The California Department of Justice will be updating the California Restraining and Protective Order System (CARPOS) effective January 1, 2026. Senate Bill (SB) No. 899 (2023-2024 Reg. Sess.) amended Civil Code section 527.9 and added sections 527.11 and 527.12; amended Family Code sections 3044 and 6389; amended Penal Code sections 1524, 11108.2, 18120, 25555, 26379, 26540, 28100, 29810, 29830, 30342 and added section 18120.5 to, among other things, expand firearm relinquishment procedures. In response to SB 899, the Judicial Council of California (JCC) made changes to the Elder Abuse, Civil Harassment, Workplace Violence, School Violence, and Gun Violence Restraining Order forms. As a result of the JCC's changes to the forms, the following non-substantive verbiage amendments are being made to CARPOS's Firearms Provision Field (FAP) field when "B" (full firearm provisions granted) is entered to align with the order forms:
