Dear John Q Sample

I am writing to you on behalf of Company about a potential security incident. We recently discovered that certain unauthorized software was uploaded to our computer system. Upon discovery, we immediately analyzed the software, determined that it was malicious and removed it. In the course of our investigation, we determined that a hacker, through the malicious software, had viewed files containing a username and password. We immediately disabled the compromised username and password and launched an internal investigation to determine whether the credentials could be used to access personal information stored on our system. We also hired a third party computer forensics team to assist us in determining the extent to which our system may have been compromised.

The investigation found that the malicious software was used to view computer files containing a username and password that could be used to access personal information stored on our system. It appears that the malicious software was installed around October 2, 2013. Although we cannot confirm whether your personal information has been accessed, we are contacting you because your name, mailing address and Clientdef1 were stored on our system in connection with the Clientdef2 product you received from us.

I would like to emphasize that, to date, we have no evidence that your personal information was actually accessed or acquired. Nevertheless, as a precautionary measure, we have purchased twelve months of AllClear PRO and AllClear SECURE identity protection services from AllClear ID, at no cost to you. The identity protection services begin on the date of this letter and continue for the next twelve months.

AllClear PRO includes credit monitoring and identity theft insurance. You may sign up online for AllClear PRO at enroll.allclearid.com, by mail with the enclosed mail-in registration form, or by phone by calling (877) 412-7142 using the following redemption code: 9999999999. Additional steps may be required by you in order to activate your phone alerts, and mailed registrations may take up to ten (10) business days before the registration is received and you are able to log in to your account. AllClear SECURE includes services if you suspect that you are a victim of identity theft - simply call (877) 412-7142 and an investigator will assist you. Please see the enclosure to learn more about AllClear PRO and AllClear SECURE.

Experts recommend that you periodically review your credit report and account statements, even if you do not initially find suspicious activity. We have also included with this letter an explanation of additional steps you may consider taking to further protect yourself. Moreover, you should not provide personal information to others unless you are certain of the requester's identity and, as always, you should remain vigilant for incidents of fraud and identity theft.

Company takes its responsibility to protect your privacy very seriously. We regret that this incident occurred, and we are taking steps to prevent future incidents of this nature and improve and strengthen the security of our system. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact representatives from AllClear ID, toll-free, at (877) 412-7142, Monday through Saturday, between 8:00 AM and 8:00 PM CT.

Sincerely,

IDENTITY THEFT PRECAUTIONS

Free Credit Report

The Fair Credit Reporting Act requires each of the three nationwide consumer reporting agencies (Equifax, Experian and TransUnion) to provide you annually, upon request, with a free copy of your credit report. Obtaining a copy of your credit report from each agency on an annual basis, and reviewing it for suspicious activity, can help you spot problems and address them quickly. You can request your free credit report online at www.annualcreditreport.com or by phone at 1-877-322-8228. You can also request your free credit report by completing the request form available at www.annualcreditreport.com, and mailing it to Annual Credit Report Request Service, P.O. Box 105281, Atlanta, GA 30348-5281.

Fraud Alert

As a precaution against identity theft, you can consider placing a fraud alert on your credit file. A "fraud alert" tells creditors to contact you before opening a new account or changing an existing account. A fraud alert also lets your creditors know to watch for unusual or suspicious activity. To place a fraud alert, call any one of the three major consumer reporting agencies listed below. An initial fraud alert remains effective for ninety days, and is free of charge. If you wish, you can renew the fraud alert at the expiration of this initial period. As soon as one credit agency confirms your fraud alert, the others are notified to place fraud alerts on your file.

If you are subscribing to a Premium Service on your own behalf, then at the end of your initial subscription period, your subscription will automatically renew on a month to month basis until you terminate it in accordance with this Section or fail to provide payment when due. In addition, the Premium Service may be terminated or suspended at any time with or without notice if payment is not received when due or if you breach any of the terms & conditions set forth herein.
