SECTION 999.5(d)(1)(A)

(A) A full description of the proposed agreement and transaction:

SUMMARY

California-Nevada Methodist Homes ("CNMH"), a California nonprofit public benefit corporation, owns and operates two continuing care retirement communities ("CCRC") in California: Lake Park located at 1850 Alice St, Oakland, CA 94612 and Forest Hill located at 551 Gibson Ave, Pacific Grove, CA 93950.

Lake Park consists of a residential care facility for the elderly ("RCFE") that includes 143 residential (independent) living units and 37 assisted living apartments, plus a 35-unit skilled nursing facility ("SNF"). Lake Park also has an underground parking lot with 62 parking spaces.

Forest Hill consists of an RCFE that includes 91 residential (independent) living units and 18 assisted living apartments, plus a 26-unit SNF. Forest Hill includes an underground parking lot with 29 parking spaces and an adjacent private resident above-ground parking garage with 32 parking spaces.

In addition, CNMH owns a 6,798 square-foot single-story office building (the "Office Building") at 201 19th Street, Oakland, CA 94612. The Office Building includes an above-ground parking lot with approximately 20 parking spaces.

Purchase and Sale Agreement. CNMH has entered into a Purchase and Sale Agreement ("Sale Agreement") with Pacifica Companies LLC ("Buyer") to enable Buyer or its designee(s) to purchase substantially all of CNMH's assets, including real and personal property, and to assume substantially all of CNMH's liabilities. The Sale Agreement is attached to this Notice.

Specifically, Buyer has agreed to pay thirty-four million dollars ($34,000,000) in cash, to assume entrance fee repayment liabilities not to exceed $20,731,738, and to assume all of CNMH's obligations under CNMH's residency agreements with current and former residents. The net sale proceeds will be used to discharge CNMH's obligations to the debtor-in-possession lender, pay the financial advisor's commission related to the sale of its assets, pay off its debt under tax-exempt bonds and a line of credit, both insured by the Cal-Mortgage insurance program, and cover other expenses. These debts and the use of the sale proceeds are described in more detail below. In addition, a "stalking horse bidder" fee of $1,000,000 payable to Buyers will be deducted from this sum. This transaction was approved by the United States Bankruptcy Court pursuant to an order entered on February 8, 2022. Please see below for more details.

Buyer has assigned the Sale Agreement to its designees: Pacific Grove Senior Living LLC will purchase Forest Hill and Lake Merritt Senior Living LLC will purchase Lake Park. Buyer and its designees are collectively referred to in this notice as "Buyers."

Buyers intend to operate both Forest Hill and Lake Park as CCRCs, including the RCFE and SNF levels of care. At Forest Hill, Pacific Grove Senior Living LLC plans to engage 551 Gibson Ave SNF, LLC, a subsidiary of Buena Vista Healthcare, LLC, to operate the SNF, and to engage California Senior Living Management LLC to manage the RCFE. At Lake Park, Lake Merritt Senior Living LLC plans to engage AOAS LLC, a new entity created by Aspen Skilled Healthcare, to operate the SNF, and to engage Northstar Senior Living to manage the RCFE. The management and operating agreements are attached to this Notice. All of these operators have experience operating in California or were created by companies with such experience.

BACKGROUND AND DESCRIPTION OF TRANSACTION

History of CNMH

Properties. CNMH is a California nonprofit public benefit corporation and Section 501(c)(3) public charity formed in 1955 that owns and operates Lake Park (originally called "Lake Park Retirement Residence") and Forest Hill (originally called "Forest Hill Manor"). Forest Hill has been serving seniors on the Monterey Peninsula since 1955 and Lake Park has been serving seniors in the San Francisco Bay Area since 1965. Both communities provide residential living, assisted living, and skilled nursing facilities on one campus. Both were renovated using proceeds from a 2015 tax-exempt bond financing. CNMH purchased the Office Building in 1963 and has used it as its corporate office since that date.

Governance. CNMH has a self-perpetuating board of trustees ("Board"), including one resident trustee nominated by the resident association as provided in California's continuing care law. CNMH has no corporate members. CNMH was originally affiliated with the California-Nevada Conference, United Methodist Church (the "Conference"). However, in June 2019, that relationship was severed by mutual agreement of the parties.

Tax-exempt Bonds. In 2015, CNMH borrowed $32,920,000 in insured tax-exempt revenue bonds (1) to refinance prior bonds at more favorable rates and to extend the term, thus reducing annual debt service; and (2) to make over $6 million in renovations to the apartments and common areas at Lake Park and Forest Hill. The bonds are insured by the State of California's Cal-Mortgage insurance program. The Issuer is the California Health Facilities Financing Authority. The longest term bonds will mature in 2045. The official statement for this financing and other related information can be found at https://emma.msrb.org//IssueView/Details/ER371931. The current balance of the bonds is $29,595,000. CNMH is currently in default under the bonds: it has stopped making semi-annual debt service payments and its debt service reserve has been depleted.

Reasons for Selling CNMH's Assets. CNMH has had financial difficulties for several years, starting when CNMH expanded Forest Hill. The expansion opened in 2008, during the heart of the recession. Over the years, these vacancies have taken a severe toll on CNMH's revenues.

CNMH has also struggled with its size. In the competitive and expensive field of senior care and housing, it is exceedingly difficult for small continuing care providers to remain financially viable given the lack of economies of scale and limited clout in the marketplace. Starting in 2016 or 2017, CNMH encountered problems meeting its liquidity and debt service coverage obligations. CNMH disclosed these issues to the Cal-Mortgage Program within the Department of Health Care Access and Information ("HCAI") and the Continuing Care Bureau of the California Department of Social Services ("DSS"). DSS is the agency that regulates CNMH's CCRC and RCFE operations. Since that time, CNMH has worked closely with both agencies to address these concerns. Unfortunately, CNMH, in consultation with DSS and Cal-Mortgage, determined that it was unable to turn around its operating losses quickly. CNMH's board therefore voted to sell its assets to or merge or affiliate with an economically stronger entity.

CNMH first attempted to sell its assets in 2018. A sale that was slated to close in February 2020 was aborted at the beginning of the COVID pandemic. We previously notified the Attorney General's office of that transaction and received its approval (in January 2020). The full details of that proposed sale are contained in the 2019 Notice.

CNMH immediately issued a second Request for Proposal (on February 29, 2020); a response was originally due March 16, 2020 but was extended to March 31, 2020 at the request of several candidates. Unfortunately, as the COVID pandemic swept the nation and shelter-in-place orders were issued, all but one candidate withdrew from consideration. That candidate proposed joint exploration potentially leading to affiliation; however, after several weeks of due diligence and discussions with regulators, the parties agreed to discontinue their talks.

During the period from March 2020 to March 2021, CNMH's financial condition deteriorated further. CNMH already had difficulty selling new continuing care contracts, its monthly fee revenues were down, and families were concerned about the time it was taking CNMH to relet apartments. (Under the "repayable" continuing care contracts and California's continuing care law, no entrance fee repayment was owed to the departing resident or estate until the same apartment was occupied by a new continuing care resident.)

The pandemic, related lock-downs, and the ban on new admissions at long-term care communities greatly exacerbated CNMH's woes. During this period, CNMH continued to meet regularly with DSS and HCAI. CNMH sought relief from HCAI, including deferrals of missed bond covenants, exemption from monthly deposits to a revenue fund designed to pay semi-annual debt service, and, ultimately, use of the debt service reserve fund to make debt service payments. At the same time, DSS required CNMH to escrow all new entrance fees. DSS had previously recorded a statutory lien on CNMH's real property for the benefit of residents.

Bankruptcy Filing and Proceedings. Given the challenges described above, CNMH determined that the best way to protect residents and address its financial challenges was to commence a Chapter 11 bankruptcy case. On March 16, 2021, CNMH filed a voluntary Chapter 11 bankruptcy case in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of California, Oakland Division (Case No. 21-40363). On April 8, 2021 and April 19, 2021, the United States Trustee for the Northern District of California appointed an Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the "Committee") for the bankruptcy case.

In the opinion of CNMH and its Chief Restructuring Officer, Steven Nerger of Silverman Consulting, CNMH's substantial operating losses could not be quickly and readily reversed. For CNMH to survive, it needed to enter into a sale, affiliation, or merger transaction as soon as possible with a highly qualified and financially sound entity.

In March and April, 2021, CNMH solicited bids from three investment banks with experience in senior care and housing: Cain Brothers, Piper Sandler & Co., and B.C. Ziegler and Company ("Ziegler"). CNMH selected Ziegler based on its experience, reputation, fees, and willingness to defer its compensation until the closing of a sale transaction.

On May 20, 2021, on CNMH's motion, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order authorizing CNMH to employ Ziegler as CNMH's exclusive financial advisor to develop and implement a sale, affiliation, or merger process in accordance with a letter agreement with Ziegler dated May 18, 2021. The letter agreement is attached to this Notice.

On June 15, 2021, Ziegler circulated a four-page executive summary of the opportunity to acquire CNMH's assets (the "Executive Summary") to about 100 prospects. The Executive Summary is attached at Section 999.5(d)(2)(D). Interested persons were asked to sign a nondisclosure agreement ("NDA") before being provided with a more detailed description of the opportunity. Fifty-five entities signed the NDA. Copies of the signed NDAs are attached hereto.

On June 15, 2021, Ziegler circulated a 61-page "Confidential Memorandum" entitled "Acquisition Opportunity." The Confidential Memorandum is attached at Section 999.5(d)(2)(D). In response to the Confidential Memorandum, Ziegler elicited non-binding letters of interest from ten potential purchasers or affiliation or merger partners.

With the assistance of CNMH's bankruptcy counsel, Ziegler conducted an extensive and exhaustive de facto auction process. In an informal but transparent manner, CNMH and Ziegler encouraged interested parties to enhance their proposals. In response, Buyer and other interested parties enhanced their proposals on two or more occasions. Ultimately, Buyer made what CNMH deemed the best proposal based on price and the following factors: Buyer's senior care experience, qualifications, financial strength, willingness and ability to assume and perform all contractual obligations to residents and former residents (or their successors), experience with California regulators, absence of third-party financing contingencies, and ability and willingness to close quickly.

On October 13, 2021, CNMH entered into a precursor of the Sale Agreement with Buyer. The Sale Agreement was amended on October 18, 2021 and was amended and restated again on November 16, 2021. (The Sale Agreement and amendments are attached at Section 999.5(d)(1)(B).) After performing an inspection of the two communities, on November 30, 2021, Buyer gave notice of its intent to terminate the Sale Agreement based on concerns it had about the physical condition of and need for substantial capital expenditures at Lake Park. Between December 1 and 3, 2021 CNMH and Buyer had several telephone meetings to discuss options to enable the transaction to proceed. On December 3, 2021, Buyer telephonically expressed its desire to end the initial Sale Agreement.

At this stage, based on consultations with counsel for HCAI, DSS, and other interested parties, CNMH decided to pursue an auction pursuant to Section 363 of the United States Bankruptcy Code. Buyer agreed to serve as the "stalking horse" bidder at a starting bid of $30,000,000.

The auction was conducted by Hanson Bridgett as debtor's counsel on February 2, 2022. The minimum bidding increment was $250,000. Buyer and Heritage Campus Group ("Heritage") bid against each other until Heritage submitted the final bid of $34,250,000. Ultimately, based on consultations with Ziegler and various interested parties, Buyer was selected as the winning bidder at $34,000,000 because of the factors recited above and because its offer was more aligned with CNMH's interests than Heritage's offer. Not only did Heritage's offer require the closing of a new bond financing, which could have delayed closing the sale, but the offer would have burdened the new provider with a substantial amount of new debt that could have compromised the financial viability and strength of the new provider.

On February 8, 2022, on CNMH's motion, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order approving the sale of CNMH's assets to Buyer on the terms set forth in a Sale Agreement dated December 17, 2021, as amended to reflect the winning bid ($34,000,000).

About the Buyer. Buyer is a privately-held real estate company that is based in San Diego, California. Affiliates of Buyer own and operate 84 senior living or retirement communities, of which 40 are located in California. They currently own and operate two CCRCs in California.

About the Managers and Operators. The proposed manager of the RCFE at Lake Park, Northstar Senior Living, was founded in 2008. Northstar is an experienced management company that operates 24 RCFEs in California and awaits permission from DSS to manage eight more California RCFEs. Northstar currently manages six properties owned by Buyer or its related entities. Five of these properties are located in California and one is located in Oregon.

The proposed licensee and operator of the SNF at Lake Park is a new California limited liability company ("LLC"), AOAS, LLC. Aspen Skilled Healthcare, Inc. ("Aspen"), founded in 2009, is the sole member of AOAS, LLC. Aspen is an experienced operator: it and its affiliates currently operate 27 SNFs in California. Aspen-affiliated entities operate three properties owned by Buyer or its affiliates.

The proposed manager of the RCFE at Forest Hill is California Senior Living Management LLC, a new LLC formed by and affiliated with Buyer.

The proposed licensee and operator of the SNF at Forest Hill is 551 Gibson Ave SNF, LLC, a California LLC ("Gibson") and new affiliate of Buena Vista Healthcare, LLC, a California LLC formed in 2019 ("BVHC"). BVHC operates eight SNFs in California.

2.3 Prorations at Closing.

(a) Expenses, Costs and Charges. The following items shall be prorated between Seller and Buyer as of the Closing Date. Seller shall be responsible for such items prior to the Closing Date and Buyer shall be responsible for such items on and after the Closing Date:

(i) real and personal property taxes for the calendar year in which the Closing occurs, giving recognition to any discount available for earliest payment. If taxes are prorated on an estimated basis rather than the actual tax for the year in which the Closing occurs, the parties shall adjust the prorated amount when such actual tax is known, based on the final tax bill for the year in which the Closing occurs;

(ii) water, fuel, electricity, telephone, garbage collection, sewage, and other utility service charges and expenses; and

(iii) any other accrued and apportionable operating costs, charges and expenses, including without limitation those under the Assumed Contracts.

To the extent that prior to the Closing, Seller was appealing any ad valorem tax assessment or otherwise engaged in a tax contest, any refund or reduction in taxes applicable to any year prior to the year in which the Closing occurs shall be and remain the property of Seller and if any such tax refund is paid to, received by or credited to Buyer, Buyer shall promptly remit such payment or a check for such credit to Seller. If after the Closing any taxes are assessed against the Premises for periods prior to the Closing, Buyer shall provide Seller notice of such taxes, which such notice shall include (i) copies of any tax bill or related documentation; and (ii) set forth Buyer's calculations regarding the amount of such taxes which Buyer determines is allocated to Seller in sufficient detail and particularity to enable Seller to verify the amount of the taxes. No later than fifteen (15) days prior to the due date for paying such taxes, Seller shall notify Buyer of any reasonable objections Seller may have to Buyer's calculations regarding the amount of such taxes which Buyer determined is allocated to Seller. Buyer and Seller agree to consult and resolve in good faith any such objection within ten (10) days of the due date of the tax. Seller shall be obligated to pay the portion of such taxes allocable to the period prior to the Closing at least five (5) days before such taxes become delinquent. If Seller fails to pay Seller's portion of such taxes at least five (5) days before such taxes become delinquent, then Buyer shall have the right to pay Seller's portion of such taxes and Seller shall be obligated to immediately reimburse Buyer for any such payments made by Buyer.

(b) Resident Rents and Services Fees. Residents' rents and service fees for the month of Closing shall be allocated as of the Closing Date; the portion thereof allocable to all time periods prior to the Closing Date shall be credited to Seller and the portion thereof allocable to the Closing Date and thereafter shall be allocable to Buyer. Buyer and Seller hereby recognize and agree that all Resident rents and service fees for the month of Closing will not have been collected as of the Closing Date. Therefore, the parties agree to estimate such amounts on the Closing Statement and adjust such estimate post-Closing as hereinafter provided.

Within thirty (30) days after the Closing Date, representatives of Seller and Buyer shall prepare and deliver to each other a schedule itemizing the adjustments to costs, charges and expenses, together with Resident rents and service fees (the "Initial Reconciliation"). The Initial Reconciliation shall include appropriate detail to identify the items being adjusted. A final reconciliation of all expenses, costs, charges, service fees and Resident rents shall be prepared and delivered by representatives of Buyer and Seller to each other within ninety (90) days after the Closing Date (the "Final Reconciliation"). The Final Reconciliation shall appropriately net all items to reflect the net amount owed to Buyer or to Seller as a result of such reconciliation. After approval by both parties of the Final Reconciliation, the party determined to owe cash as a result of such Final Reconciliation shall promptly pay such cash to the other party.

The provisions of this Section 2.3 shall survive the Closing.

2.4 Employees. All employees of the Facility will be terminated by Seller effective on or before the Closing Date. At the time of termination, such terminated employees will receive a final paycheck in accordance with applicable law, and pursuant to Section 9.1 hereof.

2.5 Resident Deposits. With respect to any security deposits or similar amounts posted by Residents of the Facility with Seller prior to Closing, including, without limitation, the Resident CCRC Deposits and any other amounts collected by Seller attributable to a Resident's last month's rental payment pursuant to any applicable residency agreement with Seller (the "Last Month's Rent"), Buyer shall receive a credit for such amounts. A schedule showing the amounts of all such Last Month's Rent, by Resident name, is attached hereto as Schedule 2.5.

2.6 Past Due Residency Payments. With respect to accounts receivable or past due amounts relating to Residents occupying the Facility as of the Closing Date, Buyer shall promptly remit to Seller any amounts which relate to the period prior to the Closing Date actually received by Buyer from such Residents or their guarantors. Buyer shall use its reasonably best efforts to collect all such accounts receivable and past due amounts, provided, however, Buyer shall not agree to reduce any amount owed, or otherwise write-off any amounts, without the consent of Seller. All amounts collected by Buyer shall be applied first to current rents due (and if collected in the month in which the Closing occurs, such rents shall be prorated between Buyer and Seller) and then to delinquencies. The provisions of this Section 2.6 shall survive the Closing.

Section 3. Closing.

3.1 Place and Time; Extensions. The Closing shall take place at the offices of Escrow Agent, or at such other place as the parties may agree, on the Closing Date, and the transactions contemplated hereby shall be deemed effective on the Closing Date. If the consent of any party is required to assign any Assumed Contract to Buyer, Seller shall use commercially reasonable efforts, and Buyer shall cooperate where appropriate, to obtain such consent prior to Closing and deliver the consent to Buyer concurrently with the Assignment and Assumption Agreement;

(d) an affidavit as required by the Foreign Investment in Real Property Tax Act and the corresponding applicable provisions of Florida law, if any;

(e) written authorization from Cal-Fed that all conditions relating to the assignment of the Note and related documents have been assigned by Seller to Cal-Fed;

(f) a closing statement setting forth the Purchase Price, the amounts of all prorated items and all credits, debits and costs contemplated by this Agreement (the "Closing Statement");

(g) physical possession of the Assets, including keys, books, records, safe combinations, and all other things reasonably necessary in order for Buyer to commence business; and

(h) Seller's certificate, dated the Closing Date, certifying that (i) all representations and warranties of Seller contained in this Agreement are true and correct in all respects as of the Closing Date; and (ii) Seller has fully performed in all material respects all obligations, agreements, conditions and commitments required to be fulfilled by Seller on or prior to the Closing Date;

(g) any other documents necessary to close Escrow.

At Closing, Seller shall deliver possession to Buyer at the Facility of any and all records or written documents located at the Facility or otherwise in Seller's possession or control and relating to Residents of the Facility, including, but not limited to, all contracts, applications, and correspondence relating to such Residents. For a period of three (3) years from the Closing, Buyer agrees that upon reasonable advance notice Seller and its representatives may have access to all such items after the Closing and may at Seller's expense make copies of such items, and Buyer agrees to retain all such records and documents in compliance with any and all applicable laws, rules and regulations. For a period of three (3) years from the Closing, Buyer shall neither destroy nor give up possession of such records without first offering the opportunity to Seller, at Seller's expense, to obtain the records. The provisions of this Section 3.4 shall survive the Closing.

3.5 Employee Records. At Closing, Seller shall deliver possession to Buyer at the Facility of any and all records or written documents physically located at the Facility and relating to employees of the Facility who are actually employed by Buyer on the Closing Date. For a period of three (3) years from the Closing, Buyer agrees that upon reasonable advance notice Seller and its representatives may have access to all such items after the Closing and may at Seller's expense make copies of such items, and Buyer agrees to retain all such records and documents in compliance with any and all applicable laws, rules and regulations. For a period of three (3) years from the Closing, Buyer shall neither destroy nor give up possession of such records without first offering the opportunity to Seller, at Seller's expense, to obtain the records. The provisions of this Section 3.5 shall survive the Closing.

Section 4. Earnest Money and Provisions Regarding the Escrow Agent.

4.1 Earnest Money. Seller acknowledges and agrees that within one (1) business day of the execution and delivery of this Agreement, Buyer shall deposit with Escrow Agent the sum of Five Hundred Thousand and No/100 Dollars ($500,000.00) ("Earnest Money"). Escrow Agent is hereby directed to deposit the Earnest Money in an interest bearing account with the interest accruing under Buyer's federal taxpayer identification number. If Buyer delivers to Escrow Agent Buyer's Approval Notice prior to or at the expiration of the Due Diligence Period, the Earnest Money shall become nonrefundable (except to the extent Seller defaults on its obligations hereunder or a condition precedent to Buyer's obligations is not satisfied or waived in writing by Buyer in accordance with the provisions of Section 13 hereof), and shall be held in escrow by Escrow Agent until Closing or the earlier termination of this Agreement. If this Agreement is terminated or deemed terminated during or at the end of the Due Diligence Period (or within the additional 14-day period described in the definition of Earnest Money Deposit in Section 1, above), Escrow Agent shall release the Earnest Money (and all interest earned thereon), or any portion thereof being held in Escrow, to Buyer. Following such release of the Earnest Money, or portion thereof, neither party shall have any further rights or obligations hereunder (other than those arising from a party's breach of this Agreement).

4.2 Applicable to Purchase Price. The Earnest Money shall be applicable to the Purchase Price.

4.3 Independent Consideration. Buyer shall deposit into escrow, concurrently with and in addition to the Earnest Money, the amount of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) (the "Independent Consideration"). The Independent Consideration shall be non-refundable and released to Seller as independent consideration for the rights extended to Buyer hereunder, including the right to terminate this Agreement as provided herein. If Buyer elects to terminate this Agreement for any reason other than Seller's default, Seller shall retain the Independent Consideration. The Independent Consideration shall be applicable towards the Purchase Price in the event the Closing occurs.

Section 5. Certain Actions Prior to Closing.

5.1 Governmental Approvals. Within thirty (30) days following the expiration of the Due Diligence Period, Buyer shall submit applications for the Regulatory Clearances to the Agencies and the Attorney General of the State of California, together with applications for any other licenses or permits that Buyer in its discretion deems may be necessary or appropriate to authorize Buyer to lawfully operate the Facilities on the Closing Date; provided, however, that Buyer shall have such additional time as reasonably necessary to submit the application(s) to the CDPH for the licenses needed to operate the skilled nursing components of the Facilities. Buyer shall pay all costs associated with such applications and shall diligently and persistently in good faith pursue the issuance of the Regulatory Clearances so that the Regulatory Clearances are issued in the shortest period of time permitted by law. Seller shall provide Buyer with reasonable cooperation and assistance by supplying such information as Buyer reasonably requests in connection with Buyer's application for Regulatory Clearances and any such other licenses or permits, provided that Seller shall have no obligation to review or approve any of Buyer's applications or materials submitted in connection therewith and Buyer shall be solely responsible for the contents thereof.

5.2 Order for Sale. Within ten (10) days of the Effective Date, Seller shall file with the Court in the Action a motion for approval of sale under Section 363 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code. Seller shall diligently prosecute such motion, in good faith, with the goal of obtaining Court approval of the sale of the Assets to Buyer subject only to the Regulatory Approvals.

Section 6. Title Condition.

6.1 Premises Title Requirements. Within three (3) business days after the Effective Date, Seller shall deliver to Buyer a preliminary title report issued by Title Company describing the state of title of the Property, together with copies of all exceptions specified therein (the "Preliminary Title Report"). Buyer shall notify Seller in writing ("Buyer's Title Objection Notice") of any objections Buyer may have to title exceptions contained in the Preliminary Title Report prior to the expiration of the Feasibility Period. Any and all exceptions to title that are capable of being removed as exceptions by payment of a fixed and liquidated sum of money shall be automatically deemed objected to by Buyer. Seller shall have a period of three (3) business days after receipt of Buyer's Title Objection Notice in which to deliver written notice to Buyer ("Seller's Title Notice") of Seller's election to either (i) agree to remove the objectionable items prior to the Close of Escrow, or (ii) decline to remove any such title exceptions. If Seller fails to deliver a Seller's Title Notice, Seller shall be deemed to have declined to remove any such objectionable items. If Seller notifies Buyer of its election to decline to remove any or all such objectionable items, Buyer shall have the right, by written notice delivered to Seller within five (5) business days after Buyer's receipt of Seller's Title Notice, to elect between either, (iii) accepting the cancellation of escrow, in which event the entire Deposit shall be immediately released to Buyer; or (iv) to agree to accept the Property subject to the objectionable items, in which event Seller's election to terminate the Escrow shall be of no effect, and Buyer shall take title at the Close of Escrow subject to such objectionable items. Upon the issuance of any amendment or supplement to the Preliminary Title Report which adds additional exceptions, the foregoing right of review and approval shall also apply to said amendment or supplement (provided that the period for Buyer to review such amendment or supplement shall be the later of the expiration of the Feasibility Period or three (3) business days from receipt of the amendment or supplement) and Escrow shall be deemed extended by the amount of time necessary to allow such review and approval in the time and manner set forth above; provided, however, that in no event shall the Close of Escrow be extended as a result of such delay for more than thirty (30) days.

6.2 Condition of Assets. At Closing, the Assets shall be in the same condition as on the Effective Date, subject to reasonable wear and tear and depletion and restocking in the ordinary course of business, except Seller shall not remove any Fixtures, Furniture or Equipment from the Facility prior to the Closing, other than the Excluded Items, and shall keep the Inventory stocked consistent with the levels stocked prior to the Effective Date and as required under applicable law by the Agency. Buyer shall be entitled to inspect the Assets at Buyer's election at any time during ordinary business hours upon reasonable advance notice.

6.3 Surveys. To the extent required by Lender, Buyer shall, at Buyer's sole expense, obtain a current survey of the Premises.

Section 7. Inspections and Review - Due Diligence Period.

(j) any and all capital expenditure expenditures and/or budgets for the three (3) year period prior to the Effective Date;

(k) any and all management agreements for the Facilities;

(l) all other documents, contracts, studies and/or reports, as Buyer may request, relating to the Assets in Seller's possession or control; and

(m) most recent appraisal, if any, of the Facility and/or the Assets.

Prior to the Close of Escrow, Buyer shall have the right to request any additional documentation in Seller's possession or control relating to the Assets. Seller shall deliver to Buyer copies of all notices and other material documents relating to the Assets, which Seller receives after the Effective Date.

7.2 Refund of Deposit Upon Termination. Beginning on the Effective Date and continuing until the Close of Escrow or earlier termination of this Agreement, Buyer, at its expense, shall have access to, and the right to examine the Assets, all books and records thereof and pertaining thereto, and title to the Premises and to conduct such environmental, structural and geological assessments on the Premises as Buyer, in its discretion, deems reasonably necessary or appropriate without disruption to the operation of the business of the Seller. Buyer shall restore as nearly as practicable the Premises to its prior condition after completion of all such assessments and inspections; provided that Buyer shall have no responsibility or liability for any act or omission of Seller or its agents, employees or contractors and/or for any adverse condition or defect affecting the Premises not caused by Buyer or its employees, agents, contractors, or subcontractors (including those discovered during their inspections). In the event that such examination of the Assets, the books and records, the Premises and such environmental assessments are satisfactory to Buyer, Buyer shall deliver to Escrow Agent and Seller, prior to the expiration of the Due Diligence Period, written notice that Buyer approves its feasibility analysis ("Buyer's Approval Notice"). If Buyer fails to deliver Buyer's Approval Notice prior to the expiration of the Due Diligence Period, Buyer shall be deemed to have disapproved its feasibility analysis, whereupon Buyer shall be entitled to a refund of the Earnest Money, and this Agreement shall terminate and neither party shall have any further rights, duties or obligations hereunder except as expressly survive the termination hereof.

7.3 Access. At reasonable times and upon reasonable advance notice at all times during the Due Diligence Period and prior to Closing, Seller shall permit Buyer and Buyer's officers, directors, agents, representatives, contractors and others acting by, through or on behalf of Buyer to have access to the Premises and the Facility, the books and records therefor and the employees in order to facilitate an orderly transition upon Closing.

Section 8. Certain Expenses and Closing Adjustments.

8.1 Expenses of Transaction. Except as expressly provided in this Agreement, each of the parties shall bear its own expenses and costs (including legal and accounting fees) that it incurs in connection with the negotiation, execution and delivery of this Agreement and the Closing of the transactions contemplated hereby. Seller shall pay the cost of the Title Policy and all sales/use taxes and registration, documentary, stamp, real estate, recording and similar taxes, if any, incident to the transfer of the Assets. Buyer shall pay any costs incurred in connection with obtaining the Regulatory Clearances, and any other costs incurred by Buyer hereunder. Seller shall pay the cost of obtaining and recording any documents to release Liens encumbering the Premises which Seller is obligated to release hereunder. The Escrow fee shall be paid equally by Buyer and Seller and all other fees and costs of Escrow shall be paid in accordance with the custom of the County in which the Facility is located.

Section 9. Employment Matters.

9.1 Employee Compensation and Benefits upon Termination. Immediately upon Seller's termination of Seller's employees prior to the Closing, Seller shall deliver to Seller's former employees payroll checks drawn on Seller's payroll account for all monetary compensation and wages to which they are then entitled as of the Closing Date, including, without limitation, wages, salaries, bonuses, overtime, and accrued, unused vacation and/or paid time off, severance, if any, and shall withhold and pay all payroll tax obligations associated therewith, including without limitation income tax, FICA and FUTA obligations, together with any amounts owed with respect to accrued benefits as contemplated by Section 2.4 of this Agreement. Seller shall be responsible for providing all applicable notices under the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1985, as amended, to all terminated employees.

9.2 Representations. Seller represents that, to its knowledge it is in compliance with all currently applicable laws and regulations respecting terms and conditions of employment, including, without limitation, applicant and employee background checking, immigration laws, discrimination laws, verification of employment eligibility, employee leave laws, classification of workers as employees and independent contractors, wage and hour laws, labor laws and occupational safety and health laws. There are no claims, complaints, charges, investigations or proceedings pending or, to Seller's knowledge, reasonably expected or threatened, between Seller, on the one hand, and any of Seller's current or former employees, on the other hand, including but not limited to any claims for actual or alleged harassment or discrimination based on race, national origin, age, sex, sexual orientation, religion, disability, or similar tortious conduct, breach of contract, wrongful termination, defamation, intentional or negligent infliction of emotional distress, interference with contract or interference with actual or prospective economic advantage. There are no claims pending, or to, Seller's knowledge, reasonably expected or threatened, against Seller under any workers' compensation or long-term disability plan or policy. Pursuant to Section 9.1 of this Agreement, as of the Closing Date, Seller will have provided all of its employees all benefits and monetary compensation and wages to which they are entitled as of the Closing Date, including, without limitation, wages, salaries, bonuses, overtime, and accrued, unused vacation and/or paid time off, and severance, if any.

9.3 Offer of Employment. Buyer is not obligated to offer employment to, or hire, any employee, independent contractor or consultant of Seller at any time prior to or on or after the Closing Date. However, Seller agrees that Buyer may, in Buyer's sole and absolute discretion, offer employment and hire Seller's employee(s), provided such employment with Buyer commences on or after the Closing Date. Seller agrees not to interfere with such employment offers, if any, and shall not induce, dissuade or discourage Seller's employee(s) from considering or accepting employment with Buyer on the terms and conditions offered by Buyer, as determined by Buyer in Buyer's sole and absolute discretion.

9.4 Wages and Benefits. Buyer shall not be responsible for any wages, overtime, benefits, accrued, unused vacation or paid time off, severance, bonuses or any other obligations owed by Seller to Seller's employees. Seller shall not make any written or oral communications to its employees that might lead Seller's employees to believe that Buyer is obligated to hire any of Seller's employees or that Buyer will provide any particular level of wages or benefits to the employees of Seller that Buyer elects to hire. Buyer acknowledges the existing but expires union collective bargaining contract at Lake Park, which contract shall not be assumed by Buyer. Buyer disclaims responsibility for any pension liabilities and shall not assume any withdrawal liability of Seller. Seller shall pay or discharge in the Action any and all employment liability including, by way of example and not by limitation, wages, sick pay, vacation pay, pension obligations, pension withdrawal liability, or any and all other ERISA benefits of any kind.

9.5 Employee Contracts. Except as otherwise provided in Schedule 1(b) to this Agreement, Buyer is not assuming any of Seller's contracts with its employees, independent contractors or consultants, including, but not limited to, employment agreements, incentive compensation or bonus plans, severance plans, employee benefit plans, independent contractor agreements or consulting agreements.

9.6 WARN Act. To the extent applicable, Seller agrees to provide any required notice under the WARN Act and/or or any other applicable state law and to otherwise comply with any such statute(s) with respect to any "plant closing" or "mass layoff" (as defined in the WARN Act or any applicable state counterpart statute) affecting employees and occurring before or after the Closing Date. Seller shall indemnify and hold harmless Buyer with respect to any liability under the WARN Act or other applicable law arising from the actions take by Seller before or after the Closing Date.

Section 10. Casualty and Condemnation.

In the event that prior to the Closing, there shall be any fire, earthquake, force majeure event, or other similar casualty at the Facility or the Premises that damages any material portion thereof, or if any material portion of the Premises or Facility or access thereto is taken or threatened in writing to be taken by condemnation or similar taking by any public or quasi-public agency or organization, then and in such event Seller shall immediately give notice to Buyer and Buyer shall within ten (10) days by notice to Seller either (i) terminate this Agreement, whereupon the Earnest Money shall be refunded to Buyer and neither party shall have any further rights, duties or obligations hereunder except as expressly survive the termination hereof or (ii) elect not to terminate this Agreement, whereupon at Closing, Seller shall assign to Buyer all of Seller's rights with respect to such casualty under Seller's insurance policy, along with a credit against the Purchase Price for any deductible amount thereunder, or rights to any condemnation proceeds, respectively. Failure of Buyer to properly and timely give notice of termination shall mean that Buyer shall be deemed to have elected not to terminate this Agreement.

Section 11. Representations, Warranties and Covenants of Seller.

Seller hereby represents, warrants and covenants to Buyer as follows:

11.1 Organization. Seller is a non-profit public benefit corporation duly organized, validly existing, and in good standing under the laws of the State of California, duly authorized to conduct business in the State of California, with the legal power to own its properties and assets and to carry on its business as presently conducted.

11.5 No Condemnation Proceeding. There is not pending or, to the best of Seller's knowledge, threatened, any (i) condemnation proceeding relating to the Premises, or (ii) reclassification of any or all of the Premises for local zoning purposes, or reassessment or reclassification of any or all of the Premises for state or local real property taxation purposes.

11.6 Compliance with Licensure Requirements. To the best of Seller's knowledge, the Facility currently complies in all material respects with all standards and conditions for the operation and licensure of an assisted living facility imposed by the Agency to the extent such standards and conditions are applicable to the Facility. The physical condition of the Facility, including the fire panel and call system, is sufficiently improved and maintained to satisfy all licensure related inspections.

11.7 Violations. There is no pending or, to the best of Seller's knowledge, threatened, notice, suit, judgment, proceeding or investigation from any federal, state, city or local authority relating to any violation on or at the Premises or Facility (including, but not limited to, any Department of Labor investigation or proceeding); and, to the best of Seller's knowledge, there is no condition existing with respect to the Premises or Facility that violates any statute, ordinance, law or code regarding zoning, building, fire, air-pollution, or health law, or requiring any improvement, alteration, addition, correction or other work on or about the Premises or Facility, whether related to the Premises or Facility or to the activities of any owner or occupant thereof.

11.8 Litigation. Subject to the disclosures set forth on Schedule 11.8 hereto, and other than the Action, there is no litigation, arbitration or proceeding pending, or to the best of Seller's knowledge, threatened, before any court or administrative agency or any other condition that relates to or affects the Premises or the Facility, Seller's performance hereunder, or which will result in a lien, charge, encumbrance or judgment against any part of or any interest in the Premises or the Facility.

11.9 MAC. To Seller's knowledge, no MAC has occurred or, if a MAC has occurred, Seller has provided notice to Buyer within two (2) Business Days of such occurrence.

11.10 No Other Representation and Warranties. NOTWITHSTANDING ANYTHING CONTAINED HEREIN TO THE CONTRARY: (I) BUYER ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT SELLER IS NOT MAKING (AND HAS NOT MADE) ANY REPRESENTATION OR WARRANTY WHATSOEVER, WHETHER EXPRESS OR IMPLIED (INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, ANY IMPLIED WARRANTY OR REPRESENTATION AS TO THE VALUE, CONDITION, MERCHANTABILITY OR SUITABILITY OF ANY OF THE ASSETS) OR CONTAINED, OR REFERRED TO, IN ANY MATERIALS (INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, PROJECTIONS, FORECASTS, BUDGETS AND ESTIMATES) THAT HAVE BEEN PROVIDED TO BUYER, AGENTS OR REPRESENTATIVES BEYOND THOSE EXPRESSLY GIVEN BY THE SELLER IN THIS AGREEMENT, AND (II) IT IS UNDERSTOOD THAT, EXCEPT FOR THE REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES CONTAINED HEREIN, BUYER TAKES THE ASSETS "AS IS," "WHERE IS" AND "WITH ALL FAULTS."

Section 12. Representations, Warranties and Covenants of Buyer.

Buyer hereby represents, warrants and covenants to Seller as follows:

12.1 Organization. Buyer is a limited liability company duly organized, validly existing, and in good standing under the laws of the State of California, duly authorized to conduct business within the States of California and Florida, with the legal power to own its properties and assets and to carry on its business as presently conducted.

12.2 Authority. Buyer has the full power and authority to enter into and to perform its obligations under this Agreement and all other agreements and instruments to be executed by it pursuant to this Agreement, and no approval or consent of, or notice to, any person, entity, or governmental agency or authority is necessary for Buyer to perform hereunder other than the approval of Agency for Buyer to operate the Facility. Buyer's execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement and all other agreements and instruments to be executed by it pursuant to this Agreement have been duly authorized by all necessary actions. This Agreement is, and the other documents to be delivered by Buyer pursuant hereto (when executed and delivered by Buyer) will be, valid and enforceable obligations of Buyer, binding on Buyer in accordance with their terms.

12.3 Not Insolvent. Buyer is not insolvent (as such term is defined in the Bankruptcy Code), and shall not be rendered insolvent as a consequence to the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby.

12.4 No Financing. Buyer has the funds to consummate the transactions contemplated this Agreement and does not require the commitment from any lending institution in order to fulfill its obligations hereunder.

Section 13. Conditions to Parties' Obligations.

13.1 Condition to Buyer's Obligations. The obligations of Buyer to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall be subject to the satisfaction or performance prior to or at Closing of the following conditions, which may be waived by Buyer:

(a) Representations. Each of Seller's representations and warranties as set forth in Section 11 above shall be true as of the date of Closing.

(b) Seller's Other Obligations. Seller shall perform all of its other covenants and obligations as set forth in this Agreement.

(c) Title. The Title Company shall be prepared to issue to Buyer at Closing the Title Policy subject only to the Permitted Encumbrances.

(d) Regulatory Clearances. Buyer shall receive all required Regulatory Clearances.

(e) Order of Sale. The Court in the Action shall have granted Seller's motion for sale of the Assets as contemplated in Section 5.2 of this Agreement.

(f) No Material Real Estate Defect. No Material Real Estate Defect has occurred with regards to the Premises, the Facility or the other Assets after the expiration of the Due Diligence Period.

(g) No MAC. No MAC has occurred that Buyer has not waived by written notice to Seller.

(h) If any of the conditions precedent set forth in set forth in this Section 13.1 have not been materially satisfied or waived by the Closing Date, then Buyer may: (a) terminate this Agreement by notifying Seller and Escrow Agent prior to the Closing Date, in which event Seller shall promptly refund the Earnest Money to Buyer and, if such failure of condition is as a result of a willful act of Seller, pay to Buyer its actual out-of-pocket expenses supported by copies of actual invoices incurred in investigating the Assets up to a maximum amount of $50,000, and neither party shall have any further rights, duties or obligations to the other except as expressly provided to survive termination hereunder; or (b) waive such condition precedent to Closing, whereupon Buyer shall be deemed to have waived any rights or remedies under this Agreement with respect to the unsatisfied condition precedent and the purchase and sale hereunder shall be consummated in accordance with the terms and conditions hereof.

13.2 Condition to Seller's Obligations. The obligations of Seller to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall be subject to the satisfaction or performance prior to or at Closing of the following conditions, which may be waived by Seller:

(a) Representations. Each of Buyer's representations and warranties as set forth in Section 12 above shall be true as of the date of Closing.

(b) Buyer's Other Obligations. Buyer shall perform all of its other covenants and obligations as set forth in this Agreement.

(c) Order of Sale. The Court in the Action shall have granted Seller's motion for sale of the Assets as contemplated in Section 5.2 of this Agreement.

(d) If any of the conditions precedent set forth in this Section 13.2 have not been materially satisfied or waived by the Closing Date, then Seller may: (a) terminate this Agreement by notifying Buyer and Escrow Agent prior to the Closing Date, in which event Seller shall retain the Earnest Money and neither party shall have any further rights, duties or obligations to the other except as expressly provided to survive termination hereunder; or (b) waive such condition precedent to Closing, whereupon Seller shall be deemed to have waived any rights or remedies under this Agreement with respect to the unsatisfied condition precedent and the purchase and sale hereunder shall be consummated in accordance with the terms and conditions hereof.

Section 14. Indemnification.

14.1 Seller's Indemnity. Seller shall and does hereby indemnify, defend and hold Buyer and its managers, members, affiliates, agents and/or employees (each, a "Buyer Party", and collectively, the "Buyer Parties") harmless from and against any and all loss, cost, damage, claim, judgment, liability or expense, including court costs and reasonable actual attorneys' fees (collectively "Losses") which may be asserted against or incurred or suffered by Buyer or the Buyer Parties from time to time by reason of or in connection with (i) any personal injury (including death) or property damage or claim of personal injury or property damage, made by Residents or by Seller's employees, contractors or invitees (unless caused by Buyer), occurring during Seller's ownership of the Assets before Closing; (ii) any inaccuracy of any representation or warranty of Seller in this Agreement; or (iii) the non-fulfillment of any covenant, undertaking, agreement or other obligation of Seller under this Agreement.

14.2 Buyer's Indemnity. Buyer shall and does hereby indemnify, defend and hold Seller and any partner (general or limited) of Seller and any current, former, and future director, officer, manager, member, partner, and employee (each, a "Seller Party", and collectively, the "Seller Parties") harmless from and against any and all Losses, which may be asserted against or incurred or suffered by Seller or Seller Parties from time to time by reason of or in connection with (i) any personal injury (including death) or property damage or claim of personal injury or property damage, made by Residents or by Buyer's employees, contractors or invitees (unless caused by Seller), occurring during Buyer's ownership of the Assets on or after the Closing; (ii) any inaccuracy of any representation or warranty of Buyer in this Agreement; or (iii) the non-fulfillment of any covenant, undertaking, agreement or other obligation of Buyer under this Agreement.

14.3 Survival. Except as otherwise provided herein, the several representations and warranties of the parties contained in this Agreement and a party's right to indemnity in accordance with this Article 14 shall survive the Closing Date and shall remain in full force and effect thereafter for a period of one (1) year after the Closing Date and shall be effective with respect to any inaccuracy therein or breach thereof, notice of which shall have been duly given within such one (1) year period in accordance with Section 14.4 hereof after which one (1) year period they shall terminate and be of no further force or effect.

14.4 Indemnification Procedure. After the incurrence of any Loss by any Buyer Party or any Seller Party, which might give rise to indemnification hereunder, the party seeking indemnification (the "Indemnitee") shall deliver to the party from which indemnification is sought (the "Indemnitor") written notice of such Loss within fifteen (15) days of Indemnitee's becoming aware thereof; provided, however, that delay or failure to so notify the Indemnitor shall only relieve the Indemnitor of its obligations to the extent, if at all, that it is prejudiced by reasons of such delay or failure. The Indemnitor shall have a period of thirty (30) days within which to respond thereto. If the Indemnitor accepts responsibility within such thirty (30)-day period, the Indemnitor shall be obligated to compromise or defend such matter, at its own expense and through counsel reasonably satisfactory to the Indemnitee. If the Indemnitor does respond within such 30-day period and rejects responsibility for such matter in whole or in part, or does not respond, the Indemnitee shall be free to pursue, without prejudice to any of its rights hereunder, such remedies as may be available to the Indemnitee under applicable law at the Indemnitor's expense (subject, for the avoidance of doubt, to the limits set forth in this Article 14). The Indemnitee agrees to cooperate fully with the Indemnitor and its counsel in the defense against any such asserted liability. In any event, the Indemnitee shall have the right to participate in a non-controlling manner and at its own expense in the defense of such asserted liability. Any compromise of such asserted liability by the Indemnitor shall require the prior written consent of the Indemnitee and until such consent is obtained the Indemnitor shall continue the defense of such asserted liability. If, however, the Indemnitee refuses its consent to a bona fide offer of settlement containing a complete release of the Indemnitee from all liability in connection with the underlying claim that the Indemnitor wishes to accept, the Indemnitee may continue to pursue such matter, free of any participation by the Indemnitor, at the sole expense of the Indemnitee. In such event, the obligation of the Indemnitor to the Indemnitee shall be equal to the lesser of (i) the amount of the offer of settlement which the Indemnitee refused to accept plus the costs and expenses of the Indemnitee prior to the date the Indemnitor notifies the Indemnitee of the offer of settlement; or (ii) the actual out-of-pocket amount the Indemnitee is obligated to pay as a result of the Indemnitee's continuing to pursue such matter. The Indemnitor shall be entitled to recover from the Indemnitee any additional expenses incurred by the Indemnitor as a result of the decision of the Indemnitee to pursue such matter. So long as the Indemnitor is reasonably contesting any such claim in good faith, the Indemnitee shall not pay or settle such claim without the Indemnitor's prior written consent; provided that the Indemnitee may pay or settle such claim if it waives its right to indemnity therefor from the Indemnitor.

14.5 Reduction for Insurance. The amount which the Indemnitor is required to pay to, for, or on behalf of the Indemnitee pursuant to this Article 14 shall be reduced (including, without limitation, retroactively) by any insurance proceeds actually recovered by or on behalf of the Indemnitee in reduction of the related indemnifiable loss (the "Indemnifiable Loss"). Amounts required to be paid, as so reduced, are hereinafter sometimes called an "Indemnity Payment." If the Indemnitee shall have received, or if the Indemnitor shall have paid on its behalf, an Indemnity Payment in respect of an Indemnifiable Loss and shall subsequently receive, directly or indirectly, insurance proceeds (which duplicate in whole or in part, the Indemnity Payment) in respect of such Indemnifiable Loss, then the Indemnitee shall promptly pay to the Indemnitor the amount of such insurance proceeds, or, if less, the amount of the Indemnity Payment, subject to the Basket Amount and Cap. The parties hereto agree that the foregoing shall not affect the subrogation rights of any insurance companies making payments hereunder.

14.6 Limitations of Remedies.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein, the parties hereto agree that the indemnification provisions set forth in this Section 14 shall constitute the sole and exclusive remedy of either party for any breach or inaccuracy of any representation or warranty contained in this Agreement. The Buyer acknowledges that it shall not be entitled to seek rescission of the Agreement.

(b) Notwithstanding anything in this Section 14 to contrary, no person shall be entitled to indemnification hereunder if it can be established by clear and convincing evidence that such person had knowledge on or prior to the Closing Date of the failure of any representation or warranty, or the breach of any covenant or agreement or the existence of any fact, event or circumstance, which may serve as the basis for bringing a claim for indemnification hereunder.

Section 15. Conduct of Business Pending Closing.

15.1 Ordinary Course of Business. Beginning on the Effective Date and continuing through the Closing Date; (i) Seller shall make no material change in the operation of the Facility nor enter into any material contract other than in the ordinary course of business nor incur any material liability without the prior written consent of Buyer, and Seller shall ensure that the goodwill and operations of the Facility and the relationships with Residents and employees are preserved in the ordinary course of the business; (ii) Seller shall perform all maintenance and repairs necessary to keep the Facility and Assets in good operating condition and repair, and shall not sell or remove any Inventory or any Fixtures, Furniture and Equipment except in the ordinary course of business; and (iii) Seller shall not, without the prior written consent of Buyer:

(a) enter into any contract, agreement, lease or other commitment with respect to the Facility, except contracts to purchase operating supplies or services in the ordinary course of business;

(b) make any affirmative change in key personnel at the Facility, including the executive director or other department heads; or

(c) enter into any employment arrangement, agreement or undertaking, or pay or promise to pay any fringe benefit, bonus or special compensation to employees, except "stay for pay" arrangements.

15.2 Compensation. Except in the ordinary course of business and consistent with past practices, Seller shall not increase except for annual cost of living, or promise any increase with respect to any salary or other form of compensation payable or to become payable to any of employees, and will not pay any bonus or make any other severance or retirement arrangement with any employees except as may be required pursuant to Section 9.1 hereof.

15.3 Insurance. From the date hereof until the Closing Date, Seller shall continuously maintain insurance on the Facility at no less than the levels maintained on the date hereof. Seller shall maintain "tail" coverage with respect to its professional liability insurance policy for two (2) years following the Closing Date and shall name Buyer as an additional named insured on such tail coverage.

Section 16. Transition.

16.1 Accounts Receivable. Seller shall immediately transmit to Buyer any payments on accounts of the Facility arising after the Closing which may be delivered to Seller from third party payor sources for services rendered after the Closing. Buyer shall immediately transmit to Seller any payments on accounts of the Facility arising after the Closing which may be delivered to Buyer from third party payor sources for services rendered prior to Closing. All payments received by Buyer shall be applied first to current obligations and then to delinquencies.

16.2 Cooperation. Seller and Buyer each agrees to cooperate with the other in all reasonable respects and to provide such information as is necessary to ensure a smooth and orderly transition of operation of the Facility.

16.3 Medicare Change of Ownership Filings. Buyer and Seller acknowledge that the transfer of the operations at the Facilities as contemplated under this Agreement will constitute a change of ownership of the Facilities for purposes of participation in the Medicare program and will effect an automatic assignment of the Facility's Medicare provider agreement and provider number to Buyer (or its designee). Buyer (or its designee) shall not reject the assignment of the Facility's Medicare provider agreement or provider number. Seller and Buyer (or its designee) will act diligently to make all necessary notifications and filings required under Applicable Law for Buyer (or its designee) to become the Medicare provider at the Facility. In addition, Seller and Buyer (or its designee) each agree to complete, execute and submit its portions of the CMS-855A forms with respect to the Facilities as promptly as practicable following the expiration of the Due Diligence Period. Subject to the terms and provisions of this Agreement, Buyer (or its designee) may bill under Seller's Medicare provider enrollment agreement and use Seller's provider numbers for the Facility from the Closing Date until the earlier of the date that (a) Buyer (or its designee) receives the applicable Medicare certification notice (the so-called "tie-in" notice) which will enable it to receive reimbursements directly from Medicare for items and services furnished by the Facility or (b) this Agreement is terminated in accordance with its terms.

16.4 New Medi-Cal Provider Applications. Seller and Buyer (or its designee) acknowledge that in order to allow Buyer (or its designee) to use Seller's Medi-Cal provider numbers with respect to the Facility until new Medi-Cal provider numbers are issued to Buyer (or its designee), Seller and Buyer (or its designee) are required to comply with the Medi-Cal program's successor liability and joint and several liability requirements pursuant to 22 CCR § 51000.32. No later than five (5) Business Days following the expiration of the Due Diligence Period, Seller and Buyer (or its designee) shall complete, execute and submit Successor Liability with Joint and Several Liability Agreements (Form DHS 6217) to the California Department of Health Care Services, and no later than thirty-five (35) days following the expiration of the Due Diligence Period, Buyer (or its designee) shall complete, execute and submit new Medi-Cal provider application packages and make all other necessary filings required under Applicable Law for Buyer (or its designee) to become the Medi-Cal provider at the Facility.

16.5 Interim Medi-Cal Provider Billing. Subject to the terms and provisions of this Agreement and to the extent permitted by Applicable Law, Buyer (or its designee) may bill under Seller's Medi-Cal provider enrollment agreement and use Seller's provider number for the Facilities from the Effective Date until the earlier of the date that (a) Buyer (or its designee) becomes the Medi-Cal provider at the Facilities or (b) this Agreement is terminated in accordance with its terms.

16.6 Cost Reports. Seller shall prepare and file any Medicare and/or Medi-Cal cost reports for the Facilities related to the period prior to the Effective Date. Following the Effective Date, Seller shall be authorized to contact the business office manager or other persons with access to the information at the Facilities during normal business hours in order to obtain information needed to prepare the final Medicare and/or Medi-Cal cost reports with respect to claims filed with Medicare and/or Medi-Cal for the Facilities prior to the Effective Date, and Buyer (or its designee) shall provide Seller with such Facility Records as Seller reasonably requests to complete such final cost reports.

16.7 Indemnification Under Third Party Payor Programs. Notwithstanding any other provisions in this Agreement to the contrary, Seller shall not have any liability whatsoever with respect to Losses relating to (a) Buyer's (or its designee's) furnishing of items or services, on or after the Closing Date, to any Third Party Payor Program beneficiaries or other patients, (b) Buyer's (or its designee's) financial accounting, coding, billing, cost reporting or claims submissions activities for its own account with respect to Third Party Payor Programs, or (c) Buyer's (or its designee's) retention of payments for the furnishing of such items and services.

Buyer (or its designee) shall indemnify, defend and hold Seller harmless against and with respect to any Losses arising from the foregoing.

16.8 Survival. The provisions of this Section 16 shall survive the expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement and shall survive the Closing.

Section 17. Public Announcements.

Each of the parties to this Agreement agrees not to make any public announcement or disclosure, and not to issue a press release, concerning the execution of this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby prior to Closing without the prior written approval of the other party, except to the extent necessary to make regulatory filings or as required by law or as may be necessary for such party to reveal to such party's lenders or proposed lenders.

Section 18. Default.

18.1 Buyer's Default.

(a) If Buyer shall be in breach or default of any of the terms or conditions of this Agreement, then Seller shall give Buyer and Escrow Agent written notice specifying the nature of the default.

(b) Buyer shall have five (5) days from receipt of Seller's notice of default within which to cure the specified default. If Buyer does not cure such default within said five (5) day period or if such default is not waived in writing by Seller, then the Earnest Money shall be paid over to Seller and this Agreement shall automatically terminate and Seller and Buyer shall have no further rights, duties or obligations hereunder except as expressly survive the termination hereof.

(c) BUYER AND SELLER AGREE THAT IF BUYER DEFAULTS ON ITS OBLIGATION TO PURCHASE THE ASSETS PURSUANT HERETO, THE DAMAGES TO SELLER WOULD BE DIFFICULT AND IMPRACTICAL TO DETERMINE. ACCORDINGLY, BUYER AND SELLER HAVE AGREED TO FIX AS LIQUIDATED DAMAGES THE EARNEST MONEY SPECIFIED IN SECTION 4, BUT ONLY TO THE EXTENT THERETOFORE DEPOSITED WITH ESCROW AGENT AND THE EARNEST MONEY SHALL BE RETAINED BY SELLER AS LIQUIDATED DAMAGES, AND SHALL CONSTITUTE SELLER'S SOLE AND EXCLUSIVE REMEDY FOR SUCH DEFAULT. SELLER AGREES THAT THESE LIQUIDATED DAMAGES SHALL BE IN LIEU OF ANY OTHER MONETARY RELIEF OR OTHER REMEDY, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION SPECIFIC PERFORMANCE, TO WHICH SELLER OTHERWISE MIGHT BE ENTITLED UNDER THIS AGREEMENT, AT LAW OR IN EQUITY. BUYER AND SELLER SPECIFICALLY ACKNOWLEDGE THEIR AGREEMENT TO THE FOREGOING LIQUIDATED DAMAGES PROVISION BY INITIALING THIS PARAGRAPH IN THE APPROPRIATE SPACES PROVIDED BELOW:

SELLER _____ BUYER _____

18.2 Seller's Default.

(a) If Seller shall be in breach or default of any of the terms or conditions of this Agreement, then Buyer shall give Seller and Escrow Agent written notice specifying the nature of the default.

(b) Seller shall have five (5) days from receipt of Buyer's notice of default within which to cure the specified default. If Seller does not cure such default within said five (5) day period or if such default is not waived in writing by Buyer, then Buyer, at its option, shall have the right, within five (5) days after the expiration of the said five (5) day grace period, to elect one (1) and only one (1) of the following remedies:

(i) Buyer may terminate this Agreement by written notice given to Seller and Escrow Agent, in which event the Earnest Money will be refunded to Buyer, and Buyer shall be allowed to pursue a damage remedy against Seller; or

(ii) Buyer may demand specific performance of this Agreement by Seller, and, if necessary, file an action therefor.

18.3 Survival. The provisions of this Section 18 shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

Section 19. Broker. Neither Seller nor Buyer has had any dealings with any broker, finder, or other party concerning the purchase and sale of the Assets other than Dan Revie of Ziegler.com ("Broker") and Buyer and Seller each agree to indemnify and hold the other harmless from all loss, costs, damage or expense, including reasonable attorney's fees incurred by the other as a result of any claim arising out of the acts of the indemnifying party for a commission, finder's fee, or similar compensation made by any other broker, finder or other party. Broker is to be paid a commission by Seller pursuant to a separate agreement and Broker shall not be deemed a party or third party beneficiary of this Agreement. The representations and warranties contained herein shall survive the Closing.

Section 20. Miscellaneous.

20.1 Further Assurances. Each of the parties will, at any time before, at, or after the Closing Date, sign, execute and deliver (or cause others to do so) all documents and instruments to do, or cause to be done, all such acts and things as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this Agreement.

20.2 Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of California.

20.3 Successors and Assigns. All of the terms of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by and against the successors and assigns of the parties hereto.

20.4 Entire Agreement. This Agreement, including the exhibits and schedules hereto, and the other documents delivered pursuant hereto, constitute the full and entire understanding and agreement between the parties concerning the subject matter of this Agreement, and this Agreement supersedes all prior agreements and negotiations, oral or written, concerning that subject matter, all of which are merged into this Agreement. Nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to confer upon any party, other than the parties hereto, and their respective successors and assigns, any rights, remedies, obligations or liabilities under or by reason of this Agreement.

20.5 Amendment. A modification or amendment of this Agreement, the exhibits or schedules to this Agreement, or the other documents delivered pursuant hereto is effective only if it is in writing and executed by both parties. Execution by Escrow Agent is not required for any modification or amendment unless such modification or amendment affects Section 4 hereof.

20.6 Notices. All notices or other communications required or permitted hereunder shall be in writing and addressed as set forth below and either personally delivered, sent by overnight mail (Federal Express or the like), or sent by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid, return receipt requested, or sent by telecopy or electronic mail. Seller shall be obligated to pay the portion of such taxes allocable to the period prior to the Closing at least five (5) days before such taxes become delinquent. If Seller fails to pay Seller's portion of such taxes at least five (5) days before such taxes become delinquent, then Buyer shall have the right to pay Seller's portion of such taxes and Seller shall be obligated to immediately reimburse Buyer for any such payments made by Buyer. Buyer acknowledges that Seller is a Section 501(c)(3) charitable organization that pays no or nominal property taxes but that pays assessments to the Counties in which the Premises are located.

2.5 Resident Security Deposits. With respect to any security deposits posted by Residents of the Facilities with Seller prior to Closing, Buyer shall receive a credit for such amounts. Buyer acknowledges that security deposits are prohibited under the RCFE Law and would only be collected in the SNF portion of the Facilities, if at all. A schedule showing the amounts of any such security deposits, by Resident name, is attached hereto as Schedule 2.5.

2.6 Past Due Residency Payments. With respect to accounts receivable or past due amounts relating to Residents occupying the Facilities after the Closing Date, Buyer shall promptly remit to Seller any amounts which relate to the period prior to the Closing Date actually received by Buyer from such Residents or their guarantors. Buyer shall use its reasonable best efforts to collect all such accounts receivable and past due amounts, provided, however, Buyer shall not agree to reduce any amount owed, or otherwise write-off any amounts, without the consent of Seller. All amounts collected by Buyer shall be applied first to current fees due (and if collected in the month in which the Closing occurs, such fees shall be prorated between Buyer and Seller) and then to delinquencies. Section 14. Indemnification.

14.1 Seller's Indemnity. Seller shall and does hereby indemnify, defend and hold Buyer and its managers, members, affiliates, agents and/or employees (each, a "Buyer Party", and collectively, the "Buyer Parties") harmless from and against any and all loss, cost, damage, claim, judgment, liability or expense, including court costs and reasonable actual attorneys' fees (collectively "Losses") which may be asserted against or incurred or suffered by Buyer or the Buyer Parties from time to time by reason of or in connection with (i) any personal injury (including death) or property damage or claim of personal injury or property damage, made by Residents or by Seller's employees, contractors or invitees (unless caused by Buyer), occurring during Seller's ownership of the Assets before Closing; (ii) any material inaccuracy of any representation or warranty of Seller in this Agreement; or (iii) the non-fulfillment of any material covenant, undertaking, agreement or other obligation of Seller under this Agreement.

14.2 Buyer's Indemnity. Buyer shall and does hereby indemnify, defend and hold Seller and any partner (general or limited) of Seller and any current, former, and future trustee, officer, manager, member, partner, and employee (each, a "Seller Party", and collectively, the "Seller Parties") harmless from and against any and all Losses, which may be asserted against or incurred or suffered by Seller or Seller Parties from time to time by reason of or in connection with (i) any personal injury (including death) or property damage or claim of personal injury or property damage, made by Residents or by Buyer's employees, contractors or invitees (unless caused by Seller), occurring during Buyer's ownership of the Assets on or after the Closing; (ii) any material inaccuracy of any representation or warranty of Buyer in this Agreement; or (iii) the non-fulfillment of any material covenant, undertaking, agreement or other obligation of Buyer under this Agreement.

14.3 Survival. Except as otherwise provided herein, the several representations and warranties of the parties contained in this Agreement and a party's right to indemnity in accordance with this Article 14 shall survive the Closing Date and shall remain in full force and effect thereafter for a period of one (1) year after the Closing Date and shall be effective with respect to any material inaccuracy therein or breach thereof, notice of which shall have been duly given within such one (1) year period in accordance with Section 14.4 hereof after which one (1) year period they shall terminate and be of no further force or effect.

14.4 Indemnification Procedure. After the incurrence of any Loss by any Buyer Party or any Seller Party, which might give rise to indemnification hereunder, the party seeking indemnification (the "Indemnitee") shall deliver to the party from which indemnification is sought (the "Indemnitor") written notice of such Loss within fifteen (15) days of Indemnitee's becoming aware thereof; provided, however, that delay or failure to so notify the Indemnitor shall only relieve the Indemnitor of its obligations to the extent, if at all, that it is prejudiced by reasons of such delay or failure. The Indemnitor shall have a period of thirty (30) days within which to respond thereto. If the Indemnitor accepts responsibility within such thirty (30)-day period, the Indemnitor shall be obligated to compromise or defend such matter, at its own expense and through counsel reasonably satisfactory to the Indemnitee. If the Indemnitor does respond within such 30-day period and rejects responsibility for such matter in whole or in part, or does not respond, the Indemnitee shall be free to pursue, without prejudice to any of its rights hereunder, such remedies as may be available to the Indemnitee under applicable law at the Indemnitor's expense (subject, for the avoidance of doubt, to the limits set forth in this Article 14). The Indemnitee agrees to cooperate fully with the Indemnitor and its counsel in the defense against any such asserted liability. In any event, the Indemnitee shall have the right to participate in a non-controlling manner and at its own expense in the defense of such asserted liability. Any compromise of such asserted liability by the Indemnitor shall require the prior written consent of the Indemnitee and until such consent is obtained the Indemnitor shall continue the defense of such asserted liability. If, however, the Indemnitee refuses its consent to a bona fide offer of settlement containing a complete release of the Indemnitee from all liability in connection with the underlying claim that the Indemnitor wishes to accept, the Indemnitee may continue to pursue such matter, free of any participation by the Indemnitor, at the sole expense of the Indemnitee. In such event, the obligation of the Indemnitor to the Indemnitee shall be equal to the lesser of (i) the amount of the offer of settlement which the Indemnitee refused to accept plus the costs and expenses of the Indemnitee prior to the date the Indemnitor notifies the Indemnitee of the offer of settlement; or (ii) the actual out-of-pocket amount the Indemnitee is obligated to pay as a result of the Indemnitee's continuing to pursue such matter. The Indemnitor shall be entitled to recover from the Indemnitee any additional expenses incurred by the Indemnitor as a result of the decision of the Indemnitee to pursue such matter. So long as the Indemnitor is reasonably contesting any such claim in good faith, the Indemnitee shall not pay or settle such claim without the Indemnitor's prior written consent; provided that the Indemnitee may pay or settle such claim if it waives its right to indemnity therefor from the Indemnitor.

14.5 Reduction for Insurance. The amount which the Indemnitor is required to pay to, for, or on behalf of the Indemnitee pursuant to this Article 14 shall be reduced (including, without limitation, retroactively) by any insurance proceeds actually recovered by or on behalf of the Indemnitee in reduction of the related indemnifiable loss (the "Indemnifiable Loss"). Amounts required to be paid, as so reduced, are hereinafter sometimes called an "Indemnity Payment." If the Indemnitee shall have received, or if the Indemnitor shall have paid on its behalf, an Indemnity Payment in respect of an Indemnifiable Loss and shall subsequently receive, directly or indirectly, insurance proceeds (which duplicate in whole or in part, the Indemnity Payment) in respect of such Indemnifiable Loss, then the Indemnitee shall promptly pay to the Indemnitor the amount of such insurance proceeds, or, if less, the amount of the Indemnity Payment, subject to the Basket Amount and Cap. The parties hereto agree that the foregoing shall not affect the subrogation rights of any insurance companies making payments hereunder.

14.6 Limitations of Remedies.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein, the parties hereto agree that the indemnification provisions set forth in this Section 14 shall constitute the sole and exclusive remedy of either party for any breach or inaccuracy of any representation or warranty contained in this Agreement. The Buyer acknowledges that it shall not be entitled to seek rescission of the Agreement.

(b) Notwithstanding anything in this Section 14 to contrary, no person shall be entitled to indemnification hereunder if it can be established by clear and convincing evidence that such person had knowledge on or prior to the Closing Date of the failure of any representation or warranty, or the breach of any covenant or agreement or the existence of any fact, event or circumstance, which may serve as the basis for bringing a claim for indemnification hereunder.

Section 15. Conduct of Business Pending Closing.

