[PROPOSED] CONSENT JUDGMENT AS TO CENTURY, LLC

1. INTRODUCTION

1.1 John Moore and Century, LLC

This Consent Judgment is entered into by and between plaintiff John Moore ("Moore" or "Plaintiff") and defendant Century, LLC ("Century"), with Plaintiff and Century collectively referred to as the "parties."

1.2 John Moore

Moore is an individual residing in the State of California who seeks to promote awareness of exposure to toxic chemicals and to improve human health by reducing or eliminating hazardous substances contained in consumer and commercial products.

1.3 Century, LLC

Plaintiff alleges that Century employs ten or more persons and is a person in the course of doing business for purposes of the Safe Drinking Water and Toxic Enforcement Act of 1986, California Health & Safety Code § 25249.6, et seq. ("Proposition 65").

1.4 General Allegations

Moore alleges that Century has manufactured, imported, distributed and/or sold medicine balls which contain phthalates, including di(2-ethylhexyl)phthalate ("DEHP"), without the requisite Proposition 65 warnings. DEHP is on the Proposition 65 list as known to cause cancer as well as birth defects and other reproductive harm.

1.5 Product Description

The products that are covered by this Consent Judgment are defined as follows: medicine balls containing DEHP including, but not limited to, Century Medicine Ball, #2484-6/8/10 (30 14215 26340 2). All such medicine balls containing DEHP are referred to hereinafter as the "Products."

1.6 Notice of Violation

On April 9, 2010, Moore served Century, LLC and various public enforcement agencies, with a document entitled "60-Day Notice of Violation" (the "Notice") that provided Century and public enforcers with notice of alleged violations of California Health & Safety Code § 25249.6 for failing to warn consumers that the Products sold by Century, exposed users in California to DEHP.

To the best of the parties' knowledge, no public enforcer has prosecuted the allegations set forth in the Notice.

1.7 Complaint

On June 2, 2010, Moore filed a complaint in the Superior Court in and for the County of Marin against Natco Products Corporation and Does 1 through 150, Moore v. Natco, et al., Case No. CIV-1002842 (the "Action"), alleging violations of California Health & Safety Code § 25249.6, based on the alleged exposures to DEHP contained in certain vinyl flooring products sold by Natco. On July 2, 2010, Moore filed a First Amended Complaint (the "Complaint") in the Action, renaming it as Moore v. Bell Sports, Inc., et al., adding Century, and other companies, as defendants, alleging additional violations of California Health & Safety Code § 25249.6 based on the alleged exposures to DEHP contained in Products sold by Century.

1.8 No Admission

Century denies the material, factual and legal allegations contained in Moore's Notice and Complaint and maintains that all products that it has sold, manufactured, imported and/or distributed in California, including the Products, have been and are in compliance with all laws. Nothing in this Consent Judgment shall be construed as an admission by Century of any fact, finding, issue of law, or violation of law, nor shall compliance with this Consent Judgment constitute or be construed as an admission by Century of any fact, finding, conclusion, issue of law, or violation of law, such being specifically denied by Century. However, this section shall not diminish or otherwise affect Century's obligations, responsibilities, and duties under this Consent Judgment.

1.10 Consent to Jurisdiction

For purposes of this Consent Judgment only, the parties stipulate that this Court has jurisdiction over Century as to the allegations contained in the Complaint, that venue is proper in the County of Marin and that this Court has jurisdiction to enter and enforce the provisions of this Consent Judgment.
