Dear Sample A. Sample:

We are writing to inform you, as a [EXTRA1] of WSSC Water, of a recent security event at WSSC Water that may affect the privacy of some of your personal information. While we have no evidence at this time that your information has been publicly disclosed or misused, we are providing you with details about the event, our response to it, and resources available to you to help protect your information. This letter also provides important information about credit and fraud monitoring services, as well as identity theft insurance, at no cost. Enrollment instructions can be found in the following pages.

What Happened? On May 24, 2021, our IT department discovered a ransomware virus beginning to infect our business systems. The virus was successfully halted and removed within hours. WSSC Water is fully operational, and the incident did not impact water or wastewater service or quality, and impacted business systems were restored to full operation within days. As we have continued to investigate this matter, it appears that files on our network were accessed by an unauthorized individual prior to the attack, including files containing your information. The WSSC Federal Credit Union, while located in the WSSC Water headquarters building in Laurel, Md., is a separate entity with their own IT system, so the security event could not have affected the Credit Union’s computer systems.

What Information Was Involved? The information that was impacted by this event includes your name, [EXTRA2]. Again, we have no indication at this time that your information was publicly disclosed or subject to actual or attempted misuse as a result of this incident; however, in an abundance of caution, we are providing this notification, and offering you five (5) years of credit monitoring with $1,000,000 in identity theft insurance at no cost to you.

What We Are Doing. As stated above, we are offering you and every potentially impacted individual five (5) years of credit and identity monitoring with $1,000,000 in identity theft insurance at no cost to you. Upon learning of this incident, WSSC Water moved quickly to secure our systems and to conduct a comprehensive investigation, as well as to report this incident to the FBI and Maryland Attorney General. As part of our ongoing commitment to the privacy of personal information in our care, we are reviewing our policies, procedures, and processes related to storage of and access to personal information. This investigation and response include confirming the security of WSSC Water's systems, reviewing the contents of relevant data for sensitive information, and notifying impacted individuals associated with that sensitive information. We also will cooperate with any investigation by law enforcement.

What You Can Do. We encourage you to remain vigilant against incidents of identity theft and fraud, to review your account statements, and monitor your free credit reports for suspicious activity and to detect errors. Please also review the information contained in the attached "Steps You Can Take to Protect Personal Information."

We encourage you to enroll to receive the five (5) years of complimentary credit monitoring and identity theft protection services being provided by WSSC Water. WSSC Water will cover the cost of this service; however, you will need to enroll yourself in this service as we are unable to do so on your behalf.

For More Information. We understand you may have questions that are not addressed in this letter. If you have additional questions, or need assistance, please call (855) 797-1270, Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 11 p.m. and Saturday and Sunday from 11 a.m. to 8 p.m., Eastern Time, excluding U.S. major holidays. You may also contact WSSC Water by mail at 14501 Sweitzer Ln, Laurel, MD 20707.

We sincerely regret any inconvenience this incident may have caused.

Sincerely,

Monitor Your Accounts

Under U.S. law, a consumer is entitled to one free credit report annually from each of the three major credit reporting bureaus, Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion. To order your free credit report, visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call, toll-free, 1-877-322-8228. You may also directly contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below to request a free copy of your credit report.

Consumers have the right to place an initial or extended “fraud alert” on a credit file at no cost. An initial fraud alert is a 1-year alert that is placed on a consumer’s credit file. Upon seeing a fraud alert display on a consumer’s credit file, a business is required to take steps to verify the consumer’s identity before extending new credit. If you are a victim of identity theft, you are entitled to an extended fraud alert, which is a fraud alert lasting seven years. Should you wish to place a fraud alert, please contact any one of the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below.

As an alternative to a fraud alert, consumers have the right to place a “credit freeze” on a credit report, which will prohibit a credit bureau from releasing information in the credit report without the consumer’s express authorization. The credit freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in your name without your consent. However, you should be aware that using a credit freeze to take control over who gets access to the personal and financial information in your credit report may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application you make regarding a new loan, credit, mortgage, or any other account involving the extension of credit. Pursuant to federal law, you cannot be charged to place or lift a credit freeze on your credit report. To request a credit freeze, you will need to provide the following information:

1. Full name (including middle initial as well as Jr., Sr., II, III, etc.);
2. Social Security number;
3. Date of birth;
4. Addresses for the prior two to five years;
5. Proof of current address, such as a current utility bill or telephone bill;
6. A legible photocopy of a government-issued identification card (state driver’s license or ID card, etc.); and
7. A copy of either the police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency concerning identity theft if you are a victim of identity theft.

Should you wish to place a credit freeze, please contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below:
