Notice of Data Breach

Dear [Name]:

Truly Nolen of America, Inc. (“Truly Nolen”) writes to inform you of an incident that may affect the security of some of your information. This letter provides an overview of the incident, our response, and steps you may take to better protect yourself, should you wish to do so.

What Happened? On May 11, 2022, Truly Nolen identified suspicious activity on its network and moved quickly to secure the environment. We began an investigation with the assistance of third-party forensic specialists to determine the nature and scope of the activity. The investigation determined that there was unauthorized access to the network between April 29, 2022 and May 11, 2022, and during that time an unauthorized actor removed certain files. We reviewed the involved systems for personal information and completed our review on July 27, 2022.

What Information Was Involved? The review of involved systems identified personal information including your name, [insert data elements].

What Are We Doing? Truly Nolen takes the confidentiality, privacy, and security of information in its care very seriously. Upon discovery of the incident, we took immediate steps to secure the network and strengthen our security posture moving forward. We reported this incident to federal law enforcement and as an added precaution, we are offering you complimentary credit and identity monitoring services through Experian for one twelve (12) months. If you would like to enroll in the credit monitoring services, please follow the instructions in the enclosure.

What Can You Do. We encourage you to review the enclosed Steps You Can Take To Protect Personal Information for additional guidance on what you can do to better protect against the possibility of identity theft and fraud. You may also activate the complimentary credit and identity monitoring services we are offering.

For More Information. We understand that you may have questions about this incident that are not addressed in this letter. If you have questions, please call XXX-XXX-XX, Monday through Friday from X:00 a.m. to X:00 p.m. Eastern Time. You may also write to Truly Nolen at 432 S. Williams Blvd. Tucson, AZ 85711.

Sincerely,

Scarlett Nolen
President

Monitor Your Accounts

We encourage you to remain vigilant against incidents of identity theft and fraud by reviewing accounts statements and monitoring your free credit reports for suspicious activity and to detect errors. Under U.S. law, a consumer is entitled to one free credit report annually from each of the three major credit reporting bureaus, Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion. To order your free credit report, visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call, toll-free, 1-877-322-8228. You may also directly contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below to request a free copy of your credit report.

Consumers have the right to place an initial or extended “fraud alert” on a credit file at no cost. An initial fraud alert is a 1-year alert that is placed on a consumer’s credit file. Upon seeing a fraud alert display on a consumer’s credit file, a business is required to take steps to verify the consumer’s identity before extending new credit. If you are a victim of identity theft, you are entitled to an extended fraud alert, which is a fraud alert lasting seven years. Should you wish to place a fraud alert, please contact any one of the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below.

As an alternative to a fraud alert, consumers have the right to place a “credit freeze” on a credit report, which will prohibit a credit bureau from releasing information in the credit report without the consumer’s express authorization. The credit freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in your name without your consent. However, you should be aware that using a credit freeze to take control over who gets access to the personal and financial information in your credit report may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application you make regarding a new loan, credit, mortgage, or any other account involving the extension of credit. Pursuant to federal law, you cannot be charged to place or lift a credit freeze on your credit report. To request a security freeze, you will need to provide the following information:

1. Full name (including middle initial as well as Jr., Sr., II, III, etc.);
2. Social Security number;
3. Date of birth;
4. Addresses for the prior two to five years;
5. Proof of current address, such as a current utility bill or telephone bill;
6. A legible photocopy of a government-issued identification card (state driver’s license or ID card, etc.); and
7. A copy of either the police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency concerning identity theft if you are a victim of identity theft.

Should you wish to place a credit freeze, please contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below:

Additional Information

You may further educate yourself regarding identity theft, fraud alerts, credit freezes, and the steps you can take to protect your personal information by contacting the consumer reporting bureaus, the Federal Trade Commission, or your state Attorney General. The Federal Trade Commission may be reached at: 600 Pennsylvania Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20580; www.identitytheft.gov; 1-877-ID-THEFT (1-877-438-4338); and TTY: 1-866-653-4261. The Federal Trade Commission also encourages those who discover that their information has been misused to file a complaint with them. You can obtain further information on how to file such a complaint by way of the contact information listed above. You have the right to file a police report if you ever experience identity theft or fraud. Please note that in order to file a report with law enforcement for identity theft, you will likely need to provide some proof that you have been a victim. Instances of known or suspected identity theft should also be reported to law enforcement and your state Attorney General. This notice has not been delayed by law enforcement.
