

PROPOSITION 65 SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

1. INTRODUCTION

1.1 The Parties

This Settlement Agreement (“Agreement”) is entered into by and between Keep America Safe and Beautiful (“KASB”) and Xcar Automotive Inc. dba Auto Parts Outlets and A Abigail (collectively “Auto Parts Outlets”), with KASB and Auto Parts Outlets each individually referred to as a “Party” and, collectively, the “Parties.” KASB is a California-based non-profit organization proceeding in the public interest pursuant to California Health & Safety Code § 25249.7(d) to ensure that chemicals known to the State of California to cause cancer, birth defects or other reproductive harm are disclosed in or eliminated from consumer products sold in California. KASB alleges Auto Parts Outlets is a person in the course of doing business for purposes of California Health & Safety Code § 25249.11(b).

1.2 Consumer Product Description

KASB alleges that Auto Parts Outlets manufactures, imports, sells, and distributes for sale in California Siphon Hoses containing di(2-ethylhexyl) phthalate (“DEHP”) and di-n-butyl phthalate (“DBP”) and that it does so without providing the health hazard warning KASB alleges is required by California Health & Safety Code § 25249.5 et seq. (“Proposition 65”). The “Products” covered by this Agreement are defined as, and specifically limited to, the A Abigail Gas Siphon Hose Pump Shaker Siphon for Gasoline Fuel Water Transfer Safe Multi-Purpose Self Priming Pump 6 Foot High Grade Hose 1/2” Valve, A7726F, X002B054TZ sold on the Amazon.com website, bearing the specific Amazon Standard Identification Number or ASIN “B07XFM6KB3.” DEHP is listed pursuant to Proposition 65 as a chemical known to the State of California to cause cancer and birth defects or other reproductive harm. DBP is listed pursuant to Proposition 65 as a chemical known to cause birth defects or other reproductive harm.

1.3 Notices of Violation

On September 11, 2020, KASB served Amazon.com, Inc. (“Amazon”), the California Attorney General and all requisite public enforcement agencies with a 60-Day Notice of Violation (“Notice”). In its Notice, KASB alleges Amazon violated Proposition 65 by failing to warn its customers and consumers in California the Products can expose users to DEHP and DBP. Auto Parts Outlets is the supplier who sold or offered the Products for sale on the Amazon.com, Inc. (“Amazon”) website. On January 21, 2025, KASB served Amazon, Xcar Automotive Inc., the California Attorney General and all requisite public enforcement agencies with an Amended Supplemental 60-Day Notice of Violation (“Supplemental Notice”). The Notice and Supplemental Notice are collectively referred to hereinafter as the “Notices.” It enters this agreement under principles of indemnity and contractual obligation to resolve the claims against Amazon alleged in KASB’s Notices. No public enforcer has commenced and is diligently prosecuting an action to enforce the allegations in the Notices.

1.3 No Admission

Auto Parts Outlets denies the factual and legal allegations contained in the Notices and maintains that all products it has sold or distributed for sale in California, including the Products comply with all laws. Neither any term of this Agreement nor Auto Parts Outlets’s compliance with this Agreement shall constitute or be construed as, an admission by Auto Parts Outlets of any fact, finding, legal issue or conclusion, or violation of law. This section shall not, however, diminish or otherwise affect Auto Parts Outlets’s obligations, responsibilities, and duties under this Agreement.
