

Mass Joinder Lawsuits

Pending Cases

The nation's top trial lawyers have banded together. These are the lawyers who previously represented these very same banks; the lawyers who know their way around the courthouses better than anyone.

Already, these lawyers have filed a Mass Joinder case in 2009 that remains pending against Bank of America (Countrywide) and additional litigation against JP Morgan Chase/Washington Mutual, One West/IndyMac, GMAC, Wells Fargo/Wachovia and Citibank which have all defrauded hundreds of thousands of Homeowners. This case is now going national. These lawyers have invoked laws and procedures the banks were previously unaware of, and Bank of America is getting beat at their own game because of it. Recently the Bank was forced to admit that it had been defrauding the government in foreclosing on mortgages nationwide. Furthermore, on October 4, 2010, the Honorable Manuel Real of the United States District Court called the bank's primary argument "absurd" and kicked the bank out of Federal Court.

The case is now proceeding in the trial court, and the Mass Joinder of plaintiffs from around the country is expanding. It may be that the bank are unable to show they own any of their promissory notes, or that the bank have made other errors that will cause other penalties to be levied against them. In this case alone, they have racked up consecutive wins in each round against Bank of America (Countrywide).
