additional monitoring capabilities to prevent any future such incidents. We continue to review our current website processes for opportunities to further enhance the level of security extended to our website users. Your trust is very important to us and we want to assure you that we take this situation seriously. We understand the gravity of the situation, and we sincerely apologize for any inconvenience or concern this incident may have caused our customers.

You can also place a fraud alert with the major credit reporting agencies on your credit files. Recommended Steps to help Protect your Information Please Note: Minors, under the age of 18, should not have a credit history established and are under the age to secure credit. Therefore credit monitoring may not be applicable at this time. All other services provided in the membership will apply. No one is allowed to place a fraud alert on your credit report except you, please follow the instructions below to place the alert.

1. Website and Enrollment. Go to <https://ide.myidcare.com/cricut> and follow the instructions for enrollment using your Enrollment Code provided at the top of the letter. Once you have completed your enrollment, you will receive a welcome letter by email (or by mail if you do not provide an email address when you sign up). The welcome letter will direct you to the exclusive MyIDCare Member Website where you will find other valuable educational information.

2. Activate the credit monitoring provided as part of your MyIDCare membership, which is being provided to you for free. Credit monitoring is included in the membership, but you must personally activate it for it to be effective. Note: You must have established credit and access to a computer and the internet to use this service. If you need assistance, MyIDCare will be able to assist you.

3. Telephone. Contact MyIDCare at 877-919-5482 to gain additional information about this event and speak with knowledgeable representatives about the appropriate steps to take to protect your credit identity.

4. Review your credit reports. We recommend that you remain vigilant by reviewing account statements and monitoring credit reports. Under federal law, you also are entitled every 12 months to one free copy of your credit report from each of the three major credit reporting companies. To obtain a free annual credit report, go to www.annualcreditreport.com or call 1-877-322-8228. You may wish to stagger your requests so that you receive a free report by one of the three credit bureaus every four months.

If you discover any suspicious items and have enrolled in MyIDCare, notify them immediately by calling or by visiting their Member website and filing a theft report.

If you file a theft report with MyIDCare, you will be contacted by a member of our ID Care team who will help you determine the cause of the suspicious items. In the unlikely event that you fall victim to identity theft as a consequence of this incident, you will be assigned an ID Care Specialist who will work on your behalf to identify, stop and reverse the damage quickly.

You should also know that you have the right to file a police report if you ever experience identity fraud. Please note that in order to file a crime report or incident report with law enforcement for identity theft, you will likely need to provide some kind of proof that you have been a victim. A police report is often required to dispute fraudulent items. You can report suspected incidents of identity theft to local law enforcement or to the Attorney General.

5. Place Fraud Alerts with the three credit bureaus. If you choose to place a fraud alert, we recommend you do this after activating your credit monitoring. You can place a fraud alert at one of the three major credit bureaus by phone and also via Experian's or Equifax's website. A fraud alert tells creditors to follow certain procedures, including contacting you, before they open any new accounts or change your existing accounts. For that reason, placing a fraud alert can protect you, but also may delay you when you seek to obtain credit. The contact information for all three bureaus is as follows:

Credit Bureaus

Equifax Fraud Reporting
1-800-525-6285
P.O. Box 740256
Atlanta, GA 30374-0241
www.alerts.equifax.com

Experian Fraud Reporting
1-888-397-3742
P.O. Box 9554
Allen, TX 75013
www.experian.com

TransUnion Fraud Reporting
1-800-680-7289
P.O. Box 2000
Chester, PA 19022-2000
www.transunion.com

It is necessary to contact only ONE of these bureaus and use only ONE of these methods. As soon as one of the three bureaus confirms your fraud alert, the others are notified to place alerts on their records as well. You will receive confirmation letters in the mail and will then be able to order all three credit reports, free of charge, for your review.

6. Security Freeze. By placing a security freeze, someone who fraudulently acquires your personal identifying information will not be able to use that information to open new accounts or borrow money in your name. You will need to contact the three national credit reporting bureaus listed above in writing to place the freeze. Keep in mind that when you place the freeze, you will not be able to borrow money, obtain instant credit, or get a new credit card until you temporarily lift or permanently remove the freeze. The cost of placing the freeze varies by the state you live in and for each credit reporting bureau. The Credit Bureau may charge a fee of up to $5.00 to place a freeze, lift, or remove a freeze. However, if you are a victim of identity theft and have filed a report with your local law enforcement agency or submitted an ID Theft Complaint Form with the Federal Trade Commission, there may be no charge to place the freeze.

7. You can obtain additional information about the steps you can take to avoid identity theft from the following agencies. The Federal Trade Commission also encourages those who discover that their information has been misused to file a complaint with them.
