NOTICE OF DATA BREACH

Attorney General's Office
California Department of Justice
Attn: Public Inquiry Unit
P.O. Box 944255
Sacramento, CA 94244-2500

March 31, 2017

Dear Attorney General of California,

My name is Tracy Warren and I am a shareholder with Ogletree, Deakins, Nash, Smoak & Stewart, P.C. We represent Solera Holding, Inc. ("Solera") and want to notify you of a data breach impacting Solera employees who are residents of your state. We are sending out the enclosed notice of data breach to Solera employees and are hereby providing you notice of the same. The notice is as follows:

What Happened?

We recently learned that a data compromise may have occurred at a Solera company or at an outside vendor to a Solera company. Some employees of Solera companies have been alerted by the IRS that potentially fraudulent tax returns have been filed on their behalf. Since then, we have been and are continuing to investigate the suspected data compromise to determine its source and effect any required remediation measures.

What Information was Involved?

Due to the nature of the information provided on the fraudulent returns, we believe that Form W-2 information for some Solera employees and ex-employees may have been compromised. Potentially compromised data may have included personal information about you, such as your name, wage and deduction information and social security number.

What Are We Doing?

The suspected data compromise was first discovered on March 13, 2017 after Solera learned that select employees experienced adverse issues filing their 2016 federal tax returns, receiving an error from the IRS that their taxes had already been filed. Solera promptly formed an incident management team consisting of senior representatives from IT, legal, internal audit and human resources to investigate the matter, determine the root cause and implement a remediation plan.

– This is a matter of highest priority for Solera. Our IT department has thoroughly reviewed Solera’s data protection procedures and scanned/analyzed all relevant systems, files and email communications, including those that hold or transmit USA employees’ personal data or W-2 information. Thus far, we have not identified any unusual access, activities or breaches relating to our systems, files or email communications. We continue to evaluate our systems and procedures to determine the source of the suspected data compromise. We are also working with our applicable vendor partners to evaluate whether the suspected data compromise may have occurred in a system external to Solera, including Solera’s human resources information system provider, Ultimate Software (UltiPro).

We have also:

- Contacted the FBI and reported this incident;
- Conferred with our payroll vendor with access to employee personal information to examine its processes and any potential data compromise; and
- Notified individual states attorney generals in states of impacted employees (whether or not required by law).

What You Can Do.

You may wish to take the following steps to mitigate possible misuse of your personal information:

1. Sign up for the identity-theft protection through Experian that Solera has arranged for you FREE OF CHARGE for 24 months (see below for details).
2. Place a fraud alert on your credit report (see below for details).
3. Place a security freeze on your credit report (see below for details)
4. Review the U.S. Federal Trade Commission website on how to protect personal information at: <https://www.consumer.ftc.gov/articles/0272-how-keep-your-personal-information-secure>.

We understand that any potential data compromise creates concern and confusion and that you may have questions. For additional information or assistance, Solera has set up a dedicated call center to help answer your questions.

For information, starting March 30, 2017:

Monday through Friday:

From 6:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. PST

Saturday and Sunday:

From 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. PST

Please contact the Solera dedicated call center at the following phone number:

877-890-9332

RESOURCES AND SUGGESTIONS:

Credit Report Fraud Alert

You may place a fraud alert on your credit report, which may help prevent someone from opening accounts in your name or changing your existing accounts. You may contact any one of the three major credit bureaus listed below to do so. When one credit bureau confirms your fraud alert, the others will be notified automatically of the alert.

Order Your Credit Report

You may also order a credit report. You are entitled under U.S. law to one free credit report annually from each of the three nationwide consumer reporting agencies. To order your free credit report, visit www.annualcreditreport.com, call toll-free at 1-877-322-8228, or complete the Annual Credit Report Request Form on the U.S. Federal Trade Commission's website at www.consumer.ftc.gov and mail it to Annual Credit Report Request Service, P.O. Box 105281, Atlanta, GA 30348-5281. The three consumer reporting agencies provide free annual credit reports only through the website, toll-free number or request form.

Credit Report Security Freeze

You may place a security freeze on your credit reports, which would prohibit a credit reporting agency from releasing any information from your credit report without your written permission. You should be aware, however, that placing a security freeze on your credit report may delay, interfere with, or prevent the timely approval of any requests you make for new loans, credit mortgages, employment, housing or other services. A credit reporting agency may charge you fees for placing, removing, and replacing a security freeze. The fees vary from state to state and depend on your circumstances, usually ranging from $0.00 to $10.00 for each service. If you are an identity-theft victim with a valid police report, a credit reporting agency may provide you with security freeze services free of charge.

Additional Matters

Remain vigilant in reviewing your account statements and monitoring free credit reports to protect yourself against fraud and identity theft.

You may obtain additional information about how to avoid identify theft from the Federal Trade Commission or your state's attorney general. Federal Trade Commission, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20580, www.ftc.gov or (202)326-2222.
