We immediately began investigating and engaged third party experts to assist us with this response. Subsequently, we determined that your personally identifiable information was disclosed in this email to an unauthorized recipient.

Since discovering the unauthorized disclosure, we have notified federal, state and local law enforcement of this incident. What you can do.

We ask that you remain vigilant with respect to your personal information and we encourage you to consider the following steps:

- Contact your credit card and other financial companies you have relationships with to alert them that your identity was compromised and to establish additional security on your personal accounts. Closely monitor all financial accounts including credit cards, checking and saving accounts, 401k, etc. and contact the institution if you see unauthorized activity.
- If you have any accounts where your Social Security number is your username, please switch them to a distinct username. This may include your 401k.
- Please file your tax returns as soon as possible. For additional information, contact your local Internal Revenue Service office or call 1-800-908-4490. You can also visit this IRS website which provides information to taxpayers affected by a data breach: <https://www.irs.gov/Individuals/Data-Breach-Information-for-Taxpayers>.
- Monitor your credit report at all three of the national credit reporting agencies. You can order a free copy of your credit report by visiting www.annualcreditreport.com, calling 877-322-8228, or completing the Annual Credit Report Form on the Federal Trade Commission website at <http://www.consumer.ftc.gov/articles/pdf-0093-annual-report-request-form.pdf>. - Consider placing a fraud alert message on your credit file. By placing this alert on your credit file, any company that requests your credit file will receive a message warning them that you may have been a victim of fraud. Companies that receive this alert may request that you provide proof of your identity. This step will help to protect you from accounts being opened or used by anyone other than yourself. If you would like to place a fraud alert on your credit file, call Equifax at 1-888-766-0008 or request a fraud alert at https://www.alerts.equifax.com/AutoFraud_Online/jsp/fraudAlert.jsp.
- Consider placing a security freeze on your credit report. A security freeze prohibits a credit reporting agency from releasing any information from a consumer's credit report without written authorization. However, please be aware that placing a security freeze on your credit report may delay, interfere with, or prevent the timely approval of any requests you make for new loans, credit mortgages, employment, housing or other services.

If your personal information is used without authorization and you become a victim of identity theft, you should file a police report. You can then provide the credit reporting agency with your valid police report, and it cannot charge you to place, lift or remove a security freeze. In all other cases, a credit reporting agency may charge you up to $5.00 each to place, temporarily lift, or permanently remove a security freeze.

To place a security freeze on your credit report, you must send a written request to each of the three major credit reporting agencies: Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion by regular, certified or overnight mail at the addresses listed in the table below.

Equifax Security Freeze

P.O. Box 105788
Atlanta, GA 30348

Experian Security Freeze

P.O. Box 9554

1. Your full name (including middle initial as well as Jr., Sr., II, III, etc.);
2. Social Security number;
3. Date of Birth;
4. If you have moved in the past five (5) years, provide the addresses where you have lived over the prior five years;
5. Proof of current address such as a current utility bill or telephone bill;
6. A legible photocopy of a government issued identification card (state driver's license or ID card, military identification, etc.);

7. If you are a victim of identity theft, you should file a police report and include a copy of either the police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency concerning identity theft;
8. If you are not a victim of identity theft, include payment by check, money order, or credit card (Visa, MasterCard, American Express or Discovery only). Do not send cash through the mail.

The credit reporting agencies have three (3) business days after receiving your request to place a security freeze on your credit report. The credit reporting agencies must also send written confirmation to you within five (5) business days and provide you with a unique personal identification number (PIN) or password, or both that can be used by you to authorize the removal or lifting of the security freeze.

To lift the security freeze in order to allow a specific entity or individual access to your credit report, you must call or send a written request to the credit reporting agencies by mail and include proper identification (name, address, and Social Security number) and the PIN number or password provided to you when you placed the security freeze as well as the identities of those entities or individuals you would like to receive your credit report or the specific period of time you want the credit report available. The credit reporting agencies have three (3) business days after receiving your request to lift the security freeze for those identified entities or for the specified period of time.

- If you detect any incident of fraud or identity theft, promptly report the incident to your local law enforcement authority and the Federal Trade Commission (www.consumer.ftc.gov; 877-438-4338; 600 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, Washington, D.C. 20580). If you detect any potential fraud or identity theft related to your taxes, you should contact the Internal Revenue Service immediately at 1-800-908-4490. You can also obtain information from these sources about additional methods to prevent identity theft, and you can obtain information from the Federal Trade Commission and the consumer reporting agencies for more information regarding fraud alerts and security freezes.

We take the protection of your personal information very seriously and apologize for any inconvenience. If you have any questions regarding this notification, please contact us at 1-877-451-9366 or turnerdatabreach@tcco.com.

Sincerely,

The Turner Corporation

Fraud Alert. You may place a fraud alert in your file by calling one of the three nationwide credit reporting agencies above. A fraud alert tells creditors to follow certain procedures, including contacting you before they open any new accounts or change your existing accounts. For that reason, placing a fraud alert can protect you, but also may delay you when you seek to obtain credit.

Security Freeze. You have the ability to place a security freeze on your credit report.

A security freeze is intended to prevent credit, loans and services from being approved in your name without your consent. To place a security freeze on your credit report, you may be able to use an online process, an automated telephone line, or a written request to any of the three credit reporting agencies listed above. The following information must be included when requesting a security freeze (note that if you are requesting a credit report for your spouse, this information must be provided for him/her as well): (1) full name, with middle initial and any suffixes; (2) Social Security number; (3) date of birth; (4) current address and any previous addresses for the past five years; and (5) any applicable incident report or complaint with a law enforcement agency or the Registry of Motor Vehicles. The request must also include a copy of a government-issued identification card and a copy of a recent utility bill or bank or insurance statement. It is essential that each copy be legible, display your name and current mailing address, and the date of issue. The credit reporting agencies may charge a fee to place a freeze, temporarily lift it or permanently remove it. The fee is waived if you are a victim of identity theft and have submitted a valid investigative or law enforcement report or complaint relating to the identity theft incident to the credit reporting agencies. (You must review your state's requirement(s) and/or credit bureau requirement(s) for the specific document(s) to be submitted.)

For Massachusetts residents: The fee for each placement of a freeze, temporary lift of a freeze, or removal of a freeze is $5.

Federal Trade Commission and State Attorneys General Offices. If you believe you are the victim of identity theft or have reason to believe your personal information has been misused, you should immediately contact the Federal Trade Commission and/or the Attorney General's office in your home state. You may also contact these agencies for information on how to prevent or avoid identity theft.

You may contact the Federal Trade Commission, Consumer Response Center, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20580, www.ftc.gov/bcp/edu/microsites/idtheft/, 1-877-IDTHEFT (438-4338).