15.1 Ordinary Course of Business. Beginning on the Effective Date and continuing through the Closing Date; (i) Seller shall make no material change in the operation of the Facilities nor enter into any material contract other than in the ordinary course of business nor incur any material liability without the prior written consent of Buyer, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned, or delayed, and Seller shall make good faith efforts to ensure that the goodwill and operations of the Facilities and the relationships with Residents and employees are preserved in the ordinary course of business; (ii) Seller shall perform all maintenance and repairs necessary to keep the Facilities and Assets in good operating condition and repair, and shall not sell or remove any Inventory or any Fixtures, Furniture and Equipment except in the ordinary course of business; and (iii) Seller shall not, without the prior written consent of Buyer:

(a) enter into any material contract , agreement, lease or other commitment (with a duration of more than 12 months or involving the expenditure of more than fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000)) with respect to the Facilities, except contracts to purchase operating supplies or services in the ordinary course of business;

(b) make any change in key personnel at the Facilities, including the executive director or other department heads; or

(c) enter into any employment arrangement, agreement or undertaking, or pay or promise to pay any fringe benefit, bonus or special compensation to employees, except "stay for pay" arrangements and filling vacated positions as needed.

15.2 Compensation. Except in the ordinary course of business and consistent with past practices, Seller shall not increase, except for annual cost of living, or promise any increase with respect to any salary or other form of compensation payable or to become payable to any of employees, and will not pay any bonus or make any other severance or retirement arrangement with any employees except as may have already been negotiated, be required to avoid legal action, or be required pursuant to Section 9.1 hereof.

15.3 Insurance. From the date hereof until the Closing Date, Seller shall, as long as such insurance continues to be available at reasonably affordable rates, continuously maintain insurance on the Facilities at no less than the levels maintained on the date hereof. Seller shall maintain, at Seller's expense, "tail" coverage with respect to its professional liability insurance policy (if it is a claims made policy) for two (2) years following the Closing Date and shall name Buyer as an additional named insured on such tail coverage.

Section 16. Transition.

16.1 Accounts Receivable. Seller shall immediately transmit to Buyer any payments on accounts of the Facilities arising after the Closing which may be delivered to Seller from third party payor sources for services rendered after the Closing. Buyer shall immediately transmit to Seller any payments on accounts of the Facilities arising after the Closing which may be delivered to Buyer from third party payor sources for services rendered prior to Closing. All payments received by Buyer shall be applied first to delinquencies and then to current obligations.

16.2 Cooperation. Seller and Buyer agree to cooperate with each other in all reasonable respects and to provide such information as is necessary to ensure a smooth and orderly transition of operation of the Facilities.

16.3 Medicare Change of Ownership Filings. Buyer and Seller acknowledge that the transfer of the operations at the skilled nursing facilities as contemplated under this Agreement will constitute a change of ownership of the skilled nursing facilities for purposes of participation in the Medicare program and will effect an assignment of the skilled nursing facilities' Medicare provider agreements and provider numbers to Buyer (or its designee). Buyer (or its designee) shall not reject the assignment of the skilled nursing facilities' Medicare provider agreement or provider number. Seller and Buyer (or its designee) will act diligently to make all necessary notifications and filings required under Applicable Law for Buyer (or its designee) to become the Medicare provider at the skilled nursing facilities. In addition, Seller and Buyer (or its designee) each agree to complete, execute and submit its portions of the CMS-855A forms with respect to the skilled nursing facilities as promptly as practicable following the expiration of the Due Diligence Period. Subject to the terms and provisions of this Agreement, Buyer (or its designee) may bill under Seller's Medicare provider enrollment agreement and use Seller's provider numbers for the skilled nursing facilities from the Closing Date until the earlier of the date that (a) Buyer (or its designee) receives the applicable Medicare certification notice (the so-called "tie-in" notice) which will enable it to receive reimbursements directly from Medicare for items and services furnished by the Facilities or (b) this Agreement is terminated in accordance with its terms.

16.4 Cost Reports. Seller shall prepare and file any Medicare cost reports for the Facilities related to the period prior to the Effective Date. Following the Effective Date, Seller shall be authorized to contact the business office manager or other persons with access to the information at the Facilities during normal business hours in order to obtain information needed to prepare the final Medicare cost reports with respect to claims filed with Medicare for the Facilities prior to the Effective Date, and Buyer (or its designee) shall provide Seller with such Facility Records as Seller reasonably requests to complete such final cost reports.

16.5 Indemnification Under Third Party Payor Programs. Notwithstanding any other provisions in this Agreement to the contrary, Seller shall not have any liability whatsoever with respect to Losses relating to (a) Buyer's (or its designee's) furnishing of items or services, on or after the Closing Date, to any Third Party Payor Program beneficiaries or other patients, (b) Buyer's (or its designee's) financial accounting, coding, billing, cost reporting or claims submissions activities for its own account with respect to Third Party Payor Programs, or (c) Buyer's (or its designee's) retention of payments for the furnishing of such items and services. Buyer (or its designee) shall indemnify, defend and hold Seller harmless against and with respect to any Losses arising from the foregoing.

16.6 Survival. The provisions of this Section 16 shall survive the expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement and shall survive the Closing.

Section 17. Public Announcements.

Each of the parties to this Agreement agrees not to make any public announcement or disclosure, and not to issue a press release, concerning the execution of this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby prior to Closing without the prior written approval of the other party, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned, or delayed, except to the extent necessary to make regulatory filings or as required by law or as may be necessary for such party to reveal to such party's lenders or proposed lenders.

Section 18. Default.

18.1 Buyer's Default.

(a) If Buyer shall be in breach or default of any of the terms or conditions of this Agreement, then Seller shall give Buyer and Escrow Agent written notice specifying the nature of the default.

(b) Buyer shall have five (5) days from receipt of Seller's notice of default within which to cure the specified default. If Buyer does not cure such default within said five (5) day period or if such default is not waived in writing by Seller, then the Earnest Money shall be paid over to Seller and this Agreement shall automatically terminate and Seller and Buyer shall have no further rights, duties or obligations hereunder except as expressly survive the termination hereof.

(c) BUYER AND SELLER AGREE THAT IF BUYER DEFAULTS ON ITS OBLIGATION TO PURCHASE THE ASSETS PURSUANT HERETO, THE DAMAGES TO SELLER WOULD BE DIFFICULT AND IMPRACTICAL TO DETERMINE. ACCORDINGLY, BUYER AND SELLER HAVE AGREED TO FIX AS LIQUIDATED DAMAGES THE EARNEST MONEY SPECIFIED IN SECTION 4, BUT ONLY TO THE EXTENT THERETOFORE DEPOSITED WITH ESCROW AGENT AND THE EARNEST MONEY SHALL BE RETAINED BY SELLER AS LIQUIDATED DAMAGES, AND SHALL CONSTITUTE SELLER'S SOLE AND EXCLUSIVE REMEDY FOR SUCH DEFAULT. SELLER AGREES THAT THESE LIQUIDATED DAMAGES SHALL BE IN LIEU OF ANY OTHER MONETARY RELIEF OR OTHER REMEDY, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION SPECIFIC PERFORMANCE, TO WHICH SELLER OTHERWISE MIGHT BE ENTITLED UNDER THIS AGREEMENT, AT LAW OR IN EQUITY. BUYER AND SELLER SPECIFICALLY ACKNOWLEDGE THEIR AGREEMENT TO THE FOREGOING LIQUIDATED DAMAGES PROVISION BY INITIALING THIS PARAGRAPH IN THE APPROPRIATE SPACES PROVIDED BELOW:

(b) Seller shall have five (5) days from receipt of Buyer's notice of default within which to cure the specified default. If Seller does not cure such default within said five (5) day period or if such default is not waived in writing by Buyer, then Buyer, at its option, shall have the right, within five (5) days after the expiration of the said five (5) day grace period, to elect one (1) and only one (1) of the following remedies:

(i) Buyer may terminate this Agreement by written notice given to Seller and Escrow Agent, in which event the Earnest Money will be refunded to Buyer; or

(ii) Buyer may demand specific performance of this Agreement by Seller, and, if necessary, file an action therefor.

18.3 Survival. The provisions of this Section 18 shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

Section 19. Broker. Neither Seller nor Buyer has had any dealings with any broker, finder, or other party concerning the purchase and sale of the Assets other than Dan Revie and his team at B.C. Ziegler & Company("Broker") and Buyer and Seller each agree to indemnify and hold the other harmless from all loss, costs, damage or expense, including reasonable attorney's fees incurred by the other as a result of any claim arising out of the acts of the indemnifying party for a commission, finder's fee, or similar compensation made by any other broker, finder or other party. Broker is to be paid a commission by Seller pursuant to a separate agreement and Broker shall not be deemed a party or third party beneficiary of this Agreement. The representations and warranties contained herein shall survive the Closing.

Section 20. Miscellaneous.

20.1 Further Assurances. Each of the parties will, at any time before, at, or after the Closing Date, sign, execute and deliver (or cause others to do so) all documents and instruments to do, or cause to be done, all such acts and things as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this Agreement.

Nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to confer upon any party, other than the parties hereto, and their respective successors and assigns, any rights, remedies, obligations or liabilities under or by reason of this Agreement.

20.5 Amendment. A modification or amendment of this Agreement, the exhibits or schedules to this Agreement, or the other documents delivered pursuant hereto is effective only if it is in writing and executed by both parties. Execution by Escrow Agent is not required for any modification or amendment unless such modification or amendment affects Section 4 hereof.

AGREEMENT

NOW, THEREFORE, for good and valuable consideration, including the payment of the Purchase Price more particularly described in the Agreement paid by Buyer, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged the parties do hereby agree as follows:

1. Assignment and Assumption.

1.1 Assignment. Subject to Section 1.3 hereof, Seller, as of the date hereof does hereby SELL, ASSIGN, TRANSFER and DELIVER to Buyer, subject to the provisions of this Agreement, all of its rights, title and interest in the Assigned Interests, and each of them.

1.2 Assumption. Subject to Section 1.3 hereof Buyer, for itself and its successors and assigns, hereby succeeds to and assumes all of the right, title and interest of Seller to, and agrees to perform, or to cause to be performed, and otherwise to discharge or cause to be discharged, as such becomes due or performable, on or after the date hereof, as the case may be, all of Seller's duties and obligations under, or arising in connection with, the Assigned Interests' and each of them.

1.3 Further Assurance. After the Closing and without further consideration, each party will from time to time, at the reasonable request of any other party, execute and deliver such other instruments of conveyance and transfer and such other instruments, documents and agreements and take such other actions as such other party may reasonably request or as may be reasonably requested by any applicable governmental or regulatory entities or third parties, in each case in order to more effectively or more expeditiously consummate any of the transactions contemplated by this Assignment and Assumption Agreement and to vest in Buyer the right, title and interest in, to and under the Assigned Interests, provided that the requesting party will prepare any additional documents and instruments and will handle any submittal, applications, processing, recording and registrations at its sole cost. Seller shall use its reasonable good-faith efforts, and Buyer shall cooperate where appropriate, to ensure that all Assumed Contracts included as Assigned Interests not assigned or novated to Buyer on the Closing Date shall be assigned or novated, as the case may be, to Buyer within a reasonable time after the Closing Date. In furtherance of the foregoing, Seller shall enforce its rights under such Assumed Contract for the benefit and at the expense of Buyer and in the manner that Buyer shall reasonably request during the period each such assignment or novation is pending. It is expressly acknowledged that to the extent that the assignment of any Assumed Contract to be assigned as provided under the Agreement shall require the consent of another party thereto, this Assignment and Assumption Agreement shall not constitute an agreement to assign the same if an attempted assignment would constitute a breach thereof.

1.4 This Assignment and Assumption Agreement is being entered into and delivered pursuant to and subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the Agreement and is to be construed in a manner consistent with the terms and conditions of the Agreement. Additional rights and obligations of Seller and Buyer are expressly provided for in the Agreement. The execution and delivery of this Assignment and Assumption Agreement shall not impair or diminish any of the rights or obligations of any of the parties to the Agreement as set forth therein, and neither the representations and warranties nor the rights and remedies of any party under the Agreement shall be deemed to be enlarged, reduced, modified or altered by reason of the terms of this Assignment and Assumption Agreement. In the event of any conflict between the provisions of the Agreement and this Assignment and Assumption Agreement, the provisions of the Agreement will prevail and control.

1.5. Nothing in this Assignment and Assumption Agreement, whether express or implied, is intended, nor shall any provision contained herein be construed, to confer any rights or remedies under or by reason of this Assignment and Assumption Agreement on any persons other than the parties hereto (and their respective successors and permitted assigns), nor is anything in this Assignment and Assumption Agreement intended to relieve or discharge the obligation or liability of any third persons to Seller or Buyer, nor shall any provision contained herein give any third party any right of subrogation or action over or against Seller or Buyer.

1.6 Exclusions. The assumption by Buyer of all of Seller's duties and obligations under, or arising in connection with, the Assigned Interests expressly excludes any duties, liabilities or obligations of Seller arising prior to the date hereof under the Assigned Interests.

1.7 Indemnification. The rights of either party to indemnification on account of the Assigned Interests are more particularly described in the Agreement.

2. General Provisions.

2.1 Successors and Assigns. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by the parties hereto.

2.2 Capitalized Terms. Capitalized terms not defined herein shall have the same meanings ascribed to them in the Agreement.

(ii) water, fuel, electricity, telephone, garbage collection, sewage, and other utility service charges and expenses; and

(iii) any other accrued and apportionable operating costs, charges and expenses, including without limitation those under the Assumed Contracts.

Buyer and Seller agree to consult and resolve in good faith any such objection within ten (10) days of the due date of the tax. Seller shall be obligated to pay the portion of such taxes allocable to the period prior to the Closing at least five (5) days before such taxes become delinquent. If Seller fails to pay Seller's portion of such taxes at least five (5) days before such taxes become delinquent, then Buyer shall have the right to pay Seller's portion of such taxes and Seller shall be obligated to immediately reimburse Buyer for any such payments made by Buyer. Buyer acknowledges that Seller is a Section 501(c)(3) charitable organization that pays no or nominal property taxes but that pays assessments to the Counties in which the Premises are located.

(b) Resident Monthly Service Fees. Residents' monthly service fees for the month of Closing shall be allocated as of the Closing Date; the portion thereof allocable to all time periods prior to the Closing Date shall be credited to Seller and the portion thereof allocable to the Closing Date and thereafter shall be allocable to Buyer. The Final Reconciliation shall appropriately net all items to reflect the net amount owed to Buyer or to Seller as a result of such reconciliation. After approval by both parties of the Final Reconciliation, the party determined to owe cash as a result of such Final Reconciliation shall promptly pay such cash to the other party.

The provisions of this Section 2.3 shall survive the Closing.

and would only be collected in the SNF portion of the Facilities, if at all. A schedule showing the amounts of any such security deposits, by Resident name, is attached hereto as Schedule 2.5.

2.6 Past Due Residency Payments. With respect to accounts receivable or past due amounts relating to Residents occupying the Facilities after the Closing Date, Buyer shall promptly remit to Seller any amounts which relate to the period prior to the Closing Date actually received by Buyer from such Residents or their guarantors. Buyer shall use its reasonable best efforts to collect all such accounts receivable and past due amounts, provided, however, Buyer shall not agree to reduce any amount owed, or otherwise write-off any amounts, without the consent of Seller. All amounts collected by Buyer shall be applied first to current fees due (and if collected in the month in which the Closing occurs, such fees shall be prorated between Buyer and Seller) and then to delinquencies. Section 14. Indemnification.

14.1 Seller's Indemnity. Seller shall and does hereby indemnify, defend and hold Buyer and its managers, members, affiliates, agents and/or employees (each, a "Buyer Party", and collectively, the "Buyer Parties") harmless from and against any and all loss, cost, damage, claim, judgment, liability or expense, including court costs and reasonable actual attorneys' fees (collectively "Losses") which may be asserted against or incurred or suffered by Buyer or the Buyer Parties from time to time by reason of or in connection with (i) any personal injury (including death) or property damage or claim of personal injury or property damage, made by Residents or by Seller's employees, contractors or invitees (unless caused by Buyer), occurring during Seller's ownership of the Assets before Closing; (ii) any material inaccuracy of any representation or warranty of Seller in this Agreement; or (iii) the non-fulfillment of any material covenant, undertaking, agreement or other obligation of Seller under this Agreement.

14.2 Buyer's Indemnity. Buyer shall and does hereby indemnify, defend and hold Seller and any partner (general or limited) of Seller and any current, former, and future trustee, officer, manager, member, partner, and employee (each, a "Seller Party", and collectively, the "Seller Parties") harmless from and against any and all Losses, which may be asserted against or incurred or suffered by Seller or Seller Parties from time to time by reason of or in connection with (i) any personal injury (including death) or property damage or claim of personal injury or property damage, made by Residents or by Buyer's employees, contractors or invitees (unless caused by Seller), occurring during Buyer's ownership of the Assets on or after the Closing; (ii) any material inaccuracy of any representation or warranty of Buyer in this Agreement; or (iii) the non-fulfillment of any material covenant, undertaking, agreement or other obligation of Buyer under this Agreement.

14.3 Survival. Except as otherwise provided herein, the several representations and warranties of the parties contained in this Agreement and a party's right to indemnity in accordance with this Article 14 shall survive the Closing Date and shall remain in full force and effect thereafter for a period of one (1) year after the Closing Date and shall be effective with respect to any material inaccuracy therein or breach thereof, notice of which shall have been duly given within such one (1) year period in accordance with Section 14.4 hereof after which one (1) year period they shall terminate and be of no further force or effect.

14.4 Indemnification Procedure. After the incurrence of any Loss by any Buyer Party or any Seller Party, which might give rise to indemnification hereunder, the party seeking indemnification (the "Indemnitee") shall deliver to the party from which indemnification is sought (the "Indemnitor") written notice of such Loss within fifteen (15) days of Indemnitee's becoming aware thereof; provided, however, that delay or failure to so notify the Indemnitor shall only relieve the Indemnitor of its obligations to the extent, if at all, that it is prejudiced by reasons of such delay or failure. The Indemnitor shall have a period of thirty (30) days within which to respond thereto. If the Indemnitor accepts responsibility within such thirty (30)-day period, the Indemnitor shall be obligated to compromise or defend such matter, at its own expense and through counsel reasonably satisfactory to the Indemnitee. If the Indemnitor does respond within such 30-day period and rejects responsibility for such matter in whole or in part, or does not respond, the Indemnitee shall be free to pursue, without prejudice to any of its rights hereunder, such remedies as may be available to the Indemnitee under applicable law at the Indemnitor's expense (subject, for the avoidance of doubt, to the limits set forth in this Article 14). The Indemnitee agrees to cooperate fully with the Indemnitor and its counsel in the defense against any such asserted liability. In any event, the Indemnitee shall have the right to participate in a non-controlling manner and at its own expense in the defense of such asserted liability. Any compromise of such asserted liability by the Indemnitor shall require the prior written consent of the Indemnitee and until such consent is obtained the Indemnitor shall continue the defense of such asserted liability. If, however, the Indemnitee refuses its consent to a bona fide offer of settlement containing a complete release of the Indemnitee from all liability in connection with the underlying claim that the Indemnitor wishes to accept, the Indemnitee may continue to pursue such matter, free of any participation by the Indemnitor, at the sole expense of the Indemnitee. In such event, the obligation of the Indemnitor to the Indemnitee shall be equal to the lesser of (i) the amount of the offer of settlement which the Indemnitee refused to accept plus the costs and expenses of the Indemnitee prior to the date the Indemnitor notifies the Indemnitee of the offer of settlement; or (ii) the actual out-of-pocket amount the Indemnitee is obligated to pay as a result of the Indemnitee's continuing to pursue such matter. The Indemnitor shall be entitled to recover from the Indemnitee any additional expenses incurred by the Indemnitor as a result of the decision of the Indemnitee to pursue such matter. So long as the Indemnitor is reasonably contesting any such claim in good faith, the Indemnitee shall not pay or settle such claim without the Indemnitor's prior written consent; provided that the Indemnitee may pay or settle such claim if it waives its right to indemnity therefor from the Indemnitor.

14.5 Reduction for Insurance. The amount which the Indemnitor is required to pay to, for, or on behalf of the Indemnitee pursuant to this Article 14 shall be reduced (including, without limitation, retroactively) by any insurance proceeds actually recovered by or on behalf of the Indemnitee in reduction of the related indemnifiable loss (the "Indemnifiable Loss"). Amounts required to be paid, as so reduced, are hereinafter sometimes called an "Indemnity Payment." If the Indemnitee shall have received, or if the Indemnitor shall have paid on its behalf, an Indemnity Payment in respect of an Indemnifiable Loss and shall subsequently receive, directly or indirectly, insurance proceeds (which duplicate in whole or in part, the Indemnity Payment) in respect of such Indemnifiable Loss, then the Indemnitee shall promptly pay to the Indemnitor the amount of such insurance proceeds, or, if less, the amount of the Indemnity Payment, subject to the Basket Amount and Cap. The parties hereto agree that the foregoing shall not affect the subrogation rights of any insurance companies making payments hereunder.

14.6 Limitations of Remedies.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein, the parties hereto agree that the indemnification provisions set forth in this Section 14 shall constitute the sole and exclusive remedy of either party for any breach or inaccuracy of any representation or warranty contained in this Agreement. The Buyer acknowledges that it shall not be entitled to seek rescission of the Agreement.

(b) Notwithstanding anything in this Section 14 to contrary, no person shall be entitled to indemnification hereunder if it can be established by clear and convincing evidence that such person had knowledge on or prior to the Closing Date of the failure of any representation or warranty, or the breach of any covenant or agreement or the existence of any fact, event or circumstance, which may serve as the basis for bringing a claim for indemnification hereunder.

Section 15. Conduct of Business Pending Closing.

15.1 Ordinary Course of Business. Beginning on the Effective Date and continuing through the Closing Date; (i) Seller shall make no material change in the operation of the Facilities nor enter into any material contract other than in the ordinary course of business nor incur any material liability without the prior written consent of Buyer, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned, or delayed, and Seller shall make good faith efforts to ensure that the goodwill and operations of the Facilities and the relationships with Residents and employees are preserved in the ordinary course of business; (ii) Seller shall perform all maintenance and repairs necessary to keep the Facilities and Assets in good operating condition and repair, and shall not sell or remove any Inventory or any Fixtures, Furniture and Equipment except in the ordinary course of business; and (iii) Seller shall not, without the prior written consent of Buyer:

retirement arrangement with any employees except as may have already been negotiated, be required to avoid legal action, or be required pursuant to Section 9.1 hereof.

15.3 Insurance. From the date hereof until the Closing Date, Seller shall, as long as such insurance continues to be available at reasonably affordable rates, continuously maintain insurance on the Facilities at no less than the levels maintained on the date hereof. Seller shall maintain, at Seller's expense, "tail" coverage with respect to its professional liability insurance policy (if it is a claims made policy) for two (2) years following the Closing Date and shall name Buyer as an additional named insured on such tail coverage.

Section 16. Transition.

16.1 Accounts Receivable. Seller shall immediately transmit to Buyer any payments on accounts of the Facilities arising after the Closing which may be delivered to Seller from third party payor sources for services rendered after the Closing. Buyer shall immediately transmit to Seller any payments on accounts of the Facilities arising after the Closing which may be delivered to Buyer from third party payor sources for services rendered prior to Closing. All payments received by Buyer shall be applied first to delinquencies and then to current obligations.

16.3 Medicare Change of Ownership Filings. Buyer and Seller acknowledge that the transfer of the operations at the skilled nursing facilities as contemplated under this Agreement will constitute a change of ownership of the skilled nursing facilities for purposes of participation in the Medicare program and will effect an assignment of the skilled nursing facilities' Medicare provider agreements and provider numbers to Buyer (or its designee). Buyer (or its designee) shall not reject the assignment of the skilled nursing facilities' Medicare provider agreement or provider number. Seller and Buyer (or its designee) will act diligently to make all necessary notifications and filings required under Applicable Law for Buyer (or its designee) to become the Medicare provider at the skilled nursing facilities. In addition, Seller and Buyer (or its designee) each agree to complete, execute and submit its portions of the CMS-855A forms with respect to the skilled nursing facilities as promptly as practicable following the expiration of the Due Diligence Period. Subject to the terms and provisions of this Agreement, Buyer (or its designee) may bill under Seller's Medicare provider enrollment agreement and use Seller's provider numbers for the skilled nursing facilities from the Closing Date until the earlier of the date that (a) Buyer (or its designee) receives the applicable Medicare certification notice (the so-called "tie-in" notice) which will enable it to receive reimbursements directly from Medicare for items and services furnished by the Facilities or (b) this Agreement is terminated in accordance with its terms.

16.4 Cost Reports. Seller shall prepare and file any Medicare cost reports for the Facilities related to the period prior to the Effective Date. Following the Effective Date, Seller shall be authorized to contact the business office manager or other persons with access to the information at the Facilities during normal business hours in order to obtain information needed to prepare the final Medicare cost reports with respect to claims filed with Medicare for the Facilities prior to the Effective Date, and Buyer (or its designee) shall provide Seller with such Facility Records as Seller reasonably requests to complete such final cost reports.

16.5 Indemnification Under Third Party Payor Programs. Notwithstanding any other provisions in this Agreement to the contrary, Seller shall not have any liability whatsoever with respect to Losses relating to (a) Buyer's (or its designee's) furnishing of items or services, on or after the Closing Date, to any Third Party Payor Program beneficiaries or other patients, (b) Buyer's (or its designee's) financial accounting, coding, billing, cost reporting or claims submissions activities for its own account with respect to Third Party Payor Programs, or (c) Buyer's (or its designee's) retention of payments for the furnishing of such items and services. Buyer (or its designee) shall indemnify, defend and hold Seller harmless against and with respect to any Losses arising from the foregoing.

16.6 Survival. The provisions of this Section 16 shall survive the expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement and shall survive the Closing.

Section 17. Public Announcements.

(c) BUYER AND SELLER AGREE THAT IF BUYER DEFAULTS ON ITS OBLIGATION TO PURCHASE THE ASSETS PURSUANT HERETO, THE DAMAGES TO SELLER WOULD BE DIFFICULT AND IMPRACTICAL TO DETERMINE.

9.1 Employee Compensation and Benefits upon Termination. Immediately upon Seller's termination of Seller's employees prior to the Closing, Seller shall deliver to Seller's former employees payroll checks drawn on Seller's payroll account, or otherwise pay, for all monetary compensation and wages to which they are then entitled as of the Closing Date, including, without limitation, wages, salaries, bonuses, overtime, and accrued, unused vacation and/or paid time off, and severance, if any, and shall withhold and pay all payroll tax obligations associated therewith, including without limitation income tax, FICA and FUTA obligations, together with any amounts owed with respect to accrued benefits as contemplated by Section 2.4 of this Agreement. Seller shall be responsible for providing all applicable notices under the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1985, as amended, to all terminated employees.

9.2 Representations. Seller represents that, to its knowledge, it is in compliance with all currently applicable laws and regulations respecting terms and conditions of employment, including, without limitation, applicant and employee background checking, immigration laws, discrimination laws, verification of employment eligibility, employee leave laws, classification of workers as employees and independent contractors, wage and hour laws, labor laws and occupational safety and health laws. Except as set forth in Schedule 9.2, there are no claims, complaints, charges, investigations or proceedings pending or, to Seller's knowledge, reasonably expected or threatened, between Seller, on the one hand, and any of Seller's current or former employees, on the other hand, including but not limited to any claims for actual or alleged harassment or discrimination based on race, national origin, age, sex, sexual orientation, religion, disability, or similar tortious conduct, breach of contract, wrongful termination, defamation, intentional or negligent infliction of emotional distress, interference with contract or interference with actual or prospective economic advantage. Except as set forth in Schedule 9.2, there are no claims pending, or to, Seller's knowledge, reasonably expected or threatened, against Seller under any workers' compensation or long-term disability plan or policy. Pursuant to Section 9.1 of this Agreement, as of the Closing Date, Seller will have provided all of its employees all benefits and monetary compensation and wages to which they are entitled as of the Closing Date, including, without limitation, wages, salaries, bonuses, overtime, and accrued, unused vacation and/or paid time off, and severance, if any.

9.3 Offer of Employment. Buyer is not obligated to offer employment to, or hire, any employee, independent contractor or consultant of Seller at any time prior to or on or after the Closing Date. However, Buyer represents that it intends in good faith to offer employment to most of Seller's employee(s), provided such employment with Buyer commences on or after the Closing Date. Seller agrees not to interfere with such employment offers, and shall not induce, dissuade or discourage Seller's employee(s) from considering or accepting employment with Buyer on the terms and conditions offered by Buyer, as determined by Buyer in Buyer's sole and absolute discretion, subject to Section 9.6 of this Agreement.

9.4 Wages and Benefits. Buyer shall not be responsible for any wages, overtime, benefits, accrued, unused vacation or paid time off, severance, bonuses or any other obligations owed by Seller to Seller's employees. Seller shall not make any written or oral communications to its employees that assure Seller's employees that Buyer will hire any specific Seller employee. Buyer acknowledges the existing but expired union collective bargaining contract at Lake Park; Buyer reserves the right to negotiate with the Union and makes no commitment to assume the union collective bargaining contract at Lake Park. The Closing is conditioned upon the entry of the Sale Order confirming that Buyer is not liable for any withdrawal liability of Seller. Seller shall pay or discharge in the Case any and all employment liability including, without limitation, wages, sick pay, vacation pay, pension obligations, pension withdrawal liability, or any and all other ERISA benefits of any kind.

9.5 Employee Contracts. Except as otherwise provided in Schedule 1(b) to this Agreement, Buyer is not assuming any of Seller's contracts with its employees, independent contractors or consultants, including, but not limited to, employment agreements, incentive compensation or bonus plans, severance plans, employee benefit plans, independent contractor agreements or consulting agreements.

9.6 WARN Act. Buyer agrees to make sufficient employment offers to preclude the need for any notice under the WARN Act or any applicable state counterpart statute. Buyer shall indemnify and hold harmless Seller with respect to any liability under the WARN Act or other applicable law arising from the actions taken by Buyer before, on, or after the Closing Date.

Section 10. Casualty and Condemnation.

In the event that prior to the Closing, there shall be any fire, earthquake, force majeure event, or other similar casualty at the Facilities or the Premises that damages any material portion thereof, or if any material portion of the Premises or Facilities or access thereto is taken or threatened in writing to be taken by condemnation or similar taking by any public or quasi-public agency or organization, then and in such event Seller shall immediately give notice to Buyer and Buyer shall within ten (10) days by notice to Seller either (i) terminate this Agreement, whereupon the Earnest Money shall be refunded to Buyer and neither party shall have any further rights, duties or obligations hereunder except as expressly survive the termination hereof or (ii) elect not to terminate this Agreement, whereupon at Closing, Seller shall assign to Buyer all of Seller's rights with respect to such casualty under Seller's insurance policy, along with a credit against the Purchase Price for any deductible amount thereunder, or rights to any condemnation proceeds, respectively. Failure of Buyer to properly and timely give notice of termination shall mean that Buyer shall be deemed to have elected not to terminate this Agreement. For purposes of this Section 10, a casualty shall be deemed to damage a "material portion" of the Facilities or Premises if the reasonable, documented cost to repair the damage exceeds fifteen percent (15%) of the Purchase Price.

(g) No Unwaived MAC. No MAC has occurred that Buyer has not waived by written notice to Seller.

If any of the conditions precedent set forth in this Section 13.1 have not been materially satisfied or waived by the Closing Date, then Buyer may: (a) terminate this Agreement by notifying Seller and Escrow Agent prior to the Closing Date, in which event Seller shall promptly refund the Earnest Money to Buyer, and neither party shall have any further rights, duties or obligations to the other except as expressly provided to survive termination hereunder; or (b) waive such condition precedent to Closing, whereupon Buyer shall be deemed to have waived any rights or remedies under this Agreement with respect to the unsatisfied condition precedent and the purchase and sale hereunder shall be consummated in accordance with the terms and conditions hereof.

Section 14. Indemnification.

14.1 Seller's Indemnity. Seller shall and does hereby indemnify, defend and hold Buyer and its managers, members, affiliates, agents and/or employees (each, a "Buyer Party", and collectively, the "Buyer Parties") harmless from and against any and all loss, cost, damage, claim, judgment, liability or expense, including court costs and reasonable actual attorneys' fees (collectively "Losses") which may be asserted against or incurred or suffered by Buyer or the Buyer Parties from time to time by reason of or in connection with (i) any personal injury (including death) or property damage or claim of personal injury or property damage, made by Residents or by Seller's employees, contractors or invitees (unless caused by Buyer), occurring during Seller's ownership of the Assets before Closing; (ii) any material inaccuracy of any representation or warranty of Seller in this Agreement; or (iii) the non-fulfillment of any material covenant, undertaking, agreement or other obligation of Seller under this Agreement.

14.2 Buyer's Indemnity. Buyer shall and does hereby indemnify, defend and hold Seller and any partner (general or limited) of Seller and any current, former, and future trustee, officer, manager, member, partner, and employee (each, a "Seller Party", and collectively, the "Seller Parties") harmless from and against any and all Losses, which may be asserted against or incurred or suffered by Seller or Seller Parties from time to time by reason of or in connection with (i) any personal injury (including death) or property damage or claim of personal injury or property damage, made by Residents or by Buyer's employees, contractors or invitees (unless caused by Seller), occurring during Buyer's ownership of the Assets on or after the Closing; (ii) any material inaccuracy of any representation or warranty of Buyer in this Agreement; or (iii) the non-fulfillment of any material covenant, undertaking, agreement or other obligation of Buyer under this Agreement.

14.3 Survival. Except as otherwise provided herein, the several representations and warranties of the parties contained in this Agreement and a party's right to indemnity in accordance with this Article 14 shall survive the Closing Date and shall remain in full force and effect thereafter for a period of one (1) year after the Closing Date and shall be effective with respect to any material inaccuracy therein or breach thereof, notice of which shall have been duly given within such one (1) year period in accordance with Section 14.4 hereof after which one (1) year period they shall terminate and be of no further force or effect.

14.4 Indemnification Procedure. After the incurrence of any Loss by any Buyer Party or any Seller Party, which might give rise to indemnification hereunder, the party seeking indemnification (the "Indemnitee") shall deliver to the party from which indemnification is sought (the "Indemnitor") written notice of such Loss within fifteen (15) days of Indemnitee's becoming aware thereof; provided, however, that delay or failure to so notify the Indemnitor shall only relieve the Indemnitor of its obligations to the extent, if at all, that it is prejudiced by reasons of such delay or failure. The Indemnitor shall have a period of thirty (30) days within which to respond thereto. If the Indemnitor accepts responsibility within such thirty (30)-day period, the Indemnitor shall be obligated to compromise or defend such matter, at its own expense and through counsel reasonably satisfactory to the Indemnitee. If the Indemnitor does respond within such 30-day period and rejects responsibility for such matter in whole or in part, or does not respond, the Indemnitee shall be free to pursue, without prejudice to any of its rights hereunder, such remedies as may be available to the Indemnitee under applicable law at the Indemnitor's expense (subject, for the avoidance of doubt, to the limits set forth in this Article 14). The Indemnitee agrees to cooperate fully with the Indemnitor and its counsel in the defense against any such asserted liability. In any event, the Indemnitee shall have the right to participate in a non-controlling manner and at its own expense in the defense of such asserted liability. Any compromise of such asserted liability by the Indemnitor shall require the prior written consent of the Indemnitee and until such consent is obtained the Indemnitor shall continue the defense of such asserted liability. If, however, the Indemnitee refuses its consent to a bona fide offer of settlement containing a complete release of the Indemnitee from all liability in connection with the underlying claim that the Indemnitor wishes to accept, the Indemnitee may continue to pursue such matter, free of any participation by the Indemnitor, at the sole expense of the Indemnitee. In such event, the obligation of the Indemnitor to the Indemnitee shall be equal to the lesser of (i) the amount of the offer of settlement which the Indemnitee refused to accept plus the costs and expenses of the Indemnitee prior to the date the Indemnitor notifies the Indemnitee of the offer of settlement; or (ii) the actual out-of-pocket amount the Indemnitee is obligated to pay as a result of the Indemnitee's continuing to pursue such matter. The Indemnitor shall be entitled to recover from the Indemnitee any additional expenses incurred by the Indemnitor as a result of the decision of the Indemnitee to pursue such matter. So long as the Indemnitor is reasonably contesting any such claim in good faith, the Indemnitee shall not pay or settle such claim without the Indemnitor's prior written consent; provided that the Indemnitee may pay or settle such claim if it waives its right to indemnity therefor from the Indemnitor.

14.5 Reduction for Insurance. The amount which the Indemnitor is required to pay to, for, or on behalf of the Indemnitee pursuant to this Article 14 shall be reduced (including, without limitation, retroactively) by any insurance proceeds actually recovered by or on behalf of the Indemnitee in reduction of the related indemnifiable loss (the "Indemnifiable Loss"). Amounts required to be paid, as so reduced, are hereinafter sometimes called an "Indemnity Payment." If the Indemnitee shall have received, or if the Indemnitor shall have paid on its behalf, an Indemnity Payment in respect of an Indemnifiable Loss and shall subsequently receive, directly or indirectly, insurance proceeds (which duplicate in whole or in part, the Indemnity Payment) in respect of such Indemnifiable Loss, then the Indemnitee shall promptly pay to the Indemnitor the amount of such insurance proceeds, or, if less, the amount of the Indemnity Payment, subject to the Basket Amount and Cap. The parties hereto agree that the foregoing shall not affect the subrogation rights of any insurance companies making payments hereunder.

14.6 Limitations of Remedies.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein, the parties hereto agree that the indemnification provisions set forth in this Section 14 shall constitute the sole and exclusive remedy of either party for any breach or inaccuracy of any representation or warranty contained in this Agreement. The Buyer acknowledges that it shall not be entitled to seek rescission of the Agreement.

(b) Notwithstanding anything in this Section 14 to contrary, no person shall be entitled to indemnification hereunder if it can be established by clear and convincing evidence that such person had knowledge on or prior to the Closing Date of the failure of any representation or warranty, or the breach of any covenant or agreement or the existence of any fact, event or circumstance, which may serve as the basis for bringing a claim for indemnification hereunder.

Section 15. Conduct of Business Pending Closing.

Section 14. Indemnification.

14.1 Seller's Indemnity. Seller shall and does hereby indemnify, defend and hold Buyer and its managers, members, affiliates, agents and/or employees (each, a "Buyer Party", and collectively, the "Buyer Parties") harmless from and against any and all loss, cost, damage, claim, judgment, liability or expense, including court costs and reasonable actual attorneys' fees (individually a "Loss," and collectively "Losses") which may be asserted against or incurred or suffered by Buyer or the Buyer Parties from time to time by reason of or in connection with (i) any personal injury (including death) or property damage or claim of personal injury or property damage, made by Residents or by Seller's employees, contractors or invitees (unless caused by Buyer), occurring during Seller's ownership of the Assets before Closing; (ii) any material inaccuracy of any representation or warranty of Seller in this Agreement; or (iii) the non-fulfillment of any material covenant, undertaking, agreement or other obligation of Seller under this Agreement.

14.2 Buyer's Indemnity. Buyer shall and does hereby indemnify, defend and hold Seller and any partner (general or limited) of Seller and any current, former, and future trustee, officer, manager, member, partner, and employee (each, a "Seller Party", and collectively, the "Seller Parties") harmless from and against any and all Losses, which may be asserted against or incurred or suffered by Seller or Seller Parties from time to time by reason of or in connection with (i) any personal injury (including death) or property damage or claim of personal injury or property damage, made by Residents or by Buyer's employees, contractors or invitees (unless caused by Seller), occurring during Buyer's ownership of the Assets on or after the Closing; (ii) any material inaccuracy of any representation or warranty of Buyer in this Agreement; or (iii) the non-fulfillment of any material covenant, undertaking, agreement or other obligation of Buyer under this Agreement.

14.3 Survival. Except as otherwise provided herein, the several representations and warranties of the parties contained in this Agreement and a party's right to indemnity in accordance with this Article 14 shall survive the Closing Date and shall remain in full force and effect thereafter for a period of one (1) year after the Closing Date and shall be effective with respect to any material inaccuracy therein or breach thereof, notice of which shall have been duly given within such one (1) year period in accordance with Section 14.4 hereof after which one (1) year period they shall terminate and be of no further force or effect.

14.4 Indemnification Procedure. After the incurrence of any Loss by any Buyer Party or any Seller Party, which might give rise to indemnification hereunder, the party seeking indemnification (the "Indemnitee") shall deliver to the party from which indemnification is sought (the "Indemnitor") written notice of such Loss within fifteen (15) days of Indemnitee's becoming aware thereof; provided, however, that delay or failure to so notify the Indemnitor shall only relieve the Indemnitor of its obligations to the extent, if at all, that it is prejudiced by reasons of such delay or failure. The Indemnitor shall have a period of thirty (30) days within which to respond thereto. If the Indemnitor accepts responsibility within such thirty (30)-day period, the Indemnitor shall be obligated to compromise or defend such matter, at its own expense and through counsel reasonably satisfactory to the Indemnitee. If the Indemnitor does respond within such 30-day period and rejects responsibility for such matter in whole or in part, or does not respond, the Indemnitee shall be free to pursue, without prejudice to any of its rights hereunder, such remedies as may be available to the Indemnitee under applicable law at the Indemnitor's expense (subject, for the avoidance of doubt, to the limits set forth in this Article 14). The Indemnitee agrees to cooperate fully with the Indemnitor and its counsel in the defense against any such asserted liability. In any event, the Indemnitee shall have the right to participate in a non-controlling manner and at its own expense in the defense of such asserted liability. Any compromise of such asserted liability by the Indemnitor shall require the prior written consent of the Indemnitee and until such consent is obtained the Indemnitor shall continue the defense of such asserted liability. If, however, the Indemnitee refuses its consent to a bona fide offer of settlement containing a complete release of the Indemnitee from all liability in connection with the underlying claim that the Indemnitor wishes to accept, the Indemnitee may continue to pursue such matter, free of any participation by the Indemnitor, at the sole expense of the Indemnitee. In such event, the obligation of the Indemnitor to the Indemnitee shall be equal to the lesser of (i) the amount of the offer of settlement which the Indemnitee refused to accept plus the costs and expenses of the Indemnitee prior to the date the Indemnitor notifies the Indemnitee of the offer of settlement; or (ii) the actual out-of-pocket amount the Indemnitee is obligated to pay as a result of the Indemnitee's continuing to pursue such matter. The Indemnitor shall be entitled to recover from the Indemnitee any additional expenses incurred by the Indemnitor as a result of the decision of the Indemnitee to pursue such matter. So long as the Indemnitor is reasonably contesting any such claim in good faith, the Indemnitee shall not pay or settle such claim without the Indemnitor's prior written consent; provided that the Indemnitee may pay or settle such claim if it waives its right to indemnity therefor from the Indemnitor.

14.5 Reduction for Insurance. The amount which the Indemnitor is required to pay to, for, or on behalf of the Indemnitee pursuant to this Article 14 shall be reduced (including, without limitation, retroactively) by any insurance proceeds actually recovered by or on behalf of the Indemnitee in reduction of the related indemnifiable loss (the "Indemnifiable Loss"). Amounts required to be paid, as so reduced, are hereinafter sometimes called an "Indemnity Payment." If the Indemnitee shall have received, or if the Indemnitor shall have paid on its behalf, an Indemnity Payment in respect of an Indemnifiable Loss and shall subsequently receive, directly or indirectly, insurance proceeds (which duplicate in whole or in part, the Indemnity Payment) in respect of such Indemnifiable Loss, then the Indemnitee shall promptly pay to the Indemnitor the amount of such insurance proceeds, or, if less, the amount of the Indemnity Payment~~, subject to the Basket Amount and Cap.~~. The parties hereto agree that the foregoing shall not affect the subrogation rights of any insurance companies making payments hereunder.

14.6 Limitations of Remedies.

(b) Notwithstanding anything in this Section 14 to contrary, no person shall be entitled to indemnification hereunder if it can be established by clear and convincing evidence that such person had knowledge on or prior to the Closing Date of the failure of any representation or warranty, or the breach of any covenant or agreement or the existence of any fact, event or circumstance, which may serve as the basis for bringing a claim for indemnification hereunder.

Section 15. Conduct of Business Pending Closing.

Beginning on the Effective Date and continuing through the Closing Date; (i) Seller shall make no material change in the operation of the Facilities nor enter into any material contract other than in the ordinary course of business nor incur any material liability without the prior written consent of Buyer, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned, or delayed, and Seller shall make good faith efforts to ensure that the goodwill and operations of the Facilities and the relationships with Residents and employees are preserved in the ordinary course of business; (ii) Seller shall perform all maintenance and repairs necessary to keep the Facilities and Assets in good operating condition and repair, and shall not sell or remove any Inventory or any Fixtures, Furniture and Equipment except in the ordinary course of business; and (iii) Seller shall not, without the prior written consent of Buyer:

15.3 Insurance. From the date hereof until the Closing Date, Seller shall, as long as such insurance continues to be available at reasonably affordable rates, continuously maintain insurance on the Facilities at no less than the levels maintained on the date hereof. Seller shall maintain, at Seller's expense, "tail" coverage with respect to its professional liability insurance policy (if it is a claims made policy) for two (2) years following the Closing Date and shall name Buyer as an additional named insured on such tail coverage.

Section 16. Transition.

16.1 Accounts Receivable. Seller shall immediately transmit to Buyer any payments on accounts of the Facilities arising after the Closing which may be delivered to Seller from third party payor sources for services rendered after the Closing. All payments received by Buyer shall be applied first to delinquencies and then to current obligations.

16.2 Cooperation. Seller and Buyer agree to cooperate with each other in all reasonable respects and to provide such information as is necessary to ensure a smooth and orderly transition of operation of the Facilities.

16.3 Medicare Change of Ownership Filings. Buyer and Seller acknowledge that the transfer of the operations at the skilled nursing facilities as contemplated under this Agreement will constitute a change of ownership of the skilled nursing facilities for purposes of participation in the Medicare program and will effect an assignment of the skilled nursing facilities' Medicare provider agreements and provider numbers to Buyer (or its designee). Buyer (or its designee) shall not reject the assignment of the skilled nursing facilities' Medicare provider agreement or provider number. Seller and Buyer (or its designee) will act diligently to make all necessary notifications and filings required under ~~Applicable Law~~applicable law for Buyer (or its designee) to become the Medicare provider at the skilled nursing facilities. Subject to the terms and provisions of this Agreement, Buyer (or its designee) may bill under Seller's Medicare provider enrollment agreement and use Seller's provider numbers for the skilled nursing facilities from the Closing Date until the earlier of the date that (a) Buyer (or its designee) receives the applicable Medicare certification notice (the so-called "tie-in" notice) which will enable it to receive reimbursements directly from Medicare for items and services furnished by the Facilities or (b) this Agreement is terminated in accordance with its terms.

16.4 Cost Reports. Seller shall prepare and file any Medicare cost reports for the Facilities related to the period prior to the ~~Effective Date.~~Closing. Following the ~~Effective Date~~Closing, Seller shall be authorized to contact the business office manager or other persons with access to the information at the Facilities during normal business hours in order to obtain information needed to prepare the final Medicare cost reports with respect to claims filed with Medicare for the Facilities prior to the ~~Effective Date~~Closing, and Buyer (or its designee) shall provide Seller with such Facility ~~Records~~records as Seller reasonably requests to complete such final cost reports.

16.5 Indemnification Under Third Party Payor Programs. Notwithstanding any other provisions in this Agreement to the contrary, Seller shall not have any liability whatsoever with respect to Losses relating to (a) Buyer's (or its designee's) furnishing of items or services, on or after the Closing Date, to any Third Party Payor Program beneficiaries or other patients, (b) Buyer's (or its designee's) financial accounting, coding, billing, cost reporting or claims submissions activities for its own account with respect to Third Party Payor Programs, or (c) Buyer's (or its designee's) retention of payments for the furnishing of such items and services. Buyer (or its designee) shall indemnify, defend and hold Seller harmless against and with respect to any Losses arising from the foregoing.

16.6 Survival. The provisions of this Section 16 shall survive the expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement and shall survive the Closing.

Section 17. Public Announcements.

Each of the parties to this Agreement agrees not to make any public announcement or disclosure, and not to issue a press release, concerning the execution of this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby prior to Closing without the prior written approval of the other party, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned, or delayed, except to the extent necessary to make regulatory filings or as required by law or as may be necessary for such party to reveal to such party's lenders or proposed lenders; provided, however, that Seller shall be entitled to make such disclosures as may be necessary and appropriate to obtain the requisite approval of the bankruptcy court for the transactions contemplated hereunder and shall be entitled to disclose the status of the transactions contemplated hereunder to employees and ~~residents~~Residents.

If after the Closing any taxes are assessed against the Premises for periods prior to the Closing, Buyer shall provide Seller notice of such taxes, which such notice shall (i) include any tax bill or related documentation; and (ii) set forth Buyer's calculations regarding the amount of such taxes which Buyer determines is allocated to Seller in sufficient detail and particularity to enable Seller to verify the amount of the taxes. No later than fifteen (15) days prior to the due date for paying such taxes, Seller shall notify Buyer of any reasonable objections Seller may have to Buyer's calculations regarding the amount of such taxes which Buyer determined is allocated to Seller. Buyer and Seller agree to consult and resolve in good faith any such objection within ten (10) days of the due date of the tax. Seller shall be obligated to pay the portion of such taxes allocable to the period prior to the Closing at least five (5) days before such taxes become delinquent. If Seller fails to pay Seller's portion of such taxes at least five (5) days before such taxes become delinquent, then Buyer shall have the right to pay Seller's portion of such taxes and Seller shall be obligated to immediately reimburse Buyer for any such payments made by Buyer. Buyer acknowledges that Seller is a Section 501(c)(3) charitable organization that pays no or nominal property taxes but that pays assessments to the counties in which the Premises are located.

Reconciliation shall include appropriate detail to identify the items being adjusted. A final reconciliation of all expenses, costs, charges, service fees and Resident monthly service fees shall be prepared and delivered by representatives of Buyer and Seller to each other within ninety (90) days after the Closing Date (the "Final Reconciliation"). The Final Reconciliation shall appropriately net all items to reflect the net amount owed to Buyer or to Seller as a result of such reconciliation. After approval by both parties of the Final Reconciliation, the party determined to owe cash as a result of such Final Reconciliation shall promptly pay such cash to the other party.

The provisions of this Section 2.3 shall survive the Closing.

All amounts collected by Buyer shall be applied first to current fees due (and if collected in the month in which the Closing occurs, such fees shall be prorated between Buyer and Seller) and then to delinquencies. The provisions of this Section 2.6 shall survive the Closing.

Buyer has the full power and authority to enter into and to perform its obligations under this Agreement and all other agreements and instruments to be executed by it pursuant to this Agreement, and no approval or consent of, or notice to, any person, entity, or governmental agency or authority is necessary for Buyer to perform hereunder other than the approval of Agencies for Buyer to operate the Facilities. 12.4 Not Insolvent. Buyer is not insolvent (as such term is defined in the Bankruptcy Code), and shall not be rendered insolvent as a consequence to the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby.

12.5 No Financing. Buyer has the funds to consummate the transactions contemplated this Agreement and does not require the commitment from any lending institution other than HCAI's consent to the Note and Security Instruments in order to fulfill its obligations hereunder.

12.6 Violations. There is no pending or, to Buyer's knowledge, threatened, notice, suit, judgment, proceeding or investigation from any federal, state, city or local authority relating to any alleged violation at any of Buyer's other facilities that could be reasonably be expected to cause any Agencies or the California Attorney General to delay or deny the Regulatory Clearances to Buyer.

12.7 Litigation. Subject to the disclosures set forth on Schedule 12.7 hereto, there is no litigation, arbitration or proceeding pending, or to Buyer's knowledge, threatened, before any court or administrative agency or any other condition that could adversely affect Buyer's performance hereunder.

Section 13. Conditions to Parties' Obligations.

13.1 Condition to Buyer's Obligations. The obligations of Buyer to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall be subject to the satisfaction or performance prior to or at Closing of the following conditions, of which items (a), (b), (c), (f) and (g) below may be waived by Buyer:

(a) Representations. Each of Seller's representations and warranties as set forth in Section 11 above shall be true in all material respects as of the Closing Date.

(b) Seller's Other Obligations. Seller shall perform all of its other covenants and obligations in all material respects as set forth in this Agreement.

(c) Title. The Title Company shall be prepared to issue to Buyer at Closing the Title Policy subject only to the Permitted Encumbrances.

(d) Regulatory Clearances. Buyer shall receive all required Regulatory Clearances.

(e) Order of Sale. The Court in the Case shall have granted the Sale Motion as contemplated in Section 5.2 of this Agreement.

(g) No Unwaived MAC. No MAC has occurred that Buyer has not waived by written notice to Seller.

(h) HCAI Approval. Written consent of HCAI in satisfaction of Section 5.3 of this Agreement.

If any of the conditions precedent set forth in this Section 13.1 have not been materially satisfied or waived by the Closing Date, then Buyer may: (a) terminate this Agreement by notifying Seller and Escrow Agent prior to the Closing Date, in which event Seller shall promptly refund the Earnest Money to Buyer, and neither party shall have any further rights, duties or obligations to the other except as expressly provided to survive termination hereunder; or (b) waive such condition precedent to Closing, whereupon Buyer shall be deemed to have waived any rights or remedies under this Agreement with respect to the unsatisfied condition precedent and the purchase and sale hereunder shall be consummated in accordance with the terms and conditions hereof.

13.2 Condition to Seller's Obligations. The obligations of Seller to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall be subject to the satisfaction or performance prior to or at Closing of the following conditions, of which items (a) and (b) below may be waived by Seller:

If any of the conditions precedent set forth in this Section 13.2 have not been materially satisfied or waived by the Closing Date, then Seller may: (a) terminate this Agreement by notifying Buyer and Escrow Agent prior to the Closing Date, in which event Seller shall retain the Earnest Money and neither party shall have any further rights, duties or obligations to the other except as expressly provided to survive termination hereunder; or (b) waive such condition precedent to Closing, whereupon Seller shall be deemed to have waived any rights or remedies under this Agreement with respect to the unsatisfied condition precedent and the purchase and sale hereunder shall be consummated in accordance with the terms and conditions hereof.

Section 14. Indemnification.

14.1 Seller's Indemnity. Seller shall and does hereby indemnify, defend and hold Buyer and its managers, members, affiliates, agents and/or employees (each, a "Buyer Party", and collectively, the "Buyer Parties") harmless from and against any and all loss, cost, damage, claim, judgment, liability or expense, including court costs and reasonable actual attorneys' fees (individually a "Loss," and collectively "Losses") which may be asserted against or incurred or suffered by Buyer or the Buyer Parties from time to time by reason of or in connection with (i) any personal injury (including death) or property damage or claim of personal injury or property damage, made by Residents or by Seller's employees, contractors or invitees (unless caused by Buyer), occurring during Seller's ownership of the Assets before Closing; (ii) any material inaccuracy of any representation or warranty of Seller in this Agreement; or (iii) the non-fulfillment of any material covenant, undertaking, agreement or other obligation of Seller under this Agreement.

14.2 Buyer's Indemnity. Buyer shall and does hereby indemnify, defend and hold Seller and any partner (general or limited) of Seller and any current, former, and future trustee, officer, manager, member, partner, and employee (each, a "Seller Party", and collectively, the "Seller Parties") harmless from and against any and all Losses, which may be asserted against or incurred or suffered by Seller or Seller Parties from time to time by reason of or in connection with (i) any personal injury (including death) or property damage or claim of personal injury or property damage, made by Residents or by Buyer's employees, contractors or invitees (unless caused by Seller), occurring during Buyer's ownership of the Assets on or after the Closing; (ii) any material inaccuracy of any representation or warranty of Buyer in this Agreement; or (iii) the non-fulfillment of any material covenant, undertaking, agreement or other obligation of Buyer under this Agreement.

14.3 Survival. Except as otherwise provided herein, the several representations and warranties of the parties contained in this Agreement and a party's right to indemnity in accordance with this Article 14 shall survive the Closing Date and shall remain in full force and effect thereafter for a period of one (1) year after the Closing Date and shall be effective with respect to any material inaccuracy therein or breach thereof, notice of which shall have been duly given within such one (1) year period in accordance with Section 14.4 hereof after which one (1) year period they shall terminate and be of no further force or effect.

14.4 Indemnification Procedure. After the incurrence of any Loss by any Buyer Party or any Seller Party, which might give rise to indemnification hereunder, the party seeking indemnification (the "Indemnitee") shall deliver to the party from which indemnification is sought (the "Indemnitor") written notice of such Loss within fifteen (15) days of Indemnitee's becoming aware thereof; provided, however, that delay or failure to so notify the Indemnitor shall only relieve the Indemnitor of its obligations to the extent, if at all, that it is prejudiced by reasons of such delay or failure. The Indemnitor shall have a period of thirty (30) days within which to respond thereto. If the Indemnitor accepts responsibility within such thirty (30)-day period, the Indemnitor shall be obligated to compromise or defend such matter, at its own expense and through counsel reasonably satisfactory to the Indemnitee. If the Indemnitor does respond within such 30-day period and rejects responsibility for such matter in whole or in part, or does not respond, the Indemnitee shall be free to pursue, without prejudice to any of its rights hereunder, such remedies as may be available to the Indemnitee under applicable law at the Indemnitor's expense (subject, for the avoidance of doubt, to the limits set forth in this Article 14). The Indemnitee agrees to cooperate fully with the Indemnitor and its counsel in the defense against any such asserted liability. In any event, the Indemnitee shall have the right to participate in a non-controlling manner and at its own expense in the defense of such asserted liability. Any compromise of such asserted liability by the Indemnitor shall require the prior written consent of the Indemnitee and until such consent is obtained the Indemnitor shall continue the defense of such asserted liability. If, however, the Indemnitee refuses its consent to a bona fide offer of settlement containing a complete release of the Indemnitee from all liability in connection with the underlying claim that the Indemnitor wishes to accept, the Indemnitee may continue to pursue such matter, free of any participation by the Indemnitor, at the sole expense of the Indemnitee. In such event, the obligation of the Indemnitor to the Indemnitee shall be equal to the lesser of (i) the amount of the offer of settlement which the Indemnitee refused to accept plus the costs and expenses of the Indemnitee prior to the date the Indemnitor notifies the Indemnitee of the offer of settlement; or (ii) the actual out-of-pocket amount the Indemnitee is obligated to pay as a result of the Indemnitee's continuing to pursue such matter. The Indemnitor shall be entitled to recover from the Indemnitee any additional expenses incurred by the Indemnitor as a result of the decision of the Indemnitee to pursue such matter. So long as the Indemnitor is reasonably contesting any such claim in good faith, the Indemnitee shall not pay or settle such claim without the Indemnitor's prior written consent; provided that the Indemnitee may pay or settle such claim if it waives its right to indemnity therefor from the Indemnitor.

14.5 Reduction for Insurance. The amount which the Indemnitor is required to pay to, for, or on behalf of the Indemnitee pursuant to this Article 14 shall be reduced (including, without limitation, retroactively) by any insurance proceeds actually recovered by or on behalf of the Indemnitee in reduction of the related indemnifiable loss (the "Indemnifiable Loss"). Amounts required to be paid, as so reduced, are hereinafter sometimes called an "Indemnity Payment." If the Indemnitee shall have received, or if the Indemnitor shall have paid on its behalf, an Indemnity Payment in respect of an Indemnifiable Loss and shall subsequently receive, directly or indirectly, insurance proceeds (which duplicate in whole or in part, the Indemnity Payment) in respect of such Indemnifiable Loss, then the Indemnitee shall promptly pay to the Indemnitor the amount of such insurance proceeds, or, if less, the amount of the Indemnity Payment. The parties hereto agree that the foregoing shall not affect the subrogation rights of any insurance companies making payments hereunder.

14.6 Limitations of Remedies.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein, the parties hereto agree that the indemnification provisions set forth in this Section 14 shall constitute the sole and exclusive remedy of either party for any breach or inaccuracy of any representation or warranty contained in this Agreement. The Buyer acknowledges that it shall not be entitled to seek rescission of the Agreement.

(b) Notwithstanding anything in this Section 14 to contrary, no person shall be entitled to indemnification hereunder if it can be established by clear and convincing evidence that such person had knowledge on or prior to the Closing Date of the failure of any representation or warranty, or the breach of any covenant or agreement or the existence of any fact, event or circumstance, which may serve as the basis for bringing a claim for indemnification hereunder.

Section 15. Conduct of Business Pending Closing.

15.1 Ordinary Course of Business. Beginning on the Effective Date and continuing through the Closing Date; (i) Seller shall make no material change in the operation of the Facilities nor enter into any material contract other than in the ordinary course of business nor incur any material liability without the prior written consent of Buyer, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned, or delayed, and Seller shall make good faith efforts to ensure that the goodwill and operations of the Facilities and the relationships with Residents and employees are preserved in the ordinary course of business; (ii) Seller shall perform all maintenance and repairs necessary to keep the Facilities and Assets in good operating condition and repair, and shall not sell or remove any Inventory or any Fixtures, Furniture and Equipment except in the ordinary course of business; and (iii) Seller shall not, without the prior written consent of Buyer:

(a) enter into any material contract, agreement, lease or other commitment with a duration of more than 12 months or involving the expenditure of more than fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) with respect to the Facilities, except contracts to purchase operating supplies or services in the ordinary course of business;

(b) make any change in key personnel at the Facilities, including the executive director or other department heads; or

(c) enter into any employment arrangement, agreement or undertaking, or pay or promise to pay any fringe benefit, bonus or special compensation to employees, except "stay for pay" arrangements and filling vacated positions as needed.

15.2 Compensation. Except in the ordinary course of business and consistent with past practices, Seller shall not increase, except for annual cost of living, or promise any increase with respect to any salary or other form of compensation payable or to become payable to any of employees, and will not pay any bonus or make any other severance or retirement arrangement with any employees except as may have already been negotiated, be required to avoid legal action, or be required pursuant to Section 9.1 hereof.

15.3 Insurance. From the date hereof until the Closing Date, Seller shall, as long as such insurance continues to be available at reasonably affordable rates, continuously maintain insurance on the Facilities at no less than the levels maintained on the date hereof. Seller shall maintain, at Seller's expense, "tail" coverage with respect to its professional liability insurance policy (if it is a claims made policy) for two (2) years following the Closing Date and shall name Buyer as an additional named insured on such tail coverage.

Section 16. Transition.

16.1 Accounts Receivable. Seller shall immediately transmit to Buyer any payments on accounts of the Facilities arising after the Closing which may be delivered to Seller from third party payor sources for services rendered after the Closing. Buyer shall immediately transmit to Seller any payments on accounts of the Facilities arising after the Closing which may be delivered to Buyer from third party payor sources for services rendered prior to Closing. All payments received by Buyer shall be applied first to delinquencies and then to current obligations.

16.2 Cooperation. Seller and Buyer agree to cooperate with each other in all reasonable respects and to provide such information as is necessary to ensure a smooth and orderly transition of operation of the Facilities.

16.3 Medicare Change of Ownership Filings. Buyer and Seller acknowledge that the transfer of the operations at the skilled nursing facilities as contemplated under this Agreement will constitute a change of ownership of the skilled nursing facilities for purposes of participation in the Medicare program and will effect an assignment of the skilled nursing facilities' Medicare provider agreements and provider numbers to Buyer (or its designee). Buyer (or its designee) shall not reject the assignment of the skilled nursing facilities' Medicare provider agreement or provider number. Seller and Buyer (or its designee) will act diligently to make all necessary notifications and filings required under applicable law for Buyer (or its designee) to become the Medicare provider at the skilled nursing facilities. In addition, Seller and Buyer (or its designee) each agree to complete, execute and submit its portions of the CMS-855A forms with respect to the skilled nursing facilities as promptly as practicable following the expiration of the Due Diligence Period. Subject to the terms and provisions of this Agreement, Buyer (or its designee) may bill under Seller's Medicare provider enrollment agreement and use Seller's provider numbers for the skilled nursing facilities from the Closing Date until the earlier of the date that (a) Buyer (or its designee) receives the applicable Medicare certification notice (the so-called "tie-in" notice) which will enable it to receive reimbursements directly from Medicare for items and services furnished by the Facilities or (b) this Agreement is terminated in accordance with its terms.

16.4 Cost Reports. Seller shall prepare and file any Medicare cost reports for the Facilities related to the period prior to the Closing. Following the Closing, Seller shall be authorized to contact the business office manager or other persons with access to the information at the Facilities during normal business hours in order to obtain information needed to prepare the final Medicare cost reports with respect to claims filed with Medicare for the Facilities prior to the Closing, and Buyer (or its designee) shall provide Seller with such Facility records as Seller reasonably requests to complete such final cost reports.

16.5 Indemnification Under Third Party Payor Programs. Notwithstanding any other provisions in this Agreement to the contrary, Seller shall not have any liability whatsoever with respect to Losses relating to (a) Buyer's (or its designee's) furnishing of items or services, on or after the Closing Date, to any Third Party Payor Program beneficiaries or other patients, (b) Buyer's (or its designee's) financial accounting, coding, billing, cost reporting or claims submissions activities for its own account with respect to Third Party Payor Programs, or (c) Buyer's (or its designee's) retention of payments for the furnishing of such items and services. Buyer (or its designee) shall indemnify, defend and hold Seller harmless against and with respect to any Losses arising from the foregoing.

16.6 Survival. The provisions of this Section 16 shall survive the expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement and shall survive the Closing.

Section 17. Public Announcements.

Each of the parties to this Agreement agrees not to make any public announcement or disclosure, and not to issue a press release, concerning the execution of this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby prior to Closing without the prior written approval of the other party, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned, or delayed, except to the extent necessary to make regulatory filings or as required by law or as may be necessary for such party to reveal to such party's lenders or proposed lenders; provided, however, that Seller shall be entitled to make such disclosures as may be necessary and appropriate to obtain the requisite approval of the bankruptcy court for the transactions contemplated hereunder and shall be entitled to disclose the status of the transactions contemplated hereunder to employees and Residents.

Section 18. Default.

18.1 Buyer's Default.

(a) If Buyer shall be in breach or default of any of the terms or conditions of this Agreement, then Seller shall give Buyer and Escrow Agent written notice specifying the nature of the default.

(b) Buyer shall have five (5) days from receipt of Seller's notice of default within which to cure the specified default. If Buyer does not cure such default within said five (5) day period or if such default is not waived in writing by Seller, then the Earnest Money shall be paid over to Seller and this Agreement shall automatically terminate and Seller and Buyer shall have no further rights, duties or obligations hereunder except as expressly survive the termination hereof.

(c) BUYER AND SELLER AGREE THAT IF BUYER DEFAULTS ON ITS OBLIGATION TO PURCHASE THE ASSETS PURSUANT HERETO, THE DAMAGES TO SELLER WOULD BE DIFFICULT AND IMPRACTICAL TO DETERMINE. ACCORDINGLY, BUYER AND SELLER HAVE AGREED TO FIX AS LIQUIDATED DAMAGES THE EARNEST MONEY SPECIFIED IN SECTION 4, BUT ONLY TO THE EXTENT THERETOFORE DEPOSITED WITH ESCROW AGENT AND THE EARNEST MONEY SHALL BE RETAINED BY SELLER AS LIQUIDATED DAMAGES, AND SHALL CONSTITUTE SELLER'S SOLE AND EXCLUSIVE REMEDY FOR SUCH DEFAULT.

SELLER AGREES THAT THESE LIQUIDATED DAMAGES SHALL BE IN LIEU OF ANY OTHER MONETARY RELIEF OR OTHER REMEDY, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION SPECIFIC PERFORMANCE, TO WHICH SELLER OTHERWISE MIGHT BE ENTITLED UNDER THIS AGREEMENT, AT LAW OR IN EQUITY. BUYER AND SELLER SPECIFICALLY ACKNOWLEDGE THEIR AGREEMENT TO THE FOREGOING LIQUIDATED DAMAGES PROVISION BY INITIALING THIS PARAGRAPH IN THE APPROPRIATE SPACES PROVIDED BELOW:

18.2 Seller's Default.

(a) If Seller shall be in breach or default of any of the terms or conditions of this Agreement, then Buyer shall give Seller and Escrow Agent written notice specifying the nature of the default.

(b) Seller shall have five (5) days from receipt of Buyer's notice of default within which to cure the specified default. If Seller does not cure such default within said five (5) day period or if such default is not waived in writing by Buyer, then Buyer, at its option, shall have the right, within five (5) days after the expiration of the said five (5) day grace period, to elect one (1) and only one (1) of the following remedies:

(i) Buyer may terminate this Agreement by written notice given to Seller and Escrow Agent, in which event the Earnest Money will be refunded to Buyer; or

(ii) Buyer may demand specific performance of this Agreement by Seller, and, if necessary, file an action therefor.

18.3 Survival. The provisions of this Section 18 shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

Section 19. Broker.

Neither Seller nor Buyer has had any dealings with any broker, finder, or other party concerning the purchase and sale of the Assets other than Dan Revie and his team at B.C. Ziegler & Company ("Broker") and Buyer and Seller each agree to indemnify and hold the other harmless from all loss, costs, damage or expense, including reasonable attorney's fees incurred by the other as a result of any claim arising out of the acts of the indemnifying party for a commission, finder's fee, or similar compensation made by any other broker, finder or other party. Broker is to be paid a commission by Seller pursuant to a separate agreement and Broker shall not be deemed a party or third party beneficiary of this Agreement. The representations and warranties contained herein shall survive the Closing.

Section 20. Miscellaneous.

20.1 Further Assurances. Each of the parties will, at any time before, at, or after the Closing Date, sign, execute and deliver (or cause others to do so) all documents and instruments to do, or cause to be done, all such acts and things as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this Agreement.

20.2 Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of California.

Nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to confer upon any party, other than the parties hereto, and their respective successors and assigns, any rights, remedies, obligations or liabilities under or by reason of this Agreement.

20.5 Amendment. A modification or amendment of this Agreement, the exhibits or schedules to this Agreement, or the other documents delivered pursuant hereto is effective only if it is in writing and executed by both parties. Execution by Escrow Agent is not required for any modification or amendment unless such modification or amendment affects Section 4 hereof.

20.6 Notices. All notices or other communications required or permitted hereunder shall be in writing and addressed as set forth below and either personally delivered (including delivery by a nationally recognized courier), sent by overnight mail (Federal Express or the like), or sent by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid, return receipt requested, or sent by telecopy or electronic mail. (a) Expenses, Costs and Charges. The following items shall be prorated between Seller and Buyer as of the Closing Date. Seller shall be responsible for such items prior to the Closing Date and Buyer shall be responsible for such items on and after the Closing Date:

(i) real and personal property taxes and assessments for the calendar year in which the Closing occurs, giving recognition to any discount available for earliest payment. If taxes are prorated on an estimated basis rather than the actual tax for the year in which the Closing occurs, the parties shall adjust the prorated amount when such actual tax is known, based on the final tax bill for the year in which the Closing occurs;

(ii) water, fuel, electricity, telephone, garbage collection, sewage, and other utility service charges and expenses; and

(iii) any other accrued and apportionable operating costs, charges and expenses, including without limitation those under the Assumed Contracts.

To the extent that prior to the Closing, Seller was appealing any ad valorem tax assessment or otherwise engaged in a tax contest, any refund or reduction in taxes applicable to any year prior to the year in which the Closing occurs shall be and remain the property of Seller and if any such tax refund is paid to, received by or credited to Buyer, Buyer shall promptly remit such payment or a check for such credit to Seller. If after the Closing any taxes are assessed against the Premises for periods prior to the Closing, Buyer shall provide Seller notice of such taxes, which such notice shall (i) include any tax bill or related documentation; and (ii) set forth Buyer's calculations regarding the amount of such taxes which Buyer determines is allocated to Seller in sufficient detail and particularity to enable Seller to verify the amount of the taxes. No later than fifteen (15) days prior to the due date for paying such taxes, Seller shall notify Buyer of any reasonable objections Seller may have to Buyer's calculations regarding the amount of such taxes which Buyer determined is allocated to Seller. Buyer and Seller agree to consult and resolve in good faith any such objection within ten (10) days of the due date of the tax. Seller shall be obligated to pay the portion of such taxes allocable to the period prior to the Closing at least five (5) days before such taxes become delinquent. If Seller fails to pay Seller's portion of such taxes at least five (5) days before such taxes become delinquent, then Buyer shall have the right to pay Seller's portion of such taxes and Seller shall be obligated to immediately reimburse Buyer for any such payments made by Buyer. Buyer acknowledges that Seller is a Section 501(c)(3) charitable organization that pays no or nominal property taxes but that pays assessments to the counties in which the Premises are located.

(b) Resident Monthly Service Fees. Residents' monthly service fees for the month of Closing shall be allocated as of the Closing Date; the portion thereof allocable to all time periods prior to the Closing Date shall be credited to Seller and the portion thereof allocable to the Closing Date and thereafter shall be allocable to Buyer. Buyer and Seller hereby recognize and agree that some Resident monthly service fees for the month of Closing will not have been collected as of the Closing Date. Therefore, the parties agree to estimate such amounts on the Closing Statement and adjust such estimate post-Closing as hereinafter provided.

Within thirty (30) days after the Closing Date, representatives of Seller and Buyer shall prepare and deliver to each other a schedule itemizing the adjustments to costs, charges and expenses, together with Resident monthly service fees (the "Initial Reconciliation"). The Initial Reconciliation shall include appropriate detail to identify the items being adjusted. A final reconciliation of all expenses, costs, charges, service fees and Resident monthly service fees shall be prepared and delivered by representatives of Buyer and Seller to each other within ninety (90) days after the Closing Date (the "Final Reconciliation"). The Final Reconciliation shall appropriately net all items to reflect the net amount owed to Buyer or to Seller as a result of such reconciliation. After approval by both parties of the Final Reconciliation, the party determined to owe cash as a result of such Final Reconciliation shall promptly pay such cash to the other party.

The provisions of this Section 2.3 shall survive the Closing.

2.4 Employees. All employees of Seller will be terminated by Seller effective as of the Closing Date. At the time of termination, such terminated employees will receive final paychecks in accordance with applicable law, and pursuant to Section 9.1 hereof.

2.5 Resident Security Deposits. With respect to any security deposits posted by Residents of the Facilities with Seller prior to Closing, Buyer shall receive a credit for such amounts. All amounts collected by Buyer shall be applied first to current fees due (and if collected in the month in which the Closing occurs, such fees shall be prorated between Buyer and Seller) and then to delinquencies. The provisions of this Section 2.6 shall survive the Closing.

Section 3. Closing.

3.1 Place and Time; Extensions. The Closing shall take place at the offices of Escrow Agent, or at such other place as the parties may agree, on the Closing Date, and the transactions contemplated hereby shall be deemed effective on the Closing Date. (h) any other documents necessary to close escrow.

3.4 Resident Records. At Closing, Seller shall deliver possession to Buyer at the Facilities of any and all records or written documents located at the Facilities or otherwise in Seller's possession or control and relating to Residents of the Facilities, including, but not limited to, all contracts, applications, and correspondence relating to such Residents unless protected by an applicable privilege. For a period of four (4) years from the Closing, Buyer agrees that upon reasonable advance notice Seller and its representatives may have access to all such items after the Closing and may at Seller's expense make copies of such items, and Buyer agrees to retain all such records and documents in compliance with any and all applicable laws, rules and regulations. For a period of four (4) years from the Closing, Buyer shall neither destroy nor give up possession of such records without first offering the opportunity to Seller, at Seller's expense, to obtain the records. The provisions of this Section 3.4 shall survive the Closing.

3.5 Employee Records. At Closing, Seller shall deliver possession to Buyer at the Facilities of any and all records or written documents (unless otherwise confidential or privileged) physically located at the Facilities and relating to employees of the Facilities who are actually employed by Buyer effective at Closing. For a period of four (4) years from the Closing, Buyer agrees that upon reasonable advance notice Seller and its representatives may have access to all such items after the Closing and may at Seller's expense make copies of such items, and Buyer agrees to retain all such records and documents in compliance with any and all applicable laws, rules and regulations. For a period of four (4) years from the Closing, Buyer shall neither destroy nor give up possession of such records without first offering the opportunity to Seller, at Seller's expense, to obtain the records. The provisions of this Section 3.5 shall survive the Closing.

Section 4. Earnest Money and Provisions Regarding the Escrow Agent.

4.1 Earnest Money. Seller acknowledges and agrees that (i) Buyer has previously deposited with Escrow Agent the sum of Five Hundred Thousand and No/100 Dollars ($500,000.00); and (ii) within one (1) business day of entry of the Sale Order, unless Buyer rightfully terminates this Agreement prior thereto, Buyer shall deposit with Escrow Agent an additional Five Hundred Thousand and No/100 Dollars ($500,000), for a total deposit of One Million Dollars ($1,000,000) (together, "Earnest Money"). Escrow Agent is hereby directed to deposit each installment of the Earnest Money in an interest bearing account with the interest accruing under Buyer's federal taxpayer identification number. If Buyer delivers to Escrow Agent Buyer's Approval Notice (as defined in Section 7.2) prior to or at the expiration of the Due Diligence Period, both installments of the Earnest Money shall become nonrefundable (except to the extent Seller defaults on its obligations hereunder or a condition precedent to Buyer's obligations is not satisfied or waived in writing by Buyer in accordance with the provisions of Section 13 hereof), and shall be held in escrow by Escrow Agent until Closing or the earlier termination of this Agreement. If this Agreement is rightfully terminated or deemed terminated during or at the end of the Due Diligence Period, Escrow Agent shall release the Earnest Money already paid by Buyer (and all interest earned thereon), or any portion thereof being held in escrow, to Buyer. Following such release of the first installment of the Earnest Money, or portion thereof, neither party shall have any further rights or obligations hereunder (other than the Independent Consideration and rights arising from a party's breach of this Agreement).

4.2 Applicable to Purchase Price. The Earnest Money shall be applicable to the Purchase Price.

4.3 Independent Consideration. Buyer deposited into escrow, concurrently with and in addition to the initial installment of Earnest Money, the amount of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) (the "Independent Consideration"). The Independent Consideration shall be non-refundable and released to Seller as independent consideration for the rights extended to Buyer hereunder, including the right to terminate this Agreement as provided herein. If Buyer elects to terminate this Agreement for any reason other than Seller's default, Seller shall retain the Independent Consideration. The Independent Consideration shall be applicable towards the Purchase Price in the event the Closing occurs.

Section 5. Certain Actions Prior to Closing.

5.1 Governmental Approvals. Within thirty (30) days following the entry of the Sale Order for the CCRC and RCFE licenses and within sixty (60) days following the entry of the Sale Order for the SNF license, Buyer shall submit applications for the Regulatory Clearances to the Agencies, together with applications for any other licenses or permits that Buyer in its reasonable discretion deems necessary or appropriate to authorize Buyer to lawfully operate the Facilities on the Closing Date. Within sixty (60) days following the entry of the Sale Order, Seller shall submit notice of the sale to the Attorney General of the State of California, provided that Buyer timely reviews the draft notice and timely provides all information reasonably requested by Seller. Both parties agree to cooperate with each other in the preparation and timely submission of all applications and notices. Buyer shall pay all costs associated with all applications and notices and shall diligently and persistently in good faith pursue the issuance of the Regulatory Clearances so that the Regulatory Clearances are issued in the shortest period of time permitted by law. Seller shall provide Buyer with reasonable cooperation and assistance by supplying such information as Buyer reasonably requests in connection with Buyer's application for Regulatory Clearances and any such other licenses or permits, provided that Seller shall have no obligation to review or approve any of Buyer's applications or materials submitted in connection therewith and Buyer shall be solely responsible for the contents thereof.

5.2 Order for Sale. On September 27, 2021, Seller amended its bankruptcy schedules to include as a contingent claim the potential withdrawal liability to the Union Pension Fund (or any related entity) and served the Union Pension Fund those amended schedules on September 28, 2021. On October 22, 2021, Seller filed with the Court in the Case a motion for approval of the sale of the Assets under Section 363 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code (the "Sale Motion"). The Sale Motion specifically requests that the Court approve the transfer of the Assets to Buyer free and clear of liens and encumbrances other than Permitted Encumbrances, specifically providing, without limitation, that any withdrawal liability to the Union Pension Fund (or any other related entity) shall not be assumed by Buyer. Seller shall diligently prosecute the Sale Motion, in good faith, with the goal of obtaining Court approval of the sale of the Assets to Buyer subject only to the Regulatory Clearances and Permitted Encumbrances.

5.3 HCAI Approval. No later than 5:00 p.m. Pacific Time on December 17, 2021, or as otherwise agreed between the Debtor, HCAI and Pacifica, Buyer shall obtain HCAI's written consent of the following:

(a) this Agreement, including any subsequent amendments thereto;

(b) the terms of and form of the Note;

(c) the terms of and form of the Security Instruments; and

(d) the creditworthiness of Buyer as borrower under the Note or the creditworthiness of Pacifica Companies LLC as guarantor of the Note if Buyer is not Pacifica Companies LLC.

Section 6. Title Condition.

6.1 Premises Title Requirements. Within five (5) business days after the Effective Date, Seller shall deliver to Buyer a preliminary title report(s) issued by Title Company describing the state of title of the Real Property Assets, together with copies of all exceptions specified therein (the "Preliminary Title Report"). Buyer shall notify Seller in writing ("Buyer's Title Objection Notice") of any objections Buyer may have to title exceptions contained in the Preliminary Title Report(s) prior to the expiration of the Due Diligence Period. Any and all exceptions to title that are capable of being removed as exceptions by payment of a reasonable fixed and liquidated sum of money shall be automatically deemed objected to by Buyer. Seller shall have a period of five (5) business days after receipt of Buyer's Title Objection Notice in which to deliver written notice to Buyer ("Seller's Title Notice") of Seller's election to either (i) agree to remove the objectionable items prior to the Closing, or (ii) decline to remove any such title exceptions. If Seller fails to deliver a Seller's Title Notice, Seller shall be deemed to have declined to remove any such objectionable items. If Seller notifies Buyer of its election to decline to remove any or all such objectionable items, Buyer shall have the right, by written notice delivered to Seller within five (5) business days after Buyer's receipt of Seller's Title Notice, to elect between either, (y) accepting the cancellation of escrow, in which event the entire Earnest Money shall be immediately released to Buyer; or (z) agreeing to accept the Real Property Assets subject to the objectionable items (the "Permitted Encumbrances"), in which event Seller's election to terminate the escrow shall be of no effect, and Buyer shall take title of the Real Property Assets at the Closing subject to such objectionable items. Upon the issuance of any amendment or supplement to the Preliminary Title Report which adds additional exceptions, the foregoing right of review and approval shall also apply to said amendment or supplement (provided that the period for Buyer to review such amendment or supplement shall be the later of the expiration of the Due Diligence Period or three (3) business days from receipt of the amendment or supplement) and the Closing shall be deemed extended by the amount of time necessary to allow such review and approval in the time and manner set forth above; provided, however, that in no event shall the Closing be extended as a result of such delay for more than thirty (30) days.

6.2 Condition of Assets. At Closing, the Assets shall be in the same condition as on the Effective Date, subject to reasonable wear and tear and depletion and restocking in the ordinary course of business, except Seller shall not remove any Fixtures, Furniture and Equipment from the Facilities prior to the Closing, other than the Excluded Items, and shall keep the Inventory stocked consistent with the levels stocked prior to the Effective Date and as required under applicable law by the Agencies. Buyer shall be entitled to inspect the Assets at Buyer's election at any time during ordinary business hours upon reasonable advance notice.

6.3 Surveys. To the extent required by HCAI or any Agencies, Buyer shall, at Buyer's sole expense, obtain a current survey of the Premises.

Section 7. Inspections and Review - Due Diligence Period.

(j) any and all capital expenditure expenditures exceeding ten thousand dollars ($10,000) and/or capital expenditure budgets for the three (3) year period prior to the Effective Date;

(k) any and all current management agreements for the Facilities;

(l) all other documents, contracts, studies and/or reports, as Buyer may reasonably request, relating to the Assets in Seller's possession or control, provided that Buyer shall give Seller ten (10) business days after requesting such documents to produce them and provided, further, that no such request shall have the effect of extending the Due Diligence Period; and

(m) the most recent appraisal, if any, of the Facilities and/or the Assets.

Prior to the Closing, Buyer shall have the right to request any reasonable additional documentation in Seller's possession or control relating to the Assets. Seller shall deliver to Buyer copies of all material notices and other material documents relating to the Assets, which Seller receives after the Effective Date.

7.2 Refund of Deposit Upon Termination. Buyer shall restore as nearly as practicable the Premises to its prior condition after completion of all such assessments and inspections; provided that Buyer shall have no responsibility or liability for any act or omission of Seller or its agents, employees or contractors and/or for any adverse condition or defect affecting the Premises not caused by Buyer or its employees, agents, contractors, or subcontractors (including those discovered during their inspections). In the event that such examination of the Assets, the books and records, the Premises and such environmental assessments are satisfactory to Buyer, Buyer shall deliver to Escrow Agent and Seller, prior to the expiration of the Due Diligence Period, written notice that Buyer approves its feasibility analysis ("Buyer's Approval Notice"). If Buyer rightfully terminates this Agreement during the Due Diligence Period, in accordance with the terms and conditions hereof, Buyer shall be entitled to a refund of its Earnest Money Deposit and all interest accrued thereon.

7.3 Access. At reasonable times and upon reasonable advance notice at all times during the Due Diligence Period and prior to Closing, Seller shall permit Buyer and/or Buyer's officers, trustees, agents, representatives, contractors and others acting by, through or on behalf of Buyer to have access to the Premises and the Facilities, the books and records therefor and the employees in order to facilitate an orderly transition upon Closing.

Section 8. Certain Expenses and Closing Adjustments.

Except as expressly provided in this Agreement, each of the parties shall bear its own expenses and costs (including legal and accounting fees) that it incurs in connection with the negotiation, execution and delivery of this Agreement and the Closing of the transactions contemplated hereby. Seller shall pay the cost of the Title Policy and all sales/use taxes and registration, documentary, stamp, real estate, recording and similar taxes, if any, incident to the transfer of the Assets. Buyer shall pay any costs incurred in connection with obtaining the Regulatory Clearances, and any other costs incurred by Buyer hereunder. Seller shall pay the cost of obtaining and recording any documents to release Liens encumbering the Premises which Seller is obligated to release hereunder. The escrow fee shall be paid equally by Buyer and Seller and all other fees and costs of Closing shall be paid in accordance with the custom of the counties in which the Facilities are located.

Section 9. Employment Matters.

9.1 Employee Compensation and Benefits upon Termination. Immediately upon Seller's termination of Seller's employees prior to the Closing, Seller shall deliver to Seller's former employees payroll checks drawn on Seller's payroll account, or otherwise pay, for all monetary compensation and wages to which they are then entitled as of the Closing Date, including, without limitation, wages, salaries, bonuses, overtime, and accrued, unused vacation and/or paid time off, and severance, if any, and shall withhold and pay all payroll tax obligations associated therewith, including without limitation income tax, FICA and FUTA obligations, together with any amounts owed with respect to accrued benefits as contemplated by Section 2.4 of this Agreement. Seller shall be responsible for providing all applicable notices under the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1985, as amended, to all terminated employees.

Seller represents that, to its knowledge, it is in compliance with all currently applicable laws and regulations respecting terms and conditions of employment, including, without limitation, applicant and employee background checking, immigration laws, discrimination laws, verification of employment eligibility, employee leave laws, classification of workers as employees and independent contractors, wage and hour laws, labor laws and occupational safety and health laws. Except as set forth in Schedule 9.2, there are no claims, complaints, charges, investigations or proceedings pending or, to Seller's knowledge, reasonably expected or threatened, between Seller, on the one hand, and any of Seller's current or former employees, on the other hand, including but not limited to any claims for actual or alleged harassment or discrimination based on race, national origin, age, sex, sexual orientation, religion, disability, or similar tortious conduct, breach of contract, wrongful termination, defamation, intentional or negligent infliction of emotional distress, interference with contract or interference with actual or prospective economic advantage. Except as set forth in Schedule 9.2, there are no claims pending, or to, Seller's knowledge, reasonably expected or threatened, against Seller under any workers' compensation or long-term disability plan or policy. However, Buyer represents that it intends in good faith to offer employment to most of Seller's employee(s), provided such employment with Buyer commences on or after the Closing Date. Seller agrees not to interfere with such employment offers, and shall not induce, dissuade or discourage Seller's employee(s) from considering or accepting employment with Buyer on the terms and conditions offered by Buyer, as determined by Buyer in Buyer's sole and absolute discretion, subject to Section 9.6 of this Agreement.

9.4 Wages and Benefits. Buyer shall not be responsible for any wages, overtime, benefits, accrued, unused vacation or paid time off, severance, bonuses or any other obligations owed by Seller to Seller's employees. Seller shall not make any written or oral communications to its employees that assure Seller's employees that Buyer will hire any specific Seller employee. Buyer acknowledges the existing but expired union collective bargaining contract at Lake Park; Buyer reserves the right to negotiate with the union and makes no commitment to assume the union collective bargaining contract at Lake Park. The Closing is conditioned upon the entry of the Sale Order confirming that Buyer is not liable for any withdrawal liability of Seller. Seller shall pay or discharge in the Case any and all employment liability including, without limitation, wages, sick pay, vacation pay, pension obligations, pension withdrawal liability, or any and all other ERISA benefits of any kind.

9.6 WARN Act. Buyer agrees to make sufficient employment offers to preclude the need for any notice under the WARN Act or any applicable state counterpart statute. Buyer shall indemnify and hold harmless Seller with respect to any liability under the WARN Act or other applicable law arising from the actions taken by Buyer before, on, or after the Closing Date.

Section 10. Casualty and Condemnation.

In the event that prior to the Closing, there shall be any fire, earthquake, force majeure event, or other similar casualty at the Facilities or the Premises that damages any material portion thereof, or if any material portion of the Premises or Facilities or access thereto is taken or threatened in writing to be taken by condemnation or similar taking by any public or quasi-public agency or organization, then and in such event Seller shall immediately give notice to Buyer and Buyer shall within ten (10) days by notice to Seller either (i) terminate this Agreement, whereupon the Earnest Money shall be refunded to Buyer and neither party shall have any further rights, duties or obligations hereunder except as expressly survive the termination hereof or (ii) elect not to terminate this Agreement, whereupon at Closing, Seller shall assign to Buyer all of Seller's rights with respect to such casualty under Seller's insurance policy, along with a credit against the Purchase Price for any deductible amount thereunder, or rights to any condemnation proceeds, respectively. Failure of Buyer to properly and timely give notice of termination shall mean that Buyer shall be deemed to have elected not to terminate this Agreement. For purposes of this Section 10, a casualty shall be deemed to damage a "material portion" of the Facilities or Premises if the reasonable, documented cost to repair the damage exceeds fifteen percent (15%) of the Purchase Price.

Section 11. Representations, Warranties and Covenants of Seller.

Seller hereby represents, warrants and covenants to Buyer as follows:

11.8 Litigation. Subject to the disclosures set forth on Schedule 11.8 hereto, and other than the Case, there is no litigation, arbitration or proceeding pending, or to Seller's knowledge, threatened, before any court or administrative agency or any other condition that adversely affects the Premises or the Facilities, or Seller's performance hereunder, or which will result in a lien, encumbrance or judgment against any part of or any interest in the Premises or the Facilities.

11.9 MAC. To Seller's knowledge, no MAC has occurred or, if a MAC has occurred, Seller has provided notice to Buyer within two (2) Business Days of such occurrence.

Buyer has the full power and authority to enter into and to perform its obligations under this Agreement and all other agreements and instruments to be executed by it pursuant to this Agreement, and no approval or consent of, or notice to, any person, entity, or governmental agency or authority is necessary for Buyer to perform hereunder other than the approval of Agencies for Buyer to operate the Facilities. Buyer's execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement and all other agreements and instruments to be executed by it pursuant to this Agreement have been duly authorized by all necessary actions. This Agreement is, and the other documents to be delivered by Buyer pursuant hereto (when executed and delivered by Buyer) will be, valid and enforceable obligations of Buyer, binding on Buyer in accordance with their terms.

12.3 No Conflict. The execution and delivery of this Agreement and consummation of the transactions contemplated by Buyer hereunder do not and will not violate any applicable law, ordinance, statute, rule, regulation, order, decree, judgment, or agreement, or conflict with or result in the breach of any terms or provisions of, or constitute a default under, or result in the creation or imposition of any lien, charge, or encumbrance upon any of the property or assets of Buyer by reason of the terms of any contract, mortgage, lien, lease, agreement, indenture, instrument or judgment to which Buyer is a party or which is or purports to be binding on Buyer or which otherwise affects Buyer, which will not be discharged, assumed, or released in full at or before the Closing.

12.4 Not Insolvent. Buyer is not insolvent (as such term is defined in the Bankruptcy Code), and shall not be rendered insolvent as a consequence to the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby.

12.5 No Financing. Buyer has the funds to consummate the transactions contemplated this Agreement and does not require the commitment from any lending institution other than HCAI's consent to the Note and Security Instruments in order to fulfill its obligations hereunder.

12.6 Violations. There is no pending or, to Buyer's knowledge, threatened, notice, suit, judgment, proceeding or investigation from any federal, state, city or local authority relating to any alleged violation at any of Buyer's other facilities that could be reasonably be expected to cause any Agencies or the California Attorney General to delay or deny the Regulatory Clearances to Buyer.

12.7 Litigation. Subject to the disclosures set forth on Schedule 12.7 hereto, there is no litigation, arbitration or proceeding pending, or to Buyer's knowledge, threatened, before any court or administrative agency or any other condition that could adversely affect Buyer's performance hereunder.

Section 13. Conditions to Parties' Obligations.

13.1 Condition to Buyer's Obligations. The obligations of Buyer to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall be subject to the satisfaction or performance prior to or at Closing of the following conditions, of which items (a), (b), (c), (f) and (g) below may be waived by Buyer:

(a) Representations. Each of Seller's representations and warranties as set forth in Section 11 above shall be true in all material respects as of the Closing Date.

(b) Seller's Other Obligations. Seller shall perform all of its other covenants and obligations in all material respects as set forth in this Agreement.

(f) No Material Real Estate Defect. No Material Real Estate Defect has first occurred with regard to the Premises, the Facilities or the other Assets after the expiration of the Due Diligence Period.

(g) No Unwaived MAC. No MAC has occurred that Buyer has not waived by written notice to Seller.

(h) HCAI Approval. Written consent of HCAI in satisfaction of Section 5.3 of this Agreement.

If any of the conditions precedent set forth in this Section 13.1 have not been materially satisfied or waived by the Closing Date, then Buyer may: (a) terminate this Agreement by notifying Seller and Escrow Agent prior to the Closing Date, in which event Seller shall promptly refund the Earnest Money to Buyer, and neither party shall have any further rights, duties or obligations to the other except as expressly provided to survive termination hereunder; or (b) waive such condition precedent to Closing, whereupon Buyer shall be deemed to have waived any rights or remedies under this Agreement with respect to the unsatisfied condition precedent and the purchase and sale hereunder shall be consummated in accordance with the terms and conditions hereof.

13.2 Condition to Seller's Obligations. The obligations of Seller to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall be subject to the satisfaction or performance prior to or at Closing of the following conditions, of which items (a) and (b) below may be waived by Seller:

(a) Representations. Each of Buyer's representations and warranties as set forth in Section 12 above shall be true in all material respects as of the Closing Date.

(e) HCAI Approval. Written consent of HCAI in satisfaction of Section 5.3 of this Agreement.

If any of the conditions precedent set forth in this Section 13.2 have not been materially satisfied or waived by the Closing Date, then Seller may: (a) terminate this Agreement by notifying Buyer and Escrow Agent prior to the Closing Date, in which event Seller shall retain the Earnest Money and neither party shall have any further rights, duties or obligations to the other except as expressly provided to survive termination hereunder; or (b) waive such condition precedent to Closing, whereupon Seller shall be deemed to have waived any rights or remedies under this Agreement with respect to the unsatisfied condition precedent and the purchase and sale hereunder shall be consummated in accordance with the terms and conditions hereof.

Section 14. Indemnification.

14.1 Seller's Indemnity. Seller shall and does hereby indemnify, defend and hold Buyer and its managers, members, affiliates, agents and/or employees (each, a "Buyer Party", and collectively, the "Buyer Parties") harmless from and against any and all loss, cost, damage, claim, judgment, liability or expense, including court costs and reasonable actual attorneys' fees (individually a "Loss," and collectively "Losses") which may be asserted against or incurred or suffered by Buyer or the Buyer Parties from time to time by reason of or in connection with (i) any personal injury (including death) or property damage or claim of personal injury or property damage, made by Residents or by Seller's employees, contractors or invitees (unless caused by Buyer), occurring during Seller's ownership of the Assets before Closing; (ii) any material inaccuracy of any representation or warranty of Seller in this Agreement; or (iii) the non-fulfillment of any material covenant, undertaking, agreement or other obligation of Seller under this Agreement.

14.2 Buyer's Indemnity. Buyer shall and does hereby indemnify, defend and hold Seller and any partner (general or limited) of Seller and any current, former, and future trustee, officer, manager, member, partner, and employee (each, a "Seller Party", and collectively, the "Seller Parties") harmless from and against any and all Losses, which may be asserted against or incurred or suffered by Seller or Seller Parties from time to time by reason of or in connection with (i) any personal injury (including death) or property damage or claim of personal injury or property damage, made by Residents or by Buyer's employees, contractors or invitees (unless caused by Seller), occurring during Buyer's ownership of the Assets on or after the Closing; (ii) any material inaccuracy of any representation or warranty of Buyer in this Agreement; or (iii) the non-fulfillment of any material covenant, undertaking, agreement or other obligation of Buyer under this Agreement.

14.3 Survival. Except as otherwise provided herein, the several representations and warranties of the parties contained in this Agreement and a party's right to indemnity in accordance with this Article 14 shall survive the Closing Date and shall remain in full force and effect thereafter for a period of one (1) year after the Closing Date and shall be effective with respect to any material inaccuracy therein or breach thereof, notice of which shall have been duly given within such one (1) year period in accordance with Section 14.4 hereof after which one (1) year period they shall terminate and be of no further force or effect.

14.4 Indemnification Procedure. After the incurrence of any Loss by any Buyer Party or any Seller Party, which might give rise to indemnification hereunder, the party seeking indemnification (the "Indemnitee") shall deliver to the party from which indemnification is sought (the "Indemnitor") written notice of such Loss within fifteen (15) days of Indemnitee's becoming aware thereof; provided, however, that delay or failure to so notify the Indemnitor shall only relieve the Indemnitor of its obligations to the extent, if at all, that it is prejudiced by reasons of such delay or failure. The Indemnitor shall have a period of thirty (30) days within which to respond thereto. If the Indemnitor accepts responsibility within such thirty (30)-day period, the Indemnitor shall be obligated to compromise or defend such matter, at its own expense and through counsel reasonably satisfactory to the Indemnitee. If the Indemnitor does respond within such 30-day period and rejects responsibility for such matter in whole or in part, or does not respond, the Indemnitee shall be free to pursue, without prejudice to any of its rights hereunder, such remedies as may be available to the Indemnitee under applicable law at the Indemnitor's expense (subject, for the avoidance of doubt, to the limits set forth in this Article 14). The Indemnitee agrees to cooperate fully with the Indemnitor and its counsel in the defense against any such asserted liability. In any event, the Indemnitee shall have the right to participate in a non-controlling manner and at its own expense in the defense of such asserted liability. Any compromise of such asserted liability by the Indemnitor shall require the prior written consent of the Indemnitee and until such consent is obtained the Indemnitor shall continue the defense of such asserted liability. If, however, the Indemnitee refuses its consent to a bona fide offer of settlement containing a complete release of the Indemnitee from all liability in connection with the underlying claim that the Indemnitor wishes to accept, the Indemnitee may continue to pursue such matter, free of any participation by the Indemnitor, at the sole expense of the Indemnitee. In such event, the obligation of the Indemnitor to the Indemnitee shall be equal to the lesser of (i) the amount of the offer of settlement which the Indemnitee refused to accept plus the costs and expenses of the Indemnitee prior to the date the Indemnitor notifies the Indemnitee of the offer of settlement; or (ii) the actual out-of-pocket amount the Indemnitee is obligated to pay as a result of the Indemnitee's continuing to pursue such matter. The Indemnitor shall be entitled to recover from the Indemnitee any additional expenses incurred by the Indemnitor as a result of the decision of the Indemnitee to pursue such matter. So long as the Indemnitor is reasonably contesting any such claim in good faith, the Indemnitee shall not pay or settle such claim without the Indemnitor's prior written consent; provided that the Indemnitee may pay or settle such claim if it waives its right to indemnity therefor from the Indemnitor.

14.5 Reduction for Insurance. The amount which the Indemnitor is required to pay to, for, or on behalf of the Indemnitee pursuant to this Article 14 shall be reduced (including, without limitation, retroactively) by any insurance proceeds actually recovered by or on behalf of the Indemnitee in reduction of the related indemnifiable loss (the "Indemnifiable Loss"). Amounts required to be paid, as so reduced, are hereinafter sometimes called an "Indemnity Payment." If the Indemnitee shall have received, or if the Indemnitor shall have paid on its behalf, an Indemnity Payment in respect of an Indemnifiable Loss and shall subsequently receive, directly or indirectly, insurance proceeds (which duplicate in whole or in part, the Indemnity Payment) in respect of such Indemnifiable Loss, then the Indemnitee shall promptly pay to the Indemnitor the amount of such insurance proceeds, or, if less, the amount of the Indemnity Payment. The parties hereto agree that the foregoing shall not affect the subrogation rights of any insurance companies making payments hereunder.

14.6 Limitations of Remedies.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein, the parties hereto agree that the indemnification provisions set forth in this Section 14 shall constitute the sole and exclusive remedy of either party for any breach or inaccuracy of any representation or warranty contained in this Agreement. The Buyer acknowledges that it shall not be entitled to seek rescission of the Agreement.

(b) Notwithstanding anything in this Section 14 to contrary, no person shall be entitled to indemnification hereunder if it can be established by clear and convincing evidence that such person had knowledge on or prior to the Closing Date of the failure of any representation or warranty, or the breach of any covenant or agreement or the existence of any fact, event or circumstance, which may serve as the basis for bringing a claim for indemnification hereunder.

Section 15. Conduct of Business Pending Closing.

15.1 Ordinary Course of Business. Beginning on the Effective Date and continuing through the Closing Date; (i) Seller shall make no material change in the operation of the Facilities nor enter into any material contract other than in the ordinary course of business nor incur any material liability without the prior written consent of Buyer, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned, or delayed, and Seller shall make good faith efforts to ensure that the goodwill and operations of the Facilities and the relationships with Residents and employees are preserved in the ordinary course of business; (ii) Seller shall perform all maintenance and repairs necessary to keep the Facilities and Assets in good operating condition and repair, and shall not sell or remove any Inventory or any Fixtures, Furniture and Equipment except in the ordinary course of business; and (iii) Seller shall not, without the prior written consent of Buyer:

(a) enter into any material contract, agreement, lease or other commitment with a duration of more than 12 months or involving the expenditure of more than fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) with respect to the Facilities, except contracts to purchase operating supplies or services in the ordinary course of business;

(b) make any change in key personnel at the Facilities, including the executive director or other department heads; or

(c) enter into any employment arrangement, agreement or undertaking, or pay or promise to pay any fringe benefit, bonus or special compensation to employees, except "stay for pay" arrangements and filling vacated positions as needed.

15.2 Compensation. Except in the ordinary course of business and consistent with past practices, Seller shall not increase, except for annual cost of living, or promise any increase with respect to any salary or other form of compensation payable or to become payable to any of employees, and will not pay any bonus or make any other severance or retirement arrangement with any employees except as may have already been negotiated, be required to avoid legal action, or be required pursuant to Section 9.1 hereof.

15.3 Insurance. From the date hereof until the Closing Date, Seller shall, as long as such insurance continues to be available at reasonably affordable rates, continuously maintain insurance on the Facilities at no less than the levels maintained on the date hereof. Seller shall maintain, at Seller's expense, "tail" coverage with respect to its professional liability insurance policy (if it is a claims made policy) for two (2) years following the Closing Date and shall name Buyer as an additional named insured on such tail coverage.

Section 16. Transition.

16.1 Accounts Receivable. Seller shall immediately transmit to Buyer any payments on accounts of the Facilities arising after the Closing which may be delivered to Seller from third party payor sources for services rendered after the Closing. Buyer shall immediately transmit to Seller any payments on accounts of the Facilities arising after the Closing which may be delivered to Buyer from third party payor sources for services rendered prior to Closing. All payments received by Buyer shall be applied first to delinquencies and then to current obligations.

16.2 Cooperation. Seller and Buyer agree to cooperate with each other in all reasonable respects and to provide such information as is necessary to ensure a smooth and orderly transition of operation of the Facilities.

16.3 Medicare Change of Ownership Filings. Buyer and Seller acknowledge that the transfer of the operations at the skilled nursing facilities as contemplated under this Agreement will constitute a change of ownership of the skilled nursing facilities for purposes of participation in the Medicare program and will effect an assignment of the skilled nursing facilities' Medicare provider agreements and provider numbers to Buyer (or its designee). Buyer (or its designee) shall not reject the assignment of the skilled nursing facilities' Medicare provider agreement or provider number. Seller and Buyer (or its designee) will act diligently to make all necessary notifications and filings required under applicable law for Buyer (or its designee) to become the Medicare provider at the skilled nursing facilities. In addition, Seller and Buyer (or its designee) each agree to complete, execute and submit its portions of the CMS-855A forms with respect to the skilled nursing facilities as promptly as practicable following the expiration of the Due Diligence Period. Subject to the terms and provisions of this Agreement, Buyer (or its designee) may bill under Seller's Medicare provider enrollment agreement and use Seller's provider numbers for the skilled nursing facilities from the Closing Date until the earlier of the date that (a) Buyer (or its designee) receives the applicable Medicare certification notice (the so-called "tie-in" notice) which will enable it to receive reimbursements directly from Medicare for items and services furnished by the Facilities or (b) this Agreement is terminated in accordance with its terms.

16.4 Cost Reports. Seller shall prepare and file any Medicare cost reports for the Facilities related to the period prior to the Closing. Following the Closing, Seller shall be authorized to contact the business office manager or other persons with access to the information at the Facilities during normal business hours in order to obtain information needed to prepare the final Medicare cost reports with respect to claims filed with Medicare for the Facilities prior to the Closing, and Buyer (or its designee) shall provide Seller with such Facility records as Seller reasonably requests to complete such final cost reports.

16.5 Indemnification Under Third Party Payor Programs. Notwithstanding any other provisions in this Agreement to the contrary, Seller shall not have any liability whatsoever with respect to Losses relating to (a) Buyer's (or its designee's) furnishing of items or services, on or after the Closing Date, to any Third Party Payor Program beneficiaries or other patients, (b) Buyer's (or its designee's) financial accounting, coding, billing, cost reporting or claims submissions activities for its own account with respect to Third Party Payor Programs, or (c) Buyer's (or its designee's) retention of payments for the furnishing of such items and services. Buyer (or its designee) shall indemnify, defend and hold Seller harmless against and with respect to any Losses arising from the foregoing.

16.6 Survival. The provisions of this Section 16 shall survive the expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement and shall survive the Closing.

Section 17. Public Announcements.

Each of the parties to this Agreement agrees not to make any public announcement or disclosure, and not to issue a press release, concerning the execution of this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby prior to Closing without the prior written approval of the other party, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned, or delayed, except to the extent necessary to make regulatory filings or as required by law or as may be necessary for such party to reveal to such party's lenders or proposed lenders; provided, however, that Seller shall be entitled to make such disclosures as may be necessary and appropriate to obtain the requisite approval of the bankruptcy court for the transactions contemplated hereunder and shall be entitled to disclose the status of the transactions contemplated hereunder to employees and Residents.

Section 18. Default.

18.1 Buyer's Default.

(a) If Buyer shall be in breach or default of any of the terms or conditions of this Agreement, then Seller shall give Buyer and Escrow Agent written notice specifying the nature of the default.

(b) Buyer shall have five (5) days from receipt of Seller's notice of default within which to cure the specified default. If Buyer does not cure such default within said five (5) day period or if such default is not waived in writing by Seller, then the Earnest Money shall be paid over to Seller and this Agreement shall automatically terminate and Seller and Buyer shall have no further rights, duties or obligations hereunder except as expressly survive the termination hereof.

(c) BUYER AND SELLER AGREE THAT IF BUYER DEFAULTS ON ITS OBLIGATION TO PURCHASE THE ASSETS PURSUANT HERETO, THE DAMAGES TO SELLER WOULD BE DIFFICULT AND IMPRACTICAL TO DETERMINE. ACCORDINGLY, BUYER AND SELLER HAVE AGREED TO FIX AS LIQUIDATED DAMAGES THE EARNEST MONEY SPECIFIED IN SECTION 4, BUT ONLY TO THE EXTENT THERETOFORE DEPOSITED WITH ESCROW AGENT AND THE EARNEST MONEY SHALL BE RETAINED BY SELLER AS LIQUIDATED DAMAGES, AND SHALL CONSTITUTE SELLER'S SOLE AND EXCLUSIVE REMEDY FOR SUCH DEFAULT. SELLER AGREES THAT THESE LIQUIDATED DAMAGES SHALL BE IN LIEU OF ANY OTHER MONETARY RELIEF OR OTHER REMEDY, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION SPECIFIC PERFORMANCE, TO WHICH SELLER OTHERWISE MIGHT BE ENTITLED UNDER THIS AGREEMENT, AT LAW OR IN EQUITY. BUYER AND SELLER SPECIFICALLY ACKNOWLEDGE THEIR AGREEMENT TO THE FOREGOING LIQUIDATED DAMAGES PROVISION BY INITIALING THIS PARAGRAPH IN THE APPROPRIATE SPACES PROVIDED BELOW:

18.2 Seller's Default.

(a) If Seller shall be in breach or default of any of the terms or conditions of this Agreement, then Buyer shall give Seller and Escrow Agent written notice specifying the nature of the default.

(b) Seller shall have five (5) days from receipt of Buyer's notice of default within which to cure the specified default. If Seller does not cure such default within said five (5) day period or if such default is not waived in writing by Buyer, then Buyer, at its option, shall have the right, within five (5) days after the expiration of the said five (5) day grace period, to elect one (1) and only one (1) of the following remedies:

(i) Buyer may terminate this Agreement by written notice given to Seller and Escrow Agent, in which event the Earnest Money will be refunded to Buyer; or

(ii) Buyer may demand specific performance of this Agreement by Seller, and, if necessary, file an action therefor.

18.3 Survival. The provisions of this Section 18 shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

Section 19. Broker.

Neither Seller nor Buyer has had any dealings with any broker, finder, or other party concerning the purchase and sale of the Assets other than Dan Revie and his team at B.C. Ziegler & Company ("Broker") and Buyer and Seller each agree to indemnify and hold the other harmless from all loss, costs, damage or expense, including reasonable attorney's fees incurred by the other as a result of any claim arising out of the acts of the indemnifying party for a commission, finder's fee, or similar compensation made by any other broker, finder or other party. Broker is to be paid a commission by Seller pursuant to a separate agreement and Broker shall not be deemed a party or third party beneficiary of this Agreement. The representations and warranties contained herein shall survive the Closing.

Section 20. Miscellaneous.

20.1 Further Assurances. Each of the parties will, at any time before, at, or after the Closing Date, sign, execute and deliver (or cause others to do so) all documents and instruments to do, or cause to be done, all such acts and things as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this Agreement.

Nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to confer upon any party, other than the parties hereto, and their respective successors and assigns, any rights, remedies, obligations or liabilities under or by reason of this Agreement.

20.5 Amendment. A modification or amendment of this Agreement, the exhibits or schedules to this Agreement, or the other documents delivered pursuant hereto is effective only if it is in writing and executed by both parties. Execution by Escrow Agent is not required for any modification or amendment unless such modification or amendment affects Section 4 hereof.

20.6 Notices. All notices or other communications required or permitted hereunder shall be in writing and addressed as set forth below and either personally delivered (including delivery by a nationally recognized courier), sent by overnight mail (Federal Express or the like), or sent by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid, return receipt requested, or sent by telecopy or electronic mail. 1.1 Assignment. Subject to Section 1.3 hereof, Seller, as of the date hereof does hereby SELL, ASSIGN, TRANSFER and DELIVER to Buyer, subject to the provisions of this Assignment and Assumption Agreement, all of its rights, title and interest in the Assigned Interests, and each of them.

1.2 Assumption. Subject to Section 1.3 hereof Buyer, for itself and its successors and assigns, hereby succeeds to and assumes all of the right, title and interest of Seller to, and agrees to perform, or to cause to be performed, and otherwise to discharge or cause to be discharged, as such becomes due or performable, on or after the date hereof, as the case may be, all of Seller's duties and obligations under, or arising in connection with, the Assigned Interests and each of them.

1.3 Further Assurance. After the Closing and without further consideration, each party will from time to time, at the reasonable request of any other party, execute and deliver such other instruments of conveyance and transfer and such other instruments, documents and agreements and take such other actions as such other party may reasonably request or as may be reasonably requested by any applicable governmental or regulatory entities or third parties, in each case in order to more effectively or more expeditiously consummate any of the transactions contemplated by this Assignment and Assumption Agreement and to vest in Buyer the right, title and interest in, to and under the Assigned Interests, provided that the requesting party will prepare any additional documents and instruments and will handle any submittal, applications, processing, recording and registrations at its sole cost. Seller shall use its reasonable good-faith efforts, and Buyer shall cooperate where appropriate, to ensure that all Assumed Contracts included as Assigned Interests not assigned or novated to Buyer on the Closing Date shall be assigned or novated, as the case may be, to Buyer within a reasonable time after the Closing Date. In furtherance of the foregoing, Seller shall enforce its rights under such Assumed Contracts for the benefit and at the expense of Buyer and in the manner that Buyer shall reasonably request during the period each such assignment or novation is pending. It is expressly acknowledged that to the extent that the assignment of any Assumed Contracts to be assigned as provided under the Agreement shall require the consent of another party thereto, this Assignment and Assumption Agreement shall not constitute an agreement to assign the same if an attempted assignment would constitute a breach thereof.

1.4 This Assignment and Assumption Agreement is being entered into and delivered pursuant to and subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the Agreement and is to be construed in a manner consistent with the terms and conditions of the Agreement. Additional rights and obligations of Seller and Buyer are expressly provided for in the Agreement. The execution and delivery of this Assignment and Assumption Agreement shall not impair or diminish any of the rights or obligations of any of the parties to the Agreement as set forth therein, and neither the representations and warranties nor the rights and remedies of any party under the Agreement shall be deemed to be enlarged, reduced, modified or altered by reason of the terms of this Assignment and Assumption Agreement. In the event of any conflict between the provisions of the Agreement and this Assignment and Assumption Agreement, the provisions of the Agreement will prevail and control.

1.5. Nothing in this Assignment and Assumption Agreement, whether express or implied, is intended, nor shall any provision contained herein be construed, to confer any rights or remedies under or by reason of this Assignment and Assumption Agreement on any persons other than the parties hereto (and their respective successors and permitted assigns), nor is anything in this Assignment and Assumption Agreement intended to relieve or discharge the obligation or liability of any third persons to Seller or Buyer, nor shall any provision contained herein give any third party any right of subrogation or action over or against Seller or Buyer. Notwithstanding the foregoing and for the sake of clarity, Residents (as defined in the Agreement) shall have the right to enforce the Non-Restricted Entrance Fee Liability (as defined in the Agreement) assumed by the Seller as part of the Assumed Contracts.

1.6 Exclusions. The assumption by Buyer of all of Seller's duties and obligations under, or arising in connection with, the Assigned Interests expressly excludes any duties, liabilities or obligations of Seller arising prior to the date hereof under the Assigned Interests.

1.7 Indemnification. The rights of either party to indemnification on account of the Assigned Interests are more particularly described in the Agreement.

2. General Provisions.

2.1 Successors and Assigns. This Assignment and Assumption Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by the parties hereto.

2.2 Capitalized Terms. Capitalized terms not defined herein shall have the same meanings ascribed to them in the Agreement.

2.3 Counterparts. This Assignment and Assumption Agreement may be executed simultaneously in one or more and the same instrument.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, Seller and Buyer have executed this Assignment and Assumption Agreement, by and through the duly authorized representatives of each, and have executed this Assignment and Assumption Agreement individually, all on the date first above written.

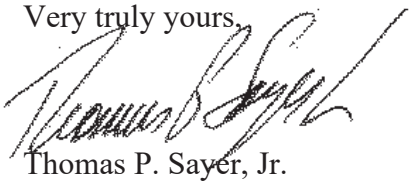
Re: November __, 2021 Amended and Restated Purchase and Sale Agreement (the "Agreement") between Pacifica Companies LLC ("Buyer") and California-Nevada Methodist Homes ("Seller") for the properties located at 201 19th Street, Oakland. CA 94612, 1850 Alice St., Oakland. CA 94612, 511 Gibson Ave., Pacific Grove, CA 93950 and 26 Sinex Ave., Pacific Grove, CA 93950; Escrow No. 00163233-004-RL1



Greetings:

As you know, I represent Pacifica Companies LLC, the Buyer in the above transaction. As we have discussed with counsel, we have unfortunately still not received the Property Condition Report ("PCR") for the Oakland property. Without that report, Pacifica is not in a position to proceed with this transaction.

In order to protect its rights to the Earnest Money, this letter shall serve as a termination of the Agreement pursuant to Buyer's rights under Section 7.2 of the Agreement. Buyer is very interested in revisiting this transaction as soon as it has received and analyzed the PCR for Oakland.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to call.

Very truly yours,

Thomas P. Sayer, Jr.

(a) Expenses, Costs and Charges. The following items shall be prorated between Seller and Buyer as of the Closing Date. Seller shall be responsible for such items prior to the Closing Date and Buyer shall be responsible for such items on and after the Closing Date:

(i) real and personal property taxes and assessments for the calendar year in which the Closing occurs, giving recognition to any discount available for earliest payment. If taxes are prorated on an estimated basis rather than the actual tax for the year in which the Closing occurs, the parties shall adjust the prorated amount when such actual tax is known, based on the final tax bill for the year in which the Closing occurs;

(ii) water, fuel, electricity, telephone, garbage collection, sewage, and other utility service charges and expenses; and

(iii) any other accrued and apportionable operating costs, charges and expenses, including without limitation those under the Assumed Contracts.

Buyer and Seller agree to consult and resolve in good faith any such objection within ten (10) days of the due date of the tax. Buyer acknowledges that Seller is a Section 501(c)(3) charitable organization that pays no or nominal property taxes but that pays assessments to the counties in which the Premises are located.

(b) Resident Monthly Service Fees. Residents' monthly service fees for the month of Closing shall be allocated as of the Closing Date; the portion thereof allocable to all time periods prior to the Closing Date shall be credited to Seller and the portion thereof allocable to the Closing Date and thereafter shall be allocable to Buyer. Therefore, the parties agree to estimate such amounts on the Closing Statement and adjust such estimate post-Closing as hereinafter provided.

Within thirty (30) days after the Closing Date, representatives of Seller and Buyer shall prepare and deliver to each other a schedule itemizing the adjustments to costs, charges and expenses, together with Resident monthly service fees (the "Initial Reconciliation"). The Initial Reconciliation shall include appropriate detail to identify the items being adjusted. A final reconciliation of all expenses, costs, charges, service fees and Resident monthly service fees shall be prepared and delivered by representatives of Buyer and Seller to each other within ninety (90) days after the Closing Date (the "Final Reconciliation"). The Final Reconciliation shall appropriately net all items to reflect the net amount owed to Buyer or to Seller as a result of such reconciliation. After approval by both parties of the Final Reconciliation, the party determined to owe cash as a result of such Final Reconciliation shall promptly pay such cash to the other party.

The provisions of this Section ~~2.3~~2.3 shall survive the Closing.

2.4 Employees. All employees of Seller will be terminated by Seller effective as of the Closing Date. At the time of termination, such terminated employees will receive final paychecks in accordance with applicable law, and pursuant to Section ~~9.1~~10.1 hereof.

2.5 Resident Security Deposits. With respect to any security deposits posted by Residents of the Facilities with Seller prior to Closing, Buyer shall receive a credit for such amounts. Buyer acknowledges that security deposits are prohibited under the RCFE Law and would only be collected in the SNF portion of the Facilities, if at all. A schedule showing the amounts of any such security deposits, by Resident name, is attached hereto as Schedule ~~2.5.~~2.5.

2.6 Past Due Residency Payments. With respect to accounts receivable or past due amounts relating to Residents occupying the Facilities after the Closing Date, Buyer shall promptly remit to Seller any amounts which relate to the period prior to the Closing Date actually received by Buyer from such Residents or their guarantors. Buyer shall use its reasonable best efforts to collect all such accounts receivable and past due amounts, provided, however, Buyer shall not agree to reduce any amount owed, or otherwise write-off any amounts, without the consent of Seller. All amounts collected by Buyer shall be applied first to current fees due (and if collected in the month in which the Closing occurs, such fees shall be prorated between Buyer and Seller) and then to delinquencies. The provisions of this Section ~~2.6~~2.6 shall survive the Closing.

Section 3. Buyer's Due Diligence Complete.

If any of the conditions precedent set forth in this Section ~~13.1~~14.1 have not been materially satisfied or waived by the Closing Date, then Buyer may: (a) terminate this Agreement by notifying Seller and Escrow Agent prior to the Closing Date, in which event Seller shall promptly refund the Earnest Money to Buyer, and neither party shall have any further rights, duties or obligations to the other except as expressly provided to survive termination hereunder; or (b) waive such condition precedent to Closing, whereupon Buyer shall be deemed to have waived any rights or remedies under this Agreement with respect to the unsatisfied condition precedent and the purchase and sale hereunder shall be consummated in accordance with the terms and conditions hereof.

~~13.2~~14.2 Condition to Seller's Obligations. The obligations of Seller to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall be subject to the satisfaction or performance prior to or at Closing of the following conditions, of which items (a) and (b) below may be waived by Seller:

~~Section 14.~~ Section 15. Indemnification.

~~14.1~~15.1 Seller's Indemnity. Seller shall and does hereby indemnify, defend and hold Buyer and its managers, members, affiliates, agents and/or employees (each, a "Buyer Party", and collectively, the "Buyer Parties") harmless from and against any and all loss, cost, damage, claim, judgment, liability or expense, including court costs and reasonable actual attorneys' fees (individually a "Loss," and collectively "Losses") which may be asserted against or incurred or suffered by Buyer or the Buyer Parties from time to time by reason of or in connection with (i) any personal injury (including death) or property damage or claim of personal injury or property damage, made by Residents or by Seller's employees, contractors or invitees (unless caused by Buyer), occurring during Seller's ownership of the Assets before Closing; (ii) any material inaccuracy of any representation or warranty of Seller in this Agreement; or (iii) the non-fulfillment of any material covenant, undertaking, agreement or other obligation of Seller under this Agreement.

~~14.2~~15.2 Buyer's Indemnity. Buyer shall and does hereby indemnify, defend and hold Seller and any partner (general or limited) of Seller and any current, former, and future trustee, officer, manager, member, partner, and employee (each, a "Seller Party", and collectively, the "Seller Parties") harmless from and against any and all Losses, which may be asserted against or incurred or suffered by Seller or Seller Parties from time to time by reason of or in connection with (i) any personal injury (including death) or property damage or claim of personal injury or property damage, made by Residents or by Buyer's employees, contractors or invitees (unless caused by Seller), occurring during Buyer's ownership of the Assets on or after the Closing; (ii) any material inaccuracy of any representation or warranty of Buyer in this Agreement; or (iii) the non-fulfillment of any material covenant, undertaking, agreement or other obligation of Buyer under this Agreement.

~~14.3~~15.3 Survival. Except as otherwise provided herein, the several representations and warranties of the parties contained in this Agreement and a party's right to indemnity in accordance with this ~~Article 14~~Section 15. ~~Section 15~~ shall survive the Closing Date and shall remain in full force and effect thereafter for a period of one (1) year after the Closing Date and shall be effective with respect to any material inaccuracy therein or breach thereof, notice of which shall have been duly given within such one (1) year period in accordance with Section ~~14.4~~15.4 hereof after which one (1) year period they shall terminate and be of no further force or effect.

becoming aware thereof; provided, however, that delay or failure to so notify the Indemnitor shall only relieve the Indemnitor of its obligations to the extent, if at all, that it is prejudiced by reasons of such delay or failure. The Indemnitor shall have a period of thirty (30) days within which to respond thereto. If the Indemnitor accepts responsibility within such thirty (30)-day period, the Indemnitor shall be obligated to compromise or defend such matter, at its own expense and through counsel reasonably satisfactory to the Indemnitee. If the Indemnitor does respond within such 30-day period and rejects responsibility for such matter in whole or in part, or does not respond, the Indemnitee shall be free to pursue, without prejudice to any of its rights hereunder, such remedies as may be available to the Indemnitee under applicable law at the Indemnitor's expense (subject, for the avoidance of doubt, to the limits set forth in this Article 14). The Indemnitee agrees to cooperate fully with the Indemnitor and its counsel in the defense against any such asserted liability. In any event, the Indemnitee shall have the right to participate in a non-controlling manner and at its own expense in the defense of such asserted liability. Any compromise of such asserted liability by the Indemnitor shall require the prior written consent of the Indemnitee and until such consent is obtained the Indemnitor shall continue the defense of such asserted liability. If, however, the Indemnitee refuses its consent to a bona fide offer of settlement containing a complete release of the Indemnitee from all liability in connection with the underlying claim that the Indemnitor wishes to accept, the Indemnitee may continue to pursue such matter, free of any participation by the Indemnitor, at the sole expense of the Indemnitee. In such event, the obligation of the Indemnitor to the Indemnitee shall be equal to the lesser of (i) the amount of the offer of settlement which the Indemnitee refused to accept plus the costs and expenses of the Indemnitee prior to the date the Indemnitor notifies the Indemnitee of the offer of settlement; or (ii) the actual out-of-pocket amount the Indemnitee is obligated to pay as a result of the Indemnitee's continuing to pursue such matter. The Indemnitor shall be entitled to recover from the Indemnitee any additional expenses incurred by the Indemnitor as a result of the decision of the Indemnitee to pursue such matter. So long as the Indemnitor is reasonably contesting any such claim in good faith, the Indemnitee shall not pay or settle such claim without the Indemnitor's prior written consent; provided that the Indemnitee may pay or settle such claim if it waives its right to indemnity therefor from the Indemnitor.

~~14.5~~15.5 Reduction for Insurance. The amount which the Indemnitor is required to pay to, for, or on behalf of the Indemnitee pursuant to this Article 14 shall be reduced (including, without limitation, retroactively) by any insurance proceeds actually recovered by or on behalf of the Indemnitee in reduction of the related indemnifiable loss (the "Indemnifiable Loss"). Amounts required to be paid, as so reduced, are hereinafter sometimes called an "Indemnity Payment." If the Indemnitee shall have received, or if the Indemnitor shall have paid on its behalf, an Indemnity Payment in respect of an Indemnifiable Loss and shall subsequently receive, directly or indirectly, insurance proceeds (which duplicate in whole or in part, the Indemnity Payment) in respect of such Indemnifiable Loss, then the Indemnitee shall promptly pay to the Indemnitor the amount of such insurance proceeds, or, if less, the amount of the Indemnity Payment. The parties hereto agree that the foregoing shall not affect the subrogation rights of any insurance companies making payments hereunder.

~~14.6~~15.6 Limitations of Remedies.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein, the parties hereto agree that the indemnification provisions set forth in this ~~Section 14~~Section 15. ~~Section 15~~ shall constitute the sole and exclusive remedy of either party for any breach or inaccuracy of any representation or warranty contained in this Agreement. The Buyer acknowledges that it shall not be entitled to seek rescission of the Agreement.

(b) Notwithstanding anything in this ~~Section 14~~Section 15. ~~Section 15~~ to contrary, no person shall be entitled to indemnification hereunder if it can be established by clear and convincing evidence that such person had knowledge on or prior to the Closing Date of the failure of any representation or warranty, or the breach of any covenant or agreement or the existence of any fact, event or circumstance, which may serve as the basis for bringing a claim for indemnification hereunder.

~~Section 15.~~ Section 16. Conduct of Business Pending Closing.

~~15.1~~16.1 Ordinary Course of Business. Beginning on the Effective Date and continuing through the Closing Date; (i) Seller shall make no material change in the operation of the Facilities nor enter into any material contract other than in the ordinary course of business nor incur any material liability without the prior written consent of Buyer, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned, or delayed, and Seller shall make good faith efforts to ensure that the goodwill and operations of the Facilities and the relationships with Residents and employees are preserved in the ordinary course of business; (ii) Seller shall perform all maintenance and repairs necessary to keep the Facilities and Assets in good operating condition and repair, and shall not sell or remove any Inventory or any Fixtures, Furniture and Equipment except in the ordinary course of business; and (iii) Seller shall not, without the prior written consent of Buyer:

(a) enter into any material contract, agreement, lease or other commitment with a duration of more than 12 months or involving the expenditure of more than fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) with respect to the Facilities, except contracts to purchase operating supplies or services in the ordinary course of business;

(b) make any change in key personnel at the Facilities, including the executive director or other department heads; or

(c) enter into any employment arrangement, agreement or undertaking, or pay or promise to pay any fringe benefit, bonus or special compensation to employees, except "stay for pay" arrangements and filling vacated positions as needed.

~~15.2~~16.2 Compensation. Except in the ordinary course of business and consistent with past practices, Seller shall not increase, except for annual cost of living, or promise any increase with respect to any salary or other form of compensation payable or to become payable to any of employees, and will not pay any bonus or make any other severance or retirement arrangement with any employees except as may have already been negotiated, be required to avoid legal action, or be required pursuant to Section ~~9.1~~10.1 hereof.

~~15.3~~16.3 Insurance. From the date hereof until the Closing Date, Seller shall, as long as such insurance continues to be available at reasonably affordable rates, continuously maintain insurance on the Facilities at no less than the levels maintained on the date hereof. Seller shall maintain, at Seller's expense, "tail" coverage with respect to its professional liability insurance policy (if it is a claims made policy) for two (2) years following the Closing Date and shall name Buyer as an additional named insured on such tail coverage.

~~Section 16.~~ Section 17. Transition.

~~16.1~~17.1 Accounts Receivable. Seller shall immediately transmit to Buyer any payments on accounts of the Facilities arising after the Closing which may be delivered to Seller from third party payor sources for services rendered after the Closing. Buyer shall immediately transmit to Seller any payments on accounts of the Facilities arising after the Closing which may be delivered to Buyer from third party payor sources for services rendered prior to Closing. All payments received by Buyer shall be applied first to delinquencies and then to current obligations.

~~16.2~~17.2 Cooperation. Seller and Buyer agree to cooperate with each other in all reasonable respects and to provide such information as is necessary to ensure a smooth and orderly transition of operation of the Facilities.

~~16.3~~17.3 Medicare Change of Ownership Filings. Buyer and Seller acknowledge that the transfer of the operations at the skilled nursing facilities as contemplated under this Agreement will constitute a change of ownership of the skilled nursing facilities for purposes of participation in the Medicare program and will effect an assignment of the skilled nursing facilities' Medicare provider agreements and provider numbers to Buyer (or its designee). Buyer (or its designee) shall not reject the assignment of the skilled nursing facilities' Medicare provider agreement or provider number. Seller and Buyer (or its designee) will act diligently to make all necessary notifications and filings required under applicable law for Buyer (or its designee) to become the Medicare provider at the skilled nursing facilities. In addition, Seller and Buyer (or its designee) each agree to complete, execute and submit its portions of the CMS-855A forms with respect to the skilled nursing facilities as promptly as practicable following the ~~expiration of the Due Diligence Period.~~Effective Date. Subject to the terms and provisions of this Agreement, Buyer (or its designee) may bill under Seller's Medicare provider enrollment agreement and use Seller's provider numbers for the skilled nursing facilities from the Closing Date until the earlier of the date that (a) Buyer (or its designee) receives the applicable Medicare certification notice (the so-called "tie-in" notice) which will enable it to receive reimbursements directly from Medicare for items and services furnished by the Facilities or (b) this Agreement is terminated in accordance with its terms.

~~16.4~~17.4 Cost Reports. Seller shall prepare and file any Medicare cost reports for the Facilities related to the period prior to the Closing. Following the Closing, Seller shall be authorized to contact the business office manager or other persons with access to the information at the Facilities during normal business hours in order to obtain information needed to prepare the final Medicare cost reports with respect to claims filed with Medicare for the Facilities prior to the Closing, and Buyer (or its designee) shall provide Seller with such Facility records as Seller reasonably requests to complete such final cost reports.

~~16.5~~17.5 Indemnification Under Third Party Payor Programs. Notwithstanding any other provisions in this Agreement to the contrary, Seller shall not have any liability whatsoever with respect to Losses relating to (a) Buyer's (or its designee's) furnishing of items or services, on or after the Closing Date, to any Third Party Payor Program beneficiaries or other patients, (b) Buyer's (or its designee's) financial accounting, coding, billing, cost reporting or claims submissions activities for its own account with respect to Third Party Payor Programs, or (c) Buyer's (or its designee's) retention of payments for the furnishing of such items and services. Buyer (or its designee) shall indemnify, defend and hold Seller harmless against and with respect to any Losses arising from the foregoing.

~~16.6~~17.6 Survival. The provisions of this ~~Section 16~~Section 17. ~~Section 17~~ shall survive the expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement and shall survive the Closing.

~~Section 17.~~ Section 18. Public Announcements.

Each of the parties to this Agreement agrees not to make any public announcement or disclosure, and not to issue a press release, concerning the execution of this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby prior to Closing without the prior written approval of the other party, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned, or delayed, except to the extent necessary to make regulatory filings or as required by law or as may be necessary for such party to reveal to such party's lenders or proposed lenders; provided, however, that Seller shall be entitled to make such disclosures as may be necessary and appropriate to obtain the requisite approval of the bankruptcy court for the transactions contemplated hereunder and shall be entitled to disclose the status of the transactions contemplated hereunder to employees and Residents.

~~Section 18.~~ Section 19. Default.

~~18.1~~19.1 Buyer's Default.

(a) If Buyer shall be in breach or default of any of the terms or conditions of this Agreement, then Seller shall give Buyer and Escrow Agent written notice specifying the nature of the default.

(b) Buyer shall have five (5) days from receipt of Seller's notice of default within which to cure the specified default. If Buyer does not cure such default within said five (5) day period or if such default is not waived in writing by Seller, then the Earnest Money, and all accrued interest thereon, shall be paid over to Seller and this Agreement shall automatically terminate and Seller and Buyer shall have no further rights, duties or obligations hereunder except as expressly survive the termination hereof.

(c) BUYER AND SELLER AGREE THAT IF BUYER DEFAULTS ON ITS OBLIGATION TO PURCHASE THE ASSETS PURSUANT HERETO, THE DAMAGES TO SELLER WOULD BE DIFFICULT AND IMPRACTICAL TO DETERMINE. ACCORDINGLY, BUYER AND SELLER HAVE AGREED TO FIX AS LIQUIDATED

DAMAGES THE EARNEST MONEY SPECIFIED IN ~~SECTION 4,~~SECTION 5. ~~SECTION 5~~, BUT ONLY TO THE EXTENT THERETOFORE DEPOSITED WITH ESCROW AGENT AND THE EARNEST MONEY SHALL BE RETAINED BY SELLER AS LIQUIDATED DAMAGES, AND SHALL CONSTITUTE SELLER'S SOLE AND EXCLUSIVE REMEDY FOR SUCH DEFAULT. SELLER AGREES THAT THESE LIQUIDATED DAMAGES SHALL BE IN LIEU OF ANY OTHER MONETARY RELIEF OR OTHER REMEDY, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION SPECIFIC PERFORMANCE, TO WHICH SELLER OTHERWISE MIGHT BE ENTITLED UNDER THIS AGREEMENT, AT LAW OR IN EQUITY. BUYER AND SELLER SPECIFICALLY ACKNOWLEDGE THEIR AGREEMENT TO THE FOREGOING LIQUIDATED DAMAGES PROVISION BY INITIALING THIS PARAGRAPH IN THE APPROPRIATE SPACES PROVIDED BELOW:

(b) Seller shall have five (5) days from receipt of Buyer's notice of default within which to cure the specified default. If Seller does not cure such default within said five (5) day period or if such default is not waived in writing by Buyer, then Buyer, at its option, shall have the right, within five (5) days after the expiration of the said five (5) day grace period, to elect one (1) and only one (1) of the following remedies:

(i) Buyer may terminate this Agreement by written notice given to Seller and Escrow Agent, in which event the Earnest Money will be refunded to Buyer; or

(ii) Buyer may demand specific performance of this Agreement by Seller, and, if necessary, file an action therefor.

~~18.3~~19.3 Survival. The provisions of this ~~Section 18~~Section 19. ~~Section 19~~ shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

~~Section 19.~~ Section 20. Broker.

Neither Seller nor Buyer has had any dealings with any broker, finder, or other party concerning the purchase and sale of the Assets other than Dan Revie and his team at B.C. Ziegler & Company ("Broker") and Buyer and Seller each agree to indemnify and hold the other harmless from all loss, costs, damage or expense, including reasonable attorney's fees incurred by the other as a result of any claim arising out of the acts of the indemnifying party for a commission, finder's fee, or similar compensation made by any other broker, finder or other party. Broker is to be paid a commission by Seller pursuant to a separate agreement and Broker shall not be deemed a party or third party beneficiary of this Agreement. The representations and warranties contained herein shall survive the Closing.

~~20.1~~21.1 Further Assurances. Each of the parties will, at any time before, at, or after the Closing Date, sign, execute and deliver (or cause others to do so) all documents and instruments to do, or cause to be done, all such acts and things as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this Agreement.

Nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to confer upon any party, other than the parties hereto, and their respective successors and assigns, any rights, remedies, obligations or liabilities under or by reason of this Agreement.

~~20.5~~21.5 Amendment. A modification or amendment of this Agreement, the exhibits or schedules to this Agreement, or the other documents delivered pursuant hereto is effective only if it is in writing and executed by both parties. ~~20.9~~21.9 Delays or Omissions. No delay or omission to exercise any right, power, or remedy accruing to any party hereto, upon any breach or default of any other party hereto, shall impair any such right, power or remedy, nor shall it be construed to be a waiver of any such breach or default, or any acquiescence therein, or of or in any similar breach or default thereafter occurring. 12.7 Violations. There is no pending or, to Seller's knowledge, threatened, notice, suit, judgment, proceeding or investigation from any federal, state, city or local authority relating to any violation on or at the Premises or Facilities (including, but not limited to, any Department of Labor investigation or proceeding); and, to Seller's knowledge, there is no condition existing with respect to the Premises or Facilities that violates in any material respect any statute, ordinance, law or code regarding zoning, building, fire, air-pollution, or health law, or requires immediate improvement, alteration, addition, correction or other work on or about the Premises or Facilities, whether related to the Premises or Facilities or to the activities of any owner or occupant thereof. To the best of Seller's knowledge it is fully compliant with all regulations, restrictions, and other requirements that are associated with or related to two "affordable housing" units at Forest Hill.

12.8 Litigation. Subject to the disclosures set forth on Schedule 12.8 hereto, and other than the Case, there is no litigation, arbitration or proceeding pending, or to Seller's knowledge, threatened, before any court or administrative agency or any other condition that adversely affects the Premises or the Facilities, or Seller's performance hereunder, or which will result in a lien, encumbrance or judgment against any part of or any interest in the Premises or the Facilities.

12.9 MAC. To Seller's knowledge, no MAC has occurred or, if a MAC has occurred, Seller has provided notice to Buyer within two (2) Business Days of such occurrence.

12.10 As-Is Sale; Release. Except with respect to (i) Seller's covenants, representations, and warranties expressly set forth in this Agreement and (ii) any loss, damage, injury, liability, claim, expense or demand directly arising out of this Agreement, Buyer acknowledges and agrees that Buyer is purchasing the Premises in its "as-is, where is, with all faults" condition as of the Closing. Except as expressly set forth in this Agreement, Seller has made no representations or warranties regarding the Premises, and Buyer shall have undertaken all inspections and examinations in connection with the Premises that Buyer deems necessary or appropriate under the circumstances (including, without limitation, the physical and environmental condition of the Premises, the zoning of the Premises, the Premises' compliance with applicable laws, the condition of any improvements on the Premises, and the availability or lack of entitlements). Buyer is relying strictly upon such inspections and examinations and the advice of its agents, consultants, contractors, vendors, and representatives. Except as described in this Agreement, neither Seller nor any representative, member, agent, employee, manager, broker, principal, partner, affiliate, or consultant of Seller is making or has made any warranty or representation (either express or implied) with respect to any part of the Premises as an inducement to Buyer to enter into this Agreement and buy the Assets or for any other purpose. Buyer hereby expressly disclaims (on behalf of itself and any party affiliated with or related to Buyer, including, without limitation, successors and assigns) any and all Seller representations and warranties (either express or implied).

Buyer hereby represents, warrants and covenants to Seller as follows:

13.2 Authority. Buyer has the full power, authority and financial and operational ability to enter into and to perform its obligations under this Agreement and all other agreements and instruments to be executed by it pursuant to this Agreement, and no approval or consent of, or notice to, any person, entity, or governmental agency or authority is necessary for Buyer to perform hereunder other than the approval of Agencies for Buyer to operate the Facilities. 13.5 No Financing. Buyer has the funds to consummate the transactions contemplated this Agreement and does not require the commitment from any lending institution in order to fulfill its obligations hereunder.

13.6 Violations. There is no pending or, to Buyer's knowledge, threatened, notice, suit, judgment, proceeding or investigation from any federal, state, city or local authority relating to any alleged violation at any of Buyer's other facilities that could be reasonably be expected to cause any Agencies or the California Attorney General to delay or deny the Regulatory Clearances to Buyer.

13.7 Litigation. Subject to the disclosures set forth on Schedule 13.7 hereto, there is no litigation, arbitration or proceeding pending, or to Buyer's knowledge, threatened, before any court or administrative agency or any other condition that could adversely affect Buyer's performance hereunder.

Section 14. Conditions to Parties' Obligations.

14.1 Condition to Buyer's Obligations. The obligations of Buyer to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall be subject to the satisfaction or performance prior to or at Closing of the following conditions, of which items (a), (b), (c), (f) and (g) below may be waived by Buyer:

(a) Representations. Each of Seller's representations and warranties as set forth in Section 12. ~~Section 12~~ above shall be true in all material respects as of the Closing Date.

(b) Seller's Other Obligations. Seller shall perform all of its other covenants and obligations in all material respects as set forth in this Agreement.

(c) Title. The Title Company shall be prepared to issue to Buyer at Closing the Title Policy subject only to the Permitted Encumbrances.

(g) No Unwaived MAC. No MAC has occurred that Buyer has not waived by written notice to Seller.

If any of the conditions precedent set forth in this Section 14.1 have not been materially satisfied or waived by the Closing Date, then Buyer may: (a) terminate this Agreement by notifying Seller and Escrow Agent prior to the Closing Date, in which event Seller shall promptly refund the Earnest Money to Buyer, and neither party shall have any further rights, duties or obligations to the other except as expressly provided to survive termination hereunder; or (b) waive such condition precedent to Closing, whereupon Buyer shall be deemed to have waived any rights or remedies under this Agreement with respect to the unsatisfied condition precedent and the purchase and sale hereunder shall be consummated in accordance with the terms and conditions hereof.

14.2 Condition to Seller's Obligations. The obligations of Seller to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall be subject to the satisfaction or performance prior to or at Closing of the following conditions, of which items (a) and (b) below may be waived by Seller:

If any of the conditions precedent set forth in this Section 14.2 have not been materially satisfied or waived by the Closing Date, then Seller may: (a) terminate this Agreement by notifying Buyer and Escrow Agent prior to the Closing Date, in which event Seller shall retain the Earnest Money and neither party shall have any further rights, duties or obligations to the other except as expressly provided to survive termination hereunder; or (b) waive such condition precedent to Closing, whereupon Seller shall be deemed to have waived any rights or remedies under this Agreement with respect to the unsatisfied condition precedent and the purchase and sale hereunder shall be consummated in accordance with the terms and conditions hereof.

Section 15. Indemnification.

15.1 Seller's Indemnity. Seller shall and does hereby indemnify, defend and hold Buyer and its managers, members, affiliates, agents and/or employees (each, a "Buyer Party", and collectively, the "Buyer Parties") harmless from and against any and all loss, cost, damage, claim, judgment, liability or expense, including court costs and reasonable actual attorneys' fees (individually a "Loss," and collectively "Losses") which may be asserted against or incurred or suffered by Buyer or the Buyer Parties from time to time by reason of or in connection with (i) any personal injury (including death) or property damage or claim of personal injury or property damage, made by Residents or by Seller's employees, contractors or invitees (unless caused by Buyer), occurring during Seller's ownership of the Assets before Closing; (ii) any material inaccuracy of any representation or warranty of Seller in this Agreement; or (iii) the non-fulfillment of any material covenant, undertaking, agreement or other obligation of Seller under this Agreement.

15.2 Buyer's Indemnity. Buyer shall and does hereby indemnify, defend and hold Seller and any partner (general or limited) of Seller and any current, former, and future trustee, officer, manager, member, partner, and employee (each, a "Seller Party", and collectively, the "Seller Parties") harmless from and against any and all Losses, which may be asserted against or incurred or suffered by Seller or Seller Parties from time to time by reason of or in connection with (i) any personal injury (including death) or property damage or claim of personal injury or property damage, made by Residents or by Buyer's employees, contractors or invitees (unless caused by Seller), occurring during Buyer's ownership of the Assets on or after the Closing; (ii) any material inaccuracy of any representation or warranty of Buyer in this Agreement; or (iii) the non-fulfillment of any material covenant, undertaking, agreement or other obligation of Buyer under this Agreement.

15.3 Survival. Except as otherwise provided herein, the several representations and warranties of the parties contained in this Agreement and a party's right to indemnity in accordance with this Section 15. ~~Section 15~~ shall survive the Closing Date and shall remain in full force and effect thereafter for a period of one (1) year after the Closing Date and shall be effective with respect to any material inaccuracy therein or breach thereof, notice of which shall have been duly given within such one (1) year period in accordance with Section 15.4 hereof after which one (1) year period they shall terminate and be of no further force or effect.

15.4 Indemnification Procedure. After the incurrence of any Loss by any Buyer Party or any Seller Party, which might give rise to indemnification hereunder, the party seeking indemnification (the "Indemnitee") shall deliver to the party from which indemnification is sought (the "Indemnitor") written notice of such Loss within fifteen (15) days of Indemnitee's becoming aware thereof; provided, however, that delay or failure to so notify the Indemnitor shall only relieve the Indemnitor of its obligations to the extent, if at all, that it is prejudiced by reasons of such delay or failure. The Indemnitor shall have a period of thirty (30) days within which to respond thereto. If the Indemnitor accepts responsibility within such thirty (30)-day period, the Indemnitor shall be obligated to compromise or defend such matter, at its own expense and through counsel reasonably satisfactory to the Indemnitee. If the Indemnitor does respond within such 30-day period and rejects responsibility for such matter in whole or in part, or does not respond, the Indemnitee shall be free to pursue, without prejudice to any of its rights hereunder, such remedies as may be available to the Indemnitee under applicable law at the Indemnitor's expense (subject, for the avoidance of doubt, to the limits set forth in this Article 14). The Indemnitee agrees to cooperate fully with the Indemnitor and its counsel in the defense against any such asserted liability. In any event, the Indemnitee shall have the right to participate in a non-controlling manner and at its own expense in the defense of such asserted liability. Any compromise of such asserted liability by the Indemnitor shall require the prior written consent of the Indemnitee and until such consent is obtained the Indemnitor shall continue the defense of such asserted liability. If, however, the Indemnitee refuses its consent to a bona fide offer of settlement containing a complete release of the Indemnitee from all liability in connection with the underlying claim that the Indemnitor wishes to accept, the Indemnitee may continue to pursue such matter, free of any participation by the Indemnitor, at the sole expense of the Indemnitee. In such event, the obligation of the Indemnitor to the Indemnitee shall be equal to the lesser of (i) the amount of the offer of settlement which the Indemnitee refused to accept plus the costs and expenses of the Indemnitee prior to the date the Indemnitor notifies the Indemnitee of the offer of settlement; or (ii) the actual out-of-pocket amount the Indemnitee is obligated to pay as a result of the Indemnitee's continuing to pursue such matter. The Indemnitor shall be entitled to recover from the Indemnitee any additional expenses incurred by the Indemnitor as a result of the decision of the Indemnitee to pursue such matter. So long as the Indemnitor is reasonably contesting any such claim in good faith, the Indemnitee shall not pay or settle such claim without the Indemnitor's prior written consent; provided that the Indemnitee may pay or settle such claim if it waives its right to indemnity therefor from the Indemnitor.

15.5 Reduction for Insurance. The amount which the Indemnitor is required to pay to, for, or on behalf of the Indemnitee pursuant to this Article 14 shall be reduced (including, without limitation, retroactively) by any insurance proceeds actually recovered by or on behalf of the Indemnitee in reduction of the related indemnifiable loss (the "Indemnifiable Loss"). Amounts required to be paid, as so reduced, are hereinafter sometimes called an "Indemnity Payment." If the Indemnitee shall have received, or if the Indemnitor shall have paid on its behalf, an Indemnity Payment in respect of an Indemnifiable Loss and shall subsequently receive, directly or indirectly, insurance proceeds (which duplicate in whole or in part, the Indemnity Payment) in respect of such Indemnifiable Loss, then the Indemnitee shall promptly pay to the Indemnitor the amount of such insurance proceeds, or, if less, the amount of the Indemnity Payment. The parties hereto agree that the foregoing shall not affect the subrogation rights of any insurance companies making payments hereunder.

15.6 Limitations of Remedies.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein, the parties hereto agree that the indemnification provisions set forth in this Section 15. ~~Section 15~~ shall constitute the sole and exclusive remedy of either party for any breach or inaccuracy of any representation or warranty contained in this Agreement. The Buyer acknowledges that it shall not be entitled to seek rescission of the Agreement.

(b) Notwithstanding anything in this Section 15. ~~Section 15~~ to contrary, no person shall be entitled to indemnification hereunder if it can be established by clear and convincing evidence that such person had knowledge on or prior to the Closing Date of the failure of any representation or warranty, or the breach of any covenant or agreement or the existence of any fact, event or circumstance, which may serve as the basis for bringing a claim for indemnification hereunder.

Section 16. Conduct of Business Pending Closing.

16.1 Ordinary Course of Business. Beginning on the Effective Date and continuing through the Closing Date; (i) Seller shall make no material change in the operation of the Facilities nor enter into any material contract other than in the ordinary course of business nor incur any material liability without the prior written consent of Buyer, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned, or delayed, and Seller shall make good faith efforts to ensure that the goodwill and operations of the Facilities and the relationships with Residents and employees are preserved in the ordinary course of business; (ii) Seller shall perform all maintenance and repairs necessary to keep the Facilities and Assets in good operating condition and repair, and shall not sell or remove any Inventory or any Fixtures, Furniture and Equipment except in the ordinary course of business; and (iii) Seller shall not, without the prior written consent of Buyer:

(a) enter into any material contract, agreement, lease or other commitment with a duration of more than 12 months or involving the expenditure of more than fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) with respect to the Facilities, except contracts to purchase operating supplies or services in the ordinary course of business;

(b) make any change in key personnel at the Facilities, including the executive director or other department heads; or

(c) enter into any employment arrangement, agreement or undertaking, or pay or promise to pay any fringe benefit, bonus or special compensation to employees, except "stay for pay" arrangements and filling vacated positions as needed.

16.2 Compensation. Except in the ordinary course of business and consistent with past practices, Seller shall not increase, except for annual cost of living, or promise any increase with respect to any salary or other form of compensation payable or to become payable to any of employees, and will not pay any bonus or make any other severance or retirement arrangement with any employees except as may have already been negotiated, be required to avoid legal action, or be required pursuant to Section 10.1 hereof.

16.3 Insurance. From the date hereof until the Closing Date, Seller shall, as long as such insurance continues to be available at reasonably affordable rates, continuously maintain insurance on the Facilities at no less than the levels maintained on the date hereof. Seller shall maintain, at Seller's expense, "tail" coverage with respect to its professional liability insurance policy (if it is a claims made policy) for two (2) years following the Closing Date and shall name Buyer as an additional named insured on such tail coverage.

Section 17. Transition.

17.1 Accounts Receivable. Seller shall immediately transmit to Buyer any payments on accounts of the Facilities arising after the Closing which may be delivered to Seller from third party payor sources for services rendered after the Closing. Buyer shall immediately transmit to Seller any payments on accounts of the Facilities arising after the Closing which may be delivered to Buyer from third party payor sources for services rendered prior to Closing. All payments received by Buyer shall be applied first to delinquencies and then to current obligations.

17.2 Cooperation. Seller and Buyer agree to cooperate with each other in all reasonable respects and to provide such information as is necessary to ensure a smooth and orderly transition of operation of the Facilities.

17.3 Medicare Change of Ownership Filings. Buyer and Seller acknowledge that the transfer of the operations at the skilled nursing facilities as contemplated under this Agreement will constitute a change of ownership of the skilled nursing facilities for purposes of participation in the Medicare program and will effect an assignment of the skilled nursing facilities' Medicare provider agreements and provider numbers to Buyer (or its designee). Buyer (or its designee) shall not reject the assignment of the skilled nursing facilities' Medicare provider agreement or provider number. Seller and Buyer (or its designee) will act diligently to make all necessary notifications and filings required under applicable law for Buyer (or its designee) to become the Medicare provider at the skilled nursing facilities. In addition, Seller and Buyer (or its designee) each agree to complete, execute and submit its portions of the CMS-855A forms with respect to the skilled nursing facilities as promptly as practicable following the Effective Date. Subject to the terms and provisions of this Agreement, Buyer (or its designee) may bill under Seller's Medicare provider enrollment agreement and use Seller's provider numbers for the skilled nursing facilities from the Closing Date until the earlier of the date that (a) Buyer (or its designee) receives the applicable Medicare certification notice (the so-called "tie-in" notice) which will enable it to receive reimbursements directly from Medicare for items and services furnished by the Facilities or (b) this Agreement is terminated in accordance with its terms.

17.4 Cost Reports. Seller shall prepare and file any Medicare cost reports for the Facilities related to the period prior to the Closing. Following the Closing, Seller shall be authorized to contact the business office manager or other persons with access to the information at the Facilities during normal business hours in order to obtain information needed to prepare the final Medicare cost reports with respect to claims filed with Medicare for the Facilities prior to the Closing, and Buyer (or its designee) shall provide Seller with such Facility records as Seller reasonably requests to complete such final cost reports.

17.5 Indemnification Under Third Party Payor Programs. Notwithstanding any other provisions in this Agreement to the contrary, Seller shall not have any liability whatsoever with respect to Losses relating to (a) Buyer's (or its designee's) furnishing of items or services, on or after the Closing Date, to any Third Party Payor Program beneficiaries or other patients, (b) Buyer's (or its designee's) financial accounting, coding, billing, cost reporting or claims submissions activities for its own account with respect to Third Party Payor Programs, or (c) Buyer's (or its designee's) retention of payments for the furnishing of such items and services. Buyer (or its designee) shall indemnify, defend and hold Seller harmless against and with respect to any Losses arising from the foregoing.

17.6 Survival. The provisions of this Section 17. ~~Section 17~~ shall survive the expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement and shall survive the Closing.

Section 18. Public Announcements.

Each of the parties to this Agreement agrees not to make any public announcement or disclosure, and not to issue a press release, concerning the execution of this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby prior to Closing without the prior written approval of the other party, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned, or delayed, except to the extent necessary to make regulatory filings or as required by law or as may be necessary for such party to reveal to such party's lenders or proposed lenders; provided, however, that Seller shall be entitled to make such disclosures as may be necessary and appropriate to obtain the requisite approval of the bankruptcy court for the transactions contemplated hereunder and shall be entitled to disclose the status of the transactions contemplated hereunder to employees and Residents.

Section 19. Default.

19.1 Buyer's Default.

(a) If Buyer shall be in breach or default of any of the terms or conditions of this Agreement, then Seller shall give Buyer and Escrow Agent written notice specifying the nature of the default.

(b) Buyer shall have five (5) days from receipt of Seller's notice of default within which to cure the specified default. If Buyer does not cure such default within said five (5) day period or if such default is not waived in writing by Seller, then the Earnest Money, and all accrued interest thereon, shall be paid over to Seller and this Agreement shall automatically terminate and Seller and Buyer shall have no further rights, duties or obligations hereunder except as expressly survive the termination hereof.

(c) BUYER AND SELLER AGREE THAT IF BUYER DEFAULTS ON ITS OBLIGATION TO PURCHASE THE ASSETS PURSUANT HERETO, THE DAMAGES TO SELLER WOULD BE DIFFICULT AND IMPRACTICAL TO DETERMINE. ACCORDINGLY, BUYER AND SELLER HAVE AGREED TO FIX AS LIQUIDATED DAMAGES THE EARNEST MONEY SPECIFIED IN SECTION 5. ~~SECTION 5~~, BUT ONLY TO THE EXTENT THERETOFORE DEPOSITED WITH ESCROW AGENT AND THE EARNEST MONEY SHALL BE RETAINED BY SELLER AS LIQUIDATED DAMAGES, AND SHALL CONSTITUTE SELLER'S SOLE AND EXCLUSIVE REMEDY FOR SUCH DEFAULT. SELLER AGREES THAT THESE LIQUIDATED DAMAGES SHALL BE IN LIEU OF ANY OTHER MONETARY RELIEF OR OTHER REMEDY, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION SPECIFIC PERFORMANCE, TO WHICH SELLER OTHERWISE MIGHT BE ENTITLED UNDER THIS AGREEMENT, AT LAW OR IN EQUITY. BUYER AND SELLER SPECIFICALLY ACKNOWLEDGE THEIR AGREEMENT TO THE FOREGOING LIQUIDATED DAMAGES PROVISION BY INITIALING THIS PARAGRAPH IN THE APPROPRIATE SPACES PROVIDED BELOW:

SELLER _____ BUYER _____

19.2 Seller's Default.

(a) If Seller shall be in breach or default of any of the terms or conditions of this Agreement, then Buyer shall give Seller and Escrow Agent written notice specifying the nature of the default.

(b) Seller shall have five (5) days from receipt of Buyer's notice of default within which to cure the specified default. If Seller does not cure such default within said five (5) day period or if such default is not waived in writing by Buyer, then Buyer, at its option, shall have the right, within five (5) days after the expiration of the said five (5) day grace period, to elect one (1) and only one (1) of the following remedies:

(i) Buyer may terminate this Agreement by written notice given to Seller and Escrow Agent, in which event the Earnest Money will be refunded to Buyer; or

(ii) Buyer may demand specific performance of this Agreement by Seller, and, if necessary, file an action therefor.

19.3 Survival. The provisions of this Section 19. ~~Section 19~~ shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

Section 20. Broker.

Neither Seller nor Buyer has had any dealings with any broker, finder, or other party concerning the purchase and sale of the Assets other than Dan Revie and his team at B.C. Ziegler & Company ("Broker") and Buyer and Seller each agree to indemnify and hold the other harmless from all loss, costs, damage or expense, including reasonable attorney's fees incurred by the other as a result of any claim arising out of the acts of the indemnifying party for a commission, finder's fee, or similar compensation made by any other broker, finder or other party. Broker is to be paid a commission by Seller pursuant to a separate agreement and Broker shall not be deemed a party or third party beneficiary of this Agreement. The representations and warranties contained herein shall survive the Closing.

Section 21. Miscellaneous.

21.1 Further Assurances. Each of the parties will, at any time before, at, or after the Closing Date, sign, execute and deliver (or cause others to do so) all documents and instruments to do, or cause to be done, all such acts and things as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this Agreement.

21.2 Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of California.

21.3 Successors and Assigns. All of the terms of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by and against the successors and assigns of the parties hereto.

21.4 Entire Agreement. This Agreement, including the exhibits and schedules hereto, and the other documents delivered pursuant hereto, constitute the full and entire understanding and agreement between the parties concerning the subject matter of this Agreement, and this Agreement supersedes all prior agreements and negotiations, oral or written, concerning that subject matter, all of which are merged into this Agreement. Nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to confer upon any party, other than the parties hereto, and their respective successors and assigns, any rights, remedies, obligations or liabilities under or by reason of this Agreement.

21.5 Amendment. A modification or amendment of this Agreement, the exhibits or schedules to this Agreement, or the other documents delivered pursuant hereto is effective only if it is in writing and executed by both parties. Execution by Escrow Agent is not required for any modification or amendment unless such modification or amendment affects Section 5. ~~Section 5~~ hereof.

21.6 Notices. All notices or other communications required or permitted hereunder shall be in writing and addressed as set forth below and either personally delivered (including delivery by a nationally recognized courier), sent by overnight mail (Federal Express or the like), or sent by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid, return receipt requested, or sent by telecopy or electronic mail. Notice hereunder shall be deemed to have been properly given or served for all purposes and shall be deemed received upon the earlier of (i) if personally delivered, the date of delivery to the address of the person to receive such notice if delivered during ordinary business hours; (ii) if sent by overnight mail, the business day following its deposit in such overnight mail facility; (iii) if mailed, on the third business day following the date of posting by the United States post office; or (iv) if given by telecopy or electronic mail, when the sender receives a confirmation of receipt generated by the sending machine, if sent during ordinary business hours. 21.9 Delays or Omissions. No delay or omission to exercise any right, power, or remedy accruing to any party hereto, upon any breach or default of any other party hereto, shall impair any such right, power or remedy, nor shall it be construed to be a waiver of any such breach or default, or any acquiescence therein, or of or in any similar breach or default thereafter occurring. 21.13 Time for Performance; Counting Days. Any act required by this Agreement to be performed by a certain day shall be timely performed if completed before 5:00 p.m. local time on that date. In support of this Motion, the Debtor relies on the pleadings on file in this Chapter 11 Case and submits the Declaration of Steven A. Nerger in Support of the Motion for Entry of an Order (I) Approving Bidding Procedures in Connection with the Sale of Substantially All of the Debtor's Assets; (II) Approving Procedures for the Assumption and Assignment of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases; (III) Approving Stalking Horse Bidder And Break-Up Fee; and (IV) Granting Related Relief (the "Nerger Declaration") filed contemporaneously herewith and incorporated herein by reference. A proposed form of order granting the relief requested herein (the "Order") is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

I. JURISDICTION

The United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of California (this "Court") has jurisdiction to consider this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334, the Order Referring Bankruptcy Cases and Proceedings to Bankruptcy Judges, General Order 24 (N.D. Cal.), and Rule 5011-1(a) of the Bankruptcy Local Rules for the Northern District of California (the "Bankruptcy Local Rules"). This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b). Venue is proper before the Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

II. BACKGROUND

A. The Debtor's Bankruptcy Case

On March 16, 2021 (the "Petition Date"), the Debtor commenced this Chapter 11 Case by filing a voluntary petition under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtor continues to operate its business and manage its property as a debtor in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. On April 8, 2021 and April 19, 2021, the United States Trustee for the Northern District of California appointed an Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the "Committee") in the Chapter 11 Case. No request has been made for the appointment of a trustee or examiner in the Chapter 11 Case.

Additional information about the Debtor's business and affairs, capital structure and prepetition indebtedness, and the events leading up to the Petition Date is set forth in the previously filed Declaration of Steven A. Nerger in Support of Debtor's "First Day Motions" [Dkt. No. 14].

B. Prior Sale Process

For a substantial period of time, the Debtor has been sustaining severe operating losses. See Nerger Declaration. In the opinion of the Debtor and its Chief Restructuring Officer, these substantial operating losses cannot quickly and readily be reversed or rectified and it is necessary that the Debtor expeditiously enter into a sale or merger transaction with a highly qualified and financially sound entity. Id.

On May 20, 2021, upon motion by the Debtor, the bankruptcy court entered an order authorizing the Debtor to employ B.C. Ziegler & Company ("Ziegler"), a highly qualified investment banking firm, to develop and implement a sale or merger process ("Sale Process"). Ziegler quickly went to work orchestrating that process. Ziegler contacted approximately one hundred potentially interested parties, entered into a nondisclosure agreement with and circulated a comprehensive "offering memorandum" to parties who expressed interest in a possible transaction, and engaged many of those parties in direct, one-on-one discussions. In response to the offering memorandum, Ziegler elicited non-binding letters of interest from ten potential purchasers or merger partners, including Pacifica Companies, LLC or its designee ("Pacifica"). Id.

With the assistance of the Debtor's counsel, Neal L. Wolf, Ziegler then conducted what the Debtor believes amounted to a de facto auction process for the sale of substantially all of the Debtor's assets (the "Assets"). The Debtor and Ziegler called upon and encouraged potential buyers and merger partners to enhance their respective proposals. In response, Pacifica and certain other interested purchasers enhanced their respective proposals on two or more occasions. Ultimately, Pacifica made what the Debtor determined to be the most advantageous proposal.

Significantly, Pacifica conditioned the amount of its final, and highest, proposal on the conduct of a "private sale" transaction by the Debtor. Pacifica indicated that, if there were to be a court-supervised auction process at which it were designated as merely a "stalking horse" bidder, the Pacifica offer would be reduced by approximately $2 million and Pacifica would require a $1.5 million "break-up fee." Id. Debtor and Pacifica subsequently executed a purchase and sale agreement for Pacifica's purchase of substantially all of the Debtor's assets (such agreement as subsequently amended by Debtor and Pacifica, the "Original Purchase and Sale Agreement").

On November 23, 2021 the Court entered an Order Approving the Sale of Substantially All of Debtor's Assets to Pacifica Companies, LLC Free and Clear of Any Liens and Encumbrances [Dkt. No. 348]. Unfortunately, however, on November 29, 2021, Pacifica exercised its right to terminate, without liability, the Original Purchase and Sale Agreement.

C. Proposed Sale Process

After Pacifica's termination of the Original Purchase and Sale Agreement, the Debtor determined in its business judgment to conduct a competitive bid-and-sale process for the orderly sale of substantially all of the Debtor's Assets under sections 363 and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code. After further arm's-length negotiations, the Debtor and Pacifica, as the stalking horse bidder (the "Stalking Horse Bidder," and Pacifica's bid, the "Stalking Horse Bid") entered into an that certain Purchase and Sale Agreement, dated as of December [●], 2021] (the "Stalking Horse Agreement").[2]

The terms and conditions identified in the Stalking Horse Agreement are subject to higher and better bids at an auction on either or both of the Debtor's facilities located at (a) 1850 Alice St., Oakland, CA 94612, along with the CNMH Corporate Office Building located at 201 19th Street, Oakland, CA 94612 (collectively, "Lake Park") and (b) 511 Gibson Ave., Pacific Grove, CA 93950, along with the Pacific Grove Parking Garage located at 26 Sinex Ave., Pacific Grove, CA 93950 (collectively, "Forest Hill" and, together with Lake Park, the

[2] Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein will have the meanings ascribed to them in the Stalking Horse Agreement.

"Facilities"); provided, however, that if the Stalking Horse Bidder is the successful bidder on the Forest Hill property alone, the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement shall be in effect for purposes of the acquisition of the Forest Hill Assets, assumption of the Assumed Forest Hill Residency Agreements and assumption of the Assumed forest Hill Repayable Entrance Fee Liabilities and not in connection with acquisition of the Lake Park Assets or assumption of the Lake Park Residency Agreements or Assumed Lake Forest Repayable Entrance Fee Liabilities.

As consideration for and as a material inducement to the Stalking Horse Bidder conducting its due diligence and entering into the Stalking Horse Agreement, the Debtor agreed to certain bid procedures and protections. Sale of each of the two Facilities is subject to a $500,000 break-up fee ("Single Facility Break-up Fee") in the event the Stalking Horse Bidder is not the Successful Bidder (as defined below) on one Facility and a $1,000,000 break-up fee (together with the Single Facility Break-up Fee the "Break-up Fee")[3] in the event the Stalking Horse Bidder is not the Successful Bidder on both Facilities, subject to approval of the Bankruptcy Court after notice and opportunity for hearing, which Break-Up Fee shall be payable from the sale proceeds at the time of closing. To the extent the Stalking Horse Bidder submits any Overbids (as defined below) and it overbids on one Facility on the approved terms for Overbids, it may apply the Single Facility Break-up Fee as a credit toward the purchase price of one facility, or may apply the Break-Up Fee as a credit toward the purchase price of both Facilities. Under this Motion, the Debtor seeks court approval of the sale procedures, sale, and bid protections as set forth herein.

D. Proposed Bidding Procedures

The Debtor believes that the Bidding Procedures will promote a transparent, competitive, and expedient sale process. If approved, the Bidding Procedures will allow the Debtor to solicit and identify bids from potential buyers, resulting in the highest or otherwise best offer for the Assets on a schedule consistent with the deadlines under the Stalking Horse Agreement and with the Debtor's cash needs and overall chapter 11 strategy. The following sets forth a summary of the key provisions of the Bidding Procedures:

Stalking Horse Agreement. On December 15, 2021, the Debtor entered into the Stalking Horse Agreement with the Stalking Horse Bidder, pursuant to which the Stalking Horse Bidder has agreed to purchase substantially all of the Assets (other than the Excluded Items, as such term is defined in the Stalking Horse Agreement) for consideration consisting of[4]:

1. Cash. The Stalking Horse Bidder shall pay $30,000,000 cash at the Closing for both of the Facilities, including (a) a $1,000,000 Earnest Money deposit, to be deposited into escrow within one business day of execution and delivery of the Stalking Horse Agreement and (b) a $100 Independent Consideration deposit, to be deposited into escrow concurrently with and in addition to the Earnest Money.

2. Purchase Price Allocated to Each Facility. Of the total Purchase Price of $30,000,000, the Stalking Horse Bid allocates a purchase price of $14,150,000 to Forest Hill and related assets (collectively, "Forest Hill Assets") and $15,850,000 to Lake Park and related assets (collectively, "Lake Park Assets").

3. Contracts and Liabilities Assumed. The Stalking Horse Bidder will assume (a) all Residency Agreements for Lake Park in effect as of the Closing Date and all obligations thereunder without modification ("Assumed Lake Park Residency Agreements") pursuant to Section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, (b) all Residency Agreements for Forest Hill in effect as of the Closing Date and all obligations thereunder without modification ("Assumed Forest Hill Residency Agreements," and collectively with the Assumed Lake Park Residency Agreements, ("Assumed Residency Agreements"), (c) all the Non-Restricted Entrance Fee Liability for Lake Park ("Assumed Lake Park Non-Restricted Entrance Fee Liability"), (d) all the Non-Restricted Entrance Fee Liability for Forest Hill ("Assumed Forest Hill Repayable Entrance Fee Liabilities"), and (e) the Restricted Entrance Fee Liability [5] (collectively with the Assumed Lake Park Non-Restricted Entrance Fee Liability, "Assumed Lake Park Repayable Entrance Fee Liabilities"), including without limitation as set forth in Sections 2.2 and 4.2 and Schedules 2.2 and 2.4 of the Stalking Horse Agreement.

4. Liabilities Not Assumed. No contracts or liabilities other than the Assumed Residency Agreements, the Assumed Forest Hill

[4] Parties are referred to the Stalking Horse Agreement for its complete terms. To the extent there are any inconsistencies between the terms of the Stalking Horse Agreement and the description in this Motion, the terms of the Stalking Horse Agreement prevail.

[5] The entire Restricted Entrance Fee Liability relates to Lake Park.

> Repayable Entrance Fee Liabilities, and the Assumed Lake Park Repayable Entrance Fee Liabilities (the Assumed Lake Park Repayable Entrance Fee Liabilities, together with the Assumed Forest Hill Repayable Entrance Fee Liabilities, the "Assumed Repayable Entrance Fee Liabilities") will be assumed, unless Pacifica designates additional executory contracts or unexpired leases it wishes to assume on or before the Assumption Notice Deadline. With the exception of the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Residency Agreements and the Assumed Repayable Entrance Fee Liabilities and Permitted Encumbrances, the sale will be free and clear of all interests in, liens upon, or claims concerning the Debtor or its assets, including, but not limited to any claims or liabilities for the underfunded portion of the Debtor's multi-employer pension fund or any withdrawal liability that may arise from the Debtor's withdrawal from the multi-employer pension fund, if any.

Bid Deadline. The "Bid Deadline" is January 20, 2022 at 11:59 p.m. (prevailing Pacific Time).

Due Diligence. To participate in the bidding process and to receive access to due diligence materials (the "Diligence Materials"), a party must submit or have previously submitted an executed NDA in connection with the Case in a form reasonably satisfactory to the Debtor. A party which qualifies for access to Diligence Materials is designated a "Potential Bidder." Through and including the Bid Deadline, the Debtor and its advisors will afford all Potential Bidders the opportunity to conduct reasonable due diligence, including reasonable access to Debtor's management and its professionals, access to the electronic data room and other information reasonably requested. All due diligence requests must be directed to: Steven A. Nerger, Chief Restructuring Officer of the Debtor, at snerger@silvermanconsulting.net. Due diligence will close on January 20, 2022 at 5 p.m. (Pacific Standard Time).

Each Potential Bidder shall comply with all reasonable requests for additional information by the Debtor or its advisors regarding the ability of such Potential Bidder to consummate a purchase of the Assets.

Qualified Bid Requirements. To participate in the Auction (as defined below), a Qualified Bidder (as defined below), other than the Stalking Horse Bidder must, by the Bid Deadline, submit a bid that, as determined by the Debtor in its business judgment in consultation with California Department of Health Care Access and Information, f/k/a Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development ("HCAI"), Wilmington Trust, National Association ("Wilmington"), B.H. Capital Ventures, LLC ("BHP"), California Department of Social Services ("CDSS"), and the Committee (collectively, the "Consultation Parties"), satisfies each of the following conditions (the "Bid Requirements"), unless any such Bid Requirements are waived by the Debtor with the agreement of the Consultation Parties; provided, however, that (i) for any bid, the following conditions may not be waived: (1), (3), (5), (7), (8), (9), (11), (12), (13), (15), (18), (19), (20), (26), and (27) below (each such bid, a "Qualified Bid"):

1. Written Submission of a Purchase Agreement. Each bid must be in writing and include: (i) a clean purchase agreement signed by the bidder, accompanied by all exhibits and schedules contemplated by the purchase agreement and, to the extent required by the terms and conditions of the bid, any ancillary agreements described in the purchase agreement with all exhibits and schedules thereto (each such purchase agreement, together with its exhibits, schedules, and ancillary agreements, if any, a "Modified Agreement"); (ii) a redline reflecting the bidder's proposed changes to the Stalking Horse Agreement (including all exhibits and schedules thereto). Each Modified Agreement must conform in all material respects with the form and content of the Stalking Horse Bid, and each Modified Agreement and the Stalking Horse Agreement shall be a "Purchase Agreement" for purposes of the Bidding Procedures.

2. Commitment to Close. Each bid must contain a written statement that the bidder is willing to consummate and fund the sale of the Assets proposed in the Modified Agreement within three business days after satisfaction of the conditions to closing, and in any event by the close of business on April 8, 2022 (the "Closing Deadline").

3. Commitment to Serve as Backup Bidder. Each bid must contain a written statement that the bidder will serve as the Backup Bidder (as defined below).

4. Assets to be Acquired. Each bid must identify with reasonable particularity the Assets to be purchased (the "Purchased Assets") and the Excluded Items. The bid may offer to purchase substantially all of the Assets or only a portion of the Assets; provided, however, that a bid that offers to purchase only a portion of the Assets may only be a Qualified Bid to the extent that the value of such bid, in combination with the value of other bids for the remaining Assets, exceeds the Minimum Initial Overbid Amount (as defined below) applicable to Qualified Bids for substantially all of the Assets. The Debtor may waive or modify the application of the Qualified Bid conditions in respect of bids for a portion of the Assets (other than the requirement that the value of any such Qualified Bid, in combination with the value of other bids for Assets, exceeds the Minimum Initial Overbid Amount applicable to Qualified Bids for substantially all of the Assets).

5. Assumption of All Assumed Residency Agreements and Assumed Repayable Entrance Fee Liabilities. Each bid for substantially all of the Assets must agree to assume and accept the assignment of (a) all Assumed Residency Agreements without modification and pursuant to Section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code and (b) the Assumed Repayable Entrance Fee Liabilities. Each bid for any portion of the Assets that includes Forest Hill must agree to assume and accept the assignment of (a) all Assumed Forest Hill Residency Agreements without modification and pursuant to Section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code and (b) all Assumed Forest Hill Repayable Entrance Fee Liabilities. Each bid for any portion of the Assets that includes Lake Park must agree to assume and accept the assignment of (a) all Assumed Lake Park Residency Agreements without modification and pursuant to Section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code and (b) all Assumed Lake Park Repayable Entrance Fee Liabilities.

6. Executory Contracts, Leases and Liabilities to be Assumed and Assigned. Each bid must identify with reasonable particularity the executory contracts, unexpired leases and other liabilities of the Debtor that the bidder seeks to have the Debtor assume and assign to the bidder in addition to those set forth in [5] immediately above (collectively, with the Assumed Residency Agreements and Assumed Repayable Entrance Fee Liabilities, the "Assumed Contracts").

7. Irrevocable. Each bid (including the Stalking Horse Bid) must be irrevocable until (i) if such bidder is designated as a Successful Bidder (as defined below), the Closing of the sale of the Assets to such bidder, and (ii) if such bidder is designated as a Backup Bidder, the earlier to occur of (A) five days after the closing of the transaction(s) by which all of the Assets that were subject to the Backup Bid have been transferred to one or more Qualified Bidders at the closing of a sale or sales of the Assets conducted pursuant to these Bidding Procedures or (B) the Closing Deadline.

8. Earnest Money Deposit. Each bid must be accompanied by an Earnest Money deposit paid to the Debtor by certified funds or such other form acceptable to the Debtor in the amount of at least $500,000 for each of the Facilities, which Earnest Money will be held by the Debtor to be applied or returned, as applicable, pursuant to the terms of these Bidding Procedures.

9. Minimum Initial Overbid Amount. Each Overbid must offer to the Debtor aggregate value in an amount as determined by the Debtor, in its reasonable business judgment, that is greater than or equal to the sum of (i) the value offered under the Stalking Horse Agreement, plus (ii) cash (or, in the case of the Stalking Horse Bidder, a credit bid) in the amount of $500,000 for each Facility sought to be acquired, plus (iii) cash in the amount of at least $250,000 (the "Minimum Initial Overbid Amount"), regardless of whether the Overbid is for one or both of the Facilities. Subsequent Overbids shall be in increments of at least $250,000 unless the Court orders otherwise, provided however, the Debtor in consultation with the Consultation Parties may change the minimum of such increments during the Auction.

10. Credit Bid. If any Overbids are submitted, Pacifica may credit bid $1,000,000 of the Break-Up Fee if it submits a subsequent Overbid on both Facilities. If Pacifica opts to overbid on only one of the Facilities, it may credit bid $500,000 and will waive the $500,000 remaining of the Break-Up Fee.

11. Contingencies. No bid may be conditioned on any due diligence, internal approval, financing, or regulatory or third-party approval contingencies of any kind (other than regulatory contingencies required by law or as set forth in the Stalking Horse Agreement).

12. Proof of Financial Ability to Perform. Each bid must contain written evidence, to the Debtor's reasonable satisfaction in consultation with the Consultation Parties, of a firm commitment for financing from a recognized banking institution or HCAI, as of the Bid Deadline, or other evidence of ability to consummate the sale of the Assets contemplated by the Modified Agreement, that will allow the Debtor and Consultation Parties to make a reasonable determination as to the bidder's financial and other capabilities to consummate the transactions contemplated in such bidder's Modified Agreement (taking into account the conditions and third-party beneficiary rights, if any, in any such commitment). Each bid must also contain a commitment by the bidder that, if selected as a Backup Bidder, the bidder will continue to comply with the requirements of this Paragraph II.D.12 until the earlier to occur of (a) five days after the closing of the transaction(s) by which all of the Assets that we subject to the bidder's Backup Bid have been transferred to one or more Qualified bidders at the closing of a sale or sales of the Assets conducted pursuant to the Bidding Procedures or (b) the Closing Deadline. If the purchaser will be a newly formed entity, the bid must identify, among other things, the entity or entities that will provide backstops in the form of a guarantee and/or an equity commitment letter and describe the nature of such arrangement(s). Such information must additionally include the following:

    i. contact names and numbers for verification of financing sources, if applicable;

    ii. all equity commitments and other sources of cash in the amount equal to the cash component of the offered Purchase

Price or posting of an irrevocable letter of credit issued in favor of the Debtor in such amount;

iii. a description of the Potential Bidder's pro forma capital structure;

13. Financial Statements. To the extent not previously provided, each bid must include the latest audited financial statements and unaudited financial statements of the bidder or, if the bidder is an entity formed for the purpose of acquiring the Assets, the latest audited financial statements and unaudited financial statements of the direct and indirect equity holders or sponsors of the bidder who will guarantee the obligations of the bidder, or such other form of financial disclosure and/or credit support or enhancement, if any, that will allow the Debtor to make a reasonable determination as to the bidder's financial and other capabilities to consummate the transactions contemplated in such bidder's Modified Agreement.

14. Identity of Purchaser. Each bid must, to the satisfaction of the Debtor, in consultation with the Consultation Parties, fully disclose (i) the identity of each person or entity that will be bidding for the Assets or otherwise participating in connection with such bid, (ii) the terms of any such participation, (iii) if any entity has been formed for the purpose of acquiring some, or all, of the Assets, the parties that will bear liability for any breach by such person or entity, and the financial capacity of such parties to satisfy such liability, and (iv) any connections between (x) the bidding party and its affiliates and related persons and (y) the Debtor and their primary creditors as identified by the Debtor.

15. Purchaser's Experience. Each bid must, to the satisfaction of the Debtor in consultation with the Consultation Parties, describe the experience of the bidder with respect to the ownership and management of senior living facilities in general and continuing care communities in particular in California and elsewhere; provided however, that a bidder need not have prior California experience for its bid to be a Qualified Bid.

16. Bidder's Business Plans. Each bid must contain detail regarding the planned operations and management of the Assets after the Closing and information explaining the bidder's ability to obtain necessary regulatory approvals, including any necessary licenses, to purchase and operate the Assets.

17. No Fees or Commissions. No bid (other than the Stalking Horse Bid) may (i) request or entitle the bidder to any break-up fee, expense reimbursement fee, or similar type of payment, or (ii) obligate the Debtor to pay commissions, fees, or expenses to any agent or broker. Further, by submitting a bid, a bidder shall be deemed to waive its right to pursue a substantial contribution claim under section 503 of the Bankruptcy Code or in any way related to the submission of its bid or the Bidding Procedures.

18. As Is, Where Is. As set forth in the Stalking Horse Agreement, a bidder shall state in such bidder's Purchase Agreement that: "Except with respect to (i) Seller's covenants, representations, and warranties expressly set forth in this Agreement and (ii) any loss, damage, injury, liability, claim, expense or demand directly arising out of this Agreement, bidder acknowledges and agrees that bidder is purchasing the Premises in its 'as-is, where is, with all faults' condition as of the Closing."

19. Adequate Assurance. Each bid must include evidence of the bidder's ability to comply with section 365 and/or section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code (to the extent applicable), including providing adequate assurance of such bidder's ability to perform in the future under the Assumed Residency Agreements and all other executory contracts and unexpired leases proposed in its bid to be assumed by the Debtor and assigned to such bidder, in a form that will permit the immediate dissemination of such evidence to the counterparties to such contracts and leases and must consent to the filing of such information with the Court.

20. Corporate Authority. Each bid must include evidence of authorization and approval from the bidder's board of directors (or comparable governing body) with respect to the submission of the bid and the consummation of the transactions contemplated in such bidder's Purchase Agreement.

21. Employees. Each bid must contain a detailed description of how the Qualified Bidder intends to treat current employees of the Debtor and liabilities that may be owed by the Debtor to or for the benefit of current and past employees of the Debtor.

22. Privacy Policies. Each bid must provide to the Debtor's satisfaction that the bidder will adhere to the Debtor's prepetition privacy policies regarding personally identifiable information, except as may be modified pursuant to applicable user terms and applicable law.

23. Access to Books and Records. Each bid must contain provisions allowing the Debtor reasonable access to the Debtor's books and records for the administration of its bankruptcy case if the bid provides for the purchase of such books and records

24. Consent to Jurisdiction: Each Potential Bidder must submit to the jurisdiction of the Court to enter final orders and judgments which in any way related to the Debtor, the Bid Procedures, the Auction, any Modified Agreement, or the construction and enforcement of all agreements, orders and pleadings which in any way relate to the Assets, Sale, Closing, Debtor, Bid Procedures and/or Auction.

25. Disclosure of Connections: Fully disclose any connections or agreements with the Debtor and/or any officer or director of the Debtor. Each Bid must be irrevocable through the entry of the Sale Order; provided, however, that a bid accepted as the Successful Bid or the Backup Bid (as each are defined below) shall remain irrevocable as set forth below.

26. Representations and Warranties: All bids must include the following representations and warranties:

a statement that the Potential Bidder has had an opportunity to conduct all due diligence regarding the Assets prior to submitting its Bid;

a statement that the Potential Bidder has relied solely upon its own independent review, investigation, and/or inspection of the Assets and all information related to the Assets in making its bid, and did not rely on any written or oral statements, representations, promises, warranties, or guaranties whatsoever, whether express or implied, by operation of law or otherwise, regarding the Assets or the completeness of any information provided in connection therewith;

a statement that the Potential Bidder agrees to serve as Back-Up Bidder, if its bid is selected as the next highest or next best bid after the Successful Bid with respect to the applicable Assets;

a statement that the Potential Bidder has not engaged in any collusion with respect to the submission of its bid;

a statement that all proof of financial ability to consummate a Sale in a timely manner and all information provided to support adequate assurance of future performance is true and correct; and a statement that the Bidder agrees to be bound by the terms of the Bid Procedures and any order approving a Sale.

27. Format. All documentation for each bid must be provided in electronic form.

Qualified Bidder. A "Qualified Bidder" is a Bidder that (i) submits a Qualified Bid by the Bid Deadline to the Debtor and each of the Consultation Parties (at the email addresses set forth on Schedule 1 to this Motion), and (ii) the Debtor determines, in the exercise of its business judgment and in consultation with the Consultation Parties, is reasonably likely (based on financial information submitted by the bidder, its pertinent experience and plans, and other considerations) to consummate the sale of the Assets if selected as a Successful Bidder or a Backup Bidder. As noted above, the Stalking Horse Bidder is deemed to be a Qualified Bidder. As promptly as practicable after the Bid Deadline (but in any event not less than one business day before the commencement of the Auction), the Debtor will notify (a) each bidder that submits a bid whether such bidder is a Qualified Bidder, and (b) the Stalking Horse Bidder and all other Qualified Bidders, if any, whether or not any bids (other than the Stalking Horse Agreement) constitute Qualified Bids and identify the Qualified Bidders, including the Stalking Horse Bidder, making any such Qualified Bids.

Auction. The Debtor will conduct an auction (the "Auction") to determine the Successful Bidder(s).

Auction Time and Location. The Auction shall take place on January 24, 2022 at 9:00 a.m. (prevailing Pacific Time) by Zoom or similar virtual process. The Auction may be adjourned from time to time by the Debtor with the agreement of the Consultation Parties or order of this Court in which event notice of such adjournment and the time and place for the resumption of the Auction will be filed with this Court and served promptly on (i) Qualified Bidders; (ii) Consultation Parties, (iii) any other parties who have provided written notice to Debtor's counsel no later than two days prior to the Auction of their intent to attend the Auction; and (iv) all other parties in interest who have requested notice pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002 prior to the continued date and time of the Auction.

Participation at the Auction. Qualified Bidders shall virtually attend the Auction in person (via Zoom) or through a duly-authorized representative. Only the Stalking Horse Bidder and any other Qualified Bidder(s) (or their duly-authorized representatives) (collectively, the "Bidder Participants") are eligible to submit bids at the Auction. While only the Bidder Participants may submit bids at the Auction, the authorized representatives and respective counsel and advisors of each of the Qualified Bidder(s) (regardless of whether such representatives, counsel and advisors are serving as Bidder Participants), the Debtor, the United States Trustee, and the Consultation Parties[6] and any of the Debtor's creditors who notify the Debtor in writing no later than two days prior to the Auction of such creditors' intent to attend the Auction by contacting the Debtor's counsel, Neal L. Wolf, at nwolf@hansonbridgett.com, shall be permitted to attend the Auction; provided, however, that the Debtor may exclude parties whom the Debtor deems to be detrimental to the sale process other than any Consultation Parties. Each Qualified Bidder participating in the Auction (including any Qualified Bidder participating through a duly-authorized representative) will be required to confirm on the record that it has not engaged in any collusion regarding the Bidding Procedures, the Auction, or the sale of the Assets.

[6] If any Consultation Party seeks to be a Qualified Bidder, it shall cease being a Consultation Party until such time as it determines it will not bid on any of the Assets.

E. Auction Procedures.

If no Qualified Bids (other than the Stalking Horse Bid) are received by the Bid Deadline, the Auction will not be held and the Debtor will file a notice with the Court indicating that no Auction will be held within one business day after the Bid Deadline. If the Debtor receives one or more Qualified Bids (in addition to the Stalking Horse Bid) by the Bid Deadline, the Debtor will conduct an Auction for the Assets using the following Auction Procedures.

1. Opening Bid. At least one business day in advance of the Auction, the Debtor will notify each Qualified Bidder of the highest or otherwise best Qualified Bid or Qualified Bid(s), as determined by the Debtor (the "Opening Bid") and will provide copies of the applicable Purchase Agreement for such Opening Bid to each Qualified Bidder. The determination of which Qualified Bid constitutes the Opening Bid shall be determined after consultation with the Consultation Parties and take into account any factors the Debtor deems relevant to the value of the Qualified Bid to the estate, including, among other things, the following: (i) that the Bid satisfies the requirements to be a Qualified Bid as described above (and if a Bid does not do so, it will not be further considered); (ii) the amount and nature of the consideration offered; (iii) the proposed assumption of any liabilities in addition to those which must be assumed to be a Qualified Bid; (iv) the ability of the Qualified Bidder to close the proposed transaction on or before the Closing Deadline; (v) any Purchase Price adjustments; (vi) the impact of the contemplated transaction on any actual or potential litigation; (vii) the net economic effect of any changes from the Stalking Horse Agreement, if any; (viii) the net value to be received by the Debtor's estate including consideration of any amounts required to be paid to the Stalking Horse Bidder; (ix) the bidder's pertinent management and operations experience, and (x) such other considerations the Debtor and Consultation Parties deems relevant.

2. Debtor Shall Conduct the Auction. The Debtor's professionals shall direct and preside over the Auction on behalf of the Debtor via Zoom. At the start of the Auction, Debtor's counsel shall describe the terms of the Opening Bid. The Auction shall be transcribed by a court reporter. The Debtor shall maintain a written transcript of all bids made and announced at the Auction, including the Opening Bid, all applicable Overbids, and the Successful Bid.

3. Terms of Overbid. An "Overbid" is any bid made at the Auction subsequent to the announcement of the Opening Bid. To submit an

Overbid for purposes of the Auction, a Qualified Bidder must comply with the following conditions:

i. Minimum Overbid Increment and Deadline. After the Opening Bid is announced, all subsequent Overbids, if any, shall provide for total consideration to the Debtor (net of the amount for any Break-Up Fee) with a value that exceeds the value of the consideration under the Opening Bid by an incremental amount that is not less than $250,000 (the "Minimum Overbid Increment"), unless otherwise announced at the Auction, consistent with the terms of these Bidding Procedures. For all Qualified Bids, the Minimum Overbid Increment for each Overbid round must be made in cash.

ii. Conclusion of Each Overbid Round. Upon the solicitation of each round of applicable Overbids, the Debtor may announce a deadline (the "Overbid Round Deadline") by which time any Overbids must be submitted to the Debtor and Consultation Parties.

iii. Announcing Highest or Otherwise Best Bid. Subject to each Overbid Round Deadline, the Debtor shall announce whether it, in consultation with the Consultation Parties, has identified in the applicable Overbid round, one or more Overbids as being higher or otherwise better than the Initial Minimum Overbid for such asset package, or in subsequent rounds, the Overbid(s) previously designated as the prevailing highest or otherwise best bid for a given asset package (for each asset package, collectively, the "Prevailing Highest Bid"). After each round of bidding, including the initial round, the Debtor shall disclose to all Qualified Bidders the material terms of any Overbid(s) designated as the Prevailing Highest Bid, as well as the value attributed to such Prevailing Highest Bid.

iv. Bids for Less than Substantially All Assets. The Debtor may, in consultation with the Consultation Parties, consider and accept bids for any portion of the Assets, as well as bids for substantially all of the Assets, and hold separate Auctions for portions of the Assets; provided, however, that the Debtor, in consultation with the Consultation Parties may consider and accept bids for less than substantially all of the Assets only so long as the value of such bids, in combination, constitute an Overbid, taking into consideration that if there are no accepted Overbids on the Lake Park Assets alone, the Stalking Horse Agreement provides that Pacifica shall purchase all Assets subject to the terms of the Stalking Horse Agreement and, in such circumstances, the Debtor shall seek Court approval to sell all Assets to the Stalking Horse Bidder at the Sale Hearing. There must be one or more buyers for all Assets at the completion of the Auction. The Debtor will not sell or seek Court authority to sell only one of the two Facilities.

4. Consideration of Overbids. The Debtor reserves the right, in its reasonable business judgment after consultation with the Consultation Parties, to adjourn the Auction one or more times to, among other things: (A) facilitate discussions between the Debtor and Qualified Bidders; (B) allow Qualified Bidders to consider how they wish to proceed; (C) consider and determine the current Prevailing Highest Bid at any given time during the Auction; and (D) give any Qualified Bidder the opportunity to provide the Debtor with such additional evidence as the Debtor, in its reasonable business judgment, may require that the Qualified Bidder (other than Stalking Horse Bidder) has sufficient internal resources, or has received sufficient debt and/or equity funding commitments, to consummate the proposed transaction at the prevailing Overbid amount.

F. Closing the Auction.

1. The Auction shall continue until there is only one offer (which may consist of one Qualified Bid for substantially all of the Assets or more than one Qualified Bid for complementary portions of the Assets) that the Debtor determines, in the exercise of its business judgment and after consultation with the Consultation Parties, to be the highest or otherwise best offer for the Assets (one or more such Qualified Bids, the "Successful Bid," and the Qualified Bidder or Qualified Bidders making such Successful Bid, the "Successful Bidder").

2. After determining the Successful Bid and the Successful Bidder, the Debtor will also determine, in its business judgment and after consultation with the Consultation Parties, the Qualified Bidders(s) with the next highest or otherwise best bid(s) for the Assets (the "Backup Bid," andthe Qualified Bidder(s) making such Backup Bid, the "Backup Bidder"), at which point the Auction will be closed.

3. The Debtor shall not consider any bids or Overbids submitted afterthe closing of the Auction, and any such bids or Overbids shall be deemed untimely and shall not constitute Qualified Bids. The determination of the Successful Bid and Backup Bid at the closing of the Auction shall be final, subject only to approval by this Court.

4. After the conclusion of the Auction, the Debtor shall ask that the Court declare the Successful Bidder and Backup Bidder and approve the sale. The Debtor shall thereafter file with this Court and serve upon all Qualified Bidders and parties that have requested notice inthis case a notice identifying the Successful Bidder and the Backup Bidder.

5. As promptly as practicable following the conclusion of the Auction, (i) the Successful Bidder will transfer via wire transfer of immediately available funds or such other form acceptable to the Debtor the amount of its Successful Bid net of its Earnest Money Deposit and Independent Consideration if applicable; and (ii) the Debtor shall cause the Purchase Agreements for the Successful Bidder and the Backup Bidder to be filed with this Court.

6. Following the approval of the sale of the Assets to the Successful Bidder, if such Successful Bidder (i) fails to consummate a sale of the Assets by the Closing Deadline, (ii) breaches such Successful Bidder's Purchase Agreement, or (iii) otherwise fails to perform, the Debtor shall be authorized, but not required, to deem the Backup Bid(s) the Successful Bid(s) and the Debtor shall be authorized, but not required, to consummate thesale with the Qualified Bidder(s) submitting such Backup Bid(s) without further notice or orders of the Court. In the event that thereare multiple Successful Bidders and/or Backup Bidders and only one of such Successful Bidders or Backup Bidders engages in the acts or omissions described in clauses (i) through (iii) of the foregoing sentence, the Debtor may elect to close the contemplated transactions with some or all of the other Successful Bidders or Backup Bidders, as applicable.

7. Nothing in these bid procedures will prevent the Debtor from exercising its fiduciary duties under applicable law.

III. PROPOSED NOTICE AND PROCEDURES FOR THE POTENTIAL ASSIGNMENT AND ASSUMPTION OF EXECUTORY CONTRACTS AND UNEXPIRED LEASES

The Debtor also requests approval of the notice of potential assumption and assignment of certain of the Debtor's executory contracts and unexpired leases pursuant to the terms set forth below ("Assumption and Assignment Procedures").

Notice to Residents of Assumed Repayable Entrance Fee Liabilities and Assumption and Assignment of Residency Agreements: On or before January 5, 2022, the Debtor shall provide (a) to each Resident whose respective portion of the Assumed Repayable Entrance Fee Liabilities, calculated as of December 31, 2021, is greater than zero individual notice of the amount of such Resident's respective portion of the Assumed Repayable Entrance Fee Liabilities (each an "Entrance Fee Amount") and (b) individual notice to each current Resident (i) alerting such Resident that the Debtor has sought to assume and assign that Resident's Residency Agreement to the Successful Bidder, (ii) providing the additional cure amount ("Resident Cure Amount"), if any, for assuming that Resident's Residency Agreement, and (iii) providing notification of the Resident's right to seek adequate assurance of future performance as contemplated in Section 365(f)(2)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code ("Resident Notice"). Any Resident that objects to the amount of the Entrance Fee Amount or Resident Cure Amount set forth in its Resident Notice must file an objection thereto by January19, 2022 and serve it on the Notice Parties (listed below) and otherwise in accordance with applicable rules ("Service Requirements").

If a Resident does not timely object to a Resident Notice, it will be barred from objection to its Entrance Fee Amount, Resident Cure Amount, or assumption and assignment of its Residency Agreement, other than based on a lack of adequate assurance of future performance. If an objection to an Entrance Fee Amount or Resident Cure Amount is timely filed and is not resolved prior to the Sale Hearing, it will be resolved at the Sale Hearing.

After the conclusion of the Auction, the Debtor shall file with the Court and serve on each current Resident a notice ("Assumption and Assignment Notice") identifying the Successful Bidder, identifying the executory contracts, unexpired leases and other liabilities of the Debtor that the Successful Bidder seeks to have the Debtor assume and assign to the Successful Bidder ("Assumed Agreements"), and providing the Successful Bidder's assurance of future performance of the Assumed Agreements, as applicable. Any Resident that objects to the adequacy of the assurance of future performance of his, her, or their respective Residency Agreement must file an objection with the Court ("Resident Assurance Objection") and serve it in accordance with the Service Requirements prior to the Sale Hearing. If a Resident does not timely file and serve a Resident Assurance Objection, such Resident will be barred from objecting to the adequacy of the assurance of future performance and assignment of his, her, or their Residency Agreement to the Successful Bidder.

Notice of Cure Amounts for Executory Contracts Other than Assumed Residency Agreements: On or before January 9, 2022, the Debtor will file with the Court and serve a notice to contract counterparties under executory contracts and unexpired leases which are not Assumed Residency Agreements (collectively "Non-Resident Contract Counterparties"), setting forth the Debtor's calculation of each Non-Resident Contract Counterparty's cure amount, if any, that would be owed if the Debtor determines to seek to assume and assign its executory contract or unexpired lease, and alerting such Non-Resident Contract Counterparty that its agreement may be assumed and assigned to the Successful Bidder ("Cure Notice"). Any Non-Resident Contract Counterparty that objects to the cure amount set forth in the Cure Notice must file an objection on or before January 19, 2022 and serve in accordance with the Service Requirements. The Debtor's service of a Cure Notice on any party shall not constitute or be deemed a determination or admission by the Debtor and its estate or any other party in interest that such contract, lease, or other agreement is, in fact, an executory contract or unexpired lease within the meaning of the Bankruptcy Code or that the Debtor will assume and assign any particular contract, lease, or other agreement.

If a Non-Resident Contract Counterparty does not timely object to a Cure Notice, it will be barred from objecting to the Debtor's designated cure amount and assumption and assignment of its executory contract or unexpired lease with the Debtor other than based on a lack of adequate assurance of future performance. If an objection to a Cure Notice is timely filed and is not resolved prior to the Sale Hearing, it will be resolved at the Sale Hearing.

Notice on the Non-Resident Contract Counterparties. After the conclusion of the Auction, the Debtor shall serve the Assumption and Assignment Notice on the Non-Resident Contract Counterparties. Any Non-Resident Contract Counterparty that objects to the adequacy of the assurance of future performance must file an objection with the Court ("Non-Resident Assurance Objection") and serve it in accordance with the Service Requirements prior to the Sale Hearing. If a Non-Resident Contract Counterparty does not file and serve a Non-Resident Assurance Objection prior to the Sale Hearing, such party will be forever barred from objecting to the adequacy of the assurance of future performance and assignment of its executory contract or unexpired lease to the Successful Bidder. The inclusion of a contract, lease, or other agreement on an Assumption and Assignment Notice shall not constitute or be deemed a determination or admission by the Debtor and its estate or any other party in interest that such contract, lease, or other agreement is, in fact, an executory contract or unexpired lease within the meaning of the Bankruptcy Code or that the Debtor will assume and assign any particular contract, lease, or other agreement.

In the event the Debtor seeks to close a sale to the Backup Bidder, the Debtor shall provide prompt written notice thereof to all recipients of Resident Notices and Cure Notices, which parties shall have three business days to object in accordance with the Service Requirements, solely on the basis of any changed circumstances since the date of the Sale Hearing.

The Debtor and its advisors will continue to regularly and timely consult with the Consultation Parties and their advisors about the sale process, inquiries and information the Debtor and its advisors receive from potential bidders and confer with the Consultation Parties about responses thereto, except to the extent any Consultation Party seeks to become or becomes a Qualified Bidder.

The Debtor agrees to promptly provide copies of all Bids (if not simultaneously delivered to any Consultation Party) and all expressions or indication of interest the Debtor receives for some or all Assets to the Consultation Parties, but in no event later than one calendar day after receipt by the Debtor thereof.

VI. BASIS FOR RELIEF REQUESTED

A. Sufficient Business Justification Exists for Consummation of a Sale under Sections 105(a), 363(b), and/or 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code

Pursuant to section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, a "[c]ourt may issue any order, process, or judgment that is necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this title." Section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that a debtor, "after notice and a hearing, may use, sell, or lease, other than in the ordinary course of business, property of the estate." Although section 363(b) does not specify a standard for determining when it is appropriate for a court to authorize the use, sale, or lease of property of the estate, courts have required that such use, sale, or lease be based upon the sound business judgment of the debtor. See Walter v. Sunwest Bank (In re Walter), 83 B.R. 14, 19 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 1988) ("[T]here must be some articulated business justification for using, selling, or leasing the property outside the ordinary course of business.") (internal citations omitted).

In determining whether the debtor has complied with the sound business judgment rule, the Court must consider whether: (a) there has been "[a]ny improper or bad motive," (b) "[t]he price is fair and the negotiations or bidding has occurred at arm's length" and (c) the sale followed "[a]dequate procedures, including proper exposure to the market and accurate and reasonable notice to all parties in interest." In re Castre, 312 B.R. 426, 428 (Bankr. D. Colo. 2004). When applying the rule, "the bankruptcy court should presume that the debtor-in-possession acted prudently, on an informed basis, in good faith, and in the honest belief that the action taken was in the best interests of the bankruptcy estate." Agarwal v. Pomona Valley Med. Group, Inc. (In re Pomona Valley Med. Group, Inc.), 476 F.3d 665, 670 (9th Cir. 2007). In the context of this rule, courts often approve overbid procedures. See, e.g., In re Crown Corp., 679 F.2d 774, 777 (9th Cir. 1982) (discussing the overbid procedures approved by the bankruptcy court).

Additionally, the Debtor believes that the presence of the Stalking Horse Bidder will not chill competitive bidding. To the contrary, the Debtor believes that the presence of the Stalking Horse Bidder combined with a fair and open process will increase interest and drive the value of the Assets for the stakeholders. In consideration for acting as the Stalking Horse Bidder, and in consideration of the extensive time and diligence costs incurred and to be incurred in negotiating and preparing the Stalking Horse Agreement and any ancillary agreements, the Debtor requests that the Court approve the Break-Up Fee.

Break-up fees are a normal and, in many cases, necessary component of significant sales conducted under section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code. "Break-up fees are important tools to encourage bidding and to maximize the value of the debtor's assets. . . . In fact, because the directors of a corporation have a duty to encourage bidding, break-up fees can be necessary to discharge [such] duties to maximize value." In re Integrated Resources, 147 B.R. 650, 659–60 (S.D.N.Y. 1992) (emphasis in original). Specifically, "[b]reak-up fees and other strategies may be legitimately necessary to convince a 'white knight' bidder to enter the bidding by providing some form of compensation for the risks it is undertaking." In re 995 Fifth Ave. Assocs., L.P., 96 B.R. 24, 28 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1989) (quotations omitted); Integrated Resources, 147 B.R. at 660–61 (breakup fees can prompt bidders to commence negotiations and "ensure that a bidder does not retract its bid"); In re Hupp Industries, Inc., 140 B.R. 191, 194 (Bankr. N.D. Ohio 1992) ("[W]ithout such fees, bidders would be reluctant to make an initial bid for fear that their first bid will be shopped around for a higher bid from another bidder who would capitalize on the initial bidder's . . . due diligence.").

Break-up fees are proper and necessary tools to ensure lively bidding, protect the auction process, and avoid potential litigation. See In re Texas Rangers Baseball Partners, 431 B.R. 706, 715 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. 2010) (finding that a break-up fee was "provided as an alternative to litigation" and that "[a]voidance of litigation and the inherent benefits of having a stalking horse . . . justify a breakup fee in this case"). As a consequence, bankruptcy courts frequently approve break-up fees in connection with proposed bankruptcy sales. In the process, courts generally consider "(1) whether the relationship of the parties who negotiated the fee is marked by self-dealing or manipulation; (2) whether the fee hampers, rather than encourages, bidding; and (3) whether the amount of the fee is reasonable in relation to the proposed purchase price." In re Twenver, Inc., 149 B.R. 954, 956 (Bankr. D. Colo. 1992); In re Bidermann Industries US.A., Inc., 203 B.R. 547, 552 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1997).

The Debtor believes that the proposed Break-Up Fee is reasonable and appropriate in this Case for, among others, the following reasons: (a) the Break-Up Fee is well within the range approved by bankruptcy courts in similar circumstances; (b) the Break-Up Fee would be paid by any successful higher bidder at the Auction through the initial Overbid at the time of Closing, as opposed to being paid directly by the estate; (c) there is no self-dealing or manipulation, but rather arm's-length negotiations; and (d) the dollar amount of the Stalking Horse Bid sets a floor price—not a ceiling—for the sale of the Assets, which will ensure that the estate preserves, and hopefully maximizes, the value of the Assets.

As additional support, as mentioned above, section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that the Court "may issue any order, process or judgment that is necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this title."

The Debtor has marketed the Assets post-petition. The open and fair sale process contemplated by the Bidding Procedures will ensure that the Debtor's estate receives the highest or otherwise best value available for the Assets by allowing the market to determine the value of such Assets. Furthermore, compliance with the Bidding Procedures will ensure the fairness and reasonableness of the consideration to be paid by the Stalking Horse Bidder (or other Successful Bidder or Backup Bidder), and establish that the Debtor and such bidder have proceeded in good faith. Depending on the results of the Auction, a sale conducted in accordance with the Bidding Procedures may represent the best path forward for maximizing recoveries to the Debtor's estate, the Debtor's creditors, and all parties in interest, given both the open nature of the proposed process and the Debtor's need to move forward with a transaction and conclude this Chapter 11 Case as soon as possible, as outlined herein and in the Nerger Declaration. The Debtor submits that ample business justification exists for conducting the Auction in accordance with the Bidding Procedures and, therefore, requests that the Court grant the requested relief herein, including (i) approval of the Bidding Procedures; (ii) authorization for the Debtor to enter into the Stalking Horse Agreement on an interim basis for purposes of the Auction; and (iii) approval of the protections afforded the Stalking Horse Bidder by the Break-Up Fee.

B. The Court Should Approve the Bidding Procedures

The key objective in any sale of property of a debtor's estate is to maximize the value received by the estate. Here, the Debtor has designed the Bidding Procedures to promote a competitive and fair bidding process and, thus, to maximize value for the Debtor's estate and creditors. The Bidding Procedures will allow the Debtor to conduct any sale in a controlled, fair, and open fashion that will encourage participation by financially capable bidders, thereby increasing the likelihood that the Debtor will receive the highest or otherwise best possible consideration for the Assets. The Bidding Procedures provide an appropriate framework for the Debtor to review, analyze, and compare any bids received and ultimately determine which bids are in the best interests of the Debtor's estate and creditors in a fair and objective manner. The Debtor submits that the Bidding Procedures strike an appropriate balance between expediency, on the one hand, and fairness and transparency, on the other. As such, an Auction conducted in accordance with the Bidding Procedures will encourage bidding and derive the highest or otherwise best bids for the Assets with minimal risk of delay-related value destruction.

Therefore, the Debtor requests that the Court approve the Bidding Procedures, including, without limitation, the timing proposed therein for the Auction and the Sale Hearing, the Stalking Horse Bidder, and the Break-Up Fee.

C. The Assumption and Assignment Notice and Proposed Procedures Therein Comport with Section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 2002

Section 365(a) of the Bankruptcy Code provides, in pertinent part, that a debtor in possession, "subject to the court's approval, may assume or reject any executory contract or unexpired lease of the debtor." In the Ninth Circuit, courts apply the business judgement standard to determine whether or not to authorize the assumption of a contract or an unexpired lease and need only "engage in a cursory review" of the debtor-in-possession's decision. Pomona Valley Med. Group, 476 F.3d at 670.

Here, the Debtor has exercised its sound business judgment in determining that assumption and assignment of the certain executory contracts in connection with a sale may be in the best interests of the Debtor and its estate and, accordingly, the Court should approve the procedures governing the potential assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts under section 365(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, as set forth on the Assumption and Assignment Procedures.

As set forth above, the Debtor believes that a sale may yield the maximum value for the Debtor's estate. To that end, the assumption, assignment, and sale of the Assumed Contracts will be necessary for the Debtor to obtain the benefits of the Stalking Horse Agreement or any topping purchase agreement. In addition, under section 365(k) of the Bankruptcy Code, a debtor's assignment of a contract or lease "relieves the trustee and the estate from any liability for any breach of such contract or lease occurring after such assignment." Thus, following an assignment to the Successful Bidder of any Assumed Contracts, the Debtor will be relieved from any liability for any subsequent breach associated therewith, providing additional value to the Debtor's estate.

Moreover, as set forth above and in the Bidding Procedures, for a bid to qualify as a Qualified Bid, a Qualifying Bidder must include evidence supporting its ability to comply with the requirements of adequate assurance of future performance under section 365(f)(2)(B) and, if applicable, section 365(b)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code. Appropriate procedures to comply with these requirements is contained in the Assumption and Assignment Procedures.

The Debtor submits that the procedures set forth in the Assumption and Assignment Procedures are in the best interest of the Debtor's estate, and, as such, should be approved. The Debtor further submits that the proposed notice procedures fully comply with Bankruptcy Rule 2002 and are reasonably calculated to provide timely and adequate notice of the relief sought through this Motion.

The Debtor reserves all of its rights under the Bankruptcy Code.

VII. NOTICE

The Debtor will serve notice of the hearing on this Motion by email, facsimile, or overnight courier to: (i) the Office of the United States Trustee; (ii) counsel to the Committee; (iii) the California Health Facilities Financing Authority; (iv) HCAI; (v) Wilmington; (vi) Pacifica; (vii) all other entities that submitted a letter of intent in connection with the Sale Process; (viii) SEIU National Industry Pension Fund; (ix) B.H. IX. CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, the Debtor respectfully requests entry of the Order, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A, granting the relief requested herein and granting such other relief as is just and proper.

Indemnification.

15.1 Seller's Indemnity. Seller shall and does hereby indemnify, defend and hold Buyer and its managers, members, affiliates, agents and/or employees (each, a "Buyer Party", and collectively, the "Buyer Parties") harmless from and against any and all loss, cost, damage, claim, judgment, liability or expense, including court costs and reasonable actual attorneys' fees (individually a "Loss," and collectively "Losses") which may be asserted against or incurred or suffered by Buyer or the Buyer Parties from time to time by reason of or in connection with (i) any personal injury (including death) or property damage or claim of personal injury or property damage, made by Residents or by Seller's employees, contractors or invitees (unless caused by Buyer), occurring during Seller's ownership of the Assets before Closing; (ii) any material inaccuracy of any representation or warranty of Seller in this Agreement; or (iii) the non-fulfillment of any material covenant, undertaking, agreement or other obligation of Seller under this Agreement.

15.2 Buyer's Indemnity. Buyer shall and does hereby indemnify, defend and hold Seller and any partner (general or limited) of Seller and any current, former, and future trustee, officer, manager, member, partner, and employee (each, a "Seller Party", and collectively, the "Seller Parties") harmless from and against any and all Losses, which may be asserted against or incurred or suffered by Seller or Seller Parties from time to time by reason of or in connection with (i) any personal injury (including death) or property damage or claim of personal injury or property damage, made by Residents or by Buyer's employees, contractors or invitees (unless caused by Seller), occurring during Buyer's ownership of the Assets on or after the Closing; (ii) any material inaccuracy of any representation or warranty of Buyer in this Agreement; or (iii) the non-fulfillment of any material covenant, undertaking, agreement or other obligation of Buyer under this Agreement.

15.3 Survival. Except as otherwise provided herein, the several representations and warranties of the parties contained in this Agreement and a party's right to indemnity in accordance with this Section 15. shall survive the Closing Date and shall remain in full force and effect thereafter for a period of one (1) year after the Closing Date and shall be effective with respect to any material inaccuracy therein or breach thereof, notice of which shall have been duly given within such one (1) year period in accordance with Section 15.4 hereof after which one (1) year period they shall terminate and be of no further force or effect.

15.4 Indemnification Procedure. After the incurrence of any Loss by any Buyer Party or any Seller Party, which might give rise to indemnification hereunder, the party seeking indemnification (the "Indemnitee") shall deliver to the party from which indemnification is sought (the "Indemnitor") written notice of such Loss within fifteen (15) days of Indemnitee's becoming aware thereof; provided, however, that delay or failure to so notify the Indemnitor shall only relieve the Indemnitor of its obligations to the extent, if at all, that it is prejudiced by reasons of such delay or failure. The Indemnitor shall have a period of thirty (30) days within which to respond thereto. If the Indemnitor accepts responsibility within such thirty (30)-day period, the Indemnitor shall be obligated to compromise or defend such matter, at its own expense and through counsel reasonably satisfactory to the Indemnitee. If the Indemnitor does respond within such 30-day period and rejects responsibility for such matter in whole or in part, or does not respond, the Indemnitee shall be free to pursue, without prejudice to any of its rights hereunder, such remedies as may be available to the Indemnitee under applicable law at the Indemnitor's expense (subject, for the avoidance of doubt, to the limits set forth in this Article 14). The Indemnitee agrees to cooperate fully with the Indemnitor and its counsel in the defense against any such asserted liability. In any event, the Indemnitee shall have the right to participate in a non-controlling manner and at its own expense in the defense of such asserted liability. Any compromise of such asserted liability by the Indemnitor shall require the prior written consent of the Indemnitee and until such consent is obtained the Indemnitor shall continue the defense of such asserted liability. If, however, the Indemnitee refuses its consent to a bona fide offer of settlement containing a complete release of the Indemnitee from all liability in connection with the underlying claim that the Indemnitor wishes to accept, the Indemnitee may continue to pursue such matter, free of any participation by the Indemnitor, at the sole expense of the Indemnitee. In such event, the obligation of the Indemnitor to the Indemnitee shall be equal to the lesser of (i) the amount of the offer of settlement which the Indemnitee refused to accept plus the costs and expenses of the Indemnitee prior to the date the Indemnitor notifies the Indemnitee of the offer of settlement; or (ii) the actual out-of-pocket amount the Indemnitee is obligated to pay as a result of the Indemnitee's continuing to pursue such matter. The Indemnitor shall be entitled to recover from the Indemnitee any additional expenses incurred by the Indemnitor as a result of the decision of the Indemnitee to pursue such matter. So long as the Indemnitor is reasonably contesting any such claim in good faith, the Indemnitee shall not pay or settle such claim without the Indemnitor's prior written consent; provided that the Indemnitee may pay or settle such claim if it waives its right to indemnity therefor from the Indemnitor.

15.5 Reduction for Insurance. The amount which the Indemnitor is required to pay to, for, or on behalf of the Indemnitee pursuant to this Article 14 shall be reduced (including, without limitation, retroactively) by any insurance proceeds actually recovered by or on behalf of the Indemnitee in reduction of the related indemnifiable loss (the "Indemnifiable Loss"). Amounts required to be paid, as so reduced, are hereinafter sometimes called an "Indemnity Payment." If the Indemnitee shall have received, or if the Indemnitor shall have paid on its behalf, an Indemnity Payment in respect of an Indemnifiable Loss and shall subsequently receive, directly or indirectly, insurance proceeds (which duplicate in whole or in part, the Indemnity Payment) in respect of such Indemnifiable Loss, then the Indemnitee shall promptly pay to the Indemnitor the amount of such insurance proceeds, or, if less, the amount of the Indemnity Payment. The parties hereto agree that the foregoing shall not affect the subrogation rights of any insurance companies making payments hereunder.

15.6 Limitations of Remedies.

(b) Notwithstanding anything in this Section 15. to contrary, no person shall be entitled to indemnification hereunder if it can be established by clear and convincing evidence that such person had knowledge on or prior to the Closing Date of the failure of any representation or warranty, or the breach of any covenant or agreement or the existence of any fact, event or circumstance, which may serve as the basis for bringing a claim for indemnification hereunder.

Conduct of Business Pending Closing.

16.1 Ordinary Course of Business. Beginning on the Effective Date and continuing through the Closing Date; (i) Seller shall make no material change in the operation of the Facilities nor enter into any material contract other than in the ordinary course of business nor incur any material liability without the prior written consent of Buyer, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned, or delayed, and Seller shall make good faith efforts to ensure that the goodwill and operations of the Facilities and the relationships with Residents and employees are preserved in the ordinary course of business; (ii) Seller shall perform all maintenance and repairs necessary to keep the Facilities and Assets in good operating condition and repair, and shall not sell or remove any Inventory or any Fixtures, Furniture and Equipment except in the ordinary course of business; and (iii) Seller shall not, without the prior written consent of Buyer:

(a) enter into any material contract, agreement, lease or other commitment with a duration of more than 12 months or involving the expenditure of more than fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) with respect to the Facilities, except contracts to purchase operating supplies or services in the ordinary course of business;

(b) make any change in key personnel at the Facilities, including the executive director or other department heads; or

(c) enter into any employment arrangement, agreement or undertaking, or pay or promise to pay any fringe benefit, bonus or special compensation to employees, except "stay for pay" arrangements and filling vacated positions as needed.

16.2 Compensation. Except in the ordinary course of business and consistent with past practices, Seller shall not increase, except for annual cost of living, or promise any increase with respect to any salary or other form of compensation payable or to become payable to any of employees, and will not pay any bonus or make any other severance or retirement arrangement with any employees except as may have already been negotiated, be required to avoid legal action, or be required pursuant to Section 10.1 hereof.

16.3 Insurance. From the date hereof until the Closing Date, Seller shall, as long as such insurance continues to be available at reasonably affordable rates, continuously maintain insurance on the Facilities at no less than the levels maintained on the date hereof. Seller shall maintain, at Seller's expense, "tail" coverage with respect to its professional liability insurance policy (if it is a claims made policy) for two (2) years following the Closing Date and shall name Buyer as an additional named insured on such tail coverage.

Transition.

17.1 Accounts Receivable. Seller shall immediately transmit to Buyer any payments on accounts of the Facilities arising after the Closing which may be delivered to Seller from third party payor sources for services rendered after the Closing. Buyer shall immediately transmit to Seller any payments on accounts of the Facilities arising after the Closing which may be delivered to Buyer from third party payor sources for services rendered prior to Closing. All payments received by Buyer shall be applied first to delinquencies and then to current obligations.

17.2 Cooperation. Seller and Buyer agree to cooperate with each other in all reasonable respects and to provide such information as is necessary to ensure a smooth and orderly transition of operation of the Facilities.

17.3 Medicare Change of Ownership Filings. Buyer and Seller acknowledge that the transfer of the operations at the skilled nursing facilities as contemplated under this Agreement will constitute a change of ownership of the skilled nursing facilities for purposes of participation in the Medicare program and will effect an assignment of the skilled nursing facilities' Medicare provider agreements and provider numbers to Buyer (or its designee). Buyer (or its designee) shall not reject the assignment of the skilled nursing facilities' Medicare provider agreement or provider number. Seller and Buyer (or its designee) will act diligently to make all necessary notifications and filings required under applicable law for Buyer (or its designee) to become the Medicare provider at the skilled nursing facilities. In addition, Seller and Buyer (or its designee) each agree to complete, execute and submit its portions of the CMS-855A forms with respect to the skilled nursing facilities as promptly as practicable following the Effective Date. Subject to the terms and provisions of this Agreement, Buyer (or its designee) may bill under Seller's Medicare provider enrollment agreement and use Seller's provider numbers for the skilled nursing facilities from the Closing Date until the earlier of the date that (a) Buyer (or its designee) receives the applicable Medicare certification notice (the so-called "tie-in" notice) which will enable it to receive reimbursements directly from Medicare for items and services furnished by the Facilities or (b) this Agreement is terminated in accordance with its terms.

17.4 Cost Reports. Seller shall prepare and file any Medicare cost reports for the Facilities related to the period prior to the Closing. Following the Closing, Seller shall be authorized to contact the business office manager or other persons with access to the information at the Facilities during normal business hours in order to obtain information needed to prepare the final Medicare cost reports with respect to claims filed with Medicare for the Facilities prior to the Closing, and Buyer (or its designee) shall provide Seller with such Facility records as Seller reasonably requests to complete such final cost reports.

17.5 Indemnification Under Third Party Payor Programs. Notwithstanding any other provisions in this Agreement to the contrary, Seller shall not have any liability whatsoever with respect to Losses relating to (a) Buyer's (or its designee's) furnishing of items or services, on or after the Closing Date, to any Third Party Payor Program beneficiaries or other patients, (b) Buyer's (or its designee's) financial accounting, coding, billing, cost reporting or claims submissions activities for its own account with respect to Third Party Payor Programs, or (c) Buyer's (or its designee's) retention of payments for the furnishing of such items and services. Buyer (or its designee) shall indemnify, defend and hold Seller harmless against and with respect to any Losses arising from the foregoing.

17.6 Survival. The provisions of this Section 17. shall survive the expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement and shall survive the Closing.

Public Announcements.

Each of the parties to this Agreement agrees not to make any public announcement or disclosure, and not to issue a press release, concerning the execution of this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby prior to Closing without the prior written approval of the other party, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned, or delayed, except to the extent necessary to make regulatory filings or as required by law or as may be necessary for such party to reveal to such party's lenders or proposed lenders; provided, however, that Seller shall be entitled to make such disclosures as may be necessary and appropriate to obtain the requisite approval of the bankruptcy court for the transactions contemplated hereunder and shall be entitled to disclose the status of the transactions contemplated hereunder to employees and Residents.

Default.

19.1 Buyer's Default.

(a) If Buyer shall be in breach or default of any of the terms or conditions of this Agreement, then Seller shall give Buyer and Escrow Agent written notice specifying the nature of the default.

(b) Buyer shall have five (5) days from receipt of Seller's notice of default within which to cure the specified default. If Buyer does not cure such default within said five (5) day period or if such default is not waived in writing by Seller, then the Earnest Money, and all accrued interest thereon, shall be paid over to Seller and this Agreement shall automatically terminate and Seller and Buyer shall have no further rights, duties or obligations hereunder except as expressly survive the termination hereof.

(c) BUYER AND SELLER AGREE THAT IF BUYER DEFAULTS ON ITS OBLIGATION TO PURCHASE THE ASSETS PURSUANT HERETO, THE DAMAGES TO SELLER WOULD BE DIFFICULT AND IMPRACTICAL TO DETERMINE. ACCORDINGLY, BUYER AND SELLER HAVE AGREED TO FIX AS LIQUIDATED DAMAGES THE EARNEST MONEY SPECIFIED IN SECTION 5. , BUT ONLY TO THE EXTENT THERETOFORE DEPOSITED WITH ESCROW AGENT AND THE EARNEST MONEY SHALL BE RETAINED BY SELLER AS LIQUIDATED DAMAGES, AND SHALL CONSTITUTE SELLER'S SOLE AND EXCLUSIVE REMEDY FOR SUCH DEFAULT. SELLER AGREES THAT THESE LIQUIDATED DAMAGES SHALL BE IN LIEU OF ANY OTHER MONETARY RELIEF OR OTHER REMEDY, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION SPECIFIC PERFORMANCE, TO WHICH SELLER OTHERWISE MIGHT BE ENTITLED UNDER THIS AGREEMENT, AT LAW OR IN EQUITY. BUYER AND SELLER SPECIFICALLY ACKNOWLEDGE THEIR AGREEMENT TO THE FOREGOING LIQUIDATED DAMAGES PROVISION BY INITIALING THIS PARAGRAPH IN THE APPROPRIATE SPACES PROVIDED BELOW:

If Seller does not cure such default within said five (5) day period or if such default is not waived in writing by Buyer, then Buyer, at its option, shall have the right, within five (5) days after the expiration of the said five (5) day grace period, to elect one (1) and only one (1) of the following remedies:

& Company ("Broker") and Buyer and Seller each agree to indemnify and hold the other harmless from all loss, costs, damage or expense, including reasonable attorney's fees incurred by the other as a result of any claim arising out of the acts of the indemnifying party for a commission, finder's fee, or similar compensation made by any other broker, finder or other party. Broker is to be paid a commission by Seller pursuant to a separate agreement and Broker shall not be deemed a party or third party beneficiary of this Agreement. The representations and warranties contained herein shall survive the Closing.

Miscellaneous.

21.1 Further Assurances. Each of the parties will, at any time before, at, or after the Closing Date, sign, execute and deliver (or cause others to do so) all documents and instruments to do, or cause to be done, all such acts and things as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this Agreement.

Section 15. Indemnification.

judgment, liability or expense, including court costs and reasonable actual attorneys' fees (individually a "Loss," and collectively "Losses") which may be asserted against or incurred or suffered by Buyer or the Buyer Parties from time to time by reason of or in connection with (i) any personal injury (including death) or property damage or claim of personal injury or property damage, made by Residents or by Seller's employees, contractors or invitees (unless caused by Buyer), occurring during Seller's ownership of the Assets before Closing; (ii) any material inaccuracy of any representation or warranty of Seller in this Agreement; or (iii) the non-fulfillment of any material covenant, undertaking, agreement or other obligation of Seller under this Agreement.

15.2 Buyer's Indemnity. Buyer shall and does hereby indemnify, defend and hold Seller and any partner (general or limited) of Seller and any current, former, and future trustee, officer, manager, member, partner, and employee (each, a "Seller Party", and collectively, the "Seller Parties") harmless from and against any and all Losses, which may be asserted against or incurred or suffered by Seller or Seller Parties from time to time by reason of or in connection with (i) any personal injury (including death) or property damage or claim of personal injury or property damage, made by Residents or by Buyer's employees, contractors or invitees (unless caused by Seller), occurring during Buyer's ownership of the Assets on or after the Closing; (ii) any material inaccuracy of any representation or warranty of Buyer in this Agreement; or (iii) the non-fulfillment of any material covenant, undertaking, agreement or other obligation of Buyer under this Agreement.

15.3 Survival. Except as otherwise provided herein, the several representations and warranties of the parties contained in this Agreement and a party's right to indemnity in accordance with this Section 15. shall survive the Closing Date and shall remain in full force and effect thereafter for a period of one (1) year after the Closing Date and shall be effective with respect to any material inaccuracy therein or breach thereof, notice of which shall have been duly given within such one (1) year period in accordance with Section 15.4 hereof after which one (1) year period they shall terminate and be of no further force or effect.

15.4 Indemnification Procedure. After the incurrence of any Loss by any Buyer Party or any Seller Party, which might give rise to indemnification hereunder, the party seeking indemnification (the "Indemnitee") shall deliver to the party from which indemnification is sought (the "Indemnitor") written notice of such Loss within fifteen (15) days of Indemnitee's becoming aware thereof; provided, however, that delay or failure to so notify the Indemnitor shall only relieve the Indemnitor of its obligations to the extent, if at all, that it is prejudiced by reasons of such delay or failure. The Indemnitor shall have a period of thirty (30) days within which to respond thereto. If the Indemnitor accepts responsibility within such thirty (30)-day period, the Indemnitor shall be obligated to compromise or defend such matter, at its own expense and through counsel reasonably satisfactory to the Indemnitee. If the Indemnitor does respond within such 30-day period and rejects responsibility for such matter in whole or in part, or does not respond, the Indemnitee shall be free to pursue, without prejudice to any of its rights hereunder, such remedies as may be available to the Indemnitee under applicable law at the Indemnitor's expense (subject, for the avoidance of doubt, to the limits set forth in this Article 14). The Indemnitee agrees to cooperate fully with the Indemnitor and its counsel in the defense against any such asserted liability. In any event, the Indemnitee shall have the right to participate in a non-controlling manner and at its own expense in the defense of such asserted liability. Any compromise of such asserted liability by the Indemnitor shall require the prior written consent of the Indemnitee and until such consent is obtained the Indemnitor shall continue the defense of such asserted liability. If, however, the Indemnitee refuses its consent to a bona fide offer of settlement containing a complete release of the Indemnitee from all liability in connection with the underlying claim that the Indemnitor wishes to accept, the Indemnitee may continue to pursue such matter, free of any participation by the Indemnitor, at the sole expense of the Indemnitee. In such event, the obligation of the Indemnitor to the Indemnitee shall be equal to the lesser of (i) the amount of the offer of settlement which the Indemnitee refused to accept plus the costs and expenses of the Indemnitee prior to the date the Indemnitor notifies the Indemnitee of the offer of settlement; or (ii) the actual out-of-pocket amount the Indemnitee is obligated to pay as a result of the Indemnitee's continuing to pursue such matter. The Indemnitor shall be entitled to recover from the Indemnitee any additional expenses incurred by the Indemnitor as a result of the decision of the Indemnitee to pursue such matter. So long as the Indemnitor is reasonably contesting any such claim in good faith, the Indemnitee shall not pay or settle such claim without the Indemnitor's prior written consent; provided that the Indemnitee may pay or settle such claim if it waives its right to indemnity therefor from the Indemnitor.

15.5 Reduction for Insurance. The amount which the Indemnitor is required to pay to, for, or on behalf of the Indemnitee pursuant to this Article 14 shall be reduced (including, without limitation, retroactively) by any insurance proceeds actually recovered by or on behalf of the Indemnitee in reduction of the related indemnifiable loss (the "Indemnifiable Loss"). Amounts required to be paid, as so reduced, are hereinafter sometimes called an "Indemnity Payment." If the Indemnitee shall have received, or if the Indemnitor shall have paid on its behalf, an Indemnity Payment in respect of an Indemnifiable Loss and shall subsequently receive, directly or indirectly, insurance proceeds (which duplicate in whole or in part, the Indemnity Payment) in respect of such Indemnifiable Loss, then the Indemnitee shall promptly pay to the Indemnitor the amount of such insurance proceeds, or, if less, the amount of the Indemnity Payment. The parties hereto agree that the foregoing shall not affect the subrogation rights of any insurance companies making payments hereunder.

15.6 Limitations of Remedies.

(b) Notwithstanding anything in this Section 15. to contrary, no person shall be entitled to indemnification hereunder if it can be established by clear and convincing evidence that such person had knowledge on or prior to the Closing Date of the failure of any representation or warranty, or the breach of any covenant or agreement or the existence of any fact, event or circumstance, which may serve as the basis for bringing a claim for indemnification hereunder.

Section 16. Conduct of Business Pending Closing.

16.1 Ordinary Course of Business. Beginning on the Effective Date and continuing through the Closing Date; (i) Seller shall make no material change in the operation of the Facilities nor enter into any material contract other than in the ordinary course of business nor incur any material liability without the prior written consent of Buyer, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned, or delayed, and Seller shall make good faith efforts to ensure that the goodwill and operations of the Facilities and the relationships with Residents and employees are preserved in the ordinary course of business; (ii) Seller shall perform all maintenance and repairs necessary to keep the Facilities and Assets in good operating condition and repair, and shall not sell or remove any Inventory or any Fixtures, Furniture and Equipment except in the ordinary course of business; and (iii) Seller shall not, without the prior written consent of Buyer:

Except in the ordinary course of business and consistent with past practices, Seller shall not increase, except for annual cost of living, or promise any increase with respect to any salary or other form of compensation payable or to become payable to any of employees, and will not pay any bonus or make any other severance or retirement arrangement with any employees except as may have already been negotiated, be required to avoid legal action, or be required pursuant to Section 10.1 hereof.

16.3 Insurance. From the date hereof until the Closing Date, Seller shall, as long as such insurance continues to be available at reasonably affordable rates, continuously maintain insurance on the Facilities at no less than the levels maintained on the date hereof. Seller shall maintain, at Seller's expense, "tail" coverage with respect to its professional liability insurance policy (if it is a claims made policy) for two (2) years following the Closing Date and shall name Buyer as an additional named insured on such tail coverage.

Section 17. Transition.

17.1 Accounts Receivable. Seller shall immediately transmit to Buyer any payments on accounts of the Facilities arising after the Closing which may be delivered to Seller from third party payor sources for services rendered after the Closing. Buyer shall immediately transmit to Seller any payments on accounts of the Facilities arising after the Closing which may be delivered to Buyer from third party payor sources for services rendered prior to Closing. All payments received by Buyer shall be applied first to delinquencies and then to current obligations.

17.2 Cooperation. Seller and Buyer agree to cooperate with each other in all reasonable respects and to provide such information as is necessary to ensure a smooth and orderly transition of operation of the Facilities.

17.3 Medicare Change of Ownership Filings. Buyer and Seller acknowledge that the transfer of the operations at the skilled nursing facilities as contemplated under this Agreement will constitute a change of ownership of the skilled nursing facilities for purposes of participation in the Medicare program and will effect an assignment of the skilled nursing facilities' Medicare provider agreements and provider numbers to Buyer (or its designee). Buyer (or its designee) shall not reject the assignment of the skilled nursing facilities' Medicare provider agreement or provider number. Seller and Buyer (or its designee) will act diligently to make all necessary notifications and filings required under applicable law for Buyer (or its designee) to become the Medicare provider at the skilled nursing facilities. If taxes are prorated on an estimated basis rather than the actual tax for the year in which the Closing occurs, the parties shall adjust the prorated amount when such actual tax is known, based on the final tax bill for the year in which the Closing occurs;

(ii) water, fuel, electricity, telephone, garbage collection, sewage, and other utility service charges and expenses; and

(iii) any other accrued and apportionable operating costs, charges and expenses, including without limitation those under the Assumed Contracts.

To the extent that prior to the Closing, Seller was appealing any ad valorem tax assessment or otherwise engaged in a tax contest, any refund or reduction in taxes applicable to any year prior to the year in which the Closing occurs shall be and remain the property of Seller and if any such tax refund is paid to, received by or credited to Buyer, Buyer shall promptly remit such payment or a check for such credit to Seller. No later than fifteen (15) days prior to the due date for paying such taxes, Seller shall notify Buyer of any reasonable objections Seller may have to Buyer's calculations regarding the amount of such taxes which Buyer determined is allocated to Seller. Buyer and Seller agree to consult and resolve in good faith any such objection within ten (10) days of the due date of the tax. Seller shall be obligated to pay the portion of such taxes allocable to the period prior to the Closing at least five (5) days before such taxes become delinquent. If Seller fails to pay Seller's portion of such taxes at least five (5) days before such taxes become delinquent, then Buyer shall have the right to pay Seller's portion of such taxes and Seller shall be obligated to immediately reimburse Buyer for any such payments made by Buyer. Buyer acknowledges that Seller is a Section 501(c)(3) charitable organization that pays no or nominal property taxes but that pays assessments to the counties in which the Premises are located.

(b) Resident Monthly Service Fees. Residents' monthly service fees for the month of Closing shall be allocated as of the Closing Date; the portion thereof allocable to all time periods prior to the Closing Date shall be credited to Seller and the portion thereof allocable to the Closing Date and thereafter shall be allocable to Buyer. Buyer and Seller hereby recognize and agree that some Resident monthly service fees for the month of Closing will not have been collected as of the Closing Date. Therefore, the parties agree to estimate such amounts on the Closing Statement and adjust such estimate post-Closing as hereinafter provided.

Within thirty (30) days after the Closing Date, representatives of Seller and Buyer shall prepare and deliver to each other a schedule itemizing the adjustments to costs, charges and expenses, together with Resident monthly service fees (the "Initial Reconciliation"). The Initial Reconciliation shall include appropriate detail to identify the items being adjusted. Buyer acknowledges that security deposits are prohibited under the RCFE Law and would only be collected in the SNF portion of the Facilities, if at all. A schedule showing the amounts of any such security deposits, by Resident name, is attached hereto as Schedule 2.5.

2.6 Past Due Residency Payments. With respect to accounts receivable or past due amounts relating to Residents occupying the Facilities after the Closing Date, Buyer shall promptly remit to Seller any amounts which relate to the period prior to the Closing Date actually received by Buyer from such Residents or their guarantors. All amounts collected by Buyer shall be applied first to current fees due (and if collected in the month in which the Closing occurs, such fees shall be prorated between Buyer and Seller) and then to delinquencies. The provisions of this Section 2.6 shall survive the Closing.

2.7 Possible Overbids and Auction.

With the consent of the Buyer, the Seller shall file a motion (the "Sale Procedures Motion") with the Court in the Case seeking approval of procedures for the sale of the Assets through a process that includes the Auction and seeking entry of the Sales Procedures Order substantially in the form attached to Schedule 2.7 hereof, within two (2) business days of the Effective Date. The Sale Procedures Motion shall seek approval of the sale of the Assets under Sections 363 and 365 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code and other applicable laws and rules and shall specifically request that the Court approve the transfer of the Assets to Buyer free and clear of liens and encumbrances other than Permitted Encumbrances and Assumed Contracts, specifically providing, without limitation, that any withdrawal liability to the Union Pension Fund (or any other related entity) shall not be assumed by Buyer. Seller shall diligently prosecute the Sale Procedures Motion, in good faith, with the goal of obtaining Court approval of the sale of the Assets to Buyer subject only to the Regulatory Clearances and Permitted Encumbrances and the terms and conditions of the Sale Procedures Order

(b) This Agreement is subject to the terms and conditions of the Sale Procedures Order. The Sale Procedures Order may provide that bidders, including the Buyer, may bid at the Auction on the Lake Park Assets and/or on ~~all of the Assets (i.e., both the Lake Park Assets and the Forest Hill Assets) but NOT solely on~~ the Forest Hill Assets. If an Auction is conducted in accordance with the Sale Procedures Order and if the Court thereafter finds and orders that a party other than the Buyer is the Successful Bidder (as defined in the Sales Procedures Motion) on the Lake Park Assets and the Court does not find and order that a party other than the Buyer is the Successful Bidder on the Forest Hill Assets,, then the Buyer shall (i) purchase the Forest Hill Assets on the terms set forth herein at ~~the price of $14,150,000.00 (~~a price that is the greater of: (x) $14,150,000.00, and (y) the highest and best bid the Buyer bid for the Forest Hill Assets at the Auction (such greater amount, the "Forest Hill Purchase Price"), and the Buyer shall

For the avoidance of doubt, Seller will not accept any bid at the Auction from any party other than the Buyer for Forest Hill Assets unless another party has made an offer that exceeds the Minimum Initial Overbid Amount (as that term is defined in the Sales Order) on the Lake Park Assets.

The Indemnitor shall have a period of thirty (30) days within which to respond thereto. If the Indemnitor accepts responsibility within such thirty (30)-day period, the Indemnitor shall be obligated to compromise or defend such matter, at its own expense and through counsel reasonably satisfactory to the Indemnitee. If the Indemnitor does respond within such 30-day period and rejects responsibility for such matter in whole or in part, or does not respond, the Indemnitee shall be free to pursue, without prejudice to any of its rights hereunder, such remedies as may be available to the Indemnitee under applicable law at the Indemnitor's expense (subject, for the avoidance of doubt, to the limits set forth in this Article 14). The Indemnitee agrees to cooperate fully with the Indemnitor and its counsel in the defense against any such asserted liability. In any event, the Indemnitee shall have the right to participate in a non-controlling manner and at its own expense in the defense of such asserted liability. Any compromise of such asserted liability by the Indemnitor shall require the prior written consent of the Indemnitee and until such consent is obtained the Indemnitor shall continue the defense of such asserted liability. If, however, the Indemnitee refuses its consent to a bona fide offer of settlement containing a complete release of the Indemnitee from all liability in connection with the underlying claim that the Indemnitor wishes to accept, the Indemnitee may continue to pursue such matter, free of any participation by the Indemnitor, at the sole expense of the Indemnitee. In such event, the obligation of the Indemnitor to the Indemnitee shall be equal to the lesser of (i) the amount of the offer of settlement which the Indemnitee refused to accept plus the costs and expenses of the Indemnitee prior to the date the Indemnitor notifies the Indemnitee of the offer of settlement; or (ii) the actual out-of-pocket amount the Indemnitee is obligated to pay as a result of the Indemnitee's continuing to pursue such matter. The Indemnitor shall be entitled to recover from the Indemnitee any additional expenses incurred by the Indemnitor as a result of the decision of the Indemnitee to pursue such matter. So long as the Indemnitor is reasonably contesting any such claim in good faith, the Indemnitee shall not pay or settle such claim without the Indemnitor's prior written consent; provided that the Indemnitee may pay or settle such claim if it waives its right to indemnity therefor from the Indemnitor.

15.5 Reduction for Insurance. The amount which the Indemnitor is required to pay to, for, or on behalf of the Indemnitee pursuant to this Article 14 shall be reduced (including, without limitation, retroactively) by any insurance proceeds actually recovered by or on behalf of the Indemnitee in reduction of the related indemnifiable loss (the "Indemnifiable Loss"). Amounts required to be paid, as so reduced, are hereinafter sometimes called an "Indemnity Payment." If the Indemnitee shall have received, or if the Indemnitor shall have paid on its behalf, an Indemnity Payment in respect of an Indemnifiable Loss and shall subsequently receive, directly or indirectly, insurance proceeds (which duplicate in whole or in part, the Indemnity Payment) in respect of such Indemnifiable Loss, then the Indemnitee shall promptly pay to the Indemnitor the amount of such insurance proceeds, or, if less, the amount of the Indemnity Payment. The parties hereto agree that the foregoing shall not affect the subrogation rights of any insurance companies making payments hereunder.

15.6 Limitations of Remedies.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein, the parties hereto agree that the indemnification provisions set forth in this Section 15. ~~Section 15~~ shall constitute the sole and exclusive remedy of either party for any breach or inaccuracy of any representation or warranty contained in this Agreement. The Buyer acknowledges that it shall not be entitled to seek rescission of the Agreement.

(b) Notwithstanding anything in this Section 15. ~~Section 15~~ to contrary, no person shall be entitled to indemnification hereunder if it can be established by clear and convincing evidence that such person had knowledge on or prior to the Closing Date of the failure of any representation or warranty, or the breach of any covenant or agreement or the existence of any fact, event or circumstance, which may serve as the basis for bringing a claim for indemnification hereunder.

Section 16. Conduct of Business Pending Closing.

16.1 Ordinary Course of Business. Beginning on the Effective Date and continuing through the Closing Date; (i) Seller shall make no material change in the operation of the Facilities nor enter into any material contract other than in the ordinary course of business nor incur any material liability without the prior written consent of Buyer, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned, or delayed, and Seller shall make good faith efforts to ensure that the goodwill and operations of the Facilities and the relationships with Residents and employees are preserved in the ordinary course of business; (ii) Seller shall perform all maintenance and repairs necessary to keep the Facilities and Assets in good operating condition and repair, and shall not sell or remove any Inventory or any Fixtures, Furniture and Equipment except in the ordinary course of business; and (iii) Seller shall not, without the prior written consent of Buyer:

(a) enter into any material contract, agreement, lease or other commitment with a duration of more than 12 months or involving the expenditure of more than fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) with respect to the Facilities, except contracts to purchase operating supplies or services in the ordinary course of business;

(b) make any change in key personnel at the Facilities, including the executive director or other department heads; or

(c) enter into any employment arrangement, agreement or undertaking, or pay or promise to pay any fringe benefit, bonus or special compensation to employees, except "stay for pay" arrangements and filling vacated positions as needed.

16.2 Compensation. Except in the ordinary course of business and consistent with past practices, Seller shall not increase, except for annual cost of living, or promise any increase with respect to any salary or other form of compensation payable or to become payable to any of employees, and will not pay any bonus or make any other severance or retirement arrangement with any employees except as may have already been negotiated, be required to avoid legal action, or be required pursuant to Section 10.1 hereof.

16.3 Insurance. From the date hereof until the Closing Date, Seller shall, as long as such insurance continues to be available at reasonably affordable rates, continuously maintain insurance on the Facilities at no less than the levels maintained on the date hereof. Seller shall maintain, at Seller's expense, "tail" coverage with respect to its professional liability insurance policy (if it is a claims made policy) for two (2) years following the Closing Date and shall name Buyer as an additional named insured on such tail coverage.

Section 17. Transition.

17.1 Accounts Receivable. Seller shall immediately transmit to Buyer any payments on accounts of the Facilities arising after the Closing which may be delivered to Seller from third party payor sources for services rendered after the Closing. Buyer shall immediately transmit to Seller any payments on accounts of the Facilities arising after the Closing which may be delivered to Buyer from third party payor sources for services rendered prior to Closing. All payments received by Buyer shall be applied first to delinquencies and then to current obligations.

17.2 Cooperation. Seller and Buyer agree to cooperate with each other in all reasonable respects and to provide such information as is necessary to ensure a smooth and orderly transition of operation of the Facilities.

17.3 Medicare Change of Ownership Filings. Buyer and Seller acknowledge that the transfer of the operations at the skilled nursing facilities as contemplated under this Agreement will constitute a change of ownership of the skilled nursing facilities for purposes of participation in the Medicare program and will effect an assignment of the skilled nursing facilities' Medicare provider agreements and provider numbers to Buyer (or its designee). Buyer (or its designee) shall not reject the assignment of the skilled nursing facilities' Medicare provider agreement or provider number. Seller and Buyer (or its designee) will act diligently to make all necessary notifications and filings required under applicable law for Buyer (or its designee) to become the Medicare provider at the skilled nursing facilities. In addition, Seller and Buyer (or its designee) each agree to complete, execute and submit its portions of the CMS-855A forms with respect to the skilled nursing facilities as promptly as practicable following the Effective Date. Subject to the terms and provisions of this Agreement, Buyer (or its designee) may bill under Seller's Medicare provider enrollment agreement and use Seller's provider numbers for the skilled nursing facilities from the Closing Date until the earlier of the date that (a) Buyer (or its designee) receives the applicable Medicare certification notice (the so-called "tie-in" notice) which will enable it to receive reimbursements directly from Medicare for items and services furnished by the Facilities or (b) this Agreement is terminated in accordance with its terms.

17.4 Cost Reports. Seller shall prepare and file any Medicare cost reports for the Facilities related to the period prior to the Closing. Following the Closing, Seller shall be authorized to contact the business office manager or other persons with access to the information at the Facilities during normal business hours in order to obtain information needed to prepare the final Medicare cost reports with respect to claims filed with Medicare for the Facilities prior to the Closing, and Buyer (or its designee) shall provide Seller with such Facility records as Seller reasonably requests to complete such final cost reports.

17.5 Indemnification Under Third Party Payor Programs. Notwithstanding any other provisions in this Agreement to the contrary, Seller shall not have any liability whatsoever with respect to Losses relating to (a) Buyer's (or its designee's) furnishing of items or services, on or after the Closing Date, to any Third Party Payor Program beneficiaries or other patients, (b) Buyer's (or its designee's) financial accounting, coding, billing, cost reporting or claims submissions activities for its own account with respect to Third Party Payor Programs, or (c) Buyer's (or its designee's) retention of payments for the furnishing of such items and services. Buyer (or its designee) shall indemnify, defend and hold Seller harmless against and with respect to any Losses arising from the foregoing.

17.6 Survival. The provisions of this Section 17. ~~Section 17~~ shall survive the expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement and shall survive the Closing.

Section 18. Public Announcements.

Each of the parties to this Agreement agrees not to make any public announcement or disclosure, and not to issue a press release, concerning the execution of this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby prior to Closing without the prior written approval of the other party, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned, or delayed, except to the extent necessary to make regulatory filings or as required by law or as may be necessary for such party to reveal to such party's lenders or proposed lenders; provided, however, that Seller shall be entitled to make such disclosures as may be necessary and appropriate to obtain the requisite approval of the bankruptcy court for the transactions contemplated hereunder and shall be entitled to disclose the status of the transactions contemplated hereunder to employees and Residents.

Section 19. Default.

19.1 Buyer's Default.

(a) If Buyer shall be in breach or default of any of the terms or conditions of this Agreement, then Seller shall give Buyer and Escrow Agent written notice specifying the nature of the default.

(b) Buyer shall have five (5) days from receipt of Seller's notice of default within which to cure the specified default. If Buyer does not cure such default within said five (5) day period or if such default is not waived in writing by Seller, then the Earnest Money, and all accrued interest thereon, shall be paid over to Seller and this Agreement shall automatically terminate and Seller and Buyer shall have no further rights, duties or obligations hereunder except as expressly survive the termination hereof.

(c) BUYER AND SELLER AGREE THAT IF BUYER DEFAULTS ON ITS OBLIGATION TO PURCHASE THE ASSETS PURSUANT HERETO, THE DAMAGES TO SELLER WOULD BE DIFFICULT AND IMPRACTICAL TO DETERMINE. ACCORDINGLY, BUYER AND SELLER HAVE AGREED TO FIX AS LIQUIDATED DAMAGES THE EARNEST MONEY SPECIFIED IN SECTION 5. ~~SECTION 5~~, BUT ONLY TO THE EXTENT THERETOFORE DEPOSITED WITH ESCROW AGENT AND THE EARNEST MONEY SHALL BE RETAINED BY SELLER AS LIQUIDATED DAMAGES, AND SHALL CONSTITUTE SELLER'S SOLE AND EXCLUSIVE REMEDY FOR SUCH DEFAULT. SELLER AGREES THAT THESE LIQUIDATED DAMAGES SHALL BE IN LIEU OF ANY OTHER MONETARY RELIEF OR OTHER REMEDY, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION SPECIFIC PERFORMANCE, TO WHICH SELLER OTHERWISE MIGHT BE ENTITLED UNDER THIS AGREEMENT, AT LAW OR IN EQUITY. BUYER AND SELLER SPECIFICALLY ACKNOWLEDGE THEIR AGREEMENT TO THE FOREGOING LIQUIDATED DAMAGES PROVISION BY INITIALING THIS PARAGRAPH IN THE APPROPRIATE SPACES PROVIDED BELOW:

SELLER _____ BUYER _____

19.2 Seller's Default.

(a) If Seller shall be in breach or default of any of the terms or conditions of this Agreement, then Buyer shall give Seller and Escrow Agent written notice specifying the nature of the default.

(b) Seller shall have five (5) days from receipt of Buyer's notice of default within which to cure the specified default. If Seller does not cure such default within said five (5) day period or if such default is not waived in writing by Buyer, then Buyer, at its option, shall have the right, within five (5) days after the expiration of the said five (5) day grace period, to elect one (1) and only one (1) of the following remedies:

(i) Buyer may terminate this Agreement by written notice given to Seller and Escrow Agent, in which event the Earnest Money will be refunded to Buyer; or

(ii) Buyer may demand specific performance of this Agreement by Seller, and, if necessary, file an action therefor.

19.3 Survival. The provisions of this Section 19. ~~Section 19~~ shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

Section 20. Broker.

Neither Seller nor Buyer has had any dealings with any broker, finder, or other party concerning the purchase and sale of the Assets other than Dan Revie and his team at B.C. Ziegler & Company ("Broker") and Buyer and Seller each agree to indemnify and hold the other harmless from all loss, costs, damage or expense, including reasonable attorney's fees incurred by the other as a result of any claim arising out of the acts of the indemnifying party for a commission, finder's fee, or similar compensation made by any other broker, finder or other party. Broker is to be paid a commission by Seller pursuant to a separate agreement and Broker shall not be deemed a party or third party beneficiary of this Agreement. The representations and warranties contained herein shall survive the Closing.

Section 21. Miscellaneous.

21.1 Further Assurances. Each of the parties will, at any time before, at, or after the Closing Date, sign, execute and deliver (or cause others to do so) all documents and instruments to do, or cause to be done, all such acts and things as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this Agreement.

Nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to confer upon any party, other than the parties hereto, and their respective successors and assigns, any rights, remedies, obligations or liabilities under or by reason of this Agreement.

21.5 Amendment. A modification or amendment of this Agreement, the exhibits or schedules to this Agreement, or the other documents delivered pursuant hereto is effective only if it is in writing and executed by both parties. Execution by Escrow Agent is not required for any modification or amendment unless such modification or amendment affects Section 5. ~~Section 5~~ hereof.

21.6 Notices. All notices or other communications required or permitted hereunder shall be in writing and addressed as set forth below and either personally delivered (including delivery by a nationally recognized courier), sent by overnight mail (Federal Express or the like), or sent by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid, return receipt requested, or sent by telecopy or electronic mail. 21.9 Delays or Omissions. No delay or omission to exercise any right, power, or remedy accruing to any party hereto, upon any breach or default of any other party hereto, shall impair any such right, power or remedy, nor shall it be construed to be a waiver of any such breach or default, or any acquiescence therein, or of or in any similar breach or default thereafter occurring. In support of this Motion, the Debtor relies on the pleadings on file in this Chapter 11 Case and submits the Declaration of Steven A. Nerger in Support of the Motion for Entry of an Order (I) Approving Bidding Procedures in Connection with the Sale of Substantially All of the Debtor's Assets; (II) Approving Procedures for the Assumption and Assignment of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases; (III) Approving Stalking Horse Bidder And Break-Up Fee; and (IV) Granting Related Relief (the "Nerger Declaration") filed contemporaneously herewith and incorporated herein by reference. A proposed form of order granting the relief requested herein (the "Order") is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

I. JURISDICTION

The United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of California (this "Court") has jurisdiction to consider this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334, the Order Referring Bankruptcy Cases and Proceedings to Bankruptcy Judges, General Order 24 (N.D. Cal.), and Rule 5011-1(a) of the Bankruptcy Local Rules for the Northern District of California (the "Bankruptcy Local Rules"). This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b). Venue is proper before the Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

II. BACKGROUND

A. The Debtor's Bankruptcy Case

On March 16, 2021 (the "Petition Date"), the Debtor commenced this Chapter 11 Case by filing a voluntary petition under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtor continues to operate its business and manage its property as a debtor in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. On April 8, 2021 and April 19, 2021, the United States Trustee for the Northern District of California appointed an Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the "Committee") in the Chapter 11 Case. No request has been made for the appointment of a trustee or examiner in the Chapter 11 Case.

Additional information about the Debtor's business and affairs, capital structure and prepetition indebtedness, and the events leading up to the Petition Date is set forth in the previously filed Declaration of Steven A. Nerger in Support of Debtor's "First Day Motions" [Dkt. No. 14].

B. Prior Sale Process

For a substantial period of time, the Debtor has been sustaining severe operating losses. See Nerger Declaration. In the opinion of the Debtor and its Chief Restructuring Officer, these substantial operating losses cannot quickly and readily be reversed or rectified and it is necessary that the Debtor expeditiously enter into a sale or merger transaction with a highly qualified and financially sound entity. Id.

On May 20, 2021, upon motion by the Debtor, the bankruptcy court entered an order authorizing the Debtor to employ B.C. Ziegler & Company ("Ziegler"), a highly qualified investment banking firm, to develop and implement a sale or merger process ("Sale Process"). Ziegler quickly went to work orchestrating that process. Ziegler contacted approximately one hundred potentially interested parties, entered into a nondisclosure agreement with and circulated a comprehensive "offering memorandum" to parties who expressed interest in a possible transaction, and engaged many of those parties in direct, one-on-one discussions. In response to the offering memorandum, Ziegler elicited non-binding letters of interest from ten potential purchasers or merger partners, including Pacifica Companies, LLC or its designee ("Pacifica"). Id.

With the assistance of the Debtor's counsel, Neal L. Wolf, Ziegler then conducted what the Debtor believes amounted to a de facto auction process for the sale of substantially all of the Debtor's assets (the "Assets"). The Debtor and Ziegler called upon and encouraged potential buyers and merger partners to enhance their respective proposals. In response, Pacifica and certain other interested purchasers enhanced their respective proposals on two or more occasions. Ultimately, Pacifica made what the Debtor determined to be the most advantageous proposal.

Significantly, Pacifica conditioned the amount of its final, and highest, proposal on the conduct of a "private sale" transaction by the Debtor. Pacifica indicated that, if there were to be a court-supervised auction process at which it were designated as merely a "stalking horse" bidder, the Pacifica offer would be reduced by approximately $2 million and Pacifica would require a $1.5 million "break-up fee." Id. Debtor and Pacifica subsequently executed a purchase and sale agreement for Pacifica's purchase of substantially all of the Debtor's assets (such agreement as subsequently amended by Debtor and Pacifica, the "Original Purchase and Sale Agreement").

On November 23, 2021 the Court entered an Order Approving the Sale of Substantially All of Debtor's Assets to Pacifica Companies, LLC Free and Clear of Any Liens and Encumbrances [Dkt. No. 348]. Unfortunately, however, on November 29, 2021, Pacifica exercised its right to terminate, without liability, the Original Purchase and Sale Agreement.

C. Proposed Sale Process

After Pacifica's termination of the Original Purchase and Sale Agreement, the Debtor determined in its business judgment to conduct a competitive bid-and-sale process for the orderly sale of substantially all of the Debtor's Assets under sections 363 and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code. After further arm's-length negotiations, the Debtor and Pacifica, as the stalking horse bidder (the "Stalking Horse Bidder," and Pacifica's bid, the "Stalking Horse Bid") entered into an that certain Purchase and Sale Agreement, dated as of December ~~[●],~~ 17, 2021~~]~~ (the "Stalking Horse Agreement").[2]

The terms and conditions identified in the Stalking Horse Agreement are subject to higher and better bids at an auction on either~~, (a)~~ or both of the Debtor's ~~facility~~ facilities located at (a) 1850 Alice St., Oakland, CA 94612, along with the CNMH Corporate Office Building located at 201 19th Street, Oakland, CA 94612 (collectively, "Lake Park"), ~~or~~ and (b)~~ on both Lake Park and the Debtor's facility~~ 511 Gibson Ave., Pacific Grove, CA 93950, along with the Pacific Grove Parking Garage located at 26 Sinex Ave., Pacific Grove, CA 93950 (collectively,

[2] Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein will have the meanings ascribed to them in the Stalking Horse Agreement.

"Forest Hill" and, together with Lake Park, the "Facilities"); provided, however, that if the Stalking Horse Bidder is the successful bidder on the Forest Hill property alone, the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement shall be in effect for purposes of the acquisition of the Forest Hill Assets, assumption of the Assumed Forest Hill Residency Agreements and assumption of the Assumed forest Hill Repayable Entrance Fee Liabilities and not in connection with acquisition of the Lake Park Assets or assumption of the Lake Park Residency Agreements or Assumed Lake Forest Repayable Entrance Fee Liabilities.

As consideration for and as a material inducement to the Stalking Horse Bidder conducting its due diligence and entering into the Stalking Horse Agreement, the Debtor agreed to certain bid procedures and protections. Sale of each of the ~~Lake Park Facility~~two Facilities is subject to a $500,000 break-up fee ("Single Facility Break-up Fee") in the event the Stalking Horse Bidder is not the Successful Bidder (as defined below) on ~~the Lake Park~~one Facility and a $1,000,000 break-up fee (together with the Single Facility Break-up Fee the "Break-up Fee")[3] in the event the Stalking Horse Bidder is not the Successful Bidder on both Facilities, subject to approval of the Bankruptcy Court after notice and opportunity for hearing, which Break-Up Fee shall be payable from the sale proceeds at the time of closing. To the extent the Stalking Horse Bidder submits any Overbids (as defined below) and it overbids on one Facility on the approved terms for Overbids, it may apply the Single Facility Break-up Fee as a credit toward the purchase price of one Facility, or may apply the Break-up Fee as a credit toward the purchase price of both Facilities. Under this Motion, the Debtor seeks court approval of the sale procedures, sale, and bid protections as set forth herein.

D. Proposed Bidding Procedures

The Debtor believes that the Bidding Procedures will promote a transparent, competitive, and expedient sale process. If approved, the Bidding Procedures will allow the Debtor to solicit and identify bids from potential buyers, resulting in the highest or otherwise best offer for the Assets on a schedule consistent with the deadlines under the Stalking Horse Agreement and with the Debtor's cash needs and overall chapter 11 strategy. The following sets forth a summary of the key provisions of the Bidding Procedures:

Stalking Horse Agreement. On December ~~15~~17, 2021, the Debtor entered into the Stalking Horse Agreement with the Stalking Horse Bidder, pursuant to which the Stalking Horse Bidder has agreed to purchase substantially all of the Assets (other than the Excluded Items, as such term is defined in the Stalking Horse Agreement) for consideration consisting of[4]:

1. Cash. The Stalking Horse Bidder shall pay $30,000,000 cash at the Closing for both of the Facilities, including (a) a $1,000,000 Earnest Money deposit, to be deposited into escrow within one business day of execution and delivery of the Stalking Horse Agreement and (b) a $100 Independent Consideration deposit, to be deposited into escrow concurrently with and in addition to the Earnest Money.

2. Purchase Price Allocated to Each Facility. Of the total Purchase Price of $30,000,000, the Stalking Horse Bid allocates a purchase price of $14,150,000 to Forest Hill and related assets (collectively, "Forest Hill Assets") and $15,850,000 to Lake Park and related assets (collectively, "Lake Park Assets").

3. Contracts and Liabilities Assumed. The Stalking Horse Bidder will assume (a) all Residency Agreements for Lake Park in effect as of the Closing Date and all obligations thereunder without modification ("Assumed Lake Park Residency Agreements") pursuant to Section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, (b) all Residency Agreements for Forest Hill in effect as of the Closing Date and all obligations thereunder without modification ("Assumed Forest Hill Residency Agreements," and collectively with the Assumed Lake Park Residency Agreements, ("Assumed Residency Agreements"), (c) all the Non-Restricted Entrance Fee Liability for Lake Park ("Assumed Lake Park Non-Restricted Entrance Fee Liability"), (d) all the Non-Restricted Entrance Fee Liability for Forest Hill ("Assumed Forest Hill Repayable Entrance Fee Liabilities"), and (e) the Restricted Entrance Fee Liability [5] (collectively with the Assumed Lake Park Non-Restricted Entrance Fee Liability, "Assumed Lake Park Repayable Entrance Fee Liabilities"), including without limitation as set forth in Sections 2.2 and 4.2 and Schedules 2.2 and 2.4 of the Stalking Horse Agreement.

[4] Parties are referred to the Stalking Horse Agreement for its complete terms. To the extent there are any inconsistencies between the terms of the Stalking Horse Agreement and the description in this Motion, the terms of the Stalking Horse Agreement prevail.

[5] The entire Restricted Entrance Fee Liability relates to Lake Park.

4. Liabilities Not Assumed. No contracts or liabilities other than the Assumed Residency Agreements, the Assumed Forest Hill Repayable Entrance Fee Liabilities, and the Assumed Lake Park Repayable Entrance Fee Liabilities (the Assumed Lake Park Repayable Entrance Fee Liabilities, together with the Assumed Forest Hill Repayable Entrance Fee Liabilities, the "Assumed Repayable Entrance Fee Liabilities") will be assumed, unless Pacifica designates additional executory contracts or unexpired leases it wishes to assume on or before the Assumption Notice Deadline. With the exception of the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Residency Agreements and the Assumed Repayable Entrance Fee Liabilities and Permitted Encumbrances, the sale will be free and clear of all interests in, liens upon, or claims concerning the Debtor or its assets, including, but not limited to any claims or liabilities for the underfunded portion of the Debtor's multi-employer pension fund or any withdrawal liability that may arise from the Debtor's withdrawal from the multi-employer pension fund, if any.

Bid Deadline. The "Bid Deadline" is January 20, 2022 at 11:59 p.m. (prevailing Pacific Time).

Due Diligence. To participate in the bidding process and to receive access to due diligence materials (the "Diligence Materials"), a party must submit or have previously submitted an executed NDA in connection with the Case in a form reasonably satisfactory to the Debtor. A party which qualifies for access to Diligence Materials is designated a "Potential Bidder." Through and including the Bid Deadline, the Debtor and its advisors will afford all Potential Bidders the opportunity to conduct reasonable due diligence, including reasonable access to Debtor's management and its professionals, access to the electronic data room and other information reasonably requested. All due diligence requests must be directed to: Steven A. Nerger, Chief Restructuring Officer of the Debtor, at snerger@silvermanconsulting.net. Due diligence will close on January 20, 2022 at 5 p.m. (Pacific Standard Time).

Each Potential Bidder shall comply with all reasonable requests for additional information by the Debtor or its advisors regarding the ability of such Potential Bidder to consummate a purchase of the Assets.

Qualified Bid Requirements. To participate in the Auction (as defined below), a Qualified Bidder (as defined below), other than the Stalking Horse Bidder must, by the Bid Deadline, submit a bid that, as determined by the Debtor in its business judgment in consultation with California Department of Health Care Access and Information, f/k/a Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development ("HCAI"), Wilmington Trust, National Association ("Wilmington"), B.H. Capital Ventures, LLC ("BHP"), California Department of Social Services ("CDSS"), and the Committee (collectively, the "Consultation Parties"), satisfies each of the following conditions (the "Bid Requirements"), unless any such Bid Requirements are waived by the Debtor with the agreement of the Consultation Parties; provided, however, that (i) for any bid, the following conditions may not be waived: (1), (3), (5), (7), (8), (9), (11), (12), (13), (15), (18), (19), (20), (26), and (27) below (each such bid, a "Qualified Bid"):

1. Written Submission of a Purchase Agreement. Each bid must be in writing and include: (i) a clean purchase agreement signed by the bidder, accompanied by all exhibits and schedules contemplated by the purchase agreement and, to the extent required by the terms and conditions of the bid, any ancillary agreements described in the purchase agreement with all exhibits and schedules thereto (each such purchase agreement, together with its exhibits, schedules, and ancillary agreements, if any, a "Modified Agreement"); (ii) a redline reflecting the bidder's proposed changes to the Stalking Horse Agreement (including all exhibits and schedules thereto). Each Modified Agreement must conform in all material respects with the form and content of the Stalking Horse Bid, and each Modified Agreement and the Stalking Horse Agreement shall be a "Purchase Agreement" for purposes of the Bidding Procedures.

2. Commitment to Close. Each bid must contain a written statement that the bidder is willing to consummate and fund the sale of the Assets proposed in the Modified Agreement within three business days after satisfaction of the conditions to closing, and in any event by the close of business on April 8, 2022 (the "Closing Deadline").

3. Commitment to Serve as Backup Bidder. Each bid must contain a written statement that the bidder will serve as the Backup Bidder (as defined below).

4. Assets to be Acquired. Each bid must identify with reasonable particularity the Assets to be purchased (the "Purchased Assets") and the Excluded Items. The bid may offer to purchase substantially all of the Assets or only ~~that~~ a portion of the Assets ~~associated with the Lake Park Facility~~; provided, however, that a bid that offers to purchase only a portion of the Assets may only be a Qualified Bid to the extent that the value of such bid, in combination with the value of other bids for the remaining Assets, exceeds the Minimum Initial Overbid Amount (as defined below) applicable to Qualified Bids for substantially all of the Assets. The Debtor may waive or modify the application of the Qualified Bid conditions in respect of bids for a portion of the Assets (other than the requirement that the value of any such Qualified Bid, in combination with the value of other bids for Assets, exceeds the Minimum Initial Overbid Amount applicable to Qualified Bids for substantially all of the Assets). ~~No~~ For the avoidance of doubt, no bid from any party other than the ~~Pacifica~~ Stalking Horse Bidder (pursuant to the Stalking Horse Bid) shall be accepted for that portion of the Assets that includes only Forest Hill unless another party has made an offer that exceeds the Minimum Initial Overbid Amount on a portion of the Assets that includes Lake Park.

5. Assumption of All Assumed Residency Agreements and Assumed Repayable Entrance Fee Liabilities. Each bid for substantially all of the Assets must agree to assume and accept the assignment of (a) all Assumed Residency Agreements without modification and pursuant to Section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code and (b) the Assumed Repayable Entrance Fee Liabilities. Each bid for ~~that~~ any portion of the Assets that includes Forest Hill must agree to assume and accept the assignment of (a) all Assumed Forest Hill Residency Agreements without modification and pursuant to Section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code and (b) all Assumed Forest Hill Repayable Entrance Fee Liabilities. Each bid for any portion of the Assets that includes Lake Park must agree to assume and accept the assignment of (a) all Assumed Lake Park Residency Agreements without modification and pursuant to Section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code and (b) all Assumed Lake Park Repayable Entrance Fee Liabilities.

6. Executory Contracts, Leases and Liabilities to be Assumed and Assigned. Each bid must identify with reasonable particularity the executory contracts, unexpired leases and other liabilities of the Debtor that the bidder seeks to have the Debtor assume and assign to the bidder in addition to those set forth in [5] immediately above (collectively, with the Assumed Residency Agreements and Assumed Repayable Entrance Fee Liabilities, the "Assumed Contracts").

7. Irrevocable. Each bid (including the Stalking Horse Bid) must be irrevocable until (i) if such bidder is designated as a Successful Bidder (as defined below), the Closing of the sale of the Assets to such bidder, and (ii) if such bidder is designated as a Backup Bidder, the earlier to occur of (A) five days after the closing of the transaction(s) by which all of the Assets that were subject to the Backup Bid have been transferred to one or more Qualified Bidders at the closing of a sale or sales of the Assets conducted pursuant to these Bidding Procedures or (B) the Closing Deadline.

8. Earnest Money Deposit. Each bid must be accompanied by an Earnest Money deposit paid to the Debtor by certified funds or such other form acceptable to the Debtor in the amount of at least $500,000 for each of the Facilities, which Earnest Money will be held by the Debtor to be applied or returned, as applicable, pursuant to the terms of these Bidding Procedures.

9. Minimum Initial Overbid Amount. Each Overbid must offer to the Debtor aggregate value in an amount as determined by the Debtor, in its reasonable business judgment, that is greater than or equal to the sum of (i) the value offered under the Stalking Horse Agreement, plus (ii) cash (or, in the case of the Stalking Horse Bidder, a credit bid) in the amount of $500,000 for each Facility sought to be acquired, plus (iii) cash in the amount of at least $250,000 (the "Minimum Initial Overbid Amount"), regardless of whether the Overbid is for one or both of the Facilities. Subsequent Overbids shall be in increments of at least $250,000 unless the Court orders otherwise, provided however, the Debtor in consultation with the Consultation Parties may change the minimum of such increments during the Auction.

10. Credit Bid. If any Overbids are submitted, Pacifica may credit bid $1,000,000 of the Break-Up Fee if it submits a subsequent Overbid on both Facilities. If Pacifica opts to overbid on only one of the Facilities, it may credit bid $500,000 and will waive the $500,000 remaining of the Break-Up Fee.

11. Contingencies. No bid may be conditioned on any due diligence, internal approval, financing, or regulatory or third-party approval contingencies of any kind (other than regulatory contingencies required by law or as set forth in the Stalking Horse Agreement).

12. Proof of Financial Ability to Perform. Each bid must contain written evidence, to the Debtor's reasonable satisfaction in consultation with the Consultation Parties, of a firm commitment for financing from a recognized banking institution or HCAI, as of the Bid Deadline, or other evidence of ability to consummate the sale of the Assets contemplated by the Modified Agreement, that will allow the Debtor and Consultation Parties to make a reasonable determination as to the bidder's financial and other capabilities to consummate the transactions contemplated in such bidder's Modified Agreement (taking into account the conditions and third-party beneficiary rights, if any, in any such commitment). Each bid must also contain a commitment by the bidder that, if selected as a Backup Bidder, the bidder will continue to comply with the requirements of this Paragraph II.D.12 until the earlier to occur of (a) five days after the closing of the transaction(s) by which all of the Assets that we subject to the bidder's Backup Bid have been transferred to one or more Qualified ~~bidders~~ Bidders at the closing of a sale or sales of the Assets conducted pursuant to the Bidding Procedures or (b) the Closing Deadline. If the purchaser will be a newly formed entity, the bid must identify, among other things, the entity or entities that will provide backstops in the form of a guarantee and/or an equity commitment letter and describe the nature of such arrangement(s). Such information must additionally include the following:

14. Identity of Purchaser. Each bid must, to the satisfaction of the Debtor, in consultation with the Consultation Parties, fully disclose (i) the identity of each person or entity that will be bidding for the Assets or otherwise participating in connection with such bid, (ii) the terms of any such participation, (iii) if any entity has been formed for the purpose of acquiring some, or all, of the Assets, the parties that will bear liability for any breach by such person or entity, and the financial capacity of such parties to satisfy such liability, and (iv) any connections between (x) the bidding party and its affiliates and related persons and (y) the Debtor and their primary creditors as identified by the Debtor.

15. Purchaser's Experience. Each bid must, to the satisfaction of the Debtor in consultation with the Consultation Parties, describe the experience of the bidder with respect to the ownership and management of senior living facilities in general and continuing care communities in particular in California and elsewhere; provided however, that a bidder need not have prior California experience for its bid to be a Qualified Bid.

17. No Fees or Commissions. No bid (other than the Stalking Horse Bid) may (i) request or entitle the bidder to any break-up fee, expense reimbursement fee, or similar type of payment, or (ii) obligate the Debtor to pay commissions, fees, or expenses to any agent or broker. Further, by submitting a bid, a bidder shall be deemed to waive its right to pursue a substantial contribution claim under section 503 of the Bankruptcy Code or in any way related to the submission of its bid or the Bidding Procedures.

18. As Is, Where Is. As set forth in the Stalking Horse Agreement, a bidder shall state in such bidder's Purchase Agreement that: "Except with respect to (i) Seller's covenants, representations, and warranties expressly set forth in this Agreement and (ii) any loss, damage, injury, liability, claim, expense or demand directly arising out of this Agreement, bidder acknowledges and agrees that bidder is purchasing the Premises in its 'as-is, where is, with all faults' condition as of the Closing."

19. Adequate Assurance. Each bid must include evidence of the bidder's ability to comply with section 365 and/or section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code (to the extent applicable), including providing adequate assurance of such bidder's ability to perform in the future under the Assumed Residency Agreements and all other executory contracts and unexpired leases proposed in its bid to be assumed by the Debtor and assigned to such bidder, in a form that will permit the immediate dissemination of such evidence to the counterparties to such contracts and leases and must consent to the filing of such information with the Court.

20. Corporate Authority. Each bid must include evidence of authorization and approval from the bidder's board of directors (or comparable governing body) with respect to the submission of the bid and the consummation of the transactions contemplated in such bidder's Purchase Agreement.

23. Access to Books and Records. Each bid must contain provisions allowing the Debtor reasonable access to the Debtor's books and records for the administration of its bankruptcy case if the bid provides for the purchase of such books and records

24. Consent to Jurisdiction: Each Potential Bidder must submit to the jurisdiction of the Court to enter final orders and judgments which in any way related to the Debtor, the Bid Procedures, the Auction, any Modified Agreement, or the construction and enforcement of all agreements, orders and pleadings which in any way relate to the Assets, Sale, Closing, Debtor, Bid Procedures and/or Auction.

25. Disclosure of Connections: Fully disclose any connections or agreements with the Debtor and/or any officer or director of the Debtor. Each Bid must be irrevocable through the entry of the Sale Order; provided, however, that a bid accepted as the Successful Bid or the Backup Bid (as each are defined below) shall remain irrevocable as set forth below.

26. Representations and Warranties: All bids must include the following representations and warranties:

a statement that the Potential Bidder has had an opportunity to conduct all due diligence regarding the Assets prior to submitting its Bid;

a statement that the Potential Bidder has relied solely upon its own independent review, investigation, and/or inspection of the Assets and all information related to the Assets in making its bid, and did not rely on any written or oral statements, representations, promises, warranties, or guaranties whatsoever, whether express or implied, by operation of law or otherwise, regarding the Assets or the completeness of any information provided in connection therewith;

a statement that the Potential Bidder agrees to serve as Back-Up Bidder, if its bid is selected as the next highest or next best bid after the Successful Bid with respect to the applicable Assets;

a statement that the Potential Bidder has not engaged in any collusion with respect to the submission of its bid;

a statement that all proof of financial ability to consummate a Sale in a timely manner and all information provided to support adequate assurance of future performance is true and correct; and a statement that the Bidder agrees to be bound by the terms of the Bid Procedures and any order approving a Sale.

27. Format. All documentation for each bid must be provided in electronic form.

Qualified Bidder. A "Qualified Bidder" is a Bidder that (i) submits a Qualified Bid by the Bid Deadline to the Debtor and each of the Consultation Parties (at the email addresses set forth on Schedule 1 to this Motion), and (ii) the Debtor determines, in the exercise of its business judgment and in consultation with the Consultation Parties, is reasonably likely (based on financial information submitted by the bidder, its pertinent experience and plans, and other considerations) to consummate the sale of the Assets if selected as a Successful Bidder or a Backup Bidder. As noted above, the Stalking Horse Bidder is deemed to be a Qualified Bidder. As promptly as practicable after the Bid Deadline (but in any event not less than one business day before the commencement of the Auction), the Debtor will notify (a) each bidder that submits a bid whether such bidder is a Qualified Bidder, and (b) the Stalking Horse Bidder and all other Qualified Bidders, if any, whether or not any bids (other than the Stalking Horse Agreement) constitute Qualified Bids and identify the Qualified Bidders, including the Stalking Horse Bidder, making any such Qualified Bids.

Auction. The Debtor will conduct an auction (the "Auction") to determine the Successful Bidder(s).

Auction Time and Location. The Auction shall take place on January 24, 2022 at 9:00 a.m. (prevailing Pacific Time) by Zoom or similar virtual process. The Auction may be adjourned from time to time by the Debtor with the agreement of the Consultation Parties or order of this Court in which event notice of such adjournment and the time and place for the resumption of the Auction will be filed with this Court and served promptly on (i) Qualified Bidders; (ii) Consultation Parties, (iii) any other parties who have provided written notice to Debtor's counsel no later than two days prior to the Auction of their intent to attend the Auction; and (iv) all other parties in interest who have requested notice pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002 prior to the continued date and time of the Auction.

Participation at the Auction. Qualified Bidders shall virtually attend the Auction in person (via Zoom) or through a duly-authorized representative. Only the Stalking Horse Bidder and any other Qualified Bidder(s) (or their duly-authorized representatives) (collectively, the "Bidder Participants") are eligible to submit bids at the Auction. While only the Bidder Participants may submit bids at the Auction, the authorized representatives and respective counsel and advisors of each of the Qualified Bidder(s) (regardless of whether such representatives, counsel and advisors are serving as Bidder Participants), the Debtor, the United States Trustee, and the Consultation Parties[6] and any of the Debtor's creditors who notify the Debtor in writing no later than two days prior to the Auction of such creditors' intent to attend the Auction by contacting the Debtor's counsel, Neal L. Wolf, at nwolf@hansonbridgett.com, shall be permitted to attend the Auction; provided, however, that the Debtor may exclude parties whom the Debtor deems to be detrimental to the sale process other than any Consultation Parties. Each Qualified Bidder participating in the Auction (including any Qualified Bidder participating through a duly-authorized representative) will be required to confirm on the record that it has not engaged in any collusion regarding the Bidding Procedures, the Auction, or the sale of the Assets.

[6] If any Consultation Party seeks to be a Qualified Bidder, it shall cease being a Consultation Party until such time as it determines it will not bid on any of the Assets.

E. Auction Procedures.

If no Qualified Bids (other than the Stalking Horse Bid) are received by the Bid Deadline, the Auction will not be held and the Debtor will file a notice with the Court indicating that no Auction will be held within one business day after the Bid Deadline. If the Debtor receives one or more Qualified Bids (in addition to the Stalking Horse Bid) by the Bid Deadline, the Debtor will conduct an Auction for the Assets using the following Auction Procedures.

1. Opening Bid. At least one business day in advance of the Auction, the Debtor will notify each Qualified Bidder of the highest or otherwise best Qualified Bid or Qualified Bid(s), as determined by the Debtor (the "Opening Bid") and will provide copies of the applicable Purchase Agreement for such Opening Bid to each Qualified Bidder. The determination of which Qualified Bid constitutes the Opening Bid shall be determined after consultation with the Consultation Parties and take into account any factors the Debtor deems relevant to the value of the Qualified Bid to the estate, including, among other things, the following: (i) that the Bid satisfies the requirements to be a Qualified Bid as described above (and if a Bid does not do so, it will not be further considered); (ii) the amount and nature of the consideration offered; (iii) the proposed assumption of any liabilities in addition to those which must be assumed to be a Qualified Bid; (iv) the ability of the Qualified Bidder to close the proposed transaction on or before the Closing Deadline; (v) any Purchase Price adjustments; (vi) the impact of the contemplated transaction on any actual or potential litigation; (vii) the net economic effect of any changes from the Stalking Horse Agreement, if any; (viii) the net value to be received by the Debtor's estate including consideration of any amounts required to be paid to the Stalking Horse Bidder; (ix) the bidder's pertinent management and operations experience, and (x) such other considerations the Debtor and Consultation Parties deems relevant.

2. Debtor Shall Conduct the Auction. The Debtor's professionals shall direct and preside over the Auction on behalf of the Debtor via Zoom. At the start of the Auction, Debtor's counsel shall describe the terms of the Opening Bid. The Auction shall be transcribed by a court reporter. The Debtor shall maintain a written transcript of all bids made and announced at the Auction, including the Opening Bid, all applicable Overbids, and the Successful Bid.

3. Terms of Overbid. An "Overbid" is any bid made at the Auction subsequent to the announcement of the Opening Bid. To submit an

Overbid for purposes of the Auction, a Qualified Bidder must comply with the following conditions:

i. Minimum Overbid Increment and Deadline. After the Opening Bid is announced, all subsequent Overbids, if any, shall provide for total consideration to the Debtor (net of the amount for any Break-Up Fee) with a value that exceeds the value of the consideration under the Opening Bid by an incremental amount that is not less than $250,000 (the "Minimum Overbid Increment"), unless otherwise announced at the Auction, consistent with the terms of these Bidding Procedures. For all Qualified Bids, the Minimum Overbid Increment for each Overbid round must be made in cash.

ii. Conclusion of Each Overbid Round. Upon the solicitation of each round of applicable Overbids, the Debtor may announce a deadline (the "Overbid Round Deadline") by which time any Overbids must be submitted to the Debtor and Consultation Parties.

iii. Announcing Highest or Otherwise Best Bid. Subject to each Overbid Round Deadline, the Debtor shall announce whether it, in consultation with the Consultation Parties, has identified in the applicable Overbid round, one or more Overbids as being higher or otherwise better than the Initial Minimum Overbid for such asset package, or in subsequent rounds, the Overbid(s) previously designated as the prevailing highest or otherwise best bid for a given asset package (for each asset package, collectively, the "Prevailing Highest Bid"). After each round of bidding, including the initial round, the Debtor shall disclose to all Qualified Bidders the material terms of any Overbid(s) designated as the Prevailing Highest Bid, as well as the value attributed to such Prevailing Highest Bid.

iv. Bids for Less than Substantially All Assets. The Debtor may, in consultation with the Consultation Parties, consider and accept bids for any portion of the Assets, as well as bids for substantially all of the Assets, and hold separate Auctions for portions of the Assets; provided, however, that the Debtor, in consultation with the Consultation Parties may consider and accept bids for less than substantially all of the Assets only so long as the value of such bids, in combination, constitute an Overbid, taking into consideration that if there are no accepted Overbids on the Lake Park Assets alone, the Stalking Horse Agreement provides that Pacifica shall purchase all Assets subject to the terms of the Stalking Horse Agreement and, in such circumstances, the Debtor shall seek Court approval to sell all Assets to the Stalking Horse Bidder at the Sale Hearing. There must be one or more buyers for all Assets at the completion of the Auction. The Debtor will not sell or seek Court authority to sell only one of the two Facilities.

4. Consideration of Overbids. The Debtor reserves the right, in its reasonable business judgment after consultation with the Consultation Parties, to adjourn the Auction one or more times to, among other things: (A) facilitate discussions between the Debtor and Qualified Bidders; (B) allow Qualified Bidders to consider how they wish to proceed; (C) consider and determine the current Prevailing Highest Bid at any given time during the Auction; and (D) give any Qualified Bidder the opportunity to provide the Debtor with such additional evidence as the Debtor, in its reasonable business judgment, may require that the Qualified Bidder (other than Stalking Horse Bidder) has sufficient internal resources, or has received sufficient debt and/or equity funding commitments, to consummate the proposed transaction at the prevailing Overbid amount.

F. Closing the Auction.

1. The Auction shall continue until there is only one offer (which may consist of one Qualified Bid for substantially all of the Assets or more than one Qualified Bid for complementary portions of the Assets) that the Debtor determines, in the exercise of its business judgment and after consultation with the Consultation Parties, to be the highest or otherwise best offer for the Assets (one or more such Qualified Bids, the "Successful Bid," and the Qualified Bidder or Qualified Bidders making such Successful Bid, the "Successful Bidder").

2. After determining the Successful Bid and the Successful Bidder, the Debtor will also determine, in its business judgment and after consultation with the Consultation Parties, the Qualified Bidders(s) with the next highest or otherwise best bid(s) for the Assets (the "Backup Bid," andthe Qualified Bidder(s) making such Backup Bid, the "Backup Bidder"), at which point the Auction will be closed.

3. The Debtor shall not consider any bids or Overbids submitted afterthe closing of the Auction, and any such bids or Overbids shall be deemed untimely and shall not constitute Qualified Bids. The determination of the Successful Bid and Backup Bid at the closing of the Auction shall be final, subject only to approval by this Court.

4. After the conclusion of the Auction, the Debtor shall ask that the Court declare the Successful Bidder and Backup Bidder and approve the sale. The Debtor shall thereafter file with this Court and serve upon all Qualified Bidders and parties that have requested notice inthis case a notice identifying the Successful Bidder and the Backup Bidder.

5. As promptly as practicable following the conclusion of the Auction, (i) the Successful Bidder will transfer via wire transfer of immediately available funds or such other form acceptable to the Debtor the amount of its Successful Bid net of its Earnest Money Deposit and Independent Consideration if applicable; and (ii) the Debtor shall cause the Purchase Agreements for the Successful Bidder and the Backup Bidder to be filed with this Court.

6. Following the approval of the sale of the Assets to the Successful Bidder, if such Successful Bidder (i) fails to consummate a sale of the Assets by the Closing Deadline, (ii) breaches such Successful Bidder's Purchase Agreement, or (iii) otherwise fails to perform, the Debtor shall be authorized, but not required, to deem the Backup Bid(s) the Successful Bid(s) and the Debtor shall be authorized, but not required, to consummate thesale with the Qualified Bidder(s) submitting such Backup Bid(s) without further notice or orders of the Court. In the event that thereare multiple Successful Bidders and/or Backup Bidders and only one of such Successful Bidders or Backup Bidders engages in the acts or omissions described in clauses (i) through (iii) of the foregoing sentence, the Debtor may elect to close the contemplated transactions with some or all of the other Successful Bidders or Backup Bidders, as applicable.

7. Nothing in these bid procedures will prevent the Debtor from exercising its fiduciary duties under applicable law.

III. PROPOSED NOTICE AND PROCEDURES FOR THE POTENTIAL ASSIGNMENT AND ASSUMPTION OF EXECUTORY CONTRACTS AND UNEXPIRED LEASES

The Debtor also requests approval of the notice of potential assumption and assignment of certain of the Debtor's executory contracts and unexpired leases pursuant to the terms set forth below ("Assumption and Assignment Procedures").

Notice to Residents of Assumed Repayable Entrance Fee Liabilities and Assumption and Assignment of Residency Agreements: On or before January 5, 2022, the Debtor shall provide (a) to each Resident whose respective portion of the Assumed Repayable Entrance Fee

Liabilities, calculated as of December 31, 2021, is greater than zero individual notice of the amount of such Resident's respective portion of the Assumed Repayable Entrance Fee Liabilities (each an "Entrance Fee Amount") and (b) individual notice to each current Resident (i) alerting such Resident that the Debtor has sought to assume and assign that Resident's Residency Agreement to the Successful Bidder, (ii) providing the additional cure amount ("Resident Cure Amount"), if any, for assuming that Resident's Residency Agreement, and (iii) providing notification of the Resident's right to seek adequate assurance of future performance as contemplated in Section 365(f)(2)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code ("Resident Notice"). Any Resident that objects to the amount of the Entrance Fee Amount or Resident Cure Amount set forth in its Resident Notice must file an objection thereto by January19, 2022 and serve it on the Notice Parties (listed below) and otherwise in accordance with applicable rules ("Service Requirements").

If a Resident does not timely object to a Resident Notice, it will be barred from objection to its Entrance Fee Amount, Resident Cure Amount, or assumption and assignment of its Residency Agreement, other than based on a lack of adequate assurance of future performance. If an objection to an Entrance Fee Amount or Resident Cure Amount is timely filed and is not resolved prior to the Sale Hearing, it will be resolved at the Sale Hearing.

After the conclusion of the Auction, the Debtor shall file with the Court and serve on each current Resident a notice ("Assumption and Assignment Notice") identifying the Successful Bidder, identifying the executory contracts, unexpired leases and other liabilities of the Debtor that the Successful Bidder seeks to have the Debtor assume and assign to the Successful Bidder ("Assumed Agreements"), and providing the Successful Bidder's assurance of future performance of the Assumed Agreements, as applicable. Any Resident that objects to the adequacy of the assurance of future performance of his, her, or their respective Residency Agreement must file an objection with the Court ("Resident Assurance Objection") and serve it in accordance with the Service Requirements prior to the Sale Hearing. If a Resident does not timely file and serve a Resident Assurance Objection, such Resident will be barred from objecting to the adequacy of the assurance of future performance and assignment of his, her, or their Residency Agreement to the Successful Bidder.

Notice of Cure Amounts for Executory Contracts Other than Assumed Residency Agreements: On or before January 9, 2022, the Debtor will file with the Court and serve a notice to contract counterparties under executory contracts and unexpired leases which are not Assumed Residency Agreements (collectively "Non-Resident Contract Counterparties"), setting forth the Debtor's calculation of each Non-Resident Contract Counterparty's cure amount, if any, that would be owed if the Debtor determines to seek to assume and assign its executory contract or unexpired lease, and alerting such Non-Resident Contract Counterparty that its agreement may be assumed and assigned to the Successful Bidder ("Cure Notice"). Any Non-Resident Contract Counterparty that objects to the cure amount set forth in the Cure Notice must file an objection on or before January 19, 2022 and serve in accordance with the Service Requirements. The Debtor's service of a Cure Notice on any party shall not constitute or be deemed a determination or admission by the Debtor and its estate or any other party in interest that such contract, lease, or other agreement is, in fact, an executory contract or unexpired lease within the meaning of the Bankruptcy Code or that the Debtor will assume and assign any particular contract, lease, or other agreement.

If a Non-Resident Contract Counterparty does not timely object to a Cure Notice, it will be barred from objecting to the Debtor's designated cure amount and assumption and assignment of its executory contract or unexpired lease with the Debtor other than based on a lack of adequate assurance of future performance. If an objection to a Cure Notice is timely filed and is not resolved prior to the Sale Hearing, it will be resolved at the Sale Hearing.

Notice on the Non-Resident Contract Counterparties. After the conclusion of the Auction, the Debtor shall serve the Assumption and Assignment Notice on the Non-Resident Contract Counterparties. Any Non-Resident Contract Counterparty that objects to the adequacy of the assurance of future performance must file an objection with the Court ("Non-Resident Assurance Objection") and serve it in accordance with the Service Requirements prior to the Sale Hearing. If a Non-Resident Contract Counterparty does not file and serve a Non-Resident Assurance Objection prior to the Sale Hearing, such party will be forever barred from objecting to the adequacy of the assurance of future performance and assignment of its executory contract or unexpired lease to the Successful Bidder. The inclusion of a contract, lease, or other agreement on an Assumption and Assignment Notice shall not constitute or be deemed a determination or admission by the Debtor and its estate or any other party in interest that such contract, lease, or other agreement is, in fact, an executory contract or unexpired lease within the meaning of the Bankruptcy Code or that the Debtor will assume and assign any particular contract, lease, or other agreement.

In the event the Debtor seeks to close a sale to the Backup Bidder, the Debtor shall provide prompt written notice thereof to all recipients of Resident Notices and Cure Notices, which parties shall have three business days to object in accordance with the Service Requirements, solely on the basis of any changed circumstances since the date of the Sale Hearing.

The Notice Parties are: The Notice Parties are: (i) the Debtor, California-Nevada Methodist Homes, Attention: Steven A. Nerger, Email: SNerger@silvermanconsulting.net; (ii) counsel to the Debtor, Neal L. Wolf, Email: nwolf@hansonbridgett.com; (iii) Office of the United States Trustee, Attn: Trevor Fehr, Esq., 450 Golden Gate Avenue, 5th Floor, Suite #05-0153, San Francisco, CA 94102, Email: Trevor.Fehr@usdoj.gov; (iv) counsel to the Committee, Sara L. Chenetz, Email: SChenetz@perkinscoie.com; (v) counsel to HCAI, Cara Porter, Email: cara.porter@doj.ca.gov; (vi) counsel to the California Department of Social Services, Anjana Gunn, Email: Anjana.Gunn@doj.ca.gov; (vii) counsel to Wilmington, Kristin K. Going, Email: kgoing@mwe.com; (viii) counsel to B.H. Capital Ventures, LLC, Sharon Weiss, Email: sharon.weiss@bclplaw.com; and as to the Assumption and Assignment Notice additionally (ix) each Successful Bidder at the address provided in the applicable Stalking Horse Agreement or Modified Agreement.

The Debtor submits that compliance with the requirements above is sufficient notice of parties rights under Section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code.

IV. SALE MOTION

At the Sale Hearing, the Debtor will present the Successful Bid to the Court for approval. The Debtor shall file a separate motion ("Sale Motion") seeking authority to sell the Assets on or before the date ordered by the Court at the hearing held on this Motion.

Objections, if any, to the Sale Motion shall (i) be in writing; (ii) state the name and address of the objecting party and the amount and nature of the Claim or other interest of such party in the Case; (iii) state with particularity the basis and nature of any objection; (iv) conform to the Bankruptcy Rules and the Local Rules; (v) be filed with the Court and served on the Consultation Parties, Successful Bidder(s), Back-up Bidder and all parties requesting notice in the Case by January 19, 2022 ("Sale Objection Deadline").

Any party which fails to file with the Court and serve an objection or response to the Sale Motion by the Sale Objection Deadline may be barred from asserting at the Sale Hearing or thereafter any objection to approval of the Sale, other than as set forth in the Assumption and Assignment Procedures.

V. THE CONSULTATION PARTIES

The Debtor and its advisors will continue to regularly and timely consult with the Consultation Parties and their advisors about the sale process, inquiries and information the Debtor and its advisors receive from potential bidders and confer with the Consultation Parties about responses thereto, except to the extent any Consultation Party seeks to become or becomes a Qualified Bidder.

The Debtor agrees to promptly provide copies of all Bids (if not simultaneously delivered to any Consultation Party) and all expressions or indication of interest the Debtor receives for some or all Assets to the Consultation Parties, but in no event later than one calendar day after receipt by the Debtor thereof.

VI. BASIS FOR RELIEF REQUESTED

A. Sufficient Business Justification Exists for Consummation of a Sale under Sections 105(a), 363(b), and/or 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code

Pursuant to section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, a "[c]ourt may issue any order, process, or judgment that is necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this title." Section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that a debtor, "after notice and a hearing, may use, sell, or lease, other than in the ordinary course of business, property of the estate." Although section 363(b) does not specify a standard for determining when it is appropriate for a court to authorize the use, sale, or lease of property of the estate, courts have required that such use, sale, or lease be based upon the sound business judgment of the debtor. See Walter v. Sunwest Bank (In re Walter), 83 B.R. 14, 19 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 1988) ("[T]here must be some articulated business justification for using, selling, or leasing the property outside the ordinary course of business.") (internal citations omitted).

In determining whether the debtor has complied with the sound business judgment rule, the Court must consider whether: (a) there has been "[a]ny improper or bad motive," (b) "[t]he price is fair and the negotiations or bidding has occurred at arm's length" and (c) the sale followed "[a]dequate procedures, including proper exposure to the market and accurate and reasonable notice to all parties in interest." In re Castre, 312 B.R. 426, 428 (Bankr. D. Colo. 2004). When applying the rule, "the bankruptcy court should presume that the debtor-in-possession acted prudently, on an informed basis, in good faith, and in the honest belief that the action taken was in the best interests of the bankruptcy estate." Agarwal v. Pomona Valley Med. Group, Inc. (In re Pomona Valley Med. Group, Inc.), 476 F.3d 665, 670 (9th Cir. 2007). In the context of this rule, courts often approve overbid procedures. See, e.g., In re Crown Corp., 679 F.2d 774, 777 (9th Cir. 1982) (discussing the overbid procedures approved by the bankruptcy court).

Additionally, the Debtor believes that the presence of the Stalking Horse Bidder will not chill competitive bidding. To the contrary, the Debtor believes that the presence of the Stalking Horse Bidder combined with a fair and open process will increase interest and drive the value of the Assets for the stakeholders. In consideration for acting as the Stalking Horse Bidder, and in consideration of the extensive time and diligence costs incurred and to be incurred in negotiating and preparing the Stalking Horse Agreement and any ancillary agreements, the Debtor requests that the Court approve the Break-Up Fee.

Break-up fees are a normal and, in many cases, necessary component of significant sales conducted under section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code. "Break-up fees are important tools to encourage bidding and to maximize the value of the debtor's assets. . . . In fact, because the directors of a corporation have a duty to encourage bidding, break-up fees can be necessary to discharge [such] duties to maximize value." In re Integrated Resources, 147 B.R. 650, 659–60 (S.D.N.Y. 1992) (emphasis in original). Specifically, "[b]reak-up fees and other strategies may be legitimately necessary to convince a 'white knight' bidder to enter the bidding by providing some form of compensation for the risks it is undertaking." In re 995 Fifth Ave. Assocs., L.P., 96 B.R. 24, 28 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1989) (quotations omitted); Integrated Resources, 147 B.R. at 660–61 (breakup fees can prompt bidders to commence negotiations and "ensure that a bidder does not retract its bid"); In re Hupp Industries, Inc., 140 B.R. 191, 194 (Bankr. N.D. Ohio 1992) ("[W]ithout such fees, bidders would be reluctant to make an initial bid for fear that their first bid will be shopped around for a higher bid from another bidder who would capitalize on the initial bidder's . . . due diligence.").

Break-up fees are proper and necessary tools to ensure lively bidding, protect the auction process, and avoid potential litigation. See In re Texas Rangers Baseball Partners, 431 B.R. 706, 715 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. 2010) (finding that a break-up fee was "provided as an alternative to litigation" and that "[a]voidance of litigation and the inherent benefits of having a stalking horse . . . justify a breakup fee in this case"). As a consequence, bankruptcy courts frequently approve break-up fees in connection with proposed bankruptcy sales. In the process, courts generally consider "(1) whether the relationship of the parties who negotiated the fee is marked by self-dealing or manipulation; (2) whether the fee hampers, rather than encourages, bidding; and (3) whether the amount of the fee is reasonable in relation to the proposed purchase price." In re Twenver, Inc., 149 B.R. 954, 956 (Bankr. D. Colo. 1992); In re Bidermann Industries US.A., Inc., 203 B.R. 547, 552 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1997).

The Debtor believes that the proposed Break-Up Fee is reasonable and appropriate in this Case for, among others, the following reasons: (a) the Break-Up Fee is well within the range approved by bankruptcy courts in similar circumstances; (b) the Break-Up Fee would be paid by any successful higher bidder at the Auction through the initial Overbid at the time of Closing, as opposed to being paid directly by the estate; (c) there is no self-dealing or manipulation, but rather arm's-length negotiations; and (d) the dollar amount of the Stalking Horse Bid sets a floor price—not a ceiling—for the sale of the Assets, which will ensure that the estate preserves, and hopefully maximizes, the value of the Assets.

As additional support, as mentioned above, section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that the Court "may issue any order, process or judgment that is necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this title."

The Debtor has marketed the Assets post-petition. The open and fair sale process contemplated by the Bidding Procedures will ensure that the Debtor's estate receives the highest or otherwise best value available for the Assets by allowing the market to determine the value of such Assets. Furthermore, compliance with the Bidding Procedures will ensure the fairness and reasonableness of the consideration to be paid by the Stalking Horse Bidder (or other Successful Bidder or Backup Bidder), and establish that the Debtor and such bidder have proceeded in good faith. Depending on the results of the Auction, a sale conducted in accordance with the Bidding Procedures may represent the best path forward for maximizing recoveries to the Debtor's estate, the Debtor's creditors, and all parties in interest, given both the open nature of the proposed process and the Debtor's need to move forward with a transaction and conclude this Chapter 11 Case as soon as possible, as outlined herein and in the Nerger Declaration. The Debtor submits that ample business justification exists for conducting the Auction in accordance with the Bidding Procedures and, therefore, requests that the Court grant the requested relief herein, including (i) approval of the Bidding Procedures; (ii) authorization for the Debtor to enter into the Stalking Horse Agreement on an interim basis for purposes of the Auction; and (iii) approval of the protections afforded the Stalking Horse Bidder by the Break-Up Fee.

B. The Court Should Approve the Bidding Procedures

The key objective in any sale of property of a debtor's estate is to maximize the value received by the estate. Here, the Debtor has designed the Bidding Procedures to promote a competitive and fair bidding process and, thus, to maximize value for the Debtor's estate and creditors. The Bidding Procedures will allow the Debtor to conduct any sale in a controlled, fair, and open fashion that will encourage participation by financially capable bidders, thereby increasing the likelihood that the Debtor will receive the highest or otherwise best possible consideration for the Assets. The Bidding Procedures provide an appropriate framework for the Debtor to review, analyze, and compare any bids received and ultimately determine which bids are in the best interests of the Debtor's estate and creditors in a fair and objective manner. The Debtor submits that the Bidding Procedures strike an appropriate balance between expediency, on the one hand, and fairness and transparency, on the other. As such, an Auction conducted in accordance with the Bidding Procedures will encourage bidding and derive the highest or otherwise best bids for the Assets with minimal risk of delay-related value destruction.

Therefore, the Debtor requests that the Court approve the Bidding Procedures, including, without limitation, the timing proposed therein for the Auction and the Sale Hearing, the Stalking Horse Bidder, and the Break-Up Fee.

C. The Assumption and Assignment Notice and Proposed Procedures Therein Comport with Section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 2002

Section 365(a) of the Bankruptcy Code provides, in pertinent part, that a debtor in possession, "subject to the court's approval, may assume or reject any executory contract or unexpired lease of the debtor." In the Ninth Circuit, courts apply the business judgement standard to determine whether or not to authorize the assumption of a contract or an unexpired lease and need only "engage in a cursory review" of the debtor-in-possession's decision. Pomona Valley Med. Group, 476 F.3d at 670.

Here, the Debtor has exercised its sound business judgment in determining that assumption and assignment of the certain executory contracts in connection with a sale may be in the best interests of the Debtor and its estate and, accordingly, the Court should approve the procedures governing the potential assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts under section 365(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, as set forth on the Assumption and Assignment Procedures.

As set forth above, the Debtor believes that a sale may yield the maximum value for the Debtor's estate. To that end, the assumption, assignment, and sale of the Assumed Contracts will be necessary for the Debtor to obtain the benefits of the Stalking Horse Agreement or any topping purchase agreement. In addition, under section 365(k) of the Bankruptcy Code, a debtor's assignment of a contract or lease "relieves the trustee and the estate from any liability for any breach of such contract or lease occurring after such assignment." Thus, following an assignment to the Successful Bidder of any Assumed Contracts, the Debtor will be relieved from any liability for any subsequent breach associated therewith, providing additional value to the Debtor's estate.

Moreover, as set forth above and in the Bidding Procedures, for a bid to qualify as a Qualified Bid, a Qualifying Bidder must include evidence supporting its ability to comply with the requirements of adequate assurance of future performance under section 365(f)(2)(B) and, if applicable, section 365(b)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code. Appropriate procedures to comply with these requirements is contained in the Assumption and Assignment Procedures.

The Debtor submits that the procedures set forth in the Assumption and Assignment Procedures are in the best interest of the Debtor's estate, and, as such, should be approved. The Debtor further submits that the proposed notice procedures fully comply with Bankruptcy Rule 2002 and are reasonably calculated to provide timely and adequate notice of the relief sought through this Motion.

The Debtor reserves all of its rights under the Bankruptcy Code.

VII. NOTICE

The Debtor will serve notice of the hearing on this Motion by email, facsimile, or overnight courier to: (i) the Office of the United States Trustee; (ii) counsel to the Committee; (iii) the California Health Facilities Financing Authority; (iv) HCAI; (v) Wilmington; (vi) Pacifica; (vii) all other entities that submitted a letter of intent in connection with the Sale Process; (viii) SEIU National Industry Pension Fund; (ix) B.H. Capital Ventures, LLC; (x) the California Department of Social Services; (xi) all creditors known to the Debtor; and (xii) all parties who have formally appeared in this Chapter 11 Case and requested service pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002. The Debtor submit that, in light of the nature of the relief requested, no other or further notice is required.

VIII. NO PRIOR REQUEST

No prior request for the relief sought in this Motion has been made by the Debtor to this or any other court.

IX. CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, the Debtor respectfully requests entry of the Order, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A, granting the relief requested herein and granting such other relief as is just and proper.

A proposed form of order granting the relief requested herein (the "Order") is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

I. JURISDICTION

The United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of California (this "Court") has jurisdiction to consider this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334, the Order Referring Bankruptcy Cases and Proceedings to Bankruptcy Judges, General Order 24 (N.D. Cal.), and Rule 5011-1(a) of the Bankruptcy Local Rules for the Northern District of California (the "Bankruptcy Local Rules"). This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b). Venue is proper before the Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

II. BACKGROUND

A. The Debtor's Bankruptcy Case

On March 16, 2021 (the "Petition Date"), the Debtor commenced this Chapter 11 Case by filing a voluntary petition under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtor continues to operate its business and manage its property as a debtor in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. On April 8, 2021 and April 19, 2021, the United States Trustee for the Northern District of California appointed an Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the "Committee") in the Chapter 11 Case. No request has been made for the appointment of a trustee or examiner in the Chapter 11 Case.

Additional information about the Debtor's business and affairs, capital structure and prepetition indebtedness, and the events leading up to the Petition Date is set forth in the previously filed Declaration of Steven A. Nerger in Support of Debtor's "First Day Motions" [Dkt. No. 14].

B. Prior Sale Process

For a substantial period of time, the Debtor has been sustaining severe operating losses. See Nerger Declaration. In the opinion of the Debtor and its Chief Restructuring Officer, these substantial operating losses cannot quickly and readily be reversed or rectified and it is necessary that the Debtor expeditiously enter into a sale or merger transaction with a highly qualified and financially sound entity. Id.

On May 20, 2021, upon motion by the Debtor, the bankruptcy court entered an order authorizing the Debtor to employ B.C. Ziegler & Company ("Ziegler"), a highly qualified investment banking firm, to develop and implement a sale or merger process ("Sale Process"). Ziegler quickly went to work orchestrating that process. Ziegler contacted approximately one hundred potentially interested parties, entered into a nondisclosure agreement with and circulated a comprehensive "offering memorandum" to parties who expressed interest in a possible transaction, and engaged many of those parties in direct, one-on-one discussions. In response to the offering memorandum, Ziegler elicited non-binding letters of interest from ten potential purchasers or merger partners, including Pacifica Companies, LLC or its designee ("Pacifica"). Id.

With the assistance of the Debtor's counsel, Neal L. Wolf, Ziegler then conducted what the Debtor believes amounted to a de facto auction process for the sale of substantially all of the Debtor's assets (the "Assets"). The Debtor and Ziegler called upon and encouraged potential buyers and merger partners to enhance their respective proposals. In response, Pacifica and certain other interested purchasers enhanced their respective proposals on two or more occasions. Ultimately, Pacifica made what the Debtor determined to be the most advantageous proposal.

Significantly, Pacifica conditioned the amount of its final, and highest, proposal on the conduct of a "private sale" transaction by the Debtor. Pacifica indicated that, if there were to be a court-supervised auction process at which it were designated as merely a "stalking horse" bidder, the Pacifica offer would be reduced by approximately $2 million and Pacifica would require a $1.5 million "break-up fee." Id. Debtor and Pacifica subsequently executed a purchase and sale agreement for Pacifica's purchase of substantially all of the Debtor's assets (such agreement as subsequently amended by Debtor and Pacifica, the "Original Purchase and Sale Agreement").

On November 23, 2021 the Court entered an Order Approving the Sale of Substantially All of Debtor's Assets to Pacifica Companies, LLC Free and Clear of Any Liens and Encumbrances [Dkt. No. 348]. Unfortunately, however, on November 29, 2021, Pacifica exercised its right to terminate, without liability, the Original Purchase and Sale Agreement.

C. Proposed Sale Process

After Pacifica's termination of the Original Purchase and Sale Agreement, the Debtor determined in its business judgment to conduct a competitive bid-and-sale process for the orderly sale of substantially all of the Debtor's Assets under sections 363 and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code. After further arm's-length negotiations, the Debtor and Pacifica, as the stalking horse bidder (the "Stalking Horse Bidder," and Pacifica's bid, the "Stalking Horse Bid") entered into an that certain Purchase and Sale Agreement, dated as of December 17, 2021 (the "Stalking Horse Agreement").[2]

The terms and conditions identified in the Stalking Horse Agreement are subject to higher and better bids at an auction on either or both of the Debtor's facilities located at (a) 1850 Alice St., Oakland, CA 94612, along with the CNMH Corporate Office Building located at

201 19th Street, Oakland, CA 94612 (collectively, "Lake Park"), and (b) 511 Gibson Ave., Pacific Grove, CA 93950, along with the Pacific Grove Parking Garage located at 26 Sinex Ave., Pacific Grove, CA 93950 (collectively, "Forest Hill" and, together with Lake Park, the "Facilities"); provided, however, that if the Stalking Horse Bidder is the successful bidder on the Forest Hill property alone, the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement shall be in effect for purposes of the acquisition of the Forest Hill Assets, assumption of the Assumed Forest Hill Residency Agreements and assumption of the Assumed forest Hill Repayable Entrance Fee Liabilities and not in connection with acquisition of the Lake Park Assets or assumption of the Lake Park Residency Agreements or Assumed Lake Forest Repayable Entrance Fee Liabilities.

As consideration for and as a material inducement to the Stalking Horse Bidder conducting its due diligence and entering into the Stalking Horse Agreement, the Debtor agreed to certain bid procedures and protections. Sale of each of the two Facilities is subject to a $500,000 break-up fee ("Single Facility Break-up Fee") in the event the Stalking Horse Bidder is not the Successful Bidder (as defined below) on one Facility and a $1,000,000 break-up fee (together with the Single Facility Break-up Fee the "Break-up Fee")[3] in the event the Stalking Horse Bidder is not the Successful Bidder on both Facilities, subject to approval of the Bankruptcy Court after notice and opportunity for hearing, which Break-Up Fee shall be payable from the sale proceeds at the time of closing. To the extent the Stalking Horse Bidder submits any Overbids (as defined below) and it overbids on one Facility on the approved terms for Overbids, it may apply the Single Facility Break-up Fee as a credit toward the purchase price of one Facility, or may apply the Break-up Fee as a credit toward the purchase price of both Facilities. Under this Motion, the Debtor seeks court approval of the sale procedures, sale, and bid protections as set forth herein.

[3] The Single Facility Break-up Fee and Break-up Fee are inclusive of all fees and expenses. The Stalking Horse Bidder is not entitled to any additional expense reimbursement from the Debtor.

D. Proposed Bidding Procedures

The Debtor believes that the Bidding Procedures will promote a transparent, competitive, and expedient sale process. If approved, the Bidding Procedures will allow the Debtor to solicit and identify bids from potential buyers, resulting in the highest or otherwise best offer for the Assets on a schedule consistent with the deadlines under the Stalking Horse Agreement and with the Debtor's cash needs and overall chapter 11 strategy. The following sets forth a summary of the key provisions of the Bidding Procedures:

Stalking Horse Agreement. On December 17, 2021, the Debtor entered into the Stalking Horse Agreement with the Stalking Horse Bidder, pursuant to which the Stalking Horse Bidder has agreed to purchase substantially all of the Assets (other than the Excluded Items, as such term is defined in the Stalking Horse Agreement) for consideration consisting of[4]:

1. Cash. The Stalking Horse Bidder shall pay $30,000,000 cash at the Closing for both of the Facilities, including (a) a $1,000,000 Earnest Money deposit, to be deposited into escrow within one business day of execution and delivery of the Stalking Horse Agreement and (b) a $100 Independent Consideration deposit, to be deposited into escrow concurrently with and in addition to the Earnest Money.

2. Purchase Price Allocated to Each Facility. Of the total Purchase Price of $30,000,000, the Stalking Horse Bid allocates a purchase price of $14,150,000 to Forest Hill and related assets (collectively, "Forest Hill Assets") and $15,850,000 to Lake Park and related assets (collectively, "Lake Park Assets").

3. Contracts and Liabilities Assumed. The Stalking Horse Bidder will assume (a) all Residency Agreements for Lake Park in effect as of the Closing Date and all obligations thereunder without modification ("Assumed Lake Park Residency Agreements") pursuant to Section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, (b) all Residency Agreements for Forest Hill in effect as of the Closing Date and all obligations thereunder without modification ("Assumed Forest Hill Residency Agreements," and collectively with the Assumed Lake Park Residency Agreements, ("Assumed Residency Agreements"), (c) all the Non-Restricted Entrance Fee Liability for Lake Park ("Assumed Lake Park Non-Restricted Entrance Fee Liability"), (d) all the Non-Restricted Entrance Fee Liability for Forest Hill ("Assumed Forest Hill Repayable Entrance Fee

[4] Parties are referred to the Stalking Horse Agreement for its complete terms. To the extent there are any inconsistencies between the terms of the Stalking Horse Agreement and the description in this Motion, the terms of the Stalking Horse Agreement prevail.

Case: 21-40363 Doc# 360 Filed: 12/17/21 Entered: 12/17/21 18:48:53 Page 6 of 116

Liabilities"), and (e) the Restricted Entrance Fee Liability [5] (collectively with the Assumed Lake Park Non-Restricted Entrance Fee Liability, "Assumed Lake Park Repayable Entrance Fee Liabilities"), including without limitation as set forth in Sections 2.2 and 4.2 and Schedules 2.2 and 2.4 of the Stalking Horse Agreement.

4. Liabilities Not Assumed. No contracts or liabilities other than the Assumed Residency Agreements, the Assumed Forest Hill Repayable Entrance Fee Liabilities, and the Assumed Lake Park Repayable Entrance Fee Liabilities (the Assumed Lake Park Repayable Entrance Fee Liabilities, together with the Assumed Forest Hill Repayable Entrance Fee Liabilities, the "Assumed Repayable Entrance Fee Liabilities") will be assumed, unless Pacifica designates additional executory contracts or unexpired leases it wishes to assume on or before the Assumption Notice Deadline. With the exception of the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Residency Agreements and the Assumed Repayable Entrance Fee Liabilities and Permitted Encumbrances, the sale will be free and clear of all interests in, liens upon, or claims concerning the Debtor or its assets, including, but not limited to any claims or liabilities for the underfunded portion of the Debtor's multi-employer pension fund or any withdrawal liability that may arise from the Debtor's withdrawal from the multi-employer pension fund, if any.

Bid Deadline. The "Bid Deadline" is January 20, 2022 at 11:59 p.m. (prevailing Pacific Time).

Due Diligence. To participate in the bidding process and to receive access to due diligence materials (the "Diligence Materials"), a party must submit or have previously submitted an executed NDA in connection with the Case in a form reasonably satisfactory to the Debtor. A party which qualifies for access to Diligence Materials is designated a "Potential Bidder." Through and including the Bid Deadline, the Debtor and its advisors will afford all Potential Bidders the opportunity to conduct reasonable due diligence, including reasonable access to Debtor's management and its professionals, access to the electronic data room and other information reasonably requested. All due diligence requests must be directed to: Steven A. Nerger, Chief Restructuring Officer of the Debtor, at snerger@silvermanconsulting.net. Due diligence will close on January 20, 2022 at 5 p.m. (Pacific Standard Time).

Each Potential Bidder shall comply with all reasonable requests for additional information by the Debtor or its advisors regarding the ability of such Potential Bidder to consummate a purchase of the Assets.

[5] The entire Restricted Entrance Fee Liability relates to Lake Park.

Qualified Bid Requirements. To participate in the Auction (as defined below), a Qualified Bidder (as defined below), other than the Stalking Horse Bidder must, by the Bid Deadline, submit a bid that, as determined by the Debtor in its business judgment in consultation with California Department of Health Care Access and Information, f/k/a Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development ("HCAI"), Wilmington Trust, National Association ("Wilmington"), B.H. Capital Ventures, LLC ("BHP"), California Department of Social Services ("CDSS"), and the Committee (collectively, the "Consultation Parties"), satisfies each of the following conditions (the "Bid Requirements"), unless any such Bid Requirements are waived by the Debtor with the agreement of the Consultation Parties; provided, however, that (i) for any bid, the following conditions may not be waived: (1), (3), (5), (7), (8), (9), (11), (12), (13), (15), (18), (19), (20), (26), and (27) below (each such bid, a "Qualified Bid"):

1. Written Submission of a Purchase Agreement. Each bid must be in writing and include: (i) a clean purchase agreement signed by the bidder, accompanied by all exhibits and schedules contemplated by the purchase agreement and, to the extent required by the terms and conditions of the bid, any ancillary agreements described in the purchase agreement with all exhibits and schedules thereto (each such purchase agreement, together with its exhibits, schedules, and ancillary agreements, if any, a "Modified Agreement"); (ii) a redline reflecting the bidder's proposed changes to the Stalking Horse Agreement (including all exhibits and schedules thereto). Each Modified Agreement must conform in all material respects with the form and content of the Stalking Horse Bid, and each Modified Agreement and the Stalking Horse Agreement shall be a "Purchase Agreement" for purposes of the Bidding Procedures.

2. Commitment to Close. Each bid must contain a written statement that the bidder is willing to consummate and fund the sale of the Assets proposed in the Modified Agreement within three business days after satisfaction of the conditions to closing, and in any event by the close of business on April 8, 2022 (the "Closing Deadline").

3. Commitment to Serve as Backup Bidder. Each bid must contain a written statement that the bidder will serve as the Backup Bidder (as defined below).

4. Assets to be Acquired. Each bid must identify with reasonable particularity the Assets to be purchased (the "Purchased Assets") and the Excluded Items. The bid may offer to purchase substantially all of the Assets or only a portion of the Assets; provided, however, that a bid that offers to purchase only a portion of the Assets may only be a Qualified Bid to the extent that the value of such bid, in combination with the value of other bids for the remaining Assets, exceeds the Minimum Initial Overbid Amount (as defined below) applicable to Qualified Bids for substantially all of the Assets. The Debtor may waive or modify the application of the Qualified Bid conditions in respect of bids for a portion of the Assets (other than the requirement that the value of any such Qualified Bid, in combination with the value of other bids for Assets, exceeds the Minimum Initial Overbid Amount applicable to Qualified Bids for substantially all of the Assets). For the avoidance of doubt, no bid from any party other than the Stalking Horse Bidder (pursuant to the Stalking Horse Bid) shall be accepted for that portion of the Assets that includes only Forest Hill unless another party has made an offer that exceeds the Minimum Initial Overbid Amount on a portion of the Assets that includes Lake Park.

5. Assumption of All Assumed Residency Agreements and Assumed Repayable Entrance Fee Liabilities. Each bid for substantially all of the Assets must agree to assume and accept the assignment of (a) all Assumed Residency Agreements without modification and pursuant to Section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code and (b) the Assumed Repayable Entrance Fee Liabilities. Each bid for any portion of the Assets that includes Forest Hill must agree to assume and accept the assignment of (a) all Assumed Forest Hill Residency Agreements without modification and pursuant to Section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code and (b) all Assumed Forest Hill Repayable Entrance Fee Liabilities. Each bid for any portion of the Assets that includes Lake Park must agree to assume and accept the assignment of (a) all Assumed Lake Park Residency Agreements without modification and pursuant to Section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code and (b) all Assumed Lake Park Repayable Entrance Fee Liabilities.

6. Executory Contracts, Leases and Liabilities to be Assumed and Assigned. Each bid must identify with reasonable particularity the executory contracts, unexpired leases and other liabilities of the Debtor that the bidder seeks to have the Debtor assume and assign to the bidder in addition to those set forth in [5] immediately above (collectively, with the Assumed Residency Agreements and Assumed Repayable Entrance Fee Liabilities, the "Assumed Contracts").

7. Irrevocable. Each bid (including the Stalking Horse Bid) must be irrevocable until (i) if such bidder is designated as a Successful Bidder (as defined below), the Closing of the sale of the Assets to such bidder, and (ii) if such bidder is designated as a Backup Bidder, the earlier to occur of (A) five days after the closing of the transaction(s) by which all of the Assets that were subject to the Backup Bid have been transferred to one or more Qualified Bidders at the closing of a sale or sales of the Assets conducted pursuant to these Bidding Procedures or (B) the Closing Deadline.

8. Earnest Money Deposit. Each bid must be accompanied by an Earnest Money deposit paid to the Debtor by certified funds or such other form acceptable to the Debtor in the amount of at least $500,000 for each of the Facilities, which Earnest Money will be held by the Debtor to be applied or returned, as applicable, pursuant to the terms of these Bidding Procedures.

9. Minimum Initial Overbid Amount. Each Overbid must offer to the Debtor aggregate value in an amount as determined by the Debtor, in its reasonable business judgment, that is greater than or equal to the sum of (i) the value offered under the Stalking Horse Agreement, plus (ii) cash (or, in the case of the Stalking Horse Bidder, a credit bid) in the amount of $500,000 for each Facility sought to be acquired, plus (iii) cash in the amount of at least $250,000 (the "Minimum Initial Overbid Amount"), regardless of whether the Overbid is for one or both of the Facilities. Subsequent Overbids shall be in increments of at least $250,000 unless the Court orders otherwise, provided however, the Debtor in consultation with the Consultation Parties may change the minimum of such increments during the Auction.

10. Credit Bid. If any Overbids are submitted, Pacifica may credit bid $1,000,000 of the Break-Up Fee if it submits a subsequent Overbid on both Facilities. If Pacifica opts to overbid on only one of the Facilities, it may credit bid $500,000 and will waive the $500,000 remaining of the Break-Up Fee.

11. Contingencies. No bid may be conditioned on any due diligence, internal approval, financing, or regulatory or third-party approval contingencies of any kind (other than regulatory contingencies required by law or as set forth in the Stalking Horse Agreement).

12. Proof of Financial Ability to Perform. Each bid must contain written evidence, to the Debtor's reasonable satisfaction in consultation with the Consultation Parties, of a firm commitment for financing from a recognized banking institution or HCAI, as of the Bid Deadline, or other evidence of ability to consummate the sale of the Assets contemplated by the Modified Agreement, that will allow the Debtor and Consultation Parties to make a reasonable determination as to the bidder's financial and other capabilities to consummate the transactions contemplated in such bidder's Modified Agreement (taking into account the conditions and third-party beneficiary rights, if any, in any such commitment). Each bid must also contain a commitment by the bidder that, if selected as a Backup Bidder, the bidder will continue to comply with the requirements of this Paragraph II.D.12 until the earlier to occur of (a) five days after the closing of the transaction(s) by which all of the Assets that we subject to the bidder's Backup Bid have been transferred to one or more Qualified Bidders at the closing of a sale or sales of the Assets conducted pursuant to the Bidding Procedures or (b) the Closing Deadline. If the purchaser will be a newly formed entity, the bid must identify, among other things, the entity or entities that will provide backstops in the form of a guarantee and/or an equity commitment letter and describe the nature of such arrangement(s). Such information must additionally include the following:

i. contact names and numbers for verification of financing sources, if applicable;

ii. all equity commitments and other sources of cash in the amount equal to the cash component of the offered Purchase Price or posting of an irrevocable letter of credit issued in favor of the Debtor in such amount;

iii. a description of the Potential Bidder's pro forma capital structure;

13. Financial Statements. To the extent not previously provided, each bid must include the latest audited financial statements and unaudited financial statements of the bidder or, if the bidder is an entity formed for the purpose of acquiring the Assets, the latest audited financial statements and unaudited financial statements of the direct and indirect equity holders or sponsors of the bidder who will guarantee the obligations of the bidder, or such other form of financial disclosure and/or credit support or enhancement, if any, that will allow the Debtor to make a reasonable determination as to the bidder's financial and other capabilities to consummate the transactions contemplated in such bidder's Modified Agreement.

14. Identity of Purchaser. Each bid must, to the satisfaction of the Debtor, in consultation with the Consultation Parties, fully disclose (i) the identity of each person or entity that will be bidding for the Assets or otherwise participating in connection with such bid, (ii) the terms of any such participation, (iii) if any entity has been formed for the purpose of acquiring some, or all, of the Assets, the parties that will bear liability for any breach by such person or entity, and the financial capacity of such parties to satisfy such liability, and (iv) any connections between (x) the bidding party and its affiliates and related persons and (y) the Debtor and their primary creditors as identified by the Debtor.

15. Purchaser's Experience. Each bid must, to the satisfaction of the Debtor in consultation with the Consultation Parties, describe the experience of the bidder with respect to the ownership and management of senior living facilities in general and continuing care communities in particular in California and elsewhere; provided however, that a bidder need not have prior California experience for its bid to be a Qualified Bid.

16. Bidder's Business Plans. Each bid must contain detail regarding the planned operations and management of the Assets after the Closing and information explaining the bidder's ability to obtain necessary regulatory approvals, including any necessary licenses, to purchase and operate the Assets.

17. No Fees or Commissions. No bid (other than the Stalking Horse Bid) may (i) request or entitle the bidder to any break-up fee, expense reimbursement fee, or similar type of payment, or (ii) obligate the Debtor to pay commissions, fees, or expenses to any agent or broker. Further, by submitting a bid, a bidder shall be deemed to waive its right to pursue a substantial contribution claim under section 503 of the Bankruptcy Code or in any way related to the submission of its bid or the Bidding Procedures.

18. As Is, Where Is. As set forth in the Stalking Horse Agreement, a bidder shall state in such bidder's Purchase Agreement that: "Except with respect to (i) Seller's covenants, representations, and warranties expressly set forth in this Agreement and (ii) any loss, damage, injury, liability, claim, expense or demand directly arising out of this Agreement, bidder acknowledges and agrees that bidder is purchasing the Premises in its 'as-is, where is, with all faults' condition as of the Closing."

19. Adequate Assurance. Each bid must include evidence of the bidder's ability to comply with section 365 and/or section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code (to the extent applicable), including providing adequate assurance of such bidder's ability to perform in the future under the Assumed Residency Agreements and all other executory contracts and unexpired leases proposed in its bid to be assumed by the Debtor and assigned to such bidder, in a form that will permit the immediate dissemination of such evidence to the counterparties to such contracts and leases and must consent to the filing of such information with the Court.

20. Corporate Authority. Each bid must include evidence of authorization and approval from the bidder's board of directors (or comparable governing body) with respect to the submission of the bid and the consummation of the transactions contemplated in such bidder's Purchase Agreement.

21. Employees. Each bid must contain a detailed description of how the Qualified Bidder intends to treat current employees of the Debtor and liabilities that may be owed by the Debtor to or for the benefit of current and past employees of the Debtor.

22. Privacy Policies. Each bid must provide to the Debtor's satisfaction that the bidder will adhere to the Debtor's prepetition privacy policies regarding personally identifiable information, except as may be modified pursuant to applicable user terms and applicable law.

23. Access to Books and Records. Each bid must contain provisions allowing the Debtor reasonable access to the Debtor's books and records for the administration of its bankruptcy case if the bid provides for the purchase of such books and records

24. Consent to Jurisdiction: Each Potential Bidder must submit to the jurisdiction of the Court to enter final orders and judgments which in any way related to the Debtor, the Bid Procedures, the Auction, any Modified Agreement, or the construction and enforcement of all agreements, orders and pleadings which in any way relate to the Assets, Sale, Closing, Debtor, Bid Procedures and/or Auction.

25. Disclosure of Connections: Fully disclose any connections or agreements with the Debtor and/or any officer or director of the Debtor. Each Bid must be irrevocable through the entry of the Sale Order; provided, however, that a bid accepted as the Successful Bid or the Backup Bid (as each are defined below) shall remain irrevocable as set forth below.

26. Representations and Warranties: All bids must include the following representations and warranties:

a statement that the Potential Bidder has had an opportunity to conduct all due diligence regarding the Assets prior to submitting its Bid;

a statement that the Potential Bidder has relied solely upon its own independent review, investigation, and/or inspection of the Assets and all information related to the Assets in making its bid, and did not rely on any written or oral statements, representations, promises, warranties, or guaranties whatsoever, whether express or implied, by operation of law or otherwise, regarding the Assets or the completeness of any information provided in connection therewith;

a statement that the Potential Bidder agrees to serve as Back-Up Bidder, if its bid is selected as the next highest or next best bid after the Successful Bid with respect to the applicable Assets;

a statement that the Potential Bidder has not engaged in any collusion with respect to the submission of its bid;

a statement that all proof of financial ability to consummate a Sale in a timely manner and all information provided to support adequate assurance of future performance is true and correct; and a statement that the Bidder agrees to be bound by the terms of the Bid Procedures and any order approving a Sale.

27. Format. All documentation for each bid must be provided in electronic form.

Qualified Bidder. A "Qualified Bidder" is a Bidder that (i) submits a Qualified Bid by the Bid Deadline to the Debtor and each of the Consultation Parties (at the email addresses set forth on Schedule 1 to this Motion), and (ii) the Debtor determines, in the exercise of its business judgment and in consultation with the Consultation Parties, is reasonably likely (based on financial information submitted by the bidder, its pertinent experience and plans, and other considerations) to consummate the sale of the Assets if selected as a Successful Bidder or a Backup Bidder. As noted above, the Stalking Horse Bidder is deemed to be a Qualified Bidder. As promptly as practicable after the Bid Deadline (but in any event not less than one business day before the commencement of the Auction), the Debtor will notify (a) each bidder that submits a bid whether such bidder is a Qualified Bidder, and (b) the Stalking Horse Bidder and all other Qualified Bidders, if any, whether or not any bids (other than the Stalking Horse Agreement) constitute Qualified Bids and identify the Qualified Bidders, including the Stalking Horse Bidder, making any such Qualified Bids.

Auction. The Debtor will conduct an auction (the "Auction") to determine the Successful Bidder(s).

Auction Time and Location. The Auction shall take place on January 24, 2022 at 9:00 a.m. (prevailing Pacific Time) by Zoom or similar virtual process. The Auction may be adjourned from time to time by the Debtor with the agreement of the Consultation Parties or order of this Court in which event notice of such adjournment and the time and place for the resumption of the Auction will be filed with this Court and served promptly on (i) Qualified Bidders; (ii) Consultation Parties, (iii) any other parties who have provided written notice to Debtor's counsel no later than two days prior to the Auction of their intent to attend the Auction; and (iv) all other parties in interest who have requested notice pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002 prior to the continued date and time of the Auction.

Participation at the Auction. Qualified Bidders shall virtually attend the Auction in person (via Zoom) or through a duly-authorized representative. Only the Stalking Horse Bidder and any other Qualified Bidder(s) (or their duly-authorized representatives) (collectively, the "Bidder Participants") are eligible to submit bids at the Auction. While only the Bidder Participants may submit bids at the Auction, the authorized representatives and respective counsel and advisors of each of the Qualified Bidder(s) (regardless of whether such representatives, counsel and advisors are serving as Bidder Participants), the Debtor, the United States Trustee, and the Consultation Parties[6] and any of the Debtor's creditors who notify the Debtor in writing no later than two days prior to the Auction of such creditors' intent to attend the Auction by contacting the Debtor's counsel, Neal L. Wolf, at nwolf@hansonbridgett.com, shall be permitted to attend the Auction; provided, however, that the Debtor may exclude parties whom the Debtor deems to be detrimental to the sale process other than any Consultation Parties. Each Qualified Bidder participating in the Auction (including any Qualified Bidder participating through a duly-authorized representative) will be required to confirm on the record that it has not engaged in any collusion regarding the Bidding Procedures, the Auction, or the sale of the Assets.

E. Auction Procedures.

If no Qualified Bids (other than the Stalking Horse Bid) are received by the Bid Deadline, the Auction will not be held and the Debtor will file a notice with the Court indicating that no Auction will be held within one business day after the Bid Deadline. If the Debtor receives one or more Qualified Bids (in addition to the Stalking Horse Bid) by the Bid Deadline, the Debtor will conduct an Auction for the Assets using the following Auction Procedures.

1. Opening Bid. At least one business day in advance of the Auction, the Debtor will notify each Qualified Bidder of the highest or otherwise best Qualified Bid or Qualified Bid(s), as determined by the Debtor (the "Opening Bid") and will provide copies of the applicable Purchase Agreement for such Opening Bid to each Qualified Bidder. The determination of which Qualified Bid constitutes the Opening Bid shall be determined after consultation with the Consultation Parties and take into account any factors the Debtor deems relevant to the value of the Qualified Bid to the estate, including, among other things, the following: (i) that the Bid satisfies the requirements to be a Qualified Bid as described above (and if a Bid does not do so, it will not be further considered); (ii) the amount and nature of the consideration offered; (iii) the proposed assumption of any liabilities in addition to those which must be assumed to be a Qualified Bid; (iv) the ability of the Qualified Bidder to close the proposed transaction on or before the Closing Deadline; (v) any Purchase Price adjustments; (vi) the impact of the contemplated transaction on any actual or potential litigation; (vii) the net economic effect of any changes from the Stalking Horse Agreement, if any; (viii) the net value to be received by the Debtor's estate including consideration of any amounts required to be paid to the Stalking Horse Bidder; (ix) the bidder's pertinent management and operations experience, and (x) such other considerations the Debtor and Consultation Parties deems relevant.

2. Debtor Shall Conduct the Auction. The Debtor's professionals shall direct and preside over the Auction on behalf of the Debtor via Zoom. At the start of the Auction, Debtor's counsel shall describe the terms of the Opening Bid. The Auction shall be transcribed by a court reporter. The Debtor shall maintain a written transcript of all bids made and announced at the Auction, including the Opening Bid, all applicable Overbids, and the Successful Bid.

3. Terms of Overbid. An "Overbid" is any bid made at the Auction subsequent to the announcement of the Opening Bid. To submit an Overbid for purposes of the Auction, a Qualified Bidder must comply with the following conditions:

   i. Minimum Overbid Increment and Deadline. After the Opening Bid is announced, all subsequent Overbids, if any, shall provide for total consideration to the Debtor (net of the amount for any Break-Up Fee) with a value that exceeds the value of the consideration under the Opening Bid by an incremental amount that is not less than $250,000 (the "Minimum Overbid Increment"), unless otherwise announced at the Auction, consistent with the terms of these Bidding Procedures. For all Qualified Bids, the Minimum Overbid Increment for each Overbid round must be made in cash.

   ii. Conclusion of Each Overbid Round. Upon the solicitation of each round of applicable Overbids, the Debtor may announce a deadline (the "Overbid Round Deadline") by which time any Overbids must be submitted to the Debtor and Consultation Parties.

   iii. Announcing Highest or Otherwise Best Bid. Subject to each Overbid Round Deadline, the Debtor shall announce whether it, in consultation with the Consultation Parties, has identified in the applicable Overbid round, one or more Overbids as being higher or otherwise better than the Initial Minimum Overbid for such asset package, or in subsequent rounds, the Overbid(s) previously designated as the prevailing highest or otherwise best bid for a given asset package (for each asset package, collectively, the "Prevailing Highest Bid"). After each round of bidding, including the initial round, the Debtor shall disclose to all Qualified Bidders the material terms of any Overbid(s) designated as the Prevailing Highest Bid, as well as the value attributed to such Prevailing Highest Bid.

iv. Bids for Less than Substantially All Assets. The Debtor may, in consultation with the Consultation Parties, consider and accept bids for any portion of the Assets, as well as bids for substantially all of the Assets, and hold separate Auctions for portions of the Assets; provided, however, that the Debtor, in consultation with the Consultation Parties may consider and accept bids for less than substantially all of the Assets only so long as the value of such bids, in combination, constitute an Overbid, taking into consideration that if there are no accepted Overbids on the Lake Park Assets alone, the Stalking Horse Agreement provides that Pacifica shall purchase all Assets subject to the terms of the Stalking Horse Agreement and, in such circumstances, the Debtor shall seek Court approval to sell all Assets to the Stalking Horse Bidder at the Sale Hearing. There must be one or more buyers for all Assets at the completion of the Auction. The Debtor will not sell or seek Court authority to sell only one of the two Facilities.

4. Consideration of Overbids. The Debtor reserves the right, in its reasonable business judgment after consultation with the Consultation Parties, to adjourn the Auction one or more times to, among other things: (A) facilitate discussions between the Debtor and Qualified Bidders; (B) allow Qualified Bidders to consider how they wish to proceed; (C) consider and determine the current Prevailing Highest Bid at any given time during the Auction; and (D) give any Qualified Bidder the opportunity to provide the Debtor with such additional evidence as the Debtor, in its reasonable business judgment, may require that the Qualified Bidder (other than Stalking Horse Bidder) has sufficient internal resources, or has received sufficient debt and/or equity funding commitments, to consummate the proposed transaction at the prevailing Overbid amount.

F. Closing the Auction.

1. The Auction shall continue until there is only one offer (which may consist of one Qualified Bid for substantially all of the Assets or more than one Qualified Bid for complementary portions of the Assets) that the Debtor determines, in the exercise of its business judgment and after consultation with the Consultation Parties, to be the highest or otherwise best offer for the Assets (one or more such Qualified Bids, the "Successful Bid," and the Qualified Bidder or Qualified Bidders making such Successful Bid, the "Successful Bidder").

2. After determining the Successful Bid and the Successful Bidder, the Debtor will also determine, in its business judgment and after consultation with the Consultation Parties, the Qualified Bidders(s) with the next highest or otherwise best bid(s) for the Assets (the "Backup Bid," andthe Qualified Bidder(s) making such Backup Bid, the "Backup Bidder"), at which point the Auction will be closed.

3. The Debtor shall not consider any bids or Overbids submitted afterthe closing of the Auction, and any such bids or Overbids shall be deemed untimely and shall not constitute Qualified Bids. The determination of the Successful Bid and Backup Bid at the closing of the Auction shall be final, subject only to approval by this Court.

4. After the conclusion of the Auction, the Debtor shall ask that the Court declare the Successful Bidder and Backup Bidder and approve the sale. The Debtor shall thereafter file with this Court and serve upon all Qualified Bidders and parties that have requested notice inthis case a notice identifying the Successful Bidder and the Backup Bidder.

5. As promptly as practicable following the conclusion of the Auction, (i) the Successful Bidder will transfer via wire transfer of immediately available funds or such other form acceptable to the Debtor the amount of its Successful Bid net of its Earnest Money Deposit and Independent Consideration if applicable; and (ii) the Debtor shall cause the Purchase Agreements for the Successful Bidder and the Backup Bidder to be filed with this Court.

6. Following the approval of the sale of the Assets to the Successful Bidder, if such Successful Bidder (i) fails to consummate a sale of the Assets by the Closing Deadline, (ii) breaches such Successful Bidder's Purchase Agreement, or (iii) otherwise fails to perform, the Debtor shall be authorized, but not required, to deem the Backup Bid(s) the Successful Bid(s) and the Debtor shall be authorized, but not required, to consummate the sale with the Qualified Bidder(s) submitting such Backup Bid(s) without further notice or orders of the Court. In the event that there are multiple Successful Bidders and/or Backup Bidders and only one of such Successful Bidders or Backup Bidders engages in the acts or omissions described in clauses (i) through (iii) of the foregoing sentence, the Debtor may elect to close the contemplated transactions with some or all of the other Successful Bidders or Backup Bidders, as applicable.

7. Nothing in these bid procedures will prevent the Debtor from exercising its fiduciary duties under applicable law.

III. PROPOSED NOTICE AND PROCEDURES FOR THE POTENTIAL ASSIGNMENT AND ASSUMPTION OF EXECUTORY CONTRACTS AND UNEXPIRED LEASES

The Debtor also requests approval of the notice of potential assumption and assignment of certain of the Debtor's executory contracts and unexpired leases pursuant to the terms set forth below ("Assumption and Assignment Procedures").

Notice to Residents of Assumed Repayable Entrance Fee Liabilities and Assumption and Assignment of Residency Agreements: On or before January 5, 2022, the Debtor shall provide (a) to each Resident whose respective portion of the Assumed Repayable Entrance Fee Liabilities, calculated as of December 31, 2021, is greater than zero individual notice of the amount of such Resident's respective portion of the Assumed Repayable Entrance Fee Liabilities (each an "Entrance Fee Amount") and (b) individual notice to each current Resident (i) alerting such Resident that the Debtor has sought to assume and assign that Resident's Residency Agreement to the Successful Bidder, (ii) providing the additional cure amount ("Resident Cure Amount"), if any, for assuming that Resident's Residency Agreement, and (iii) providing notification of the Resident's right to seek adequate assurance of future performance as contemplated in Section 365(f)(2)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code ("Resident Notice"). Any

Resident that objects to the amount of the Entrance Fee Amount or Resident Cure Amount set forth in its Resident Notice must file an objection thereto by January19, 2022 and serve it on the Notice Parties (listed below) and otherwise in accordance with applicable rules ("Service Requirements").

If a Resident does not timely object to a Resident Notice, it will be barred from objection to its Entrance Fee Amount, Resident Cure Amount, or assumption and assignment of its Residency Agreement, other than based on a lack of adequate assurance of future performance. If an objection to an Entrance Fee Amount or Resident Cure Amount is timely filed and is not resolved prior to the Sale Hearing, it will be resolved at the Sale Hearing.

After the conclusion of the Auction, the Debtor shall file with the Court and serve on each current Resident a notice ("Assumption and Assignment Notice") identifying the Successful Bidder, identifying the executory contracts, unexpired leases and other liabilities of the Debtor that the Successful Bidder seeks to have the Debtor assume and assign to the Successful Bidder ("Assumed Agreements"), and providing the Successful Bidder's assurance of future performance of the Assumed Agreements, as applicable. Any Resident that objects to the adequacy of the assurance of future performance of his, her, or their respective Residency Agreement must file an objection with the Court ("Resident Assurance Objection") and serve it in accordance with the Service Requirements prior to the Sale Hearing. If a Resident does not timely file and serve a Resident Assurance Objection, such Resident will be barred from objecting to the adequacy of the assurance of future performance and assignment of his, her, or their Residency Agreement to the Successful Bidder.

Notice of Cure Amounts for Executory Contracts Other than Assumed Residency Agreements: On or before January 9, 2022, the Debtor will file with the Court and serve a notice to contract counterparties under executory contracts and unexpired leases which are not Assumed Residency Agreements (collectively "Non-Resident Contract Counterparties"), setting forth the Debtor's calculation of each Non-Resident Contract Counterparty's cure amount, if any, that would be owed if the Debtor determines to seek to assume and assign its executory contract or unexpired lease, and alerting such Non-Resident Contract Counterparty that its agreement may be assumed and assigned to the Successful Bidder ("Cure Notice"). Any Non-Resident Contract Counterparty that objects to the cure amount set forth in the Cure Notice must file an objection on or before January 19, 2022 and serve in accordance with the Service Requirements. The Debtor's service of a Cure Notice on any party shall not constitute or be deemed a determination or admission by the Debtor and its estate or any other party in interest that such contract, lease, or other agreement is, in fact, an executory contract or unexpired lease within the meaning of the Bankruptcy Code or that the Debtor will assume and assign any particular contract, lease, or other agreement.

If a Non-Resident Contract Counterparty does not timely object to a Cure Notice, it will be barred from objecting to the Debtor's designated cure amount and assumption and assignment of its executory contract or unexpired lease with the Debtor other than based on a lack of adequate assurance of future performance. If an objection to a Cure Notice is timely filed and is not resolved prior to the Sale Hearing, it will be resolved at the Sale Hearing.

Notice on the Non-Resident Contract Counterparties. After the conclusion of the Auction, the Debtor shall serve the Assumption and Assignment Notice on the Non-Resident Contract Counterparties. Any Non-Resident Contract Counterparty that objects to the adequacy of the assurance of future performance must file an objection with the Court ("Non-Resident Assurance Objection") and serve it in accordance with the Service Requirements prior to the Sale Hearing. If a Non-Resident Contract Counterparty does not file and serve a Non-Resident Assurance Objection prior to the Sale Hearing, such party will be forever barred from objecting to the adequacy of the assurance of future performance and assignment of its executory contract or unexpired lease to the Successful Bidder. The inclusion of a contract, lease, or other agreement on an Assumption and Assignment Notice shall not constitute or be deemed a determination or admission by the Debtor and its estate or any other party in interest that such contract, lease, or other agreement is, in fact, an executory contract or unexpired lease within the meaning of the Bankruptcy Code or that the Debtor will assume and assign any particular contract, lease, or other agreement.

In the event the Debtor seeks to close a sale to the Backup Bidder, the Debtor shall provide prompt written notice thereof to all recipients of Resident Notices and Cure Notices, which parties shall have three business days to object in accordance with the Service Requirements, solely on the basis of any changed circumstances since the date of the Sale Hearing.

The Notice Parties are: The Notice Parties are: (i) the Debtor, California-Nevada Methodist Homes, Attention: Steven A. Nerger, Email: SNerger@silvermanconsulting.net; (ii) counsel to the Debtor, Neal L. Wolf, Email: nwolf@hansonbridgett.com; (iii) Office of the United States Trustee, Attn: Trevor Fehr, Esq., 450 Golden Gate Avenue, 5th Floor, Suite #05-0153, San Francisco, CA 94102, Email: Trevor.Fehr@usdoj.gov; (iv) counsel to the Committee, Sara L. Chenetz, Email: SChenetz@perkinscoie.com; (v) counsel to HCAI, Cara Porter, Email: cara.porter@doj.ca.gov; (vi) counsel to the California Department of Social Services, Anjana Gunn, Email: Anjana.Gunn@doj.ca.gov; (vii) counsel to Wilmington, Kristin K. Going, Email: kgoing@mwe.com; (viii) counsel to B.H. Capital Ventures, LLC, Sharon Weiss, Email: sharon.weiss@bclplaw.com; and as to the Assumption and Assignment Notice additionally (ix) each Successful Bidder at the address provided in the applicable Stalking Horse Agreement or Modified Agreement.

The Debtor submits that compliance with the requirements above is sufficient notice of parties rights under Section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code.

IV. SALE MOTION

At the Sale Hearing, the Debtor will present the Successful Bid to the Court for approval. The Debtor shall file a separate motion ("Sale Motion") seeking authority to sell the Assets on or before the date ordered by the Court at the hearing held on this Motion.

Objections, if any, to the Sale Motion shall (i) be in writing; (ii) state the name and address of the objecting party and the amount and nature of the Claim or other interest of such party in the Case; (iii) state with particularity the basis and nature of any objection; (iv) conform to the Bankruptcy Rules and the Local Rules; (v) be filed with the Court and served on the Consultation Parties, Successful Bidder(s), Back-up Bidder and all parties requesting notice in the Case by January 19, 2022 ("Sale Objection Deadline").

Any party which fails to file with the Court and serve an objection or response to the Sale Motion by the Sale Objection Deadline may be barred from asserting at the Sale Hearing or thereafter any objection to approval of the Sale, other than as set forth in the Assumption and Assignment Procedures.

V. THE CONSULTATION PARTIES

The Debtor and its advisors will continue to regularly and timely consult with the Consultation Parties and their advisors about the sale process, inquiries and information the Debtor and its advisors receive from potential bidders and confer with the Consultation Parties about responses thereto, except to the extent any Consultation Party seeks to become or becomes a Qualified Bidder.

The Debtor agrees to promptly provide copies of all Bids (if not simultaneously delivered to any Consultation Party) and all expressions or indication of interest the Debtor receives for some or all Assets to the Consultation Parties, but in no event later than one calendar day after receipt by the Debtor thereof.

VI. BASIS FOR RELIEF REQUESTED

A. Sufficient Business Justification Exists for Consummation of a Sale under Sections 105(a), 363(b), and/or 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code

Pursuant to section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, a "[c]ourt may issue any order, process, or judgment that is necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this title." Section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that a debtor, "after notice and a hearing, may use, sell, or lease, other than in the ordinary course of business, property of the estate." Although section 363(b) does not specify a standard for determining when it is appropriate for a court to authorize the use, sale, or lease of property of the estate, courts have required that such use, sale, or lease be based upon the sound business judgment of the debtor. See Walter v. Sunwest Bank (In re Walter), 83 B.R. 14, 19 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 1988) ("[T]here must be some articulated business justification for using, selling, or leasing the property outside the ordinary course of business.") (internal citations omitted).

In determining whether the debtor has complied with the sound business judgment rule, the Court must consider whether: (a) there has been "[a]ny improper or bad motive," (b) "[t]he price is fair and the negotiations or bidding has occurred at arm's length" and (c) the sale followed "[a]dequate procedures, including proper exposure to the market and accurate and reasonable notice to all parties in interest." In re Castre, 312 B.R. 426, 428 (Bankr. D. Colo. 2004). When applying the rule, "the bankruptcy court should presume that the debtor-in-possession acted prudently, on an informed basis, in good faith, and in the honest belief that the action taken was in the best interests of the bankruptcy estate." Agarwal v. Pomona Valley Med. Group, Inc. (In re Pomona Valley Med. Group, Inc.), 476 F.3d 665, 670 (9th Cir. 2007). In the context of this rule, courts often approve overbid procedures. See, e.g., In re Crown Corp., 679 F.2d 774, 777 (9th Cir. 1982) (discussing the overbid procedures approved by the bankruptcy court).

Additionally, the Debtor believes that the presence of the Stalking Horse Bidder will not chill competitive bidding. To the contrary, the Debtor believes that the presence of the Stalking Horse Bidder combined with a fair and open process will increase interest and drive the value of the Assets for the stakeholders. In consideration for acting as the Stalking Horse Bidder, and in consideration of the extensive time and diligence costs incurred and to be incurred in negotiating and preparing the Stalking Horse Agreement and any ancillary agreements, the Debtor requests that the Court approve the Break-Up Fee.

Break-up fees are a normal and, in many cases, necessary component of significant sales conducted under section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code. "Break-up fees are important tools to encourage bidding and to maximize the value of the debtor's assets. . . . In fact, because the directors of a corporation have a duty to encourage bidding, break-up fees can be necessary to discharge [such] duties to maximize value." In re Integrated Resources, 147 B.R. 650, 659–60 (S.D.N.Y. 1992) (emphasis in original). Specifically, "[b]reak-up fees and other strategies may be legitimately necessary to convince a 'white knight' bidder to enter the bidding by providing some form of compensation for the risks it is undertaking." In re 995 Fifth Ave. Assocs., L.P., 96 B.R. 24, 28 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1989) (quotations omitted); Integrated Resources, 147 B.R. at 660–61 (breakup fees can prompt bidders to commence negotiations and "ensure that a bidder does not retract its bid"); In re Hupp Industries, Inc., 140 B.R. 191, 194 (Bankr. N.D. Ohio 1992) ("[W]ithout such fees, bidders would be reluctant to make an initial bid for fear that their first bid will be shopped around for a higher bid from another bidder who would capitalize on the initial bidder's . . . due diligence.").

Break-up fees are proper and necessary tools to ensure lively bidding, protect the auction process, and avoid potential litigation. See In re Texas Rangers Baseball Partners, 431 B.R. 706, 715 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. 2010) (finding that a break-up fee was "provided as an alternative to litigation" and that "[a]voidance of litigation and the inherent benefits of having a stalking horse . . . justify a breakup fee in this case"). As a consequence, bankruptcy courts frequently approve break-up fees in connection with proposed bankruptcy sales. In the process, courts generally consider "(1) whether the relationship of the parties who negotiated the fee is marked by self-dealing or manipulation; (2) whether the fee hampers, rather than encourages, bidding; and (3) whether the amount of the fee is reasonable in relation to the proposed purchase price." In re Twenver, Inc., 149 B.R. 954, 956 (Bankr. D. Colo. 1992); In re Bidermann Industries US.A., Inc., 203 B.R. 547, 552 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1997).

The Debtor believes that the proposed Break-Up Fee is reasonable and appropriate in this Case for, among others, the following reasons: (a) the Break-Up Fee is well within the range approved by bankruptcy courts in similar circumstances; (b) the Break-Up Fee would be paid by any successful higher bidder at the Auction through the initial Overbid at the time of Closing, as opposed to being paid directly by the estate; (c) there is no self-dealing or manipulation, but rather arm's-length negotiations; and (d) the dollar amount of the Stalking Horse Bid sets a floor price—not a ceiling—for the sale of the Assets, which will ensure that the estate preserves, and hopefully maximizes, the value of the Assets.

As additional support, as mentioned above, section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that the Court "may issue any order, process or judgment that is necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this title."

The Debtor has marketed the Assets post-petition. The open and fair sale process contemplated by the Bidding Procedures will ensure that the Debtor's estate receives the highest or otherwise best value available for the Assets by allowing the market to determine the value of such Assets. Furthermore, compliance with the Bidding Procedures will ensure the fairness and reasonableness of the consideration to be paid by the Stalking Horse Bidder (or other Successful Bidder or Backup Bidder), and establish that the Debtor and such bidder have proceeded in good faith. Depending on the results of the Auction, a sale conducted in accordance with the Bidding Procedures may represent the best path forward for maximizing recoveries to the Debtor's estate, the Debtor's creditors, and all parties in interest, given both the open nature of the proposed process and the Debtor's need to move forward with a transaction and conclude this Chapter 11 Case as soon as possible, as outlined herein and in the Nerger Declaration. The Debtor submits that ample business justification exists for conducting the Auction in accordance with the Bidding Procedures and, therefore, requests that the Court grant the requested relief herein, including (i) approval of the Bidding Procedures; (ii) authorization for the Debtor to enter into the Stalking Horse Agreement on an interim basis for purposes of the Auction; and (iii) approval of the protections afforded the Stalking Horse Bidder by the Break-Up Fee.

B. The Court Should Approve the Bidding Procedures

The key objective in any sale of property of a debtor's estate is to maximize the value received by the estate. Here, the Debtor has designed the Bidding Procedures to promote a competitive and fair bidding process and, thus, to maximize value for the Debtor's estate and creditors. The Bidding Procedures will allow the Debtor to conduct any sale in a controlled, fair, and open fashion that will encourage participation by financially capable bidders, thereby increasing the likelihood that the Debtor will receive the highest or otherwise best possible consideration for the Assets. The Bidding Procedures provide an appropriate framework for the Debtor to review, analyze, and compare any bids received and ultimately determine which bids are in the best interests of the Debtor's estate and creditors in a fair and objective manner. The Debtor submits that the Bidding Procedures strike an appropriate balance between expediency, on the one hand, and fairness and transparency, on the other. As such, an Auction conducted in accordance with the Bidding Procedures will encourage bidding and derive the highest or otherwise best bids for the Assets with minimal risk of delay-related value destruction.

Therefore, the Debtor requests that the Court approve the Bidding Procedures, including, without limitation, the timing proposed therein for the Auction and the Sale Hearing, the Stalking Horse Bidder, and the Break-Up Fee.

C. The Assumption and Assignment Notice and Proposed Procedures Therein Comport with Section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 2002

Section 365(a) of the Bankruptcy Code provides, in pertinent part, that a debtor in possession, "subject to the court's approval, may assume or reject any executory contract or unexpired lease of the debtor." In the Ninth Circuit, courts apply the business judgement standard to determine whether or not to authorize the assumption of a contract or an unexpired lease and need only "engage in a cursory review" of the debtor-in-possession's decision. Pomona Valley Med. Group, 476 F.3d at 670.

Here, the Debtor has exercised its sound business judgment in determining that assumption and assignment of the certain executory contracts in connection with a sale may be in the best interests of the Debtor and its estate and, accordingly, the Court should approve the procedures governing the potential assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts under section 365(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, as set forth on the Assumption and Assignment Procedures.

As set forth above, the Debtor believes that a sale may yield the maximum value for the Debtor's estate. To that end, the assumption, assignment, and sale of the Assumed Contracts will be necessary for the Debtor to obtain the benefits of the Stalking Horse Agreement or any topping purchase agreement. In addition, under section 365(k) of the Bankruptcy Code, a debtor's assignment of a contract or lease "relieves the trustee and the estate from any liability for any breach of such contract or lease occurring after such assignment." Thus, following an assignment to the Successful Bidder of any Assumed Contracts, the Debtor will be relieved from any liability for any subsequent breach associated therewith, providing additional value to the Debtor's estate.

Moreover, as set forth above and in the Bidding Procedures, for a bid to qualify as a Qualified Bid, a Qualifying Bidder must include evidence supporting its ability to comply with the requirements of adequate assurance of future performance under section 365(f)(2)(B) and, if applicable, section 365(b)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code. Appropriate procedures to comply with these requirements is contained in the Assumption and Assignment Procedures.

The Debtor submits that the procedures set forth in the Assumption and Assignment Procedures are in the best interest of the Debtor's estate, and, as such, should be approved. The Debtor further submits that the proposed notice procedures fully comply with Bankruptcy Rule 2002 and are reasonably calculated to provide timely and adequate notice of the relief sought through this Motion.

The Debtor reserves all of its rights under the Bankruptcy Code.

VII. NOTICE

The Debtor will serve notice of the hearing on this Motion by email, facsimile, or overnight courier to: (i) the Office of the United States Trustee; (ii) counsel to the Committee; (iii) the California Health Facilities Financing Authority; (iv) HCAI; (v) Wilmington; (vi) Pacifica; (vii) all other entities that submitted a letter of intent in connection with the Sale Process; (viii) SEIU National Industry Pension Fund; (ix) B.H. Capital Ventures, LLC; (x) the California Department of Social Services; (xi) all creditors known to the Debtor; and (xii) all parties who have formally appeared in this Chapter 11 Case and requested service pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002. The Debtor submit that, in light of the nature of the relief requested, no other or further notice is required.

VIII. NO PRIOR REQUEST

No prior request for the relief sought in this Motion has been made by the Debtor to this or any other court.

IX. CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, the Debtor respectfully requests entry of the Order, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A, granting the relief requested herein and granting such other relief as is just and proper.

To participate in the Auction, a Qualified Bidder, other than the Stalking Horse Bidder must, by the Bid Deadline, submit a bid that, as determined by the Debtor in its business judgment in consultation with the Consultation Parties, satisfies each of the following conditions (the "Bid Requirements"), unless any such Bid Requirements are waived by the Debtor with the agreement of the Consultation Parties; provided, however, that for any bid, the following conditions may not be waived: (1), (3), (5), (7), (8), (9), (11), (12), (13), (15), (18), (19), (20), (26), and (27) below (each such bid, a "Qualified Bid"):

The Debtor may waive or modify the application of the Qualified Bid conditions in respect of bids for a portion of the Assets (other than the requirement that the value of any such Qualified Bid, in combination with the value of other bids for Assets, exceeds the Minimum Initial Overbid Amount applicable to Qualified Bids for substantially all of the Assets). Each bid must identify with reasonable particularity the executory contracts, unexpired leases and other liabilities of the Debtor that the bidder seeks to have the Debtor assume and assign to the bidder in addition to those set forth in [5] immediately above (collectively, with the Assumed Residency Agreements and Assumed Repayable Entrance Fee Liabilities, the "Assumed Contracts").

7. Irrevocable. Each bid (including the Stalking Horse Bid) must be irrevocable until (i) if such bidder is designated as a Successful Bidder (as defined below), the Closing of the sale of the Assets to such bidder, and (ii) if such bidder is designated as a Backup Bidder, the earlier to occur of (A) five days after the closing of the transaction(s) by which all of the Assets that were subject to the Backup Bid have been transferred to one or more Qualified Bidders at the closing of a sale or sales of the Assets conducted pursuant to these Bidding Procedures or (B) the Closing Deadline.

Subsequent Overbids shall be in increments of at least $250,000 unless the Court orders otherwise, provided however, the Debtor in consultation with the Consultation Parties may change the minimum of such increments during the Auction.

10. Credit Bid. If any Overbids are submitted, Pacifica may credit bid $1,000,000 of the Break-Up Fee if it submits a subsequent Overbid on both Facilities. If Pacifica opts to overbid on only one of the Facilities, it may credit bid $500,000 and will waive the $500,000 remaining of the Break-Up Fee.

11. Contingencies. No bid may be conditioned on any due diligence, internal approval, financing, or regulatory or third-party approval contingencies of any kind (other than regulatory contingencies required by law or as set forth in the Stalking Horse Agreement).

12. Proof of Financial Ability to Perform. Each bid must contain written evidence, to the Debtor's reasonable satisfaction in consultation with the Consultation Parties, of a firm commitment for financing from a recognized banking institution or HCAI, as of the Bid Deadline, or other evidence of ability to consummate the sale of the Assets contemplated by the Modified Agreement, that will allow the Debtor and Consultation Parties to make a reasonable determination as to the bidder's financial and other capabilities to consummate the transactions contemplated in such bidder's Modified Agreement (taking into account the conditions and third-party beneficiary rights, if any, in any such commitment). Each bid must also contain a commitment by the bidder that, if selected as a Backup Bidder, the bidder will continue to comply with the requirements of this Paragraph II.D.12 until the earlier to occur of (a) five days after the closing of the transaction(s) by which all of the Assets that we subject to the bidder's Backup Bid have been transferred to one or more Qualified Bidders at the closing of a sale or sales of the Assets conducted pursuant to the Bidding Procedures or (b) the Closing Deadline. If the purchaser will be a newly formed entity, the bid must identify, among other things, the entity or entities that will provide backstops in the form of a guarantee and/or an equity commitment letter and describe the nature of such arrangement(s). Such information must additionally include the following:

iii. a description of the Potential Bidder's pro forma capital structure;

13. Financial Statements. To the extent not previously provided, each bid must include the latest audited financial statements and unaudited financial statements of the bidder or, if the bidder is an entity formed for the purpose of acquiring the Assets, the latest audited financial statements and unaudited financial statements of the direct and indirect equity holders or sponsors of the bidder who will guarantee the obligations of the bidder, or such other form of financial disclosure and/or credit support or enhancement, if any, that will allow the Debtor to make a reasonable determination as to the bidder's financial and other capabilities to consummate the transactions contemplated in such bidder's Modified Agreement.

17. No Fees or Commissions. No bid (other than the Stalking Horse Bid) may (i) request or entitle the bidder to any break-up fee, expense reimbursement fee, or similar type of payment, or (ii) obligate the Debtor to pay commissions, fees, or expenses to any agent or broker. Further, by submitting a bid, a bidder shall be deemed to waive its right to pursue a substantial contribution claim under section 503 of the Bankruptcy Code or in any way related to the submission of its bid or the Bidding Procedures.

18. As Is, Where Is. As set forth in the Stalking Horse Agreement, a bidder shall state in such bidder's Purchase Agreement that: "Except with respect to (i) Seller's covenants, representations, and warranties expressly set forth in this Agreement and (ii) any loss, damage, injury, liability, claim, expense or demand directly arising out of this Agreement, bidder acknowledges and agrees that bidder is purchasing the Premises in its 'as-is, where is, with all faults' condition as of the Closing."

Any Bid that is not deemed a Qualified Bid, as determined by the Debtor in its business judgment in consultation with the Consultation Parties, shall not be considered by the Debtor, and the Bidder submitting that Bid will not be permitted to participate in the Auction; provided, however, that the Debtor reserves the right to work with any Bidder in advance of the Auction to cure any deficiencies in a Bid that is not initially deemed to be a Qualified Bid. In addition, the Debtor may negotiate or seek clarification of any Bid from any Bidder between the Bid Deadline and the Auction.

Without the consent of the Debtor, a Qualified Bidder may not amend, modify, or withdraw its Bid, except for proposed amendments to increase the amount or otherwise improve the terms of the Qualified Bid during the period that such Qualified Bid is required to remain irrevocable and binding. No Qualified Bid may be amended or modified to consist of terms that are less favorable to the Debtor than those contained in the original (or then current) version of such Qualified Bid, as determined by the Debtor.

8. Designation of Qualified Bidders

A "Qualified Bidder" is a Bidder that (i) submits a Qualified Bid by the Bid Deadline to the Debtor and each of the other Notice Parties, and (ii) the Debtor determines, in the exercise of its business judgment and in consultation with the Consultation Parties, is reasonably likely (based on financial information submitted by the bidder, its pertinent experience and plans, and other considerations) to consummate the sale of the Assets if selected as a Successful Bidder or a Backup Bidder. As noted above, the Stalking Horse Bidder is deemed to be a Qualified Bidder.

As promptly as practicable after the Bid Deadline (but in any event not less than one business day before the commencement of the Auction), the Debtor will notify (a) each bidder that submits a bid whether such bidder is a Qualified Bidder, and (b) the Stalking Horse Bidder and all other Qualified Bidders, if any, whether or not any bids (other than the Stalking Horse Agreement) constitute Qualified Bids and identify the Qualified Bidders, including the Stalking Horse Bidder, making any such Qualified Bids.

Any Earnest Money deposit accompanying a Bid that the Debtor determines not to be a Qualified Bid shall be returned promptly following such determination unless otherwise agreed by the Bidder and the Debtor; provided, however, that for the avoidance of doubt, no Bidder may participate in the Auction regardless of whether it otherwise cures the deficiencies that initially prevented its Bid from being a Qualified Bid unless the Debtor is in possession of an Earnest Money deposit from such Bidder at the time of the Auction.

9. Auction

If no Qualified Bids (other than the Stalking Horse Bid) are received by the Bid Deadline, the Auction will not be held and the Debtor will file a notice with the Court indicating that no Auction will be held within one business day after the Bid Deadline. If the Debtor receives one or more Qualified Bids (in addition to the Stalking Horse Bid) by the Bid Deadline, the Debtor will conduct the Auction on January 24, 2022 at 9:00 a.m. (prevailing Pacific Time) by Zoom or similar virtual process. The Auction may be adjourned from time to time by the Debtor with the agreement of the Consultation Parties or order of this Court in which event notice of such adjournment and the time and place for the resumption of the Auction will be filed with this Court and served promptly on (i) Qualified Bidders; (ii) Consultation Parties, (iii) any other parties who have provided written notice to Debtor's counsel no later than two days prior to the Auction of their intent to attend the Auction; and (iv) all other parties in interest who have requested notice pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002 prior to the continued date and time of the Auction.

Qualified Bidders shall virtually attend the Auction in person (via Zoom) or through a duly-authorized representative. Only the Stalking Horse Bidder and any other Qualified Bidder(s) (or their duly-authorized representatives) (collectively, the "Bidder Participants") are eligible to submit bids at the Auction. While only the Bidder Participants may submit bids at the Auction, the authorized representatives and respective counsel and advisors of each of the Qualified Bidder(s) (regardless of whether such representatives, counsel and advisors are serving as Bidder Participants), the Debtor, the United States Trustee, and the Consultation Parties[4] and any of the Debtor's creditors who notify the Debtor in writing no later than two days prior to the Auction of such creditors' intent to attend the Auction by contacting the Debtor's counsel, Neal L. Wolf, at nwolf@hansonbridgett.com, shall be permitted to attend the Auction; provided, however, that the Debtor may exclude parties whom the Debtor deems to be detrimental to the sale process other than any Consultation Parties. Each Qualified Bidder participating in the Auction (including any Qualified Bidder participating through a duly-authorized representative) will be required to confirm on the record that it has not engaged in any collusion regarding the Bidding Procedures, the Auction, or the sale of the Assets.

The following procedures will govern the Auction:

a. Opening Bid. At least one business day in advance of the Auction, the Debtor will notify each Qualified Bidder of the highest or otherwise best Qualified Bid or Qualified Bid(s), as determined by the Debtor (the "Opening Bid") and will provide copies of the applicable Purchase Agreement for such Opening Bid to each Qualified Bidder. The determination of which Qualified Bid constitutes the Opening Bid shall be determined after consultation with the Consultation Parties and take into account any factors the Debtor deems relevant to the value of the Qualified Bid to the estate, including, among other things, the following: (i) that the Bid satisfies the requirements to be a Qualified Bid as described above (and if a Bid does not do so, it will not be further considered); (ii) the amount and nature of the consideration offered; (iii) the proposed assumption of any liabilities in addition to those which must be assumed to be a Qualified Bid; (iv) the ability of the Qualified Bidder to close the proposed transaction on or before the Closing Deadline; (v) any Purchase Price adjustments; (vi) the impact of the contemplated transaction on any actual or potential litigation; (vii) the net economic effect of any changes from the Stalking Horse Agreement, if any; (viii) the net value to be received by the Debtor's estate including consideration of any amounts required to be paid to the Stalking Horse Bidder; (ix) the bidder's pertinent management and operations experience, and (x) such other considerations the Debtor and Consultation Parties deems relevant.

b. Debtor Shall Conduct the Auction. The Debtor's professionals shall direct and preside over the Auction on behalf of the Debtor via Zoom. At the start of the Auction, Debtor's counsel shall describe the terms of the Opening Bid. The Auction shall be transcribed by a court reporter. The Debtor shall maintain a written transcript of all bids made and announced at the Auction, including the Opening Bid, all applicable Overbids, and the Successful Bid.

c. Terms of Overbid. An "Overbid" is any bid made at the Auction subsequent to the announcement of the Opening Bid. To submit an Overbid for purposes of the Auction, a Qualified Bidder must comply with the following conditions:

(i) Minimum Overbid Increment and Deadline. After the Opening Bid is announced, all subsequent Overbids, if any, shall provide for total consideration to the Debtor (net of the amount for any Break-Up Fee) with a value that exceeds the value of the consideration under the Opening Bid by an incremental amount that is not less than $250,000 (the "Minimum Overbid Increment"), unless otherwise announced at the Auction, consistent with the terms of these Bidding Procedures. For all Qualified Bids, the Minimum Overbid Increment for each Overbid round must be made in cash.

(ii) Conclusion of Each Overbid Round. Upon the solicitation of each round of applicable Overbids, the Debtor may announce a deadline

Case: 21-40363 Doc# 360 Filed: 12/17/21 Entered: 12/17/21 18:48:53 Page 40 of 116

(the "Overbid Round Deadline") by which time any Overbids must be submitted to the Debtor and Consultation Parties.

(iii) Announcing Highest or Otherwise Best Bid. Subject to each Overbid Round Deadline, the Debtor shall announce whether it, in consultation with the Consultation Parties, has identified in the applicable Overbid round, one or more Overbids as being higher or otherwise better than the Initial Minimum Overbid for such asset package, or in subsequent rounds, the Overbid(s) previously designated as the prevailing highest or otherwise best bid for a given asset package (for each asset package, collectively, the "Prevailing Highest Bid"). After each round of bidding, including the initial round, the Debtor shall disclose to all Qualified Bidders the material terms of any Overbid(s) designated as the Prevailing Highest Bid, as well as the value attributed to such Prevailing Highest Bid.

(iv) Bids for Less than Substantially All Assets. The Debtor may, in consultation with the Consultation Parties, consider and accept bids for any portion of the Assets, as well as bids for substantially all of the Assets, and hold separate Auctions for portions of the Assets; provided, however, that the Debtor, in consultation with the Consultation Parties may consider and accept bids for less than substantially all of the Assets only so long as the value of such bids, in combination, constitute an Overbid, taking into consideration that if there are no accepted Overbids on the Lake Park Assets alone, the Stalking Horse Agreement provides that Pacifica shall purchase all Assets subject to the terms of the Stalking Horse Agreement and, in such circumstances, the Debtor shall seek Court approval to sell all Assets to the Stalking Horse Bidder at the Sale Hearing. There must be one or more buyers for all Assets at the completion of the Auction. The Debtor will not sell or seek Court authority to sell only one of the two Facilities.

d. Consideration of Overbids. The Debtor reserves the right, in its reasonable business judgment after consultation with the Consultation Parties, to adjourn the Auction one or more times to, among other things: (A) facilitate discussions between the Debtor and Qualified Bidders; (B) allow Qualified Bidders to consider how they wish to proceed; (C) consider and determine the current Prevailing Highest Bid at any given time during the Auction; and (D) give any Qualified Bidder the opportunity to provide the Debtor with such additional evidence as the Debtor, in its reasonable business judgment, may require that the Qualified Bidder (other than Stalking Horse Bidder) has sufficient internal resources, or has received sufficient debt and/or equity funding commitments, to consummate the proposed transaction at the prevailing Overbid amount.

e. Closing the Auction.

(i) The Auction shall continue until there is only one offer (which may consist of one Qualified Bid for substantially all of the Assets or more than one Qualified Bid for complementary portions of the Assets) that the Debtor determines, in the exercise of its business judgment and after consultation with the Consultation Parties, to be the highest or otherwise best offer for the Assets (one or more such Qualified Bids, the "Successful Bid," and the Qualified Bidder or Qualified Bidders making such Successful Bid, the "Successful Bidder").

(ii) After determining the Successful Bid and the Successful Bidder, the Debtor will also determine, in its business judgment and after consultation with the Consultation Parties, the Qualified Bidders(s) with the next highest or otherwise best bid(s) for the Assets (the "Backup Bid," and the Qualified Bidder(s) making such Backup Bid, the "Backup Bidder"), at which point the Auction will be closed.

(iii) The Debtor shall not consider any bids or Overbids submitted after the closing of the Auction, and any such bids or Overbids shall be deemed untimely and shall not constitute Qualified Bids. The determination of the Successful Bid and Backup Bid at the closing of the Auction shall be final, subject only to approval by this Court.

(iv) After the conclusion of the Auction, the Debtor shall ask that the Court declare the Successful Bidder and Backup Bidder and approve the sale. The Debtor shall thereafter file with this Court and serve upon all Qualified Bidders and parties that have requested notice in this case a notice identifying the Successful Bidder and the Backup Bidder.

(v) As promptly as practicable following the conclusion of the Auction, (a) the Successful Bidder will transfer via wire transfer of immediately available funds or such other form acceptable to the Debtor the amount of its Successful Bid net of its Earnest Money Deposit and Independent Consideration if applicable; and (b) the Debtor shall cause the Purchase Agreements for the Successful Bidder and the Backup Bidder to be filed with this Court.

(vi) Following the approval of the sale of the Assets to the Successful Bidder, if such Successful Bidder (a) fails to consummate a sale of the Assets by the Closing Deadline, (b) breaches such Successful Bidder's Purchase Agreement, or (c) otherwise fails to perform, the Debtor shall be authorized, but not required, to deem the Backup Bid(s) the Successful Bid(s) and the Debtor shall be authorized, but not required, to consummate the sale with the Qualified Bidder(s) submitting such Backup Bid(s) without further notice or orders of the Court. In the event that there are multiple Successful Bidders and/or Backup Bidders and only one of such Successful Bidders or Backup Bidders engages in the acts or omissions described in clauses (a) through (c) of the foregoing sentence, the Debtor may elect to close the contemplated transactions with some or all of the other Successful Bidders or Backup Bidders, as applicable.

f. Consent and Waiver as Condition to Bid. All Qualified Bidders at the Auction shall be deemed to have (i) consented to the Court's jurisdiction and constitutional authority to enter a final order in connection with any disputes relating to the Auction, and the construction and enforcement of the Potential Bidder's Modified Agreement, as applicable, (ii) waived any right to a jury trial in connection with such disputes, and (iii) waived any objection to these Bidding Procedures.

10. Acceptance of Successful Bid

The Debtor shall sell the Purchased Assets to the Successful Bidder(s) upon the approval of the Successful Bid(s) by the Court. The Debtor's presentation of a particular Qualified Bid to the Court for approval does not constitute the Debtor's acceptance of the Bid. The Debtor will be deemed to have accepted a Bid only when such Bid has been approved by the Court.

11. Sale Hearing

The auction and hearing to approve the sale of the Assets to the Successful Bidder (the "Sale Hearing") shall be conducted by the Court, via videoconference, on January 26, 2022 at 11:00 a.m. or as soon thereafter as the Court may hear the matter. Any objections to the Sale or Sale Motion (a "Sale Objection") shall be filed with the Court, together with proof of service, on or before 12:00 p.m. (prevailing Pacific Time) on January 19, 2022. The Debtor's reply to any Sale Objection must be filed no later than January 24, 2022.

Following the approval of the sale of the Assets to the Successful Bidder at the Sale Hearing, if such Successful Bidder (i) fails to consummate a sale of the Assets by the Closing Deadline, (ii) breaches such Successful Bidder's Purchase Agreement, or (iii) otherwise fails to perform, the Debtor shall be authorized, but not required, to deem the Backup Bid(s) the Successful Bid(s) and the Debtor shall be authorized, but not required, to consummate the sale with the Qualified Bidder(s) submitting such Backup Bid(s) without further notice or orders of the Court. In the event that there are multiple Successful Bidders and/or Backup Bidders and only one of such Successful Bidders or Backup Bidders engages in the acts or omissions described in clauses (i) through (iii) of the foregoing sentence, the Debtor may elect to close the contemplated transactions with some or all of the other Successful Bidders or Backup Bidders, as applicable.

The Sale Hearing may be adjourned or rescheduled without notice other than by announcement of the adjourned date at the Sale Hearing or in the agenda or notice filed in respect of such hearing.

12. Return of Earnest Money Deposit

Earnest Money deposits provided by Bidders (i) shall be held by the Debtor in one or more non-interest-bearing accounts on terms acceptable to the Debtor in its discretion, and (ii) shall not become property of the Debtor's estate nor become subject to any liens encumbering such accounts and/or the other funds therein absent further order of the Court. All Earnest Money deposits of Bidders not selected as the Successful Bidder or the Backup Bidder shall be returned to such Bidders no later than five business days following the close of the Auction. In no event shall interest or any other amounts in excess of the Earnest Money deposit be subject to refund.

The Earnest Money deposit of the Successful Bidder(s) shall be applied to the Purchase Price under such Successful Bidder's Purchase Agreement at the Closing thereunder. If a Backup Bidder consummates a Sale transaction under such Backup Bidder's Purchase Agreement, the Earnest Money deposit of such Backup Bidder will be applied to the Purchase Price under such Backup Bidder's Purchase Agreement at the Closing thereunder.

If a Successful Bidder fails (or Successful Bidders fail), or a Backup Bidder fails (or Backup Bidders fail), to consummate an approved sale, the Debtor shall be entitled to retain the Earnest Money deposit as part of their damages resulting from the breach or failure to perform by the Successful Bidder(s) or Backup Bidder(s), as applicable, as set forth in the applicable Purchase Agreement in addition to any and all rights, remedies, or causes of action that may be available to the Debtor.

13. Modifications

These Bidding Procedures may be modified in any manner consistent with the Debtor's fiduciary duties and applicable law only upon the express written consent of the Debtor in consultation with the Consultation Parties or by order of the Court; provided, however, that these Bidding Procedures shall not be modified in a way materially adverse to the Stalking Horse Bidder without its express written consent unless and until the first Overbid has been submitted at the Auction.

14. Reservation of Rights

Without prejudice to the rights of the Stalking Horse Bidder under the Stalking Horse Agreement, and subject to the limitations set forth in Section 13, the Debtor shall have the right, in consultation with the Consultation Parties, to adopt such other rules for the Bidding Procedures which, in the Debtor's business judgment, will better promote the goals of the Bidding Procedures, and which are not inconsistent with the Bidding Procedures, the Bidding Procedures Order, the Stalking Horse Agreement, the Bankruptcy Code, or any order of the Court. All such additional rules shall be communicated to the Qualified Bidders, and (if such modifications are made prior to the Bid Deadline) Potential Bidders. Without limiting the foregoing, the Debtor may determine to distribute or not distribute copies of other Qualified Bids to other Qualified Bidders prior to or during the Auction other than with respect to the distribution of the Opening Bid, and the disclosure of each Prevailing Highest Bid, as set forth above.

15. Fiduciary Duties

Nothing in these bid procedures will prevent the Debtor from exercising its fiduciary duties under applicable law.

To the extent that prior to the Closing, Seller was appealing any ad valorem tax assessment or otherwise engaged in a tax contest, any refund or reduction in taxes applicable to any year prior to the year in which the Closing occurs shall be and remain the property of Seller and if any such tax refund is paid to, received by or credited to Buyer, Buyer shall promptly remit such payment or a check for such credit to Seller. If after the Closing any taxes are assessed against the Premises for periods prior to the Closing, Buyer shall provide Seller notice of such taxes, which such notice shall (i) include any tax bill or related documentation; and (ii) set forth Buyer's calculations regarding the amount of such taxes which Buyer determines is allocated to Seller in sufficient detail and particularity to enable Seller to verify the amount of the taxes. Buyer and Seller agree to consult and resolve in good faith any such objection within ten (10) days of the due date of the tax. Seller shall be obligated to pay the portion of such taxes allocable to the period prior to the Closing at least five (5) days before such taxes become delinquent. If Seller fails to pay Seller's portion of such taxes at least five (5) days before such taxes become delinquent, then Buyer shall have the right to pay Seller's portion of such taxes and Seller shall be obligated to immediately reimburse Buyer for any such payments made by Buyer. Buyer acknowledges that Seller is a Section 501(c)(3) charitable organization that pays no or nominal property taxes but that pays assessments to the counties in which the Premises are located.

(b) Resident Monthly Service Fees. Residents' monthly service fees for the month of Closing shall be allocated as of the Closing Date; the portion thereof allocable to all time periods prior to the Closing Date shall be credited to Seller and the portion thereof allocable to the Closing Date and thereafter shall be allocable to Buyer. The Final Reconciliation shall appropriately net all items to reflect the net amount owed to Buyer or to Seller as a result of such reconciliation. The provisions of this Section 2.3 shall survive the Closing.

All amounts collected by Buyer shall be applied first to current fees due (and if collected in the month in which the Closing occurs, such fees shall be prorated between Buyer and Seller) and then to delinquencies. The provisions of this Section 2.6 shall survive the Closing.

With the consent of the Buyer, the Seller shall file a motion (the "Sale Procedures Motion") with the Court in the Case seeking approval of procedures for the sale of the Assets through a process that includes the Auction and seeking entry of the Sales Procedures Order substantially in the form attached to Schedule 2.7 hereof, within two (2) business days of the Effective Date. The Sale Procedures Motion shall seek approval of the sale of the Assets under Sections 363 and 365 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code and other applicable laws and rules and shall specifically request that the Court approve the transfer of the Assets to Buyer free and clear of liens and encumbrances other than Permitted Encumbrances and Assumed Contracts, specifically providing, without limitation, that any withdrawal liability to the Union Pension Fund (or any other related entity) shall not be assumed by Buyer. Seller shall diligently prosecute the Sale Procedures Motion, in good faith, with the goal of obtaining Court approval of the sale of the Assets to Buyer subject only to the Regulatory Clearances and Permitted Encumbrances and the terms and conditions of the Sale Procedures Order

(b) This Agreement is subject to the terms and conditions of the Sale Procedures Order. The Sale Procedures Order may provide that bidders, including the Buyer, may bid at the Auction on the Lake Park Assets and/or on the Forest Hill Assets. If an Auction is conducted in accordance with the Sale Procedures Order and if the Court thereafter finds and orders that a party other than the Buyer is the Successful Bidder (as defined in the Sales Procedures Motion) on the Lake Park Assets and the Court does not find and order that a party other than the Buyer is the Successful Bidder on the Forest Hill Assets,, then the Buyer shall (i) purchase the Forest Hill Assets on the terms set forth herein at a price that is the greater of: (x) $14,150,000.00, and (y) the highest and best bid the Buyer bid for the Forest Hill Assets at the Auction (such greater amount, the "Forest Hill Purchase Price"), and the Buyer shall assume and accept assignment of all the Assumed Forest Hill Residency Agreements (as defined in the Procedures Motion) and assume the Assumed Forest Hill Repayable Entrance Fee Liabilities (as defined in the Procedures Motion) on the terms set forth in this Agreement and in such circumstances shall not assume or accept assignment of the Lake Park Assumed Residency Agreements (as defined in the Procedures Motion) and not assume the Lake Park Repayable Entrance Fee Liabilities (as defined in the Procedures Motion). For the avoidance of doubt, Seller will not accept any bid at the Auction from any party other than the Buyer for Forest Hill Assets unless another party has made an offer that exceeds the Minimum Initial Overbid Amount (as that term is defined in the Sales Order) on the Lake Park Assets.

10.3 Offer of Employment. Buyer is not obligated to offer employment to, or hire, any employee, independent contractor or consultant of Seller at any time prior to or on or after the Closing Date. However, Buyer represents that it intends in good faith to offer employment to most of Seller's employee(s), provided such employment with Buyer commences on or after the Closing Date. Seller agrees not to interfere with such employment offers, and shall not induce, dissuade or discourage Seller's employee(s) from considering or accepting employment with Buyer on the terms and conditions offered by Buyer, as determined by Buyer in Buyer's sole and absolute discretion, subject to Section 10.6 of this Agreement.

10.4 Wages and Benefits. Buyer shall not be responsible for any wages, overtime, benefits, accrued, unused vacation or paid time off, severance, bonuses or any other obligations owed by Seller to Seller's employees. Seller shall not make any written or oral communications to its employees that assure Seller's employees that Buyer will hire any specific Seller employee. Buyer acknowledges the existing but expired union collective bargaining contract at Lake Park; Buyer reserves the right to negotiate with the union and makes no commitment to assume the union collective bargaining contract at Lake Park. The Closing is conditioned upon the entry of the Sale Order confirming that Buyer is not liable for any withdrawal liability of Seller. Seller shall pay or discharge in the Case any and all employment liability including, without limitation, wages, sick pay, vacation pay, pension obligations, pension withdrawal liability, or any and all other ERISA benefits of any kind.

10.5 Employee Contracts. Except as otherwise provided in Schedule 1(b) to this Agreement, Buyer is not assuming any of Seller's contracts with its employees, independent contractors or consultants, including, but not limited to, employment agreements, incentive compensation or bonus plans, severance plans, employee benefit plans, independent contractor agreements or consulting agreements.

10.6 WARN Act. Buyer agrees to make sufficient employment offers to preclude the need for any notice under the WARN Act or any applicable state counterpart statute. Buyer shall indemnify and hold harmless Seller with respect to any liability under the WARN Act or other applicable law arising from the actions taken by Buyer before, on, or after the Closing Date.

Section 11. Casualty and Condemnation.

Failure of Buyer to properly and timely give notice of termination shall mean that Buyer shall be deemed to have elected not to terminate this Agreement. For purposes of this Section 11. , a casualty shall be deemed to damage a "material portion" of the Facilities or Premises if the reasonable, documented cost to repair the damage exceeds fifteen percent (15%) of the Purchase Price.

Section 12. Representations, Warranties and Covenants of Seller.

Seller hereby represents, warrants and covenants to Buyer as follows:

12.1 Organization. Seller is a nonprofit public benefit corporation duly organized, validly existing, and in good standing under the laws of the State of California, duly authorized to conduct business in the State of California, with the legal power to own its properties and assets and to carry on its business as presently conducted.

Other than obtaining Court approval of this Agreement in the Case, Seller's execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement and all other agreements and instruments to be executed by it pursuant to this Agreement have been duly authorized by all necessary actions. The physical condition of the Facilities, including the fire panel and call system, is sufficiently improved and maintained to satisfy all licensure related inspections, and Seller shall be responsible for any and all repairs and maintenance to such systems necessary in order for Buyer to obtain the Regulatory Clearances.

12.7 Violations. There is no pending or, to Seller's knowledge, threatened, notice, suit, judgment, proceeding or investigation from any federal, state, city or local authority relating to any violation on or at the Premises or Facilities (including, but not limited to, any Department of Labor investigation or proceeding); and, to Seller's knowledge, there is no condition existing with respect to the Premises or Facilities that violates in any material respect any statute, ordinance, law or code regarding zoning, building, fire, air-pollution, or health law, or requires immediate improvement, alteration, addition, correction or other work on or about the Premises or Facilities, whether related to the Premises or Facilities or to the activities of any owner or occupant thereof. result in a lien, encumbrance or judgment against any part of or any interest in the Premises or the Facilities.

12.9 MAC. To Seller's knowledge, no MAC has occurred or, if a MAC has occurred, Seller has provided notice to Buyer within two (2) Business Days of such occurrence.

12.10 As-Is Sale; Release. Except with respect to (i) Seller's covenants, representations, and warranties expressly set forth in this Agreement and (ii) any loss, damage, injury, liability, claim, expense or demand directly arising out of this Agreement, Buyer acknowledges and agrees that Buyer is purchasing the Premises in its "as-is, where is, with all faults" condition as of the Closing. Except as expressly set forth in this Agreement, Seller has made no representations or warranties regarding the Premises, and Buyer shall have undertaken all inspections and examinations in connection with the Premises that Buyer deems necessary or appropriate under the circumstances (including, without limitation, the physical and environmental condition of the Premises, the zoning of the Premises, the Premises' compliance with applicable laws, the condition of any improvements on the Premises, and the availability or lack of entitlements). Buyer is relying strictly upon such inspections and examinations and the advice of its agents, consultants, contractors, vendors, and representatives. Except as described in this Agreement, neither Seller nor any representative, member, agent, employee, manager, broker, principal, partner, affiliate, or consultant of Seller is making or has made any warranty or representation (either express or implied) with respect to any part of the Premises as an inducement to Buyer to enter into this Agreement and buy the Assets or for any other purpose. Buyer hereby represents, warrants and covenants to Seller as follows:

13.2 Authority. Buyer has the full power, authority and financial and operational ability to enter into and to perform its obligations under this Agreement and all other agreements and instruments to be executed by it pursuant to this Agreement, and no approval or consent of, or notice to, any person, entity, or governmental agency or authority is necessary for Buyer to perform hereunder other than the approval of Agencies for Buyer to operate the Facilities. 13.5 No Financing. Buyer has the funds to consummate the transactions contemplated this Agreement and does not require the commitment from any lending institution in order to fulfill its obligations hereunder.

13.6 Violations. There is no pending or, to Buyer's knowledge, threatened, notice, suit, judgment, proceeding or investigation from any federal, state, city or local authority relating to any alleged violation at any of Buyer's other facilities that could be reasonably be expected to cause any Agencies or the California Attorney General to delay or deny the Regulatory Clearances to Buyer.

13.7 Litigation. Subject to the disclosures set forth on Schedule 13.7 hereto, there is no litigation, arbitration or proceeding pending, or to Buyer's knowledge, threatened, before any court or administrative agency or any other condition that could adversely affect Buyer's performance hereunder.

Section 14. Conditions to Parties' Obligations.

14.1 Condition to Buyer's Obligations. The obligations of Buyer to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall be subject to the satisfaction or performance prior to or at Closing of the following conditions, of which items (a), (b), (c), (f) and (g) below may be waived by Buyer:

(a) Representations. Each of Seller's representations and warranties as set forth in Section 12. above shall be true in all material respects as of the Closing Date.

(f) No Material Real Estate Defect. No Material Real Estate Defect has first occurred with regard to the Premises, the Facilities or the other Assets after the Effective Date.

(g) No Unwaived MAC. No MAC has occurred that Buyer has not waived by written notice to Seller.

If any of the conditions precedent set forth in this Section 14.1 have not been materially satisfied or waived by the Closing Date, then Buyer may: (a) terminate this Agreement by notifying Seller and Escrow Agent prior to the Closing Date, in which event Seller shall promptly refund the Earnest Money to Buyer, and neither party shall have any further rights, duties or obligations to the other except as expressly provided to survive termination hereunder; or (b) waive such condition precedent to Closing, whereupon Buyer shall be deemed to have waived any rights or remedies under this Agreement with respect to the unsatisfied condition precedent and the purchase and sale hereunder shall be consummated in accordance with the terms and conditions hereof.

14.2 Condition to Seller's Obligations. The obligations of Seller to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall be subject to the satisfaction or performance prior to or at Closing of the following conditions, of which items (a) and (b) below may be waived by Seller:

Section 15. Indemnification.

15.1 Seller's Indemnity. Seller shall and does hereby indemnify, defend and hold Buyer and its managers, members, affiliates, agents and/or employees (each, a "Buyer Party", and collectively, the "Buyer Parties") harmless from and against any and all loss, cost, damage, claim, judgment, liability or expense, including court costs and reasonable actual attorneys' fees (individually a "Loss," and collectively "Losses") which may be asserted against or incurred or suffered by Buyer or the Buyer Parties from time to time by reason of or in connection with (i) any personal injury (including death) or property damage or claim of personal injury or property damage, made by Residents or by Seller's employees, contractors or invitees (unless caused by Buyer), occurring during Seller's ownership of the Assets before Closing; (ii) any material inaccuracy of any representation or warranty of Seller in this Agreement; or (iii) the non-fulfillment of any material covenant, undertaking, agreement or other obligation of Seller under this Agreement.

15.2 Buyer's Indemnity. Buyer shall and does hereby indemnify, defend and hold Seller and any partner (general or limited) of Seller and any current, former, and future trustee, officer, manager, member, partner, and employee (each, a "Seller Party", and collectively, the "Seller Parties") harmless from and against any and all Losses, which may be asserted against or incurred or suffered by Seller or Seller Parties from time to time by reason of or in connection with (i) any personal injury (including death) or property damage or claim of personal injury or property damage, made by Residents or by Buyer's employees, contractors or invitees (unless caused by Seller), occurring during Buyer's ownership of the Assets on or after the Closing; (ii) any material inaccuracy of any representation or warranty of Buyer in this Agreement; or (iii) the non-fulfillment of any material covenant, undertaking, agreement or other obligation of Buyer under this Agreement.

15.3 Survival. Except as otherwise provided herein, the several representations and warranties of the parties contained in this Agreement and a party's right to indemnity in accordance with this Section 15. shall survive the Closing Date and shall remain in full force and effect thereafter for a period of one (1) year after the Closing Date and shall be effective with respect to any material inaccuracy therein or breach thereof, notice of which shall have been duly given within such one (1) year period in accordance with Section 15.4 hereof after which one (1) year period they shall terminate and be of no further force or effect.

15.4 Indemnification Procedure. After the incurrence of any Loss by any Buyer Party or any Seller Party, which might give rise to indemnification hereunder, the party seeking indemnification (the "Indemnitee") shall deliver to the party from which indemnification is sought (the "Indemnitor") written notice of such Loss within fifteen (15) days of Indemnitee's becoming aware thereof; provided, however, that delay or failure to so notify the Indemnitor shall only relieve the Indemnitor of its obligations to the extent, if at all, that it is prejudiced by reasons of such delay or failure. The Indemnitor shall have a period of thirty (30) days within which to respond thereto. If the Indemnitor accepts responsibility within such thirty (30)-day period, the Indemnitor shall be obligated to compromise or defend such matter, at its own expense and through counsel reasonably satisfactory to the Indemnitee. If the Indemnitor does respond within such 30-day period and rejects responsibility for such matter in whole or in part, or does not respond, the Indemnitee shall be free to pursue, without prejudice to any of its rights hereunder, such remedies as may be available to the Indemnitee under applicable law at the Indemnitor's expense (subject, for the avoidance of doubt, to the limits set forth in this Article 14). The Indemnitee agrees to cooperate fully with the Indemnitor and its counsel in the defense against any such asserted liability. In any event, the Indemnitee shall have the right to participate in a non-controlling manner and at its own expense in the defense of such asserted liability. Any compromise of such asserted liability by the Indemnitor shall require the prior written consent of the Indemnitee and until such consent is obtained the Indemnitor shall continue the defense of such asserted liability. If, however, the Indemnitee refuses its consent to a bona fide offer of settlement containing a complete release of the Indemnitee from all liability in connection with the underlying claim that the Indemnitor wishes to accept, the Indemnitee may continue to pursue such matter, free of any participation by the Indemnitor, at the sole expense of the Indemnitee. In such event, the obligation of the Indemnitor to the Indemnitee shall be equal to the lesser of (i) the amount of the offer of settlement which the Indemnitee refused to accept plus the costs and expenses of the Indemnitee prior to the date the Indemnitor notifies the Indemnitee of the offer of settlement; or (ii) the actual out-of-pocket amount the Indemnitee is obligated to pay as a result of the Indemnitee's continuing to pursue such matter. The Indemnitor shall be entitled to recover from the Indemnitee any additional expenses incurred by the Indemnitor as a result of the decision of the Indemnitee to pursue such matter. So long as the Indemnitor is reasonably contesting any such claim in good faith, the Indemnitee shall not pay or settle such claim without the Indemnitor's prior written consent; provided that the Indemnitee may pay or settle such claim if it waives its right to indemnity therefor from the Indemnitor.

15.5 Reduction for Insurance. The amount which the Indemnitor is required to pay to, for, or on behalf of the Indemnitee pursuant to this Article 14 shall be reduced (including, without limitation, retroactively) by any insurance proceeds actually recovered by or on behalf of the Indemnitee in reduction of the related indemnifiable loss (the "Indemnifiable Loss"). Amounts required to be paid, as so reduced, are hereinafter sometimes called an "Indemnity Payment." If the Indemnitee shall have received, or if the Indemnitor shall have paid on its behalf, an Indemnity Payment in respect of an Indemnifiable Loss and shall subsequently receive, directly or indirectly, insurance proceeds (which duplicate in whole or in part, the Indemnity Payment) in respect of such Indemnifiable Loss, then the Indemnitee shall promptly pay to the Indemnitor the amount of such insurance proceeds, or, if less, the amount of the Indemnity Payment. The parties hereto agree that the foregoing shall not affect the subrogation rights of any insurance companies making payments hereunder.

15.6 Limitations of Remedies.

(b) Notwithstanding anything in this Section 15. to contrary, no person shall be entitled to indemnification hereunder if it can be established by clear and convincing evidence that such person had knowledge on or prior to the Closing Date of the failure of any representation or warranty, or the breach of any covenant or agreement or the existence of any fact, event or circumstance, which may serve as the basis for bringing a claim for indemnification hereunder.

Section 16. Conduct of Business Pending Closing.

16.1 Ordinary Course of Business. Beginning on the Effective Date and continuing through the Closing Date; (i) Seller shall make no material change in the operation of the Facilities nor enter into any material contract other than in the ordinary course of business nor incur any material liability without the prior written consent of Buyer, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned, or delayed, and Seller shall make good faith efforts to ensure that the goodwill and operations of the Facilities and the relationships with Residents and employees are preserved in the ordinary course of business; (ii) Seller shall perform all maintenance and repairs necessary to keep the Facilities and Assets in good operating condition and repair, and shall not sell or remove any Inventory or any Fixtures, Furniture and Equipment except in the ordinary course of business; and (iii) Seller shall not, without the prior written consent of Buyer:

(a) enter into any material contract, agreement, lease or other commitment with a duration of more than 12 months or involving the expenditure of more than fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) with respect to the Facilities, except contracts to purchase operating supplies or services in the ordinary course of business;

(b) make any change in key personnel at the Facilities, including the executive director or other department heads; or

(c) enter into any employment arrangement, agreement or undertaking, or pay or promise to pay any fringe benefit, bonus or special compensation to employees, except "stay for pay" arrangements and filling vacated positions as needed.

16.2 Compensation. Except in the ordinary course of business and consistent with past practices, Seller shall not increase, except for annual cost of living, or promise any increase with respect to any salary or other form of compensation payable or to become payable to any of employees, and will not pay any bonus or make any other severance or retirement arrangement with any employees except as may have already been negotiated, be required to avoid legal action, or be required pursuant to Section 10.1 hereof.

16.3 Insurance. From the date hereof until the Closing Date, Seller shall, as long as such insurance continues to be available at reasonably affordable rates, continuously maintain insurance on the Facilities at no less than the levels maintained on the date hereof. Seller shall maintain, at Seller's expense, "tail" coverage with respect to its professional liability insurance policy (if it is a claims made policy) for two (2) years following the Closing Date and shall name Buyer as an additional named insured on such tail coverage.

Section 17. Transition.

17.1 Accounts Receivable. Seller shall immediately transmit to Buyer any payments on accounts of the Facilities arising after the Closing which may be delivered to Seller from third party payor sources for services rendered after the Closing. Buyer shall immediately transmit to Seller any payments on accounts of the Facilities arising after the Closing which may be delivered to Buyer from third party payor sources for services rendered prior to Closing. All payments received by Buyer shall be applied first to delinquencies and then to current obligations.

