The Deuce Lounge and Casino would like the option to offer the following promotions on the condition that patrons will be aptly notified via flyers, advertisements, etc. prior to the commencement of the tournament:

- Splash the Pot
 - Rules of Play: The Splash the Pot Promotion involves a drawing where a bin, basket, or other non-electronic randomizer will be used. During pre-determined times and intervals of the tournament, a casino key employee will announce the commencement of the drawing. The casino key employee will then select a table by randomly choosing a card or other lamer from the randomizer. A card or lamer will depict a number that corresponds to each eligible poker table currently being used in the tournament. The cards or lamers, which are equally sized and colored, will be mixed within the randomizer. Then, one will be selected. Once that table number is determined, the house dealer on the drawn table will be instructed to finish the hand they are currently dealing. The key employee will place the pre-designated prize in the center of the table. No new players may enter the game in between these hands. The dealer will then deal the next hand. The player with the winning hand will win the pot of tournament chips and the added prize in the center of the table. In the event of a tie, the winning players will split the prize evenly when the prize is designated as cash. If the prize is an item or merchandise, the winners of the hand will be dealt one more hand. During this hand of play, there will be no betting. The highest hand wins the prize, but not the pot, as that would have already been split according to the rules previously approved by the Bureau.

- Prize: The Splash the Pot Promotion features a fixed prize element. The player who wins the hand at the randomly selected table will receive a prize ranging in value from $1 to $1,000 in the form of cash, casino chips, or other promotional items such as electronic devices, merchandise, or as pre-designated by the casino. - Lucky Drawing
 - Rules of Play: The Lucky Drawing Promotion involves a random drawing where a bin or other randomizer will be used. During pre-determined times and intervals of the promotion, Casino staff will announce the commencement of the drawing and collect player rewards tickets from each player seated at the eligible tournament game. Tickets will be collected over the course of the promotion and stored for the duration or collected at pre-determined times. Those tickets will then be placed in the drawing bin and will be rotated. Once the tickets are thoroughly mixed, a casino employee will randomly draw one ticket from the bin. The player who has their ticket drawn will be awarded the posted prize. If a ticket is drawn and the winner of the drawing is not present, the ticket will be placed back in the drawing bin and another will be drawn. This process will occur until a winner is selected and present to claim their prize. If tickets are used, they will not be returned.
 - Prize: The Lucky Drawing Promotion features a fixed prize element. The player who has their ticket randomly selected will receive a prize ranging in value from $25 to $50,000 in the form of cash, casino chips, or other promotional items such as vehicles, electronic devices, trips, etc. Prize amounts will be pre-determined and posted before being offered. (No new players may enter the game in between these hands)

The Deuce Lounge and Casino will at times make the selected drawing time(s) secret to the customers. This is to prevent the customers from only playing on a table for the exact time in question and then ceasing play the moment that the Splash the Pot promotion concludes. In the event that the times will not be displayed to the customers, they will still be pre-determined. These times will be listed on a card, time stamped at the cage, and placed in the key employee's care. If at any time a DOJ agent wishes to see the pre-determined drawing times, the key employee on duty will produce this time stamped document.

The dealer will then deal the next hand. The player with the winning hand also wins the prize in the center of the table.

In the event of a tie, the winning players will split the prize evenly when the prize is designated as cash. If the prize is merchandise or an item (Dvd's, cd's, books, etc.) then the winners of the hand will be dealt one more hand, of the poker game currently being played, with no betting involved, and the highest hand wins the prize (but not the pot, as that would have already been split according to standard poker rules). There will be no new collection taken for this tie-breaker hand.

On the hand and table that the Splash the Pot promotion occurs, no other promotion is attached to that outcome. For example, if a customer also gets a high hand as well as winning the Splash the Pot, they would only be eligible for the Splash the Pot.

Casino employees are eligible to participate in the promotion at all times.

8. Explain any prize distribution including prizes given to the winner, loser, or any other player or patron.

The player on the table with the highest valued hand, according to the game in question, wins the pre-determined prize. In the event of a tie, the prize is split amongst the eligible winners if it is cash, and a second hand will be dealt when the prize is pre-designated as an item. There is no extra collection taken for a tie-breaker hand.
