California Government Code section 12599.9 California Code of Regulations, title 11, section 315

Failure to electronically file Form PL-4 by July 15 of each calendar year may result in assessment of late fees and automatic suspension of registration status (Gov. Code, § 12586.1, Cal. Code Regs., tit. 11, § 341)

ATTACHMENT 2

(For Registry Use Only)

Name and registration number of registrant:

Complete to provide narrative answers that contain reasonably deemed, in good faith, confidential or trade secret information, in response to specific questions on Form PL-4, that permit use of Attachment 2. Specify the Part and Question number the response is for (e.g., Part B, Question 6). For each answer, explain why the information is reasonably deemed, in good faith, to be confidential or trade secret information. If an explanation is not given, the filing is deemed incomplete. Attachment 2 is the only portion of Form PL-4 not made publicly available. If the Attorney General finds information to be incorrectly deemed confidential or trade secret information, the Form PL-4 filing is required to be amended, and may result in the issuance of a cease and desist order, assessment of penalties, or other administrative action. See California Code of Regulations, title 11, section 315, subdivision (g).