17.2 Cooperation. Seller and Buyer agree to cooperate with each other in all reasonable respects and to provide such information as is necessary to ensure a smooth and orderly transition of operation of the Facilities.

17.3 Medicare Change of Ownership Filings. Buyer and Seller acknowledge that the transfer of the operations at the skilled nursing facilities as contemplated under this Agreement will constitute a change of ownership of the skilled nursing facilities for purposes of participation in the Medicare program and will effect an assignment of the skilled nursing facilities' Medicare provider agreements and provider numbers to Buyer (or its designee). Buyer (or its designee) shall not reject the assignment of the skilled nursing facilities' Medicare provider agreement or provider number. Seller and Buyer (or its designee) will act diligently to make all necessary notifications and filings required under applicable law for Buyer (or its designee) to become the Medicare provider at the skilled nursing facilities. In addition, Seller and Buyer (or its designee) each agree to complete, execute and submit its portions of the CMS-855A forms with respect to the skilled nursing facilities as promptly as practicable following the Effective Date. Subject to the terms and provisions of this Agreement, Buyer (or its designee) may bill under Seller's Medicare provider enrollment agreement and use Seller's provider numbers for the skilled nursing facilities from the Closing Date until the earlier of the date that (a) Buyer (or its designee) receives the applicable Medicare certification notice (the so-called "tie-in" notice) which will enable it to receive reimbursements directly from Medicare for items and services furnished by the Facilities or (b) this Agreement is terminated in accordance with its terms.

17.4 Cost Reports. Seller shall prepare and file any Medicare cost reports for the Facilities related to the period prior to the Closing. Following the Closing, Seller shall be authorized to contact the business office manager or other persons with access to the information at the Facilities during normal business hours in order to obtain information needed to prepare the final Medicare cost reports with respect to claims filed with Medicare for the Facilities prior to the Closing, and Buyer (or its designee) shall provide Seller with such Facility records as Seller reasonably requests to complete such final cost reports.

17.5 Indemnification Under Third Party Payor Programs. Notwithstanding any other provisions in this Agreement to the contrary, Seller shall not have any liability whatsoever with respect to Losses relating to (a) Buyer's (or its designee's) furnishing of items or services, on or after the Closing Date, to any Third Party Payor Program beneficiaries or other patients, (b) Buyer's (or its designee's) financial accounting, coding, billing, cost reporting or claims submissions activities for its own account with respect to Third Party Payor Programs, or (c) Buyer's (or its designee's) retention of payments for the furnishing of such items and services. Buyer (or its designee) shall indemnify, defend and hold Seller harmless against and with respect to any Losses arising from the foregoing.

17.6 Survival. The provisions of this Section 17. shall survive the expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement and shall survive the Closing.

Section 18. Public Announcements.

Case: 21-40363 Doc# 360 Filed: 12/17/21 Entered: 12/17/21 18:48:53 Page 61 of 116

Each of the parties to this Agreement agrees not to make any public announcement or disclosure, and not to issue a press release, concerning the execution of this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby prior to Closing without the prior written approval of the other party, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned, or delayed, except to the extent necessary to make regulatory filings or as required by law or as may be necessary for such party to reveal to such party's lenders or proposed lenders; provided, however, that Seller shall be entitled to make such disclosures as may be necessary and appropriate to obtain the requisite approval of the bankruptcy court for the transactions contemplated hereunder and shall be entitled to disclose the status of the transactions contemplated hereunder to employees and Residents.

Section 19. Default.

19.1 Buyer's Default.

(a) If Buyer shall be in breach or default of any of the terms or conditions of this Agreement, then Seller shall give Buyer and Escrow Agent written notice specifying the nature of the default.

(b) Buyer shall have five (5) days from receipt of Seller's notice of default within which to cure the specified default. If Buyer does not cure such default within said five (5) day period or if such default is not waived in writing by Seller, then the Earnest Money, and all accrued interest thereon, shall be paid over to Seller and this Agreement shall automatically terminate and Seller and Buyer shall have no further rights, duties or obligations hereunder except as expressly survive the termination hereof.

(c) BUYER AND SELLER AGREE THAT IF BUYER DEFAULTS ON ITS OBLIGATION TO PURCHASE THE ASSETS PURSUANT HERETO, THE DAMAGES TO SELLER WOULD BE DIFFICULT AND IMPRACTICAL TO DETERMINE. ACCORDINGLY, BUYER AND SELLER HAVE AGREED TO FIX AS LIQUIDATED DAMAGES THE EARNEST MONEY SPECIFIED IN SECTION 5. , BUT ONLY TO THE EXTENT THERETOFORE DEPOSITED WITH ESCROW AGENT AND THE EARNEST MONEY SHALL BE RETAINED BY SELLER AS LIQUIDATED DAMAGES, AND SHALL CONSTITUTE SELLER'S SOLE AND EXCLUSIVE REMEDY FOR SUCH DEFAULT. Notice to Residents of Assumed Repayable Entrance Fee Liabilities and Assumption and Assignment of Residency Agreements: On or before January 5, 2022, the Debtor shall provide (a) to each Resident whose respective portion of the Assumed Repayable Entrance Fee Liabilities, calculated as of December 31, 2021, is greater than zero individual notice of the amount of such Resident's respective portion of the Assumed Repayable Entrance Fee Liabilities (each an "Entrance Fee Amount") and (b) individual notice to each current Resident (i) alerting such Resident that the Debtor has sought to assume and assign that Resident's Residency Agreement to the Successful Bidder, (ii) providing the additional cure amount ("Resident Cure Amount"), if any, for assuming that Resident's Residency Agreement, and (iii) providing notification of the Resident's right to seek adequate assurance of future performance as contemplated in Section 365(f)(2)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code ("Resident Notice"). Any Resident that objects to the amount of the Entrance Fee Amount or Resident Cure Amount set forth in its Resident Notice must file an objection thereto by January 19, 2022 and serve it on the Notice Parties (listed below) and otherwise in accordance with applicable rules ("Service Requirements").

If a Resident does not timely object to a Resident Notice, it will be barred from objection to its Entrance Fee Amount, Resident Cure Amount, or assumption and assignment of its Residency Agreement, other than based on a lack of adequate assurance of future performance. If an objection to an Entrance Fee Amount or Resident Cure Amount is timely filed and is not resolved prior to the Sale Hearing, it will be resolved at the Sale Hearing.

After the conclusion of the Auction, the Debtor shall file with the Court and serve on each current Resident a notice ("Assumption and Assignment Notice") identifying the Successful Bidder, identifying the executory contracts, unexpired leases and other liabilities of the Debtor that the Successful Bidder seeks to have the Debtor assume and assign to the Successful Bidder ("Assumed Agreements"), and providing the Successful Bidder's assurance of future performance of the Assumed Agreements, as applicable. Any Resident that objects to the adequacy of the assurance of future performance of his, her, or their respective Residency Agreement must file an objection with the Court ("Resident Assurance Objection") and serve it in accordance with the Service Requirements prior to the Sale Hearing. If a Resident does not timely file and serve a Resident Assurance Objection, such Resident will be barred from objecting to the adequacy of the assurance of future performance and assignment of his, her, or their Residency Agreement to the Successful Bidder.

Notice of Cure Amounts for Executory Contracts Other than Assumed Residency Agreements: On or before January 9, 2022, the Debtor will file with the Court and serve a notice to contract counterparties under executory contracts and unexpired leases which are not Assumed Residency Agreements (collectively "Non-Resident Contract Counterparties"), setting forth the Debtor's calculation of each Non-Resident Contract Counterparty's cure amount, if any, that would be owed if the Debtor determines to seek to assume and assign its executory contract or unexpired lease, and alerting such Non-Resident Contract Counterparty that its agreement may be assumed and assigned to the Successful Bidder ("Cure Notice"). Any Non-Resident Contract Counterparty that objects to the cure amount set forth in the Cure Notice must file an objection on or before January 19, 2022 and serve in accordance with the Service Requirements. The Debtor's service of a Cure Notice on any party shall not constitute or be deemed a determination or admission by the Debtor and its estate or any other party in interest that such contract, lease, or other agreement is, in fact, an executory contract or unexpired lease within the meaning of the Bankruptcy Code or that the Debtor will assume and assign any particular contract, lease, or other agreement.

If a Non-Resident Contract Counterparty does not timely object to a Cure Notice, it will be barred from objecting to the Debtor's designated cure amount and assumption and assignment of its executory contract or unexpired lease with the Debtor other than based on a lack of adequate assurance of future performance. If an objection to a Cure Notice is timely filed and is not resolved prior to the Sale Hearing, it will be resolved at the Sale Hearing.

Notice on the Non-Resident Contract Counterparties. After the conclusion of the Auction, the Debtor shall serve the Assumption and Assignment Notice on the Non-Resident Contract Counterparties. Any Non-Resident Contract Counterparty that objects to the adequacy of the assurance of future performance must file an objection with the Court ("Non-Resident Assurance Objection") and serve it in accordance with the Service Requirements prior to the Sale Hearing. If a Non-Resident Contract Counterparty does not file and serve a Non-Resident Assurance Objection prior to the Sale Hearing, such party will be forever barred from objecting to the adequacy of the assurance of future performance and assignment of its executory contract or unexpired lease to the Successful Bidder. The inclusion of a contract, lease, or other agreement on an Assumption and Assignment Notice shall not constitute or be deemed a determination or admission by the Debtor and its estate or any other party in interest that such contract, lease, or other agreement is, in fact, an executory contract or unexpired lease within the meaning of the Bankruptcy Code or that the Debtor will assume and assign any particular contract, lease, or other agreement.

In the event the Debtor seeks to close a sale to the Backup Bidder, the Debtor shall provide prompt written notice thereof to all recipients of Resident Notices and Cure Notices, which parties shall have three business days to object in accordance with the Service Requirements, solely on the basis of any changed circumstances since the date of the Sale Hearing.

2. I submit this Declaration in support of Debtor's Motion for Entry of an Order (i) Approving Bidding Procedures in Connection with the Sale of Substantially All of the Debtor's Assets; (ii) Approving Procedures for the Assumption and Assignment of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases; (iii) Approving Stalking Horse Bidder and Break-up Fee; and (iv) Granting Related Relief (the "Motion").

3. For a substantial period of time, the Debtor has been sustaining severe operating losses.

4. In my opinion and the opinion of the Debtor, these substantial operating losses cannot quickly and readily be reversed or rectified and it is necessary that the Debtor expeditiously enter into a sale or merger transaction with a highly qualified and financially sound entity.

5. On May 20, 2021, upon motion by the debtor, the bankruptcy court entered an order authorizing the Debtor to employ B.C. Ziegler & Company ("Ziegler"), a highly-qualified investment banking firm, to develop and implement a sale or merger process ("Sale Process").

6. Ziegler quickly went to work orchestrating that process. Ziegler contacted approximately one hundred potentially interested parties, entered into a non-disclosure agreement with and circulated a comprehensive "offering memorandum" to those parties who expressed interest in a possible transaction, and engaged many of those parties in direct, one-on-one discussions. In response to the offering memorandum, Ziegler elicited non-binding letters of interest from ten potential purchasers or merger partners, including Pacifica.

7. Thereafter, the Debtor's counsel, Neal L. Wolf, assisted Ziegler in conducting what amounted to an extensive and exhaustive de facto auction process. In a highly transparent manner, Ziegler and Mr. Wolf called upon and encouraged potential buyers and merger partners to enhance their respective proposals. In response, Pacifica and certain other interested purchasers enhanced their respective proposals on two or more occasions. Ultimately, Pacifica made what the Debtor determined to be the most advantageous proposal.

8. Pacifica conditioned the amount of its final, and highest, proposal on the conduct of a "private sale" transaction by the Debtor. Pacifica indicated that, if there were to be a court-supervised auction process at which it were designated as merely a "stalking horse" bidder, the Pacifica offer would be reduced by approximately $2 million and Pacifica would require a $1.5 million "break-up fee."

9. Debtor and Pacifica subsequently executed a purchase and sale agreement for Pacifica's purchase of substantially all of the Debtor's assets (such agreement as subsequently amended by Debtor and Pacifica, the "Original Purchase and Sale Agreement").

10. On November 23, 2021 the Court entered an Order Approving the Sale of Substantially All of Debtor's Assets to Pacifica Companies, LLC Free and Clear of Any Liens and Encumbrances [Dkt. No. 348]. Unfortunately, however, on November 29, 2021, Pacifica exercised its right to terminate, without liability, the Original Purchase and Sale Agreement.

11. After Pacifica's termination of the Original Purchase and Sale Agreement, the Debtor determined in its business judgment to conduct a competitive bid-and-sale process for the orderly sale of substantially all of the Debtor's Assets under sections 363 and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code. After further arm's-length negotiations, the Debtor and Pacifica, as the stalking horse bidder (the "Stalking Horse Bidder," and Pacifica's bid, the "Stalking Horse Bid") entered into an that certain Purchase and Sale Agreement, dated as of December 17, 2021 (the "Stalking Horse Agreement").[2] A true and correct copy of the Stalking Horse Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 1.

12. The terms and conditions identified in the Stalking Horse Agreement are subject to higher and better bids at an auction on either or both of the Debtor's facilities located at (a) 1850 Alice St., Oakland, CA 94612, along with the CNMH Corporate Office Building located at 201 19th Street, Oakland, CA 94612 (collectively, "Lake Park") and (b) 511 Gibson Ave., Pacific Grove, CA 93950, along with the Pacific Grove Parking Garage located at 26 Sinex Ave., Pacific Grove, CA 93950 (collectively, "Forest Hill" and, together with Lake Park, the "Facilities"); provided, however, that if the Stalking Horse Bidder is the successful bidder on the Forest Hill property alone, the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement shall be in effect for purposes of the acquisition of the Forest Hill Assets, assumption of the Assumed Forest Hill Residency Agreements and assumption of the Assumed forest Hill Repayable Entrance Fee Liabilities and not in connection with acquisition of the Lake Park Assets or assumption of the Lake Park Residency Agreements or Assumed Lake Forest Repayable Entrance Fee Liabilities.

13. As consideration for and as a material inducement to the Stalking Horse Bidder conducting its due diligence and entering into the Stalking Horse Agreement, the Debtor agreed to certain bid procedures and protections. Sale of each of the two Facilities is subject to a $500,000 break-up fee ("Single Facility Break-up Fee") in the event the Stalking Horse Bidder is not the successful bidder on one Facility at an auction for substantially all of the Debtor's Assets ("Auction") and a $1,000,000 break-up fee (together with the Single Facility Break-up Fee the "Break-up Fee") in the event the Stalking Horse Bidder is not the successful bidder on both Facilities at the Auction. The Debtor also agreed that to the extent the Stalking Horse Bidder submits any overbids at the Auction and it overbids on one Facility on the approved terms for overbids, it may apply the Single Facility Break-up Fee as a credit toward the purchase price of one facility, or may apply the Break-Up Fee as a credit toward the purchase price of both Facilities.

14. The Debtor is currently projected to lose approximately $500,000 in operations and professional fees each month. It is in the best interests of the Debtor, its estate, and the Debtor's creditors for the Debtor to conduct a sale of substantially all of the Debtor's Assets as quickly as possible because the sooner the Debtor sells the Assets, the quicker the Debtor can pass operation of its Facilities to one or more new, financially strong, operators and both slow and ultimately reverse the Debtor's financial hemorrhaging.

2.2 Repayment Liability. Buyer expressly agrees to assume and accept assignment of the Assumed Contracts on the Closing Date and shall subsequently pay, honor and discharge when due and payable all liabilities arising out of the Assumed Contracts. Without limiting the foregoing, Buyer shall assume (a) Seller's liability for the repayable portion of any Resident Entrance Fee Payments the Seller received prior to the May 7, 2021 entry of the Restricted Account Order in the maximum amount of Twenty Million Seven Hundred Thirty-One Thousand Seven Hundred Thirty-Eight and No/100 Dollars ($20,731,738), subject to audit and verification at or prior to the Closing (the "Non-Restricted Entrance Fee Liability") and (b) Seller's liability, as of the Closing Date, for the repayable portion of any Resident Entrance Fee Payments the Seller received between May 7, 2021 and the Closing Date (the "Restricted Entrance Fee Liability," and together with the Non-Restricted Entrance Fee Liability, the "Repayment Liability").

2.3 Prorations at Closing.

(a) Expenses, Costs and Charges. The following items shall be prorated between Seller and Buyer as of the Closing Date. Seller shall be responsible for such items prior to the Closing Date and Buyer shall be responsible for such items on and after the Closing Date:

(i) real and personal property taxes and assessments for the calendar year in which the Closing occurs, giving recognition to any discount available for earliest payment. If taxes are prorated on an estimated basis rather than the actual tax for the year in which the Closing occurs, the parties shall adjust the prorated amount when such actual tax is known, based on the final tax bill for the year in which the Closing occurs;

(ii) water, fuel, electricity, telephone, garbage collection, sewage, and other utility service charges and expenses; and

(iii) any other accrued and apportionable operating costs, charges and expenses, including without limitation those under the Assumed Contracts.

Case: 21-40363 Doc# 360-1 Filed: 12/17/21 Entered: 12/17/21 18:48:53 Page 12 of 64

To the extent that prior to the Closing, Seller was appealing any ad valorem tax assessment or otherwise engaged in a tax contest, any refund or reduction in taxes applicable to any year prior to the year in which the Closing occurs shall be and remain the property of Seller and if any such tax refund is paid to, received by or credited to Buyer, Buyer shall promptly remit such payment or a check for such credit to Seller. If after the Closing any taxes are assessed against the Premises for periods prior to the Closing, Buyer shall provide Seller notice of such taxes, which such notice shall (i) include any tax bill or related documentation; and (ii) set forth Buyer's calculations regarding the amount of such taxes which Buyer determines is allocated to Seller in sufficient detail and particularity to enable Seller to verify the amount of the taxes. No later than fifteen (15) days prior to the due date for paying such taxes, Seller shall notify Buyer of any reasonable objections Seller may have to Buyer's calculations regarding the amount of such taxes which Buyer determined is allocated to Seller. Buyer and Seller agree to consult and resolve in good faith any such objection within ten (10) days of the due date of the tax. Seller shall be obligated to pay the portion of such taxes allocable to the period prior to the Closing at least five (5) days before such taxes become delinquent. If Seller fails to pay Seller's portion of such taxes at least five (5) days before such taxes become delinquent, then Buyer shall have the right to pay Seller's portion of such taxes and Seller shall be obligated to immediately reimburse Buyer for any such payments made by Buyer. Buyer acknowledges that Seller is a Section 501(c)(3) charitable organization that pays no or nominal property taxes but that pays assessments to the counties in which the Premises are located.

(b) Resident Monthly Service Fees. Residents' monthly service fees for the month of Closing shall be allocated as of the Closing Date; the portion thereof allocable to all time periods prior to the Closing Date shall be credited to Seller and the portion thereof allocable to the Closing Date and thereafter shall be allocable to Buyer. Buyer and Seller hereby recognize and agree that some Resident monthly service fees for the month of Closing will not have been collected as of the Closing Date. Therefore, the parties agree to estimate such amounts on the Closing Statement and adjust such estimate post-Closing as hereinafter provided.

Within thirty (30) days after the Closing Date, representatives of Seller and Buyer shall prepare and deliver to each other a schedule itemizing the adjustments to costs, charges and expenses, together with Resident monthly service fees (the "Initial Reconciliation"). The Initial Reconciliation shall include appropriate detail to identify the items being adjusted. A final reconciliation of all expenses, costs, charges, service fees and Resident monthly service fees shall be prepared and delivered by representatives of Buyer and Seller to each other within ninety (90) days after the Closing Date (the "Final Reconciliation"). The Final Reconciliation shall appropriately net all items to reflect the net amount owed to Buyer or to Seller as a result of such reconciliation. (g) No Unwaived MAC. No MAC has occurred that Buyer has not waived by written notice to Seller.

If any of the conditions precedent set forth in this Section 14.1 have not been materially satisfied or waived by the Closing Date, then Buyer may: (a) terminate this Agreement by notifying Seller and Escrow Agent prior to the Closing Date, in which event Seller shall promptly refund the Earnest Money to Buyer, and neither party shall have any further rights, duties or obligations to the other except as expressly provided to survive termination hereunder; or (b) waive such condition precedent to Closing, whereupon Buyer shall be deemed to have waived any rights or remedies under this Agreement with respect to the unsatisfied condition precedent and the purchase and sale hereunder shall be consummated in accordance with the terms and conditions hereof.

14.2 Condition to Seller's Obligations. The obligations of Seller to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall be subject to the satisfaction or performance prior to or at Closing of the following conditions, of which items (a) and (b) below may be waived by Seller:

Section 15. Indemnification.

15.1 Seller's Indemnity. Seller shall and does hereby indemnify, defend and hold Buyer and its managers, members, affiliates, agents and/or employees (each, a "Buyer Party", and collectively, the "Buyer Parties") harmless from and against any and all loss, cost, damage, claim, judgment, liability or expense, including court costs and reasonable actual attorneys' fees (individually a "Loss," and collectively "Losses") which may be asserted against or incurred or suffered by Buyer or the Buyer Parties from time to time by reason of or in connection with (i) any personal injury (including death) or property damage or claim of personal injury or property damage, made by Residents or by Seller's employees, contractors or invitees (unless caused by Buyer), occurring during Seller's ownership of the Assets before Closing; (ii) any material inaccuracy of any representation or warranty of Seller in this Agreement; or (iii) the non-fulfillment of any material covenant, undertaking, agreement or other obligation of Seller under this Agreement.

15.2 Buyer's Indemnity. Buyer shall and does hereby indemnify, defend and hold Seller and any partner (general or limited) of Seller and any current, former, and future trustee, officer, manager, member, partner, and employee (each, a "Seller Party", and collectively, the "Seller Parties") harmless from and against any and all Losses, which may be asserted against or incurred or suffered by Seller or Seller Parties from time to time by reason of or in connection with (i) any personal injury (including death) or property damage or claim of personal injury or property damage, made by Residents or by Buyer's employees, contractors or invitees (unless caused by Seller), occurring during Buyer's ownership of the Assets on or after the Closing; (ii) any material inaccuracy of any representation or warranty of Buyer in this Agreement; or (iii) the non-fulfillment of any material covenant, undertaking, agreement or other obligation of Buyer under this Agreement.

15.3 Survival. Except as otherwise provided herein, the several representations and warranties of the parties contained in this Agreement and a party's right to indemnity in accordance with this Section 15. shall survive the Closing Date and shall remain in full force and effect thereafter for a period of one (1) year after the Closing Date and shall be effective with respect to any material inaccuracy therein or breach thereof, notice of which shall have been duly given within such one (1) year period in accordance with Section 15.4 hereof after which one (1) year period they shall terminate and be of no further force or effect.

15.4 Indemnification Procedure. After the incurrence of any Loss by any Buyer Party or any Seller Party, which might give rise to indemnification hereunder, the party seeking indemnification (the "Indemnitee") shall deliver to the party from which indemnification is sought (the "Indemnitor") written notice of such Loss within fifteen (15) days of Indemnitee's becoming aware thereof; provided, however, that delay or failure to so notify the Indemnitor shall only relieve the Indemnitor of its obligations to the extent, if at all, that it is prejudiced by reasons of such delay or failure. The Indemnitor shall have a period of thirty (30) days within which to respond thereto. If the Indemnitor accepts responsibility within such thirty (30)-day period, the Indemnitor shall be obligated to compromise or defend such matter, at its own expense and through counsel reasonably satisfactory to the Indemnitee. If the Indemnitor does respond within such 30-day period and rejects responsibility for such matter in whole or in part, or does not respond, the Indemnitee shall be free to pursue, without prejudice to any of its rights hereunder, such remedies as may be available to the Indemnitee under applicable law at the Indemnitor's expense (subject, for the avoidance of doubt, to the limits set forth in this Article 14). The Indemnitee agrees to cooperate fully with the Indemnitor and its counsel in the defense against any such asserted liability. In any event, the Indemnitee shall have the right to participate in a non-controlling manner and at its own expense in the defense of such asserted liability. Any compromise of such asserted liability by the Indemnitor shall require the prior written consent of the Indemnitee and until such consent is obtained the Indemnitor shall continue the defense of such asserted liability. If, however, the Indemnitee refuses its consent to a bona fide offer of settlement containing a complete release of the Indemnitee from all liability in connection with the underlying claim that the Indemnitor wishes to accept, the Indemnitee may continue to pursue such matter, free of any participation by the Indemnitor, at the sole expense of the Indemnitee. In such event, the obligation of the Indemnitor to the Indemnitee shall be equal to the lesser of (i) the amount of the offer of settlement which the Indemnitee refused to accept plus the costs and expenses of the Indemnitee prior to the date the Indemnitor notifies the Indemnitee of the offer of settlement; or (ii) the actual out-of-pocket amount the Indemnitee is obligated to pay as a result of the Indemnitee's continuing to pursue such matter. The Indemnitor shall be entitled to recover from the Indemnitee any additional expenses incurred by the Indemnitor as a result of the decision of the Indemnitee to pursue such matter. So long as the Indemnitor is reasonably contesting any such claim in good faith, the Indemnitee shall not pay or settle such claim without the Indemnitor's prior written consent; provided that the Indemnitee may pay or settle such claim if it waives its right to indemnity therefor from the Indemnitor.

15.5 Reduction for Insurance. The amount which the Indemnitor is required to pay to, for, or on behalf of the Indemnitee pursuant to this Article 14 shall be reduced (including, without limitation, retroactively) by any insurance proceeds actually recovered by or on behalf of the Indemnitee in reduction of the related indemnifiable loss (the "Indemnifiable Loss"). Amounts required to be paid, as so reduced, are hereinafter sometimes called an "Indemnity Payment." If the Indemnitee shall have received, or if the Indemnitor shall have paid on its behalf, an Indemnity Payment in respect of an Indemnifiable Loss and shall subsequently receive, directly or indirectly, insurance proceeds (which duplicate in whole or in part, the Indemnity Payment) in respect of such Indemnifiable Loss, then the Indemnitee shall promptly pay to the Indemnitor the amount of such insurance proceeds, or, if less, the amount of the Indemnity Payment. The parties hereto agree that the foregoing shall not affect the subrogation rights of any insurance companies making payments hereunder.

15.6 Limitations of Remedies.

(b) Notwithstanding anything in this Section 15. to contrary, no person shall be entitled to indemnification hereunder if it can be established by clear and convincing evidence that such person had knowledge on or prior to the Closing Date of the failure of any representation or warranty, or the breach of any covenant or agreement or the existence of any fact, event or circumstance, which may serve as the basis for bringing a claim for indemnification hereunder.

Section 16. Conduct of Business Pending Closing.

16.1 Ordinary Course of Business. Beginning on the Effective Date and continuing through the Closing Date; (i) Seller shall make no material change in the operation of the Facilities nor enter into any material contract other than in the ordinary course of business nor incur any material liability without the prior written consent of Buyer, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned, or delayed, and Seller shall make good faith efforts to ensure that the goodwill and operations of the Facilities and the relationships with Residents and employees are preserved in the ordinary course of business; (ii) Seller shall perform all maintenance and repairs necessary to keep the Facilities and Assets in good operating condition and repair, and shall not sell or remove any Inventory or any Fixtures, Furniture and Equipment except in the ordinary course of business; and (iii) Seller shall not, without the prior written consent of Buyer:

(a) enter into any material contract, agreement, lease or other commitment with a duration of more than 12 months or involving the expenditure of more than fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) with respect to the Facilities, except contracts to purchase operating supplies or services in the ordinary course of business;

(b) make any change in key personnel at the Facilities, including the executive director or other department heads; or

(c) enter into any employment arrangement, agreement or undertaking, or pay or promise to pay any fringe benefit, bonus or special compensation to employees, except "stay for pay" arrangements and filling vacated positions as needed.

16.2 Compensation. Except in the ordinary course of business and consistent with past practices, Seller shall not increase, except for annual cost of living, or promise any increase with respect to any salary or other form of compensation payable or to become payable to any of employees, and will not pay any bonus or make any other severance or retirement arrangement with any employees except as may have already been negotiated, be required to avoid legal action, or be required pursuant to Section 10.1 hereof.

16.3 Insurance. From the date hereof until the Closing Date, Seller shall, as long as such insurance continues to be available at reasonably affordable rates, continuously maintain insurance on the Facilities at no less than the levels maintained on the date hereof. Seller shall maintain, at Seller's expense, "tail" coverage with respect to its professional liability insurance policy (if it is a claims made policy) for two (2) years following the Closing Date and shall name Buyer as an additional named insured on such tail coverage.

Section 17. Transition.

17.1 Accounts Receivable. Seller shall immediately transmit to Buyer any payments on accounts of the Facilities arising after the Closing which may be delivered to Seller from third party payor sources for services rendered after the Closing. Buyer shall immediately transmit to Seller any payments on accounts of the Facilities arising after the Closing which may be delivered to Buyer from third party payor sources for services rendered prior to Closing. All payments received by Buyer shall be applied first to delinquencies and then to current obligations.

17.2 Cooperation. Seller and Buyer agree to cooperate with each other in all reasonable respects and to provide such information as is necessary to ensure a smooth and orderly transition of operation of the Facilities.

17.3 Medicare Change of Ownership Filings. Buyer and Seller acknowledge that the transfer of the operations at the skilled nursing facilities as contemplated under this Agreement will constitute a change of ownership of the skilled nursing facilities for purposes of participation in the Medicare program and will effect an assignment of the skilled nursing facilities' Medicare provider agreements and provider numbers to Buyer (or its designee). Buyer (or its designee) shall not reject the assignment of the skilled nursing facilities' Medicare provider agreement or provider number. Seller and Buyer (or its designee) will act diligently to make all necessary notifications and filings required under applicable law for Buyer (or its designee) to become the Medicare provider at the skilled nursing facilities. In addition, Seller and Buyer (or its designee) each agree to complete, execute and submit its portions of the CMS-855A forms with respect to the skilled nursing facilities as promptly as practicable following the Effective Date. Subject to the terms and provisions of this Agreement, Buyer (or its designee) may bill under Seller's Medicare provider enrollment agreement and use Seller's provider numbers for the skilled nursing facilities from the Closing Date until the earlier of the date that (a) Buyer (or its designee) receives the applicable Medicare certification notice (the so-called "tie-in" notice) which will enable it to receive reimbursements directly from Medicare for items and services furnished by the Facilities or (b) this Agreement is terminated in accordance with its terms.

17.4 Cost Reports. Seller shall prepare and file any Medicare cost reports for the Facilities related to the period prior to the Closing. Following the Closing, Seller shall be authorized to contact the business office manager or other persons with access to the information at the Facilities during normal business hours in order to obtain information needed to prepare the final Medicare cost reports with respect to claims filed with Medicare for the Facilities prior to the Closing, and Buyer (or its designee) shall provide Seller with such Facility records as Seller reasonably requests to complete such final cost reports.

17.5 Indemnification Under Third Party Payor Programs. Notwithstanding any other provisions in this Agreement to the contrary, Seller shall not have any liability whatsoever with respect to Losses relating to (a) Buyer's (or its designee's) furnishing of items or services, on or after the Closing Date, to any Third Party Payor Program beneficiaries or other patients, (b) Buyer's (or its designee's) financial accounting, coding, billing, cost reporting or claims submissions activities for its own account with respect to Third Party Payor Programs, or (c) Buyer's (or its designee's) retention of payments for the furnishing of such items and services. Buyer (or its designee) shall indemnify, defend and hold Seller harmless against and with respect to any Losses arising from the foregoing.

17.6 Survival. The provisions of this Section 17. shall survive the expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement and shall survive the Closing.

Section 18. Public Announcements.

Each of the parties to this Agreement agrees not to make any public announcement or disclosure, and not to issue a press release, concerning the execution of this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby prior to Closing without the prior written approval of the other party, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned, or delayed, except to the extent necessary to make regulatory filings or as required by law or as may be necessary for such party to reveal to such party's lenders or proposed lenders; provided, however, that Seller shall be entitled to make such disclosures as may be necessary and appropriate to obtain the requisite approval of the bankruptcy court for the transactions contemplated hereunder and shall be entitled to disclose the status of the transactions contemplated hereunder to employees and Residents.

Section 19. Default.

19.1 Buyer's Default.

(a) If Buyer shall be in breach or default of any of the terms or conditions of this Agreement, then Seller shall give Buyer and Escrow Agent written notice specifying the nature of the default.

(b) Buyer shall have five (5) days from receipt of Seller's notice of default within which to cure the specified default. If Buyer does not cure such default within said five (5) day period or if such default is not waived in writing by Seller, then the Earnest Money, and all accrued interest thereon, shall be paid over to Seller and this Agreement shall automatically terminate and Seller and Buyer shall have no further rights, duties or obligations hereunder except as expressly survive the termination hereof.

(c) BUYER AND SELLER AGREE THAT IF BUYER DEFAULTS ON ITS OBLIGATION TO PURCHASE THE ASSETS PURSUANT HERETO, THE DAMAGES TO SELLER WOULD BE DIFFICULT AND IMPRACTICAL TO DETERMINE. ACCORDINGLY, BUYER AND SELLER HAVE AGREED TO FIX AS LIQUIDATED DAMAGES THE EARNEST MONEY SPECIFIED IN SECTION 5. , BUT ONLY TO THE EXTENT THERETOFORE DEPOSITED WITH ESCROW AGENT AND THE EARNEST MONEY SHALL BE RETAINED BY SELLER AS LIQUIDATED DAMAGES, AND SHALL CONSTITUTE SELLER'S SOLE AND EXCLUSIVE REMEDY FOR SUCH DEFAULT. SELLER AGREES THAT THESE LIQUIDATED DAMAGES SHALL BE IN LIEU OF ANY OTHER MONETARY RELIEF OR OTHER REMEDY, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION SPECIFIC PERFORMANCE, TO WHICH SELLER OTHERWISE MIGHT BE ENTITLED UNDER THIS AGREEMENT, AT LAW OR IN EQUITY. Ziegler & Company ("Broker") and Buyer and Seller each agree to indemnify and hold the other harmless from all loss, costs, damage or expense, including reasonable attorney's fees incurred by the other as a result of any claim arising out of the acts of the indemnifying party for a commission, finder's fee, or similar compensation made by any other broker, finder or other party. Broker is to be paid a commission by Seller pursuant to a separate agreement and Broker shall not be deemed a party or third party beneficiary of this Agreement. The representations and warranties contained herein shall survive the Closing.

Section 21. Miscellaneous.

21.1 Further Assurances. Each of the parties will, at any time before, at, or after the Closing Date, sign, execute and deliver (or cause others to do so) all documents and instruments to do, or cause to be done, all such acts and things as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this Agreement.

Nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to confer upon any party, other than the parties hereto, and their respective successors and assigns, any rights, remedies, obligations or liabilities under or by reason of this Agreement.

21.9 Delays or Omissions. No delay or omission to exercise any right, power, or remedy accruing to any party hereto, upon any breach or default of any other party hereto, shall impair any such right, power or remedy, nor shall it be construed to be a waiver of any such breach or default, or any acquiescence therein, or of or in any similar breach or default thereafter occurring. Nothing in this Assignment and Assumption Agreement, whether express or implied, is intended, nor shall any provision contained herein be construed, to confer any rights or remedies under or by reason of this Assignment and Assumption Agreement on any persons other than the parties hereto (and their respective successors and permitted assigns), nor is anything in this Assignment and Assumption Agreement intended to relieve or discharge the obligation or liability of any third persons to Seller or Buyer, nor shall any provision contained herein give any third party any right of subrogation or action over or against Seller or Buyer. California-Nevada Methodist Homes (the "Debtor"), the debtor and debtor in possession in the above-captioned Chapter 11 case (the "Chapter 11 Case"), hereby files this motion (the "Motion") for entry of an order, in whole or part substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A, pursuant to sections 363 and 365 of Title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101 et seq. (the "Bankruptcy Code"), and Rules 6004 and 6006 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure ("Bankruptcy Rules") (i) approving the sale of substantially all of the Debtor's assets (the "Assets") free and clear of any claims, liens, and encumbrances in the Assets, with any such claims, liens, and encumbrances to attach to the proceeds of the sale, subject to certain exceptions as set forth in the Stalking Horse Agreement (as defined below) and consistent with the Sale Procedures (as defined below) (ii) approving the assumption and assignment of certain executory contracts and unexpired leases, and (iii) granting related relief.

In support of the Motion, the Debtor relies upon the accompanying Memorandum of Points and Authorities, the Declaration of Neal L. Wolf (the "Wolf Declaration"), which is attached hereto as Exhibit B.

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. JURISDICTION

This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this Motion pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334, the Order Referring Bankruptcy Cases and Proceedings to Bankruptcy Judges, General Order 24 (N.D. Cal. Feb. 22, 2016), and Rule 5011-1(a) of the Bankruptcy Local Rules for the United States District Court for the Northern District of California (the "Bankruptcy Local Rules"). Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409. This matter is a core proceeding under 28 U.S.C. § 157(b). The Debtor consents to the entry by the Court of a final order with respect to this Motion.

II. BACKGROUND

A. The Debtor's Bankruptcy Case

On March 16, 2021 (the "Petition Date"), the Debtor commenced this Chapter 11 Case by filing a voluntary petition under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtor continues to operate its business and manage its property as a debtor in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. On April 8, 2021 and April 19, 2021, the United States Trustee for the Northern District of California appointed an Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the "Committee") in the Chapter 11 Case. No request has been made for the appointment of a trustee or examiner in the Chapter 11 Case.

Additional information about the Debtor's business and affairs, capital structure and prepetition indebtedness, and the events leading up to the Petition Date is set forth in the previously filed Declaration of Steven A. Nerger in Support of Debtor's "First Day Motions" [Dkt. No. 14].

B. The Sale Process

For a substantial period of time, the Debtor has been sustaining severe operating losses. See Wolf Declaration. In the opinion of the Debtor and its Chief Restructuring Officer, these substantial operating losses cannot quickly and readily be reversed or rectified and it is necessary that the Debtor expeditiously enter into a sale or merger transaction with a highly qualified and financially sound entity. Id.

1. The Initial Attempts to Sell the Assets

On May 20, 2021, upon motion by the Debtor, the bankruptcy court entered an order authorizing the Debtor to employ B.C. Ziegler & Company ("Ziegler"), a highly-qualified investment banking firm, to develop and implement a sale or merger process ("Sale Process"). Ziegler quickly went to work orchestrating that process. Ziegler contacted approximately one hundred potentially interested parties, entered into a non-disclosure agreement with and circulated a comprehensive "offering memorandum" to those parties who expressed interest in a possible transaction, and engaged many of those parties in direct, one-on-one discussions. In response to the offering memorandum, Ziegler elicited non-binding letters of interest from ten potential purchasers or merger partners. Id.

With the assistance of the Debtor's counsel, Neal L. Wolf, Ziegler then conducted what amounted to an extensive and exhaustive de facto auction process. The Debtor and Ziegler called upon and encouraged potential buyers and merger partners to enhance their respective proposals. In response, certain interested purchasers enhanced their respective proposals on two or more occasions. Ultimately, Pacifica Companies, LLC ("Pacifica" or "Stalking Horse Bidder") made what the Debtor determined to be the most advantageous proposal. Id.

Significantly, Pacifica conditioned the amount of its final, and highest, proposal on the conduct of a "private sale" transaction by the Debtor. Pacifica indicated that, if there were to be a court-supervised auction process at which it was designated as a "stalking horse" bidder, the Pacifica offer would be reduced by approximately $2 million and Pacifica would require a $1.5 million "break-up fee." Id. Debtor and Pacifica subsequently executed a purchase and sale agreement for Pacifica's purchase of substantially all of the Debtor's Assets (such agreement as subsequently amended by Debtor and Pacifica, the "Original Purchase and Sale Agreement"), including the Debtor's facilities located at (a) 1850 Alice St., Oakland, CA 94612, along with the CNMH Corporate Office Building located at 201 19th Street, Oakland, CA 94612 (collectively, "Lake Park"), and (b) 511 Gibson Ave., Pacific Grove, CA 93950, along with the Pacific Grove Parking Garage located at 26 Sinex Ave., Pacific Grove, CA 93950 (collectively, "Forest Hill" and, together with Lake Park, the "Facilities").

On November 23, 2021 the Court entered an Order Approving the Sale of Substantially All of Debtor's Assets to Pacifica Companies, LLC Free and Clear of Any Liens and Encumbrances [Dkt. No. 348]. On November 29, 2021, Pacifica terminated the Original Purchase and Sale Agreement.

2. The Sale Procedures and Public Auction

After Pacifica's termination of the Original Purchase and Sale Agreement, the Debtor determined in its business judgment to conduct a competitive bid-and-sale process for the orderly sale of substantially all of the Debtor's Assets under sections 363 and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code. After further arm's-length negotiations, the Debtor and Pacifica, as the stalking horse bidder, entered into that certain Purchase and Sale Agreement, which includes exhibits and schedules, dated as of December 17, 2021 (the "Stalking Horse Agreement").

On December 17, 2021, Debtor filed Debtor's Motion for Entry of an Order (i) Approving Bidding Procedures in Connection with the Sale of Substantially all of the Debtor's Assets; (ii) Approving Procedures for the Assumption and Assignment of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases; (iii) Approving Stalking Horse Bidder and Break-up Fee; and (iv) Granting Related Relief ("Sale Procedures Motion") [Dkt. No. 360.] On January 14, 2022, the Court entered an order (the "Sale Procedures Order") granting the Sale Procedures Motion. The Sale Procedures Order, among other things, approved Pacifica as the stalking horse bidder for the purchase of the Assets, approved procedures (the "Sale Procedures") for the sale of the Assets through a competitive auction process (the "Auction"), and approved notice procedures concerning the assumption and assignment of executory contracts and unexpired leases. The Sale Procedures are attached to the Sale Procedures Order as Exhibit 1.

The Sale Procedures require, among other things, that parties interested in bidding for the purchase of some or all of the Assets submit a written purchase agreement (each such agreement and the Stalking Horse Agreement, a "Purchase Agreement") signed by the bidder that identifies which of the Assets the bidder wishes to purchase and the terms on which the bidder is willing to acquire them, specifies the unexpired leases and executory contracts the bidder would like the Debtor to assume and assign to the bidder in addition to all Assumed Residency Agreements,[2] and requires that Bids include certain other terms and conditions. A Bid will only be a Qualifying Bid (as that term is used in the Sale Procedures) if, among other things, it offers to purchase some or all of the Assets at a price that meets or exceeds the sum of (a) the amount Pacifica agreed to pay for those Assets in the Stalking Horse Agreement, (b) the corresponding break-up fee for those Assets, and (c) $250,000.

The Sale Procedures permit the Debtor to sell the Assets to Pacifica pursuant to the terms of the Stalking Horse Agreement if the Debtor does not receive a Qualifying Bid from any other Potential Bidder on or before January 31, 2022. If the Debtor does receive such a Qualifying Bid by that date, the Debtor must hold the Auction on February 2, 2022, during which the Debtor may conclude to seek to sell the Assets to one or more bidders at the Auction (each, a "Successful Bidder") and to designate one or more backup bidders (each, a "Backup Bidder").

Pursuant to the Bidding Procedures, in certain circumstances there may be more than one Successful Bidder and/or Back-up Bidder for the collective Assets, but no sale may be approved which would result in Assets related to only one of the two Facilities being sold.

[2] Defined terms not defined herein have the meanings ascribed to them in the Bidding Procedures.

The Sale Procedures contain many additional terms. Parties are referred to the court approved Sale Procedures for their complete terms. To the extent of any inconsistencies between the description of the Sale Procedures in this Motion and the Sale Procedures themselves, the Sale Procedures prevail.

3. Assumption by the Buyer(s) of Certain Agreements

The Debtor has executed various residency agreements (each a "Residency Agreement") with its current and former Residents, many of which required the pertinent Resident(s) to pay the Debtor an entrance fee and require the Debtor to repay a portion of that entrance fee on the terms set forth in the pertinent Residency Agreements and applicable laws (such repayable amounts, collectively, the "Repayable Entrance Fee Liabilities"). The Sales Procedures require Pacifica, the Successful Bidder(s), and Backup Bidder(s) (each, as applicable, the "Buyer") to agree in their respective Purchase Agreements to assume the Repayable Entrance Fee Liabilities associated with any Assets they purchase.

The Debtor has agreed that it will assume and assign the Residency Agreements for each current resident of Lake Park to the Buyer for Lake Park and will assume and assign the Residency Agreements for each current resident of Forest Hill to the Buyer for Forest Hill (all such Residency Agreements for Lake Park or Forest Hill, collectively, the "Assumed Residency Agreements"). The Sales Procedures require each Buyer to likewise agree to accept the assignment to them of the Assumed Residency Agreements that correspond to the Facility they are buying.

The Sale Procedures also permit a Buyer to designate any additional unexpired leases and executory contracts that the Buyer would like the Debtor to assume and assign to that Buyer (all such designated agreements, collectively, the "Assumed Non-Residency Agreements").

III. RELIEF REQUESTED

By this Motion, the Debtor seeks entry of an order, pursuant to sections 363 and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code and Rules 6004 and 6006 of the Bankruptcy Rules, (i) approving the sale of the Assets free and clear of any claims, liens, and encumbrances in the Assets (the "Asset Sale"), with any such claims, liens, and encumbrances to attach to the proceeds of the sale, except to the extent otherwise set forth in the ultimately approved Purchase Agreement(s),[3] (ii) approving the assumption and assignment of certain of the Debtor's executory contracts and unexpired leases to the buyer(s) of the Assets, and (iii) granting related relief.

If no party (other than Pacifica) timely submits a Qualifying Bid, the Debtor seeks to sell the Assets to Pacifica in accordance with the terms of the Stalking Horse Agreement. If, on the other hand, one or more parties other than Pacifica timely submits a Qualifying Bid, the Debtor seeks to sell the Assets to the Successful Bidder(s) at the Auction in accordance with the terms set forth in the Purchase Agreement(s) for such Successful Bidder(s) or to one or more Backup Bidders in accordance with the terms set forth in the Purchase Agreement(s) for such Backup Bidder(s), if the pertinent Successful Bidder is unwilling or unable to complete its purchase of the Assets pursuant to the terms of that Successful Bidder's Purchase Agreement.

The Debtor also seeks entry of an order approving the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Residency Agreement to the Buyer(s) of the respective Facilities and the assignment and assumption of the Assumed Non-Residency Agreements (if any) that the Buyer(s) designated in their Purchase Agreement(s).

The Debtor respectfully submits that the proposed Asset Sale will yield a fair and reasonable price for the Assets, especially in light of the competitive Auction included in the Sale Procedures. The Debtor further submits that in light of the ongoing operating losses of the Debtor and the great likelihood that the Debtor will be unable to reverse

[3] As set forth in the Bidding Procedures and the Stalking Horse Agreement, certain liabilities of the Debtor are to be assumed by the ultimate Buyers and certain Permitted Encumbrances will attach to the Assets, upon closing ("Closing") of the Asset Sale or the applicable Asset Sale if there is more than one Buyer. Additionally, the Notice of Statutory Limitation of Transfer will need to be recorded pursuant to Health and Safety Code section 1779.4(aa).

those losses in the near future, an expeditious sale of the Assets is absolutely necessary and in the best interest of the Debtor, its creditors, and its estate.

IV. BASIS FOR RELIEF

A. The Court Should Approve the Asset Sale

Bankruptcy Code Section 363 provides that a debtor, "after notice and a hearing, may use, sell, or lease, other than in the ordinary course of business, property of the estate." 11 U.S.C. § 363(b)(1). A sale of a debtor's assets should be authorized pursuant to Bankruptcy Code section 363 if (a) a sound business purpose exists for sale; (b) the sale price is fair and reasonable; (c) notice to creditors was proper; and (d) the sale is made in good faith. In re Slates, No. BAP EC-12-1168-KIDJU, 2012 WL 5359489, at *11 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. Oct. 31, 2012); see also In re Delannoy, 833 F. App'x 116, 119 (9th Cir. 2020) (sale under Section 363 "must be proposed in good faith and for a proper purpose" and must "realize optimal value for the estate under the circumstances"); In re 240 North Brand Partners, Ltd., 200 B.R. 653, 659 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 1996) ("[D]ebtors who wish to utilize § 363(b) to dispose of property of the estate must demonstrate that such disposition has a valid business justification . . . [and] must also show that the sale is proposed in good faith."); see also Meyers v. Martin (In re Martin), 91 F.3d 389, 395 (3d Cir. 1996) ("Under Section 363, the debtor-in-possession can sell property of the estate . . . if he has an 'articulated business justification' . . . ."); In re Schipper, 933 F.2d 513, 515 (7th Cir. 1991) (same); In re Lionel Corp., 722 F.2d 1063, 1070 (2d Cir. 1983) (same). The Asset Sale satisfies each and every one of these criteria.

1. A sound business justification exists for the Asset Sale.

A sound business purpose for the sale of a debtor's assets outside the ordinary course of business may be found where such a sale is necessary to preserve the value of assets for the estate, its creditors or interest holders. See, e.g., In re Trans World Airlines, Inc., 322 F.3d 283, 293 (3d Cir. 2003); In re Motors Liquidation Co., 430 B.R. 65, 83 (S.D.N.Y. 2010). "Where the debtor articulates a reasonable basis for its business decisions (as distinct from a decision made arbitrarily or capriciously), courts will generally not entertain objections to the debtor's conduct." In re Johns-Manville Corp., 60 B.R. 612, 616 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1986).

The Debtor has sound business justifications for selling the Assets through the Asset Sale.

First, the Debtor believes that the Asset Sale will maximize the potential return to creditors by selling the Assets for going-concern value rather than on a liquidation basis which would result in substantially less value for the Assets and likely cause significant disruption in the lives of the residents living in and receiving care in the Debtor's Facilities.

Second, the Asset Sale will be conducted in connection with Court-approved Sale Procedures and a competitive Auction for the Assets designed to yield what the Debtor determines in its business judgment, in consultation with California Department of Health Care Access and Information, f/k/a Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development ("HCAI"), Wilmington Trust, National Association ("Wilmington"), B.H. Capital Ventures, LLC ("BHC"), California Department of Social Services ("CDSS"), and the Committee (collectively, the "Consultation Parties") is the highest or otherwise best offer or offers for the Assets and subject to approval of this Court.

Third, the Debtor believes that the Asset Sale will enable the Debtor to sell the Assets in the most expedient manner available under the circumstances. The Debtor is currently projected to lose approximately $500,000 each month, and the sooner it sells the Assets, the quicker the Debtor can pass operation of its Facilities to a new, financially strong, operator or operators and both slow and ultimately reverse the Debtor's financial problems. Additionally, the Debtor's Residents have long been living with uncertainty including regarding who or what will be operating the Facilities for years to come. The sooner a sale proceeds, the sooner Residents will have the peace of mind that should come with the end of a long sale effort.

2. The sale price is fair and reasonable

Rule 6004 of the Bankruptcy Rules specifically permits a debtor to sell property other than in the ordinary course through either a private sale or a public auction. Fed. R. Bank. P. 6004(f)(1). Here, in and after December 2021 Ziegler provided an executive summary concerning the proposed sale of the Assets to at least 134 potentially interested parties, circulated a comprehensive "offering memorandum" to those parties who expressed interest in a possible transaction, and engaged many of those parties in direct, one-on-one discussions. Many of those parties have entered into non-disclosure agreements with the Debtor and as a result have access to a comprehensive electronic due diligence room containing further information about the Debtor and its operations. See Wolf Declaration. Prior to the hearing on this Motion, subject to the timely receipt of one or more Qualified Bids by one or more Qualified Bidders in addition to Pacifica, the Debtor will conduct a competitive Auction pursuant to the Sale Procedures. Such an auction typically results in a sale of the assets at market value, which is a fair and reasonable price. See In re Lahijani, 325 B.R. 282, 289 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 2005); In re Aerogroup Int'l, Inc., 601 B.R. 571, 590 (Bankr. D. Del. 2019), motion to certify appeal denied, No. BR 17-11962 (CSS), 2020 WL 757892 (D. Del. Feb. 14, 2020), and aff'd, 620 B.R. 517 (D. Del. 2020) (results of a Section 363 sale pursuant to an auction "represents fair and reasonable consideration"). That is particularly true here, where the Sale Procedures require Debtor to consult with the Consultation Parties – which include counsel for the Committee, CDSS and all of the Debtor's secured creditors – regarding what is the highest or otherwise best bid at the Auction, if one occurs.

3. Notice of the Asset Sale is adequate and appropriate.

The Debtor has involved the Debtor's most significant creditors and stakeholders, as well as its state regulators in the Sale Process. The Debtor conducted frequent meetings with and now continually updates not only its secured creditors, HCAI, CDSS, Wilmington, and BHC, but also the Committee. The Debtor will also provide notice of the hearing on this Motion as described in Section V below..

4. The Asset Sale is proposed in good faith.

When considering whether an asset sale under Section 363 is proposed in good faith, courts look to whether the offer is free from "collusion between the seller and buyer, or any attempt to take unfair advantage of other potential purchasers." In re 240 N. Brand Partners, Ltd., 200 B.R. at 659. The Asset Sale will be the result of a competitive public Auction conducted by the Debtor pursuant to Sale Procedures approved by this Court. The final terms of the Asset Sale or Asset Sales will be approved by the Court after the Debtor, exercising its business judgment in consultation with the Consultation Parties, determined what it thinks is the highest or best offer(s). There has been and will be no collusion between the Debtor on the one hand and any Buyer on the other. Nor has there been any attempt to take unfair advantage of other potential purchasers. The Asset Sale is proposed in good faith.

B. The Court Should Approve the Asset Sale in Accordance with Bankruptcy Code Section 363(f)

The Asset Sale, as memorialized in the Stalking Horse Agreement or Purchase Agreement(s), is conditioned on the purchase being free and clear of any liens and encumbrances, except as otherwise set forth therein. The Buyer(s) would not have purchased the Assets or would have paid substantially less for the Assets if the sale of the Assets was not free and clear of such liens and encumbrances.

A debtor in possession may sell property of the estate "free and clear of any interest in such property," if, among other things, the holders of those interests consent to the sale (11 U.S.C. § 363(f)(2)), the sale results in consideration that exceeds the value of all liens on the property (id. § 363(f)(3)), or the holders of those interests "could be compelled, in a legal or equitable proceeding, to accept a money satisfaction of such interest" (Id. § 363(f)(5)).

The Debtor has conducted a title search on the Facilities and a UCC lien search and understands that HCAI, CDSS, Wilmington, and BHC are the Debtor's only secured creditors. Debtor anticipates that HCAI, CDSS, Wilmington, and BHC will each consent to the Asset Sale free and clear of their liens. See id. § 363(f)(2). Second, to the extent any of the Debtor's unsecured creditors claim an interest in the Debtor's property (which the Debtor denies), those creditors can be compelled to accept a money satisfaction of such interest, because their unsecured status only entitles them to a monetary payment, and "the term 'money satisfaction' does not mean 'full money satisfaction.'" In re Levitt & Sons, LLC, 384 B.R. 630, 648 (Bankr. S.D. Fla. 2008); see also 11 U.S.C. § 363(f)(2). Additionally, Repayable Entrance Fee Liabilities will be assumed by the ultimate buyer or buyers and Residency Agreements will be assumed and assigned, both as required by the Bidding Procedures.

C. The Buyer(s) Should Be Entitled to the Protections of Section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code.

Once a bankruptcy court approves the sale of a debtor's assets to a good-faith purchaser, a third-party generally can only invalidate that sale on appeal if they first obtain a stay of the sale and authorization pending appeal. 11 U.S.C. § 363(m). Section 363(m) therefore protects a good-faith purchaser by providing a degree of finality to the purchase transaction. In re Ewell, 958 F.2d 276, 280 (9th Cir. 1992).

Although the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules do not define "good faith," courts typically look to see whether the purchaser colluded with the debtor or other bidders or attempted to take "grossly unfair advantage of other bidders." Id. (citing In re Suchy, 786 F.2d 900, 902 (9th Cir.1985)).

The Debtor is conducting an open and arm's-length sale process approved by the Court and with the assistance of outside advisors. The Debtor intends to demonstrate at the hearing on the Motion that the Asset Sale to the Buyer(s) is at arm's length, without collusion or coercion, and in good faith. Accordingly, the Debtor requests entry of an order, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A, that includes an explicit finding that each Buyer of the Assets is a "good faith" purchaser within the meaning of section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtor believes that providing the protection of Bankruptcy Code section 363(m) will ensure that the Debtor will obtain the maximum price for the Assets.

D. The Court Should Approve the Assumption and Assignment of the Debtor's Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases.

1. Assignment and Assumption Is Appropriate

A debtor may, subject to court approval, assume and assign or reject executory contracts and unexpired leases under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code. 11 U.S.C. § 365(a). Courts routinely approve motions to assume and assign or reject executory contracts or unexpired leases upon a showing that a debtor's decision to take such action will benefit the debtor's estate and is an exercise of sound business judgment. See In re Pomona Valley Med. Group, Inc., 476 F3d 665, 670 (9th Cir. 2007); In re G.I. Indus., Inc., 204 F3d 1276, 1282 (9th Cir. 2000). The Debtor requests that the Court approve the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts and that the Assumed Contracts remain in full force and effect for the benefit of the Buyer(s) notwithstanding any provisions in any such Assumed Contracts, including those described in Bankruptcy Code sections 365(b)(2), (f)(1) and (f)(3), that prohibit such assignments, if any.

Assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts is an exercise of the Debtor's sound business judgment and likely will benefit the Debtor's estate because the assumption and assignment is an integral component of the Asset Sale, without which the Asset Sale would not be a viable option as they are necessary to operate the Assets and offer terms that the Bidder finds favorable. The assignment and assumption of the Assumed Residency Agreements will likely foster a positive relationship between the Buyer(s) and Residents. Moreover, it is unlikely that the Buyer(s) would be able to obtain the regulatory approval necessary to seamlessly transition the operation of the Facilities if they did not agree to continue to honor the terms of the Residency Agreements currently in force.

2. Any Defaults in the Assumed Contracts Will Be Cured.

Section 365(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that, if there has been a default in a debtor's unexpired lease or executory contract, other than certain nonmonetary defaults as set forth in the statute, such unexpired lease or executory contract may not be assumed unless, at the time of the assumption, (i) such default is cured or there is adequate assurance that such default will be cured, (ii) compensation or adequate assurance of compensation is provided for any actual pecuniary loss resulting from such default and (iii) adequate assurance of future performance under the contract or lease is provided. 11 U.S.C. § 365(b)(1)(A)–(C).

Pursuant to the terms of the Sales Procedures Order, the Debtor will send notices to each of the current Residents of the Debtor's Facilities (the "Resident Notices") providing notice of the proposed assignment and assumption of their Residency Agreement and the proposed amount (if any) that the Debtor must pay to cure any monetary defaults of the respective Residency Agreement. Pursuant to the terms of the Sales Procedures Order, the Debtor will also send notices (the "Cure Notices") to each non-resident counterparty for the executory contracts and unexpired leases that the Debtor may seek to assume and assign to a Buyer, informing such counterparties of the potential assumption of their respective agreements and the proposed amount (if any) that the Debtor must pay to cure any monetary defaults if the counterparty's agreement is assumed.

Current Residents and non-resident counterparties will be given sufficient time (as set forth in Sales Procedures Order) to object to the proposed assignment and assumption and to the cure amounts, if any, set forth in the applicable Resident Notices or Cure Notices. If no objection is timely filed with regard to a proposed cure amount, the cure amount shall be binding on the Debtor, the respective Buyer, and the applicable Resident or non-resident counterparty, in accordance with section 365(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code.

Additionally, notices of individual amounts of Repayable Entrance Fee Liabilities due to Residents, as determined by the Debtor as of December 31, 2021, shall be provided to Residents in accordance with the Sale Procedures and Residents have the opportunity to review and object to those amounts.

3. The Buyer(s) Will Provide Adequate Assurance of Future Performance

Section 365(f)(2)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code states that a debtor may assign its unexpired leases and executory contracts if, inter alia, the assignee provides "adequate assurance of future performance." 11 U.S.C. § 365(f)(2)(B). The meaning of "adequate assurance of future performance" depends on the facts and circumstances of each case, but should be given "practical, pragmatic construction." EBG Midtown South Corp. v. McLaren/Hart Env. Eng' g Corp. (In re Sanshoe Worldwide), 139 B.R. 585, 593 (S.D.N.Y. 1992); see also In re Fleming Co. Inc., 499 F.3d 300, 305 (3d Cir. 2007); Cinicola v. Scharffeberger, 248 F.3d 110, 120 (3d Cir. 2001). The Sales Procedures approved by the Court require each Buyer to submit, among other things, written evidence of their ability to provide adequate assurance of future performance under the relevant Assumed Contracts. The Sales Procedures also permit the affected Residents and non-resident counterparties to challenge the ability of a Buyer to provide adequate assurance at the hearing on this Motion.

The assumption and assignment of an Assumed Contracts will be subject to all of the provisions of such Assumed Contracts, in accordance with applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code and other applicable laws. The Sales Procedures are designed to ensure that any Buyer is financially able and prepared to undertake all of the obligations under the pertinent Assumed Contracts and all obligations under the applicable Purchase Agreement. The Debtor, together with the relevant Buyer(s), will establish, as necessary, at the hearing on this Motion, the requisite adequate assurance of future performance pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code with respect to the potential assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts. Consequently, assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts in connection with the Asset Sale is appropriate under the circumstances.

V. NOTICE

The Debtor will serve notice of the hearing on this Motion upon: (i) the Office of the United States Trustee; (ii) counsel to the Committee; (iii) CDSS ; (iv) HCAI; (v) Wilmington; (vi) Pacifica; (vii) all other entities that signed a non-disclosure or similar agreement with the Debtor at any time on or after the date of the commencement of this case in connection with the possible sale of Assets; (viii) SEIU National Industry Pension Fund; (ix) BHC; (x) all current Residents, (xi) all creditors listed on the Debtor's Schedules of Assets and Liabilities, as amended; (xii) all parties which have filed a proof of claim in this case; (xiii) all parties known to the Debtor to assert a lien or encumbrance in any of the Assets; and (xiv) all parties who have formally appeared in this Chapter 11 Case and requested service pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002. In light of the nature of the relief requested, the Debtor submits that no other or further notice is necessary. No prior application for the relief requested herein has been made to this or any other court.

VI. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, the Debtor respectfully requests that the Court enter an order approving this Motion and granting such other and further relief the Court may deem just and proper.

requested in the Motion is in the best interests of the Debtor, its creditors, its estate and all other parties in interest; and upon the record herein; and after due deliberation and sufficient cause appearing therefor,

IT IS HEREBY FOUND, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED THAT:

A. The Debtor [was/was not] required to conduct an Auction for the sale of the Assets because the Debtor [received/did not receive] at least one bid for the Assets by the January 31, 2022 deadline that the Debtor determined to be a Qualifying Bid as that term is used in this Court's January 14, 2022 Order Granting Debtor's Motion for Entry of an Order (i) Approving Bidding Procedures in Connection With the Sale of Substantially All of the Debtor's Assets; (ii) Approving Procedures for the Assumption and Assignment of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases; (iii) Approving Stalking Horse Bidder and Bid Protections; and (iv) Granting Related Relief ("Sales Procedures Order") (Dkt. No. 401).

B. [After the Auction concluded, the Debtor named _____ as the Successful Bidder and named _____ as the Backup Bidder (as those terms are used in the Sales Procedures Order) and filed copies of the Purchase Agreements for the Successful Bidder[s] and Backup Bidder[s]. Each Successful Bidder or Backup Bidder is referred to herein as a "Buyer."] [The Debtor filed a notice with the Court on January _, 2022 indicating that no party other than the Stalking Horse Bidder was deemed to be a Qualified Bidder and that an Auction would not be held.]

C. Good and sufficient cause has been shown for the entry of this Order granting the Motion to authorize Debtor sell the Assets to [Pacifica, as the stalking horse bidder (the "Buyer"),/the Buyer[s]] substantially on terms set forth in the [Stalking Horse Agreement/applicable Buyer's Purchase Agreement[s]] (the "Purchase Agreement[s]") and this Order (the "Asset Sale[s]").

D. The Debtor has articulated sound business justifications for selling the Assets to the Buyer[s] pursuant to the terms of the Purchase Agreement[s] and the additional relief granted through this Order.

E. The Assets are property of the Debtor's bankruptcy estate.

F. The sale process conducted by the Debtor for the sale of the Assets (the "Sale Process") and the [combined] purchase price of [$30,000,000.00/$_____ for the Successful Bidder[s] and $ _____ for the Backup Bidder[s]] (the "Purchase Price") and other terms as set forth in the Purchase Agreement[s] are both fair and reasonable. Approval of the Asset Sale[s] at this time and pursuant to the terms of the Purchase Agreement[s] and this Order is in the best interests of the Debtor, its creditors, its estate, and other parties in interest.

G. The Purchase Agreement[s] [was/were] negotiated in good faith and at arm's length between Debtor and Buyer[s]. The terms of the Purchase Agreement[s] are the result of the Sale Process which was fair and reasonable, and the Purchase Agreement[s] [is/are] not the product of fraud, collusion, an attempt to take unfair advantage of others, or misconduct on the part of Debtor or Buyer[s].

H. For purposes of this Order, "Interests" is defined as all liens, claims encumbrances and interests in the Assets exclusive of: (i) all liabilities and obligations under the Assumed Contracts, (ii) the Repayment Liability (as defined in the Stalking Horse Agreement), (iii) all additional liabilities assumed under the terms of the Purchase Agreement[s], (iv) the Permitted Encumbrances (as defined in the Stalking Horse Agreement), and (v) the requirements of the Notice of Statutory Limitation of Transfer to be recorded pursuant to Health and Safety Code section 1779.4(aa) ("Section 1779.4(aa) Notice"). For the avoidance of doubt, the Purchaser[s] will be liable for and under (i) to (iii) immediately above as of Closing and will take ownership of Assets at the time of Closing subject to (iv) to (v) immediately above.

I. The purchase of the Assets by the Buyer[s] pursuant to the Purchase Agreement[s] is in "good faith" as that term is used in Section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code and neither the Debtor nor [either] Buyer engaged in any action or inaction that would cause or permit [either of] the Asset Sale[s] to be avoided or damages or costs to be awarded to any party under Section 363(n) of the Bankruptcy Code.

J. B.H. Capital Ventures, LLC's ("BHC") does not object to the sale of the Assets on the terms set forth herein and pursuant to the Amended Final Order (I) Authorizing Debtor to Obtain Postpetition Financing, (II) Granting Adequate Protection, (III) Granting Superpriority Administrative Expense Claims, (IV) Granting Priming Liens Under Bankruptcy Code Section 364(d), and (V) Granting Related Relief [ECF #265], as the DIP Loan Order has been amended [ECF # 326] and as may be further amended or supplemented, (collectively, the "DIP Loan Order"), and on no other terms. Holders of other Interests in the Assets either consented to the Asset Sale[s] and/or could be compelled, in a legal or equitable proceeding, to accept a money satisfaction of such Interests.

K. Notice of the Asset Sale[s] and the terms of the Purchase Agreement[s] were sufficient under the circumstances, and no other or additional notice of the Asset Sale[s], the Hearing, the terms of the Purchase Agreement[s], or of the request for the relief granted herein is required.
