Dear Sir or Madam:

Subject: NOTICE OF DATA EXPOSURE*What Happened?

We are writing you because of a recent security incident that occurred on January 5, 2022, at Calipatria State Prison. An employee inadvertently e-mailed a document containing your personal information to the wrong person.

What Information Was Involved?

The document contained your first and last name, date of birth, along with your social security number.

What We Are Doing:

We regret that this incident occurred and want to assure you we are reviewing and revising our procedures and practices to minimize the risk of recurrence.

What You Can Do:

To protect yourself from the possibility of identity theft, we recommend that you place a fraud alert on your credit files by following the recommended privacy protection steps outlined in the enclosure "Breach Help –Consumer Tips from the California Attorney General ". We also recommend that you order copies of your credit reports by following the recommended privacy protection steps outlined in the enclosure. Check your credit reports for any accounts that you do not recognize. If you find anything suspicious, follow the instructions found in step four of the enclosure.

Other Important Information:

Enclosure, "Breach Help –Consumer Tips from the California Attorney General."

For More Information:
