1.1 On August 11, 2010, the People of the State of California ("People"), by and through the Attorney General of the State of California ("Attorney General") filed a complaint for civil penalties and injunctive relief for violations of Proposition 65 and unlawful business practices in the Superior Court for the County of Alameda. The People's Complaint alleges that the named defendants failed to provide clear and reasonable warnings that their inflatable structures made with vinyl such as bounce houses, combos, obstacle courses and interactives (the "Products") contain lead and lead compounds (together "Lead"), and that use of, and contact with, those Products results in exposure to Lead, a chemical known to the State of California to cause cancer and reproductive harm. The Complaint further alleges that under the Safe Drinking Water and Toxic Enforcement Act of 1986, Health & Safety Code § 25249.6, also known as "Proposition 65," businesses must provide persons with a "clear and reasonable warning" before exposing individuals to these chemicals, and that the defendants failed to do so. The Complaint further alleges that the Lead levels in the Products exceed the standards set by the Consumer Product Safety Improvement Act ("CPSIA") of 2008. The Complaint also alleges that the violations of Proposition 65 and the CPSIA constitute unlawful acts in violation of the Unfair Competition Law, pursuant to Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

2. The Center for Environmental Health ("CEH") first brought the issue of Lead exposures from the Products to the attention of the Attorney General by issuing its first 60-Day Notice of Violation on February 19, 2010. On March 16, 2010, CEH issued a 60-Day Notice of Violation (the "Notice") to defendants Jump For Fun, Inc. and Jump For Fun National, Inc. ("Settling Defendants") alleging violations of Proposition 65 based on Settling Defendants introducing the Products into the stream of commerce thereby exposing individuals to Lead. CEH filed its case, Center for Environmental Health v. Cutting Edge Creations, Inc., et al., Alameda County Superior Court, Case No. RG 10-530300, on August 11, 2010, naming Settling Defendants as parties. CEH also seeks civil penalties and injunctive relief for alleged violations of Proposition 65. On October 25, 2010, the People's action was coordinated with CEH's action.

- 1.3 Settling Defendants are named as defendants in both the People's and CEH's Complaints.
- 1.4 Settling Defendants are corporations which employ more than ten (10) persons and employed ten or more persons at all times relevant to the allegations of the Complaints, and which manufacture, distribute, rent and/or sell Products (as defined below) in the State of California and/or have done so in the past four years.
- 1.5 For purposes of this Consent Judgment only, the People, CEH and the Settling Defendants stipulate that this Court has jurisdiction over the allegations of violations contained in the Notice and Complaints and personal jurisdiction over Settling Defendants as to the acts alleged in the Notice and Complaints, that venue is proper in Alameda County, and that this Court has jurisdiction to enter this Consent Judgment as a full and final resolution of all claims which were or could have been raised in the Complaints based on the facts alleged therein.
- 1.6 The People, CEH and Settling Defendants enter into this Consent Judgment as a full and final settlement of all claims relating to the Products (as that term is defined below) arising from the alleged failure to warn regarding the presence of Lead in such Products. Nothing in this Consent Judgment shall be construed as an admission by the Parties of any fact, conclusion of law, issue of law or violation of law, nor shall compliance with the Consent Judgment constitute or be construed as an admission by Parties of any fact, conclusion of law, issue of law or violation of law. Nothing in this Consent Judgment shall prejudice, waive or impair any right, remedy argument or defense the Parties may have in this or any other future legal proceedings. By execution of this Consent Judgment and agreeing to provide the relief and remedies specified herein, Settling Defendants do not admit any violations of Proposition 65, applicable Business & Professions Code sections or any other law or legal duty. Settling Defendants expressly assert that their Products do not require a warning under Proposition 65 and deny any liability whatsoever.
